Response of the Class of 2018 in Full Connection, and Newly Licensed Local Pastors:
We, like Elisha, receive that mantle with humility and in gratitude for the paths you have carved out. We not only follow in your footsteps, but hear the call to set out on our own journey of faith and service.

People:

We give thanks to God for your presence among us. You were called to “Word, Sacrament, and Order”, and to “Love, Justice, and Service” ministries. On many occasions, you have risen to serve above and beyond what was expected or required. We thank you for the love you have shown to God and God’s people. May your transition into retirement not be a shrinking from your calling, but rather, a turning of the page into a new beginning.

Closing Prayer

Closing Hymn

This Is a Day of New Beginnings (stanzas 1-4)

C. DAILY MINUTESTHURSDAY, JUNE 21, 2018*EXECUTIVE SESSION OF CLERGY MEMBERS – 3 P.M.

CLERGY SESSION CONVENES: In compliance with ¶¶ 605.7 of The Book of Discipline (2016), Bishop Paul L. Leeland convened an executive session of the clergy members of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference at 3 p.m. on Thursday, June 21, 2018 in George R. Stuart Auditorium, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina. After singing hymn 140, Great Is Thy Faithfulness, Bishop Leeland offered prayer.

PRIVILEGE MATTER: Bishop Leeland spoke a word of welcome and introduced Keith Wilson, conference musician, Ben Hill United Methodist Church, Atlanta GA, The Reverend Kimberly T. Ingram, conference secretary and director of ministerial services, and Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball, resident bishop, West Virginia Area, West Virginia Conference. The Bishop noted that 2018 marked the 50th Anniversary of the formation of The United Methodist Church.

PERMISSION TO BE PRESENT: At the request of Bishop Leeland, the clergy members in full connection approved that the conference musicians, identified guests, lay members of the Board of Ordained Ministry and local pastors be allowed to be present during the executive session.

BUSINESS QUESTION 17: After noting the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the responsibility of the bishop and the cabinet, and the meaning of “blameless” (not without error, weakness, or failure but with no complaints or charges) Bishop Leeland supplied the proposed response for business question 17 in regard to the character of the eight District Superintendents. Then each of the District Superintendents affirmed the character of the clergy serving in their districts and business question 17 was approved.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY REPORT: The Rev. Dr. Donald Jenkins, chairperson of the board, presented the report. He nominated the Rev. Paul B. Thompson for chairperson of the order of elder, and he was elected. The Reverend Gloria G. Hughes, chairperson of the order of deacon, announced the retreat of Deacons in full connection is scheduled for September 17-18, 2018 at Lake Junaluska. Grant Magness, founder of MIP (Mission Is Possible) will be the featured presenter. Dr. Jenkins mentioned the scholarship grants that had been awarded to assist seminary students and the work of the board to walk along side those candidates for ordained ministry as well as those whose status was changing through retirement, death, and vocational change.

BUSINESS QUESTIONS: The Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, registrar of the board of ordained ministry, supplied the proposed responses for business questions 18-27, and in each instance where a vote was required, the members approved.

ELECTION OF PROVISIONAL MEMBERS: The Rev. Kimberly Ingram, conference secretary and director of ministerial services, introduced and moved the election of three persons as provisional deacons and 18 persons as provisional elders in response to Business Question 28, and they were elected. (See Section V, Business of the Annual Conference, in the 2018 Journal)

BUSINESS QUESTIONS: Rev. Ingram supplied the proposed responses for business questions 29–31, and the members approved with the required vote.

ELECTION OF FULL CONNECTION MEMBERS: The Rev. Ingram introduced and moved the election of six persons as deacons in full connection, 18 persons as elders in full connection, and the recognition of Tae Wan (Joseph) Kim as an elder in full connection in response to Business Question 32. Following Bishop Leeland’s inquiry of the candidates, asking the traditional and historic questions and admonitions from The Book of Discipline (2016), and the ordinands’ responses with the prescribed responses, they were elected and greeted warmly by the clergy. The same persons just elected were approved for ordination as deacons or as elders in response to Business Questions 33 and 34. (See Section V, Business of the Annual Conference, in the 2018 Journal).

BUSINESS QUESTIONS: Rev. Ingram supplied the proposed responses for business questions 35-47, and in each instance where a vote was required, the members approved, and the necessary votes were received.

BUSINESS QUESTIONS: The Rev. Ann L. Duncan, secretary for the board of ordained ministry, supplied the proposed responses to business questions 49-72, 76, 77, and 80 and in each instance where a vote was required, the members approved. All other business questions were referenced for the body’s information. In response to business question 48, the Rev. Duncan requested the clergy to stand as she read the names of the members of the annual conference who had died since the last session and Bishop Leeland offered prayer. All of the business questions, considered as part of the executive session of the clergy, were approved as a whole.

TREASURY SERVICES: The Rev. Dr. R. Mark King, treasurer and director of administrative services, reported that the conference was looking to develop a third health option for active clergy for 2019 which would include a health savings account. He noted that the conference was continuing to address chronic health conditions such as diabetes, cardio-vascular disease, and depression. He announced that as result of the recent tax reform legislation reimbursement received for moving expenses will be reported as taxable income and any unreimbursed moving expenses are no longer deductible.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT TEAM: Rev. Ingram presented the report from the leadership development team. She listed the top four characteristics of leadership effectiveness:

- Focus on developing, coaching, and mentoring to enable lay leadership to improve performance
- Influence the actions and behaviors of others to accomplish changes in the local church
- Propel the local church to set and achieve significant goals through effective leadership
- Inspire the congregation through preaching

She noted the fall leadership development opportunities: Partnering with Laity, Using Influence to Manage Change and Transition, Mindset First: How to Achieve Conflict Transformation. Two preaching cohorts will be offered this fall. Other opportunities for support are being developed including financial development and clergy tax help.

ADJOURNMENT: The executive session of the clergy members adjourned at 4:15 p.m.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE OPENS WITH WORSHIP AND HOLY COMMUNION – 10:30 A.M.

The Rev. J. Zachery Christy, WNCC's youngest full connection clergy person, led the call to worship, followed by the singing of the processional hymns 154, All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name; and, What a Beautiful Name, sung by the Hood House Band. After an opening prayer given by the Rev. Kathleen Kilbourne, a video interlude was presented Remembering the Merger, which described the dismantling of the Central Jurisdiction in 1968 that structurally ended segregation. Kasey Kelly, Rev. Curtis Goforth, Maci Lynch, Sophie Lamb, and Pamela Shoffner led a responsive prayer of the church, modified from the 1968 General Conference liturgy. The Rev. Lauren Sims-Salata read the gospel lesson from Matthew 28:16-20 and the epistle lesson from 1 Timothy 3:14-16. After an introduction by Bishop Paul L. Leeland, Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball, resident bishop, West Virginia Area, West Virginia Conference, preached the sermon, "Go and Teach". Bishop Steiner Ball proclaimed that Paul's admonition to Timothy and Jesus' commission to the disciples declares that we are re-membered to God and one another, we rehearse and "swallow" the story that God will not let us go, so that we can teach the story of love and eternal life. We must see all the people and train ourselves to remember God's promises. Dr. Phyllis Worthy Dawkins, 18th president of Bennett College, brought greetings, gave thanks for the historic partnership between the conference and Bennett College and appreciated that the morning offering would benefit the school. Following the offertory, How Can It Be, sung by the Hood House Band, and the Doxology, Bishop Leeland, Bishop Steiner Ball, and assisted by Rev. Gloria Hughes, led the congregation in a prayer of confession and pardon and Great Thanksgiving. Bishop Leeland celebrated the sacrament of Holy Communion with the assistance of deacons in full connection, district superintendents, and conference staff. After singing of the hymn 545, The Church's One Foundation, and benediction by Bishop Steiner Ball, worship concluded and the conference recessed at 12:00 p.m. Jarvis Wilson, Atlanta, GA and Keith Wilson, Ben Hill UMC, North Georgia Conference, are the music leaders for annual conference.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE CONVENES – 1:30 P.M.

CONFERENCE CONVENES: With Bishop Paul L. Leeland, resident bishop of the Charlotte Area, presiding, the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church convened in the George R. Stuart Auditorium at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, on June 22, 2018 at 1:30 p.m.

CALL TO ORDER: Following the singing of hymn 553, And Are We Yet Alive, and an opening prayer by Kimberly Clarke, St. Matthews UMC (Greensboro, NP District), Bishop Leeland called the 51st session of the conference to order at 1:30 p.m.

WELCOME TO LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY: Bishop Leeland introduced Ken Howle, executive director of Lake Junaluska, who welcomed the members of the annual conference to Lake Junaluska and presented his report. He noted that five million dollars has been invested in Lake Junaluska, including renovations of Lambuth Inn. The bridge over the dam is being restored, $400,000 has been directed for youth ministry, and money is being spent to improve recreational resources at the Lake.

VOTING BAR: Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, conference secretary, moved and the conference approved that the voting bar, or legal limits, of the conference be set to include all of Stuart Auditorium, and that those voting should be seated within the bar unless other instructions are given in the case of a full house.

EXPLANATION OF THE RED, YELLOW, AND GREEN CARDS: Rev. Ingram explained the colored cards provided at registration. The use of the cards will assist Bishop Leeland to preside when members wish to be recognized to speak from the floor. To speak for an issue the conference member should lift the green card. In order to speak against a business item the member should raise the red card. If someone wishes to ask a question or raise a point of order, they will signal with the yellow card.

APPROVAL OF AGENDA: The conference secretary moved and the conference approved that the conference program as printed on pages four and five of the Supplement to the Program and Reports booklet, subject to necessary daily adjustments, constitute the official agenda of the 2018 conference session.

REPORTS OF BOARD AND AGENCIES: The conference secretary moved and the conference approved that the reports of the conference boards and agencies as published in the Program and Reports booklet and the Supplement be ordered to record, insofar as they do not require conference action and provided that conference agencies be permitted to file late reports and/or corrections no later than June 30, 2018.

GREETINGS TO THOSE MEMBERS ABSENT: The conference secretary moved and the conference approved that any action concerning conference members unable to attend because of illness or other family emergency be given directly to the conference secretary, and that the secretary write these absent members expressing the greetings and prayer concern of the conference.

SECRETARIAL STAFF: The conference secretary nominated the following persons as members of the conference secretarial staff for the 2018 session, and they were elected: Marsha Patton and the Rev. A. Owen Peeler, associate secretaries; the Rev. Kathy M. McAbee, George Eubanks, and Mike Penninger, Assistant Secretaries; and the Rev. Dr. Charles D. White, Jr. (Denny) as conference secretary emeritus.

CONSENT CALENDAR MOTION: The Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, conference secretary, reported that the list of petitions for the consent calendar is found on page 16 of the Supplement. The Rev. Ingram moved that the consent calendar, PETITIONS 3-17 be adopted as printed, and it was approved. (The listing of petitions can be found in Section IX and additionally in Section VIII.)

CONFERENCE RULES AND PLAN OF ORGANIZATION: Dr. Jonathan LeMaster-Smith, Oak Hill UMC (Morganton, Catawba Valley District), member of the committee on organization and rules, moved the adoption of the Conference Rules and Plan of Organization, as amended and they were approved, printed in the Supplement, pages 43-50 and found in Section VII of the Journal. The first changes were in Part I, Section B. Officers, item 8 and Part II, Section C. Business Procedure Rule 12 updating the title of the Director of Connectional Ministries and Conference Director of Communications and aligning the conference structure with current practice. The next change was Part I, Section C. Conference Organization, item 2. Connectional Table. It adds the name of the chairperson of the Council on Campus Ministry to the Connectional Table and aligns the structure with paragraph 634.3 The Book of Discipline (2016). A change is made in Part I, Section C., item 3b, Council on Campus Ministry aligns the council with current practice and removes redundancy. In Part I, Section C., items 4b, 6b, and 6c makes changes in the membership of Board of Ordained Ministry, Commission on Communications, and Commission on Equitable Compensation. In Part I, Section C., item 7b. and Section E. Districts, District Conferences, and District Councils, item 6 paragraph numbers from The Book of Discipline have been added for reference. In Part I, Section D. Conference Journal, items 5 and 6 are deleted and the committee recommends no more Journal sales. The final change is in Part I, Section F. Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences, item 2 the phrase "on the proper forms" is deleted to align with current practice of electronic balloting.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS: The conference secretary moved the adoption of the report of the committee on nominations for 2016-2020 ad interim, and the nominees were elected. The elections are found in Section II of the Journal.

PRIVILEGE MATTER: Bishop Leeland spoke to the members of the annual conference. He assessed what he had seen, learned and experience over the past year. One of the areas of leadership the bishop provides is in spiritual presence. The focus for the annual conference this quadrennium is the "Great Commission." In order to live into that command Bishop Leeland noted first that every district has identified vital churches and that the goal is to assist them to move from good to great churches. Second, every district is looking to new places for new people not just for new church starts but to create "fresh expressions" for faith and spiritual development outside of traditional church. Third, he discussed the initiative for effective leadership and the 14 characteristics identified in vital and effective churches. Several clergy in the eight districts have participated in a self-assessment around these characteristics and worked with a coach. The goal is to have 200 clergy in the conference by the end of the quadrennium involved in this leadership project. Finally, each district is investigating contextual assessment for missional networks and mission development.

REPORT OF DUKE ENDOWMENT: The Reverend Robb Webb, Director, Rural Church Division presented the report. Drawing on the theme of teaching in the "Great Commission" and the account of the resurrection from Matthew's gospel, Rev. Webb stressed that the resurrection emboldens us to not be afraid and that our story is one of life, one that must be lived and shared. In looking at what it means to live unafraid the Endowment has rethought the way it operates. This has meant tapping into Methodist roots that couples personal holiness and social holiness. This means that supporting charity includes supporting justice. Rev. Webb shared several examples of churches receiving endowment grants that invested not only in needed places for charity but in partnership with other agencies and institutions in order to look beyond the need to feed hungry people but also to investigate systemic issues causing hunger and food insecurity. Ahoskie UMC in Hertford County was one of those examples. Monticello UMC (Statesville, Appalachian District) is another example of addressing the need for children to read in order to perform well in school and in life. The Endowment is committed to helping churches and clergy overcome fear, to assess their church and community for best practices of ministry, and to foster strong clergy and strong churches.

REPORT OF CHURCH VITALITY TEAM: The Reverend Dan Pezet, Director of Congregational Vitality; Rev. Mike Fongemy, Chairperson; and, Rev. Rob Hutchinson presented the report. The church vitality team seeks to resource local congregations with grants, tools, and leadership for the mission of the church. In 2017 CVT continued financial support for 14 new faith communities and began two new church starts. The goal is six new church starts per year. The Nehemiah Project is a conference-wide initiative to help churches move from where they are to wherever God is calling them to go next. This project is designed to help a congregation focus on up to five recommendations for the church's future, and coordinates coaches and guides to work with the church for up to three years to help them accomplish their goals. The goal is two pilot churches in 2018 and at least ten churches participating in 2019. CVT provides access to Mission Insite, an online demographic software that provides customized population reports. Fresh Expressions of Church are small faith communities that do not look like conventional church models but are anchored to existing congregations. The Church Vitality Team will provide a start-up grant of $500.00 to any congregation that covenants to begin a Fresh Expression in the next 12 months.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: The conference secretary made necessary announcements.

RECESS: Conference recessed at 3:00 p.m.

RECOGNITION OF RETIRING CLERGY AND SPOUSES

Sixty clergy were recognized on the event of their retirement. The Rev. W. Mark Andrews spoke on behalf of the retirees. The Rev. Angel J. Christ spoke in response on behalf of the 2018 class in full connection. Mike Watson, president of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, the Rev. Kyle Lynn Sigmon, a member of the 2018 class in full connection, Bishop Paul L. Leeland, Dale Bryant, Rev. R. Mark King, treasurer and director of administrative services, Rev. Kim Ingram, conference secretary, also participated. Retirees were presented with certificates and each spouse was given a rose.

CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Pursuant to recess the conference reconvened at 4:20 p.m. with the singing of hymn 369 Blessed Assurance. Following prayer by John Crane, district lay leader Catawba Valley District, Bishop Leeland spoke words of appreciation for conference musicians, Jarvis Wilson and Keith Wilson. In addition Bishop Leeland remembered Rev. Robert McMichael, whose untimely death happened earlier this year. Rev. McMichael was one of the conference musicians at the 2017 annual conference.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF LAITY: Jane Boatwright Wood, conference lay leader and president of the Board of Laity, presented the report. Ms. Wood noted that the mission of the board of laity is to model, assess, and advocate for the laity to fulfill the conference mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. She reported the four focus areas for the board: communications task force which has developed a facebook presence and increased posts on the conference website; continued development of accountability groups; conference-wide lay engagement – equipping, educating, and leading; and, a Certified Lay Servant Ministry task force.

YOUTH MINISTRIES: Molly Vanhoy, president of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, gave the annual report of the council. She highlighted several of the district mission outreach projects which included collecting bibles for homeless persons, creating homeless outreach kits, collecting clothing for the underprivileged, and promoting district wide-youth events. She reviewed the positive impact of the two annual youth retreats, SpiritUs at Fort Caswell on Oak Island and IgniteUs at Camp Tekoa in Hendersonville. She concluded her report with a personal testimony of the impact that CCYM has had on her life.

UNITED METHODIST MEN: Neil Brown, conference president of United Methodist Men, gave the annual report of that organization. Mr. Brown highlighted the mission foci of UMM in providing scholarships for ministerial education for second career clergy candidates, Upper Room Prayer Ministry, Scouting, The Crossnore Children's Home, disaster recovery and building team mission support, partnering with United Methodist Women to work against domestic abuse, support of Carolina Cross Connection, hunger relief through the Society of St. Andrew and Stop Hunger Now, Disciple Bible Outreach Ministry and Strength for Service devotional books. He noted that WNCC continues to have the highest number of life members, the second highest percent of churches with a charter and second highest number of charters. He further noted that United Methodist Men were encouraged to develop accountability groups and grow in spiritual formation. He announced that William Waddell will serve as the next conference president of United Methodist Men. The report concluded with a video presentation about Amending Through Faith, a curriculum designed for men to look at abuse and violence against women.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN: Julia Willis, conference president of United Methodist Women, presented the report. The theme of the report was "We Have a Story to Tell" and she highlighted the historic beginnings of United Methodist Women in 1869 at Tremont Street Methodist Episcopal Church in Boston, noted the year's activities for personal growth and service, praised the 20,784 members of 661 local units and their support of local ministries, and recalled the recent Assembly in Columbus, Ohio. March 23, 2019 will mark the 150th Anniversary of United Methodist Women. As part of that celebration the conference UMW has a goal of $1.5 million for the Legacy 150, a five year campaign to establish an endowment for continued mission work. In 2017 total mission giving to the national office amounted to $622,360.00. UMW continues to raise awareness about domestic abuse and human trafficking.

ACCOUNTABILITY GROUPS: Ron Ballard, Central UMC (Asheville, BR District) presented the report. The goal is to have at least one accountability group in 80 percent of the 1100 churches. Twelve mentors have been trained to help local congregations establish accountability groups in the local church. The purpose of the group, based on the Wesleyan model of discipleship groups, is to create opportunities to hold each other graciously accountable, and to deepen the relationship with God and each other.

LAITY ADDRESS: Tom Bridges, Bunker Hill UMC (Kernersville, YV District) and a certified lay minister delivered the 2018 Laity Address using Exodus 3:7-12 (the call of Moses); Luke 1:26-38 (Annunciation to Mary); and Matthew 4:18-22 as his text. In the address Mr. Bridges declared that baptism is the ordination of the laity. The baptismal liturgy reminds us that regardless of age, stage of life or particular gifts or talents our lives on earth are to be viable extensions of the life and ministry of Jesus. We are called to be the voice of Jesus in our world. Do not ignore your call. Mr. Bridges shared his own personal story of call which led to his becoming a certified lay minister. He explained the differences between a certified lay servant and a certified lay minister. A certified lay minister requires training, supervision, joined to a ministry team and accountable to several conference and district committees. He encouraged the laity to open the door to God's call for their witness and to explore the possibility of undertaking the process to become a certified lay minister.

DEACONESS COMMISSIONING: Bishop Paul L. Leeland consecrated and commissioned Sylvia Sekle-Dueh to be a deaconess in the United Methodist Church for love, justice, and service. She will serve in the area of health and welfare and is assigned to Hickory Grove UMC (Charlotte, Metro District).

RECESS: The conference recessed at 5:30 p.m.

EVENING WORSHIP

COMMISSIONING OF PROVISIONAL MEMBERS – 7:30 P.M.

The service of commissioning opened with a video presentation of the candidates to be commissioned introduced by the Rev. Donald Jenkins, chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry. The Rev. Joy Moss led the call to worship. Following the processional hymn 3150, Father, We Have Heard Your Calling (Worship & Song), the Rev. Sue Anne Morris, chairperson of the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members, led A Covenant Prayer in the Wesleyan Tradition. The Rev. Dr. David Greene, licensing school coordinator, presented the 2018 class of licensed local pastors. Bishop Paul L. Leeland examined the local pastors and offered prayer. Following a prayer for illumination and scripture reading of Jonah 1:1-3a by the Rev. Dr. Jamye Christy, Bishop Leeland introduced Bishop Alfred Gwinn Jr., retired. Bishop Gwinn preached the sermon "Anywhere But Nineveh." Bishop Gwinn declared that Jonah's unwillingness to go to Nineveh was not because of fear or anxiety about the hardship but a conflict of wills and purpose. What Jonah wanted and God wanted were different. Jonah wanted the people destroyed. God wanted to save them. Nineveh is a symbol of what God wants. He asked the candidates to be commissioned if they will go where God needs you. He told them they will need a team approach and need God's strength. Following a musical response to the word, "Give Me Jesus" by Amberly Johnston, JoAnn Carter, lay member of the Board of Ordained Ministry, spoke the words of introduction and Rev. Jenkins presented the 2018 class of 21 persons to be commissioned for ministry. Bishop Leeland examined the candidates and following the singing of hymn 2222, The Servant Song (TFWS), commissioned the newly elected provisional members for ministry, assisted by Bishop Gwinn. Each candidate who was commissioned received a cross and certificate of commissioning from the Board of Ordained Ministry, presented by the Rev. Jenkins and Rev. Kim Ingram, conference secretary and director of ministerial services. Mr. Keith Wilson, conference musician vocalist, and Mr. Jarvis Wilson, conference musician, pianist/organist participated in the service. The service concluded with an unison blessing and benediction.

SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 2018

CONFERENCE PLENARY – BUSINESS SESSION – 8:30 A.M.

ORDER FOR MORNING PRAYER: After singing, This Is the Day, Ashlee Alyeah Hand offered prayer. Molly Vanhoy read scripture from I Chronicles 22:18 and closed with prayer.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.: Tom Jordan, chairperson of the board, convened the annual meeting and began the annual report. He recalled the creation of the foundation in 1967 by the annual conference with $38,000 in seed money. At present the foundation has $226 million in managed assets. Mr. Jordan nominated the following for election to the board and they were elected: in the class of 2021 – Brad Chapman, Jennifer Davis, Rev. Ken Lyon, Anne Martin, and Will Rucker. Mr. Jordan introduced Rev. David A. Snipes, president and executive director, who continued the report around the theme, pivotal moments. The goal of the foundation is to build the church for generations to come. At the end of 2017 the diversified fund had produced a return of 17%. The foundation is developing some new initiatives as part of the Reynolds Program, such as The Reynolds Academy for Ministry Management and providing clergy financial advice. Rev. Snipes thanked the board members for their service and leadership. He noted that the foundation is the fourth largest United Methodist foundation in the nation. The foundation has restructured its operation. Rev. Snipes is executive director. Caroline Cox is director of Reynolds Ministry Program, Brad Crossley is director of financial services, and Susan Cothorn is director of ministry services. Ms. Cothorn shared stories of the foundation including the story of Cleveland and Marlene Ellison who have created an endowment for their local church. She also noted the clergy debt reduction loan program designed to assist clergy to pay off education loan debt. This project has received a 1.5 million dollar grant from the Duke Endowment. Ms. Cothorn reported that 111 new managed fund accounts were created in 2017. Mr. Jordan concluded the annual report and presented the foundation's tithe in the amount of $30,000 to Bishop Leeland for the Bishop's Initiative for Leadership. The annual meeting of the Foundation adjourned at 9:05 a.m.

CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Pursuant to adjournment the annual conference reconvened at 9:05 a.m.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION: The Rev. Dr. Glenn Kinken, president, presented the report of the Council on Finance and Administration and PETITION 1: 2019 CONFERENCE FUNDS AND FINANCIAL POLICIES and moved the adoption of items 1-19, and they were approved.

Lee Spencer, Maple Springs, (Winston-Salem, YV District), asked a question about the increase in compensation for District Superintendents and the overall decrease in the 2019 budget. Rev. Kinken responded.

The Rev. Dr. Kinken presented the proposed 2019 CONFERENCE BUDGET, moved its adoption and it was approved.

Janet Reep Morgan, Messiah (CV District), asked a question about line item 509, intentional interim ministry. Rev. Kinken responded.

Rev. Dawn M. Hand, (Metro District), asked a question about the funds budgeted for youth ministry and Rev. Kinken answered.

Rev. Willetta Ar-Rahmaan, St. Paul, (Newton, CV District), asked a question about new church starts and revitalizations being consolidated and Rev. Kinken answered.

The Rev. Dr. Kinken introduced the Rev. Dr. Mark King, treasurer and director of administrative services, who presented his annual report to the annual conference. Dr. King noted that the conference received 88.25% payment toward apportioned amounts. 850 congregations paid 100% of apportionment dollars. The conference ended 2017 with surplus funds and those monies were placed in the conference reserve fund which is now at 30%. Total assets of the conference amount to $100 million, with a majority of those dollars set aside for pension. He announced that a new webpage will soon be available on the conference administrative website that will show real time payments by local churches for apportioned funds.

POINT OF INFORMATION: Peg Aldridge, Davidson, (Metro District), asked a question to challenge the laity.

MOTION: Rev. Harley D. Scaff, Christ (Hickory, CV District), moved that the agenda be changed to consider petitions 18-21 during the morning session. The motion was defeated.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT: Bishop Leeland explained the reason for taking a vote again for proposed constitutional amendment one. Because of the wording being improperly printed when previous votes were taken each annual conference is required to vote on ratification either yes or no. No amendments may be made. Rev. Kim Ingram, conference secretary, read the amendment and explained who may vote: deacons and elders in full connection and lay members of the annual conference. Once ballots were distributed the vote was taken. The results will be submitted to the Council of Bishops where they will receive and report on the aggregate tally of all annual conference reporting.

REPORT ON THE COMMISSION ON THE WAY FORWARD: Bishop Leeland introduced Bishop Ken Carter, who was asked to serve as one of the moderators for the Commission on the Way Forward. Bishop Carter reminded the members of the annual conference about the formation of the United Methodist Church and the dissolution of the Central Jurisdiction that structurally ended segregation fifty years ago; and, the welcoming of the Ivory Coast Annual Conference into the United Methodist Church. These dates are important because the conversation is not solely an United States conversation. He suggested that binary thinking is not helpful. He next recounted the story of the commission on the way forward: its creation, its organization, its mission, vision, and scope of work, the constitution of its membership, and the very intentional process of building trust.

The defining statement for the commission's work is: The commission will design a way forward that maximizes the presence of a United Methodist witness in as many places in the world as possible, that allows for as much contextual differentiation as possible, and balances an approach to different theological understandings of human sexuality with a desire for as much unity as possible.

He briefly outlined the three plans presented to the Council of Bishops:

One Church Plan: removes the language about human sexuality that was inserted in The Book of Discipline in 1972. It honors contextual differences across the world. It allows local congregations to place the 1972 language into their standing rules. It would allow LGBTQ persons a home in the United Methodist Church where this is contextual. This is the simplest model and requires no constitutional amendments.

Traditionalist Plan: A second plan maintains the language in The Book of Discipline about homosexuality. It greatly increases the accountability to certify that persons uphold this at every level of the church. It is not maintaining the status quo. It is sharpening and making more pronounced accountability for being a traditionalist church and providing an exit for people, whether they are centrists or traditionalists. This plan has a number of constitutional amendments.

Connectional Conference Plan: The third plan is similar to the World Methodist Council. Relationships would be looser and it would be more an umbrella for three branches of the church. This plan has 32 constitutional amendments.

He concluded by sharing his pastoral framework out of which he chooses to minister, which is how do we live together with our multiple stories and continue to claim the grace of God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Bishop Leeland announced that there will be a link on the conference website for persons to ask a question or share an impression with the delegates to the 2019 Called Session of the General Conference. Cards will also be available at the information desk for conference members to write a response and they will be collected and shared.

POINT OF INFORMATION: Rev. Michael A. Macdonald, Black Mountain (BR District) asked how many petitions remained to be considered. Rev. Kim Ingram responded that a total of six petitions have yet to be considered. Rev. Macdonald moved that the four petitions not part of the Report of the Board of Pensions and Health benefits be the first order of business in the afternoon session. The motion was not approved.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 10:45 a.m.

WORSHIP SERVICE – CELEBRATION OF LIFE SERVICE – 11:00 A.M.

The Rev. Jan Brittain, pastor of Williamson’s Chapel UMC, Mooresville, Metro District, was the preacher for this service. The scriptures, read by Rev. Kyle L. Sigmon and Rev. Angel J. Christ from Genesis 12:4-8 and Genesis 22:9-14, were the texts for her sermon entitled, “Altars of Faithfulness.” In her message, Rev. Brittain reflected on altars of promise and praise, reflection and plea, place and purpose, obedience, and God’s altar of provision. Kathi Graham and Leisa Stamey played the bagpipes and escorted the families in recession from the service. Bishop Paul L. Leeland; Keith Wilson, conference musician, vocalist; Jarvis Wilson, conference musician, pianist/organist; and members of the 2018 class elected to full connection assisted in the service. During the Naming of the Saints, the lives of 25 clergy and diaconal ministers were remembered and celebrated, as well as the spouses of 22 clergy and diaconal ministers who died in the year.

CONFERENCE PLENARY – BUSINESS SESSION – 1:45 P.M.

CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Pursuant to recess the conference reconvened at 1:45 p.m. with singing of hymn 133 Leaning on the Everlasting Arms and prayer by Ben Free, member of Celia Phelps (Greensboro, NP District).

CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES: Bob Wilhoit, chairperson, presented the report. He updated progress on construction of the new conference memorial center. He noted that the new building will qualify as an energy efficient facility and that leasing space not currently needed by the annual conference will not adversely affect the non-profit status of the conference. He commented that A. Anthony Corp. continues to provide management services and that Foundry Commercial works to sell discontinued church properties. A decision about continued use of lease vehicles for the district superintendents and some other conference staff will be determined after December, 2018. He continued to admonish and encourage churches to look at liability and property insurance coverage.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS: Michael Watson, president, presented the report and moved adoption of PETITION 2, PART a: PENSION PROGRAMS AND POLICIES, and the petition was adopted.

Mr. Watson presented and moved adoption of PETITION 2, PART b: HEALTH BENEFITS PROGRAM AND POLICIES and the petition was adopted.

ANNOUNCEMENT: Bishop Leeland reported that the offering on behalf of Bennett College totaled $19,456.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY: Wanda Musgrove, chairperson, made the report. A core focus of the Bishop is the “Bishop’s Emerging Leader Initiative.” In partnership with Queens University seventy-two people have been selected to develop leadership plans around 15 characteristics tied to making fruitful congregations. DeEtta Rivens, administrative assistant to the bishop, was recognized and thanked for her work. Rev. Paul Milton escorted Mrs. Janet Leeland to the stage. Ms. Musgrove noted that the Bishop marks his fiftieth year in the ministry and that the Leelands celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary on July 27, 2018.

REPORT OF BROTHERHOOD/SISTERHOOD: Rev. Joe Westfall, president, made the report. The standard benefit for the families of deceased clergy continues to be $9,500. Compassion, comfort, and care are core values of the Brotherhood/Sisterhood. Rev. Roland Barnhardt, executive director, noted that the laity members provide half of the annual income for the BH/SH. Eighteen clergy members have died in the past year and 1,048 clergy members of the Brotherhood/Sisterhood have died over the life of the organization thus far.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT: Rev. J. Daniel Hester, chairperson, Leadership Development Team, presented the report. He highlighted the work of the Leadership Development Team to increase the capacity of ministry professionals to interpret, adapt, and lead in ever changing contexts for ministry. He particularly noted the extensive library now available at www.LEADwncc.org and through the eLEAD newsletter, the development of opportunities for individual coaching and peer learning groups in preaching, spiritual formation, and mid-career ministry. Rev. Hester encouraged a partnership between clergy and laity for effective leadership. To that end, he introduced Tom Bridges and Kylee Rose Frye, lay leadership, who presented a video and provided an overview of the lay servant ministry initiative of the Board of Laity.

JUSTICE AND RECONCILIATION TEAM: Pamela Shoffner, chairperson, began the report and noted that there are ten areas of concern for social justice ministries for which the team is responsible. Ms. Shoffner introduced Neffie (Connie) Locklear, convener, who summarized the work of Native American Ministries. Ms. Locklear described the effort to bring tribal communities together to build leadership and address long-standing concerns, particularly the historic trauma of separating children from families who were sent to boarding schools. Rev. Emmanuel Boakye-Yiadom, convener, reported for the Commission on Religion and Race. He mentioned that this year's Martin Luther King, Jr. celebration had brought the largest attendance. He announced that the 2019 event will be Saturday, January 19, 2019 at University City United Methodist Church in Charlotte. Susan Suarez-Webster, convener, spoke about Hispanic/Latino Ministries. The Hispanic Caucus of The United Methodist Church will assemble in Charlotte, August 1-5, 2018. People from the U.S., the Caribbean, Central and South America will be attending. Rev. In-Yong Lee updated the work of the Dismantling Racism Task Force. The mission of the task force is to eradicate systemic forces of racism in the WNCC. Mandatory dismantling racism training for clergy and key lay leaders is being planned. Four pilot training events are being developed for the spring of 2019. Rev. Jonathan Brake, convener and WNCC Earthkeeper, reported on Creation Care Ministry. The mission is to help persons to know God in creation and to act on behalf of environmental wholeness and justice. The purpose is to encourage creation stewardship and sustainable living and to spur action for advocacy around local environmental issues. Rev. Brandon Wrencher, co-vice chairperson of the justice and reconciliation team, highlighted the work of Christian Community Development. The effort is to amplify the need to prioritize the experiences and needs of ministry for minority, multi-ethnic, and underserved populations in any given community. As part of the report a video was shown that showcased youth who attended a conference focused on justice and reconciliation ministry last summer at Claflin University. Rev. Wrencher concluded the report with news about one of the Advocacy Seed Grants introduced at the Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration. Olivia Navarrow was a recipient of one of the grants for her Sparrow Project, designed to feed people not dumpsters.

MISSION ENGAGEMENT TEAM: Brian Mateer, chairperson, presented the report. He highlighted the three awards the team had recently received in the areas of health initiatives, international disaster response, and national disaster response. The mission engagement team is charged to help equip the local church develop mission connection teams. He noted that Project Agape, the WNC mission outreach in Armenia, celebrates its 25th anniversary. A video was shown that illustrated examples of neighboring well which featured Rev. Laura Birch and her family. The newest mission connection team links churches and Pam Wolf, founder of food for kids, with providing fortified peanut butter for children in Haiti.

CHURCH VITALITY TEAM: DENMAN AWARD: Jane Boatwright Wood, conference lay leader and executive director of the Foundation for Evangelism, and Rev. Sherrie B. Schork, Smoky Mountain District church vitality strategist, gave the report. Ms. Boatwright Wood spoke about the Foundation for Evangelism which works to equip disciples to make a witness about Jesus Christ. She outlined the criteria for the annual Harry Denman awards. Rev. Schork announced that Rev. Donnie S. Mitchem is the 2018 recipient of the Harry Denman Award and the first ordained Deacon in this conference to be so honored. Rev. Mitchem is a licensed psychotherapist with Atrium Health. In partnership with Christ UMC (Charlotte, Metro District) and Coulwood Middle School she has impacted students and families in that community.

CHURCH VITALITY TEAM: ONE MATTERS AWARDS: Vance Ross, from UM Discipleship Ministries, described the "One Matters" award which was created in 2015 with the purpose of lifting up churches, which in recent years moved from zero baptisms and profession of faith into positive numbers. Rev. Daniel L. Pezet, II, conference director of church development, introduced Rev. Dr. Nancy B. Rankin, Northern Piedmont district superintendent. Rev. Rankin presented a "One Matters" award to Collins Grove, Greensboro (NP District) and pastor Rick Yourse. Rev. Angela A. Pleasants, Catawba Valley district superintendent, presented a "One Matters" award to Arneys/Fairview (CV District) and pastor W. Edward Stephenson. Each recipient was given a plaque and a check for $1000.00 for further discipleship-making ministries.

CHURCH VITALITY FRESH EXPRESSIONS: Rev. Luke S. Edwards, coordinator, explained that Fresh Expressions of Church are small faith communities that do not look like conventional church models. More than 260 people participated in informational sessions called Vision Days, and 13 Fresh Expressions meet regularly across the conference. Rev. Daniel L. Pezet, II, conference director of church development, commissioned all those who will commit to launch a new fresh expression and invited them to learn about grant funds to begin those new initiatives.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 3:53 p.m.

CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Pursuant to adjournment the conference reconvened at 4:15 p.m. with singing hymn 733, Marching to Zion, and prayer by Evelyn Gomez-Perez, Forest Hill (Concord, Metro District).

PETITION 19: CHANGE IN PERCENTAGE OF PROCEEDS FROM CLOSED CHURCH PROPERTIES: Sue Jones, member of the petitions committee (Cashiers, Smoky Mountain District) presented the petition.

The Rev. Dr. Nancy Rankin, district superintendent Northern Piedmont, spoke in favor of the petition.

Teila Hand-Broadnax, St. Marks (Charlotte, Metro District) moved to amend the petition in the resolved paragraph that would change the distribution of proceeds from 25% and 75% to 50% for the district and conference vitality team and spoke in favor of the amendment.

Rev. Linwood C. Brooks, Mouzon (Charlotte, Metro District) spoke in favor of the amendment.

Rev. P. Glenn Kinken, III, Davidson (Metro District) spoke against the motion.

Rev. Otto D. Harris, III, St. Marks (Charlotte, Metro District) spoke in favor of the amendment.

David Lisk, St. Andrews (Charlotte, Metro District) spoke against the change.

Rev. Michelle D. Chappell, Central (Charlotte, Metro District) asked a question about the grant process for funding from the conference vitality team, and Rev. Dan Pezet, director of church development, answered.

The amendment was defeated and the original petition was approved.

PETITION 18: SUPPORT OF NETWORK: Ms. Jones presented the petition and Rev. Lucy B. Robbins spoke in favor of the petition.

Rev. Elizabeth O. Coppedge-Henley asked a question about any requirement for a non-profit requesting approval as a special offering agency to submit an annual audit.

Rev. Glenn Kinken and Rev. Mark King responded.

The petition was adopted.

PETITION 21: JUST POLICY FOR LOCAL CHURCH EMPLOYEES: Ms. Jones presented the petition and Rev. Kelly P. Carpenter spoke in favor of the petition.

A Member (AP District) spoke against the petition.

McKinley Greer, Faithwalk (Gibsonville, NP District) spoke in favor of the petition.

David Isenhour, Rocky Ridge, (Concord, Metro District) spoke against.

Helen Ryde, (BR District) spoke in favor.

Rev. Charles D. Rivens, Sr., New Covenant (Lenior, AP District) asked a question and the Bishop answered.

Samuel Johnson, Christ (Hickory, CV District) spoke against the petition.

Rev. W. Leon Morrow, Hickory Grove (Greensboro, NP District) moved to table the petition and the motion to table was defeated.

The petition was adopted.

PETITION 20: ENCOURAGING GRACIOUS EXIT ACCOMODATION: Ms. Jones presented the petition as amended by the submitters. The amendment is in the resolved section at the end of the petition. In the sentence that begins "Such an exit path..." add the word "consider" before the word "allow" and change the word "allow" to "allowing" so that the sentence would read: Resolved, ... Such an exit path should consider allowing congregations to leave the denomination with their buildings and assets. ...

Bishop Paul L. Leeland ruled the petition not properly before the annual conference and ruled the petition out of order.

Rev. Charles C. Kyker, Christ (Hickory, CV District) made a point of order (Part II Rules of Order, Part A. Presiding Officer, Rule 1.) and appealed the ruling of the chair. The appeal was not sustained and the Bishop's ruling was upheld. The petition was not considered.

CABINET RESOLUTIONS: The Rev. Amy L. Coles, assistant to the Bishop and secretary of the Cabinet, proposed adoption of the following resolutions on church discontinuance and abandonment, and they were adopted:

PETITION TO REUNITE IMMIGRANT FAMILIES: Rev. Kathy Randall Bryant moved the adoption and spoke in favor of the following proposal:

Proposal: Reunite Immigrant Families

Whereas, the United States government recently implemented a coercive “zero tolerance” policy resulting in the traumatic separation of children from immigrant parents and the subsequent incarceration of children in detention centers; and

Whereas, the President of the United States signed a subsequent Executive Order ceasing this separation, yet omitting any language about the children previously separated and housed in detention centers; and

Whereas, God instructs us to not oppress the alien among us (Leviticus 19:33-34) and care for the least among us (Matthew 25:40); and

Whereas, ¶162.H of the The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state, “We oppose immigration policies that separate family members from each other or that include detention of families with children, and we call on local churches to be in ministry with immigrant families.” (The 2016 Book of Discipline); therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, in the name and Spirit of Jesus Christ, shall respectfully request the US Department of Homeland Security and the US Department of Justice to reunite children with their families who had previously been separated by the United States government due to the “zero tolerance” policy in an expedient, humane, and compassionate manner.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Rev. Kimberly Ingram, conference secretary made necessary announcements, including words of appreciation to Rev. H. Michael Rich for his work as conference director of communications.

RECESS: The conference recessed at 5:30 p.m.

SERVICE OF ORDINATION – 7:30 P.M.

Bishop Alfred W. Gwinn, Jr., The United Methodist Church (retired) preached a sermon from Romans 12:1-10, titled “The DNA of Your Calling.” Bishop Gwinn challenged the ordinands to give themselves whole heartedly to God and not depend on your own strength, be the example, do not lose focus on what God wants you to be, and act courageously, praise the lord and do not be afraid. Jane Boatwright Wood, conference lay leader, and members of the Board of Ordained Ministry assisted in the service. Following examination, six deacons and 18 elders were ordained by Bishop Paul L. Leeland, assisted by Bishops Alfred W. Gwinn, Jr., Charles Crutchfield, and Charlene Kammerer. Tae Wan {Joseph} Kim had his orders recognized as an elder in full connection in The United Methodist Church.

Rev. Rhonda B. Smith, Rev. Carrie A. Wright, Rev. Saxon Scarborough, and Laurin Allred provided special music, accompaniment and direction for the hymns. Grady Wiley, Edna B. Johnson, Rev. Matthew R. Lawing, and Rev. Brad Hopper participated in the liturgy.

Each ordinand received a red stole appropriate for their order and their certificate of ordination.

A SERVICE OF THE WORD, AND THE FIXING OF APPOINTMENTS - 10 A.M.

Bishop Paul L. Leeland, taking his text from Colossians 1:15-20, 25-29, preached the sermon entitled, “What Are We To Teach.” Recalling the instructions of his grandmother and the preaching of John Wesley, Bishop Leeland challenged the conference: “If you want to live the biblical life, if you want to know what to teach, this is how you live the life of the kingdom: do no harm, do all the good you can, and stay in the ordinances of God – read scripture, pray, worship, observe the sacraments, and be held accountable.” He encouraged the congregation that despite risks, dangers, and weaknesses, we are called to reach out to the least, the last, and the lost and teach the story of God’s love in order to present people mature before God. The Greensboro Community Cluster Choir, under the direction of Dr. Charlesetta Dawson and Carolyn Hill; and, the Denver UMC Contemporary Band, under the direction of Brittany Bethel, provided special choral presentations and music. Rev. Juston Smith, associate pastor, First UMC (Gastonia, CV District) served as the organist and provided accompaniment.

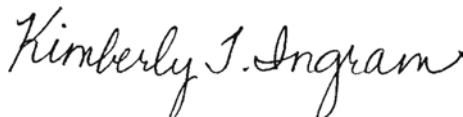

OFFERING: The morning offering was designated for the Lake Junaluska Conference and Retreat Center Bridge Restoration Fund.

FIXING OF THE APPOINTMENTS: Bishop Paul L. Leeland officially fixed the clergy appointments for the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church for the ensuing year.

CHARGE AND COVENANT PRAYER: Bishop Leeland charged the licensed, commissioned, consecrated, and ordained clergy to go where they are sent and called to serve. He charged the laity, including deaconesses and diaconal ministers, to live and serve in God’s world and to receive and support the clergy appointed to their churches

BLESSING OF THE TREES: Following the singing of hymn 369, Blessed Assurance, the trees that had adorned the worship space were blessed and will be planted on the grounds of Lake Junaluska as a reminder of the fruit that is born from the seeds that have been planted in our lives. Worship concluded with special music, I Need You to Survive, sung by the Greensboro Community Cluster Choir and a responsive benediction led by Bishop Leeland.

ADJOURNMENT: The Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church adjourned sine die at 12 p.m.

VII. PLAN OF ORGANIZATION AND RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION

Pursuant to the action of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church as contained in sections IX and X (¶¶ 601-672) of The Book of Discipline (2016), the following plan of organization and rules of order and procedure of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference are hereby established.

A. MEMBERSHIP

1. a. All clergy of the conference in full connection and provisional and associate membership and all local pastors under full-time (¶ 318.1) or part-time (¶ 318.2) appointment to pastoral charges of the conference;
- b. One lay member from every pastoral charge of the conference, elected as provided in ¶ 32 of the Discipline; provided, that each pastoral charge served by more than one clergy member under appointment shall be entitled to as many lay members of the conference as there are clergy members appointed to that charge. Local church lay members shall be elected for a four year term. Charges may alternate members, but should keep the same representatives from each church on the charge;
- c. The diaconal ministers of the conference;
- d. The active deaconesses under episcopal appointment within the bounds of the conference;
- e. The conference president of United Methodist Women;
- f. The conference president of United Methodist Men;
- g. The conference lay leader;
- h. The conference president of United Methodist Youth;
- i. The chairperson of the conference college student organization;
- j. The district lay leader from each district;
- k. The president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization;
- l. The conference director of lay servant ministries.
- m. The conference secretary of global ministries (if lay).
- n. Two young persons between the ages of twelve and seventeen and one young person between the ages of eighteen and thirty from each district, elected by the district Program Ministries Council or equivalent structure; and,
- o. Such additional lay members as may be necessary to equalize the lay and clergy membership of the conference, as provided below, based on the clergy membership as of July 1 of the previous year.
2. The district Committee on Nominations shall elect from its district additional lay members so that the total number of lay members equals the total number of clergy members. The additional number of lay members from each district shall be determined in an equitable and proportional manner by the conference secretary based upon membership as recorded in the most recent conference Journal. Alternates to such additional lay members may be chosen at the discretion of the district superintendent and district lay leader and may be seated in place of such members who are unable to be present, provided that such substitutions are certified to the conference secretary by May 15.
3. The completed registration process shall constitute the official membership roll of the annual conference.
4. A quorum for the transaction of business in any annual conference session shall be the number of registered conference members present and voting.

B. OFFICERS

1. The Presiding Officer: The presiding officer of the conference shall be the resident bishop.
2. Conference Secretary: The secretary of the conference shall be elected quadrennially by the conference at the annual session of the conference following each General Conference on nomination by the Committee on Conference Staff Relations and shall assume full responsibility of the office upon adjournment of the annual session at which he/she is elected, provided that the outgoing secretary shall be responsible for editing and publishing the journal of that session. If a vacancy occurs during the quadrennium, the bishop, after consultation with the district superintendents, shall appoint a person to act until the next annual session, at which time a successor shall be elected as provided herein. Upon nomination by the Committee on Conference Staff Relations, the conference may elect a conference secretary-designate for a term which the conference shall determine.
3. Associate and Assistant Secretaries: Upon nomination by the conference secretary, the conference shall annually elect an associate secretary and a sufficient number of assistant secretaries to handle the work of the conference.
4. Conference Treasurer-Director of Administrative Services: At the first session of the conference following the General Conference, a conference treasurer-director of administrative services shall be elected by the conference for the quadrennium upon nomination by the conference Council on Finance and Administration. If a vacancy occurs during the quadrennium, the Council on Finance and Administration shall fill the vacancy until the next session of the conference, at which time a successor shall be elected as provided herein. The DAS shall include the responsibility of the conference statistician.

5. Conference Chancellor: Upon nomination by the bishop, the conference may annually elect a layperson who is a member in good standing of one of the local churches of the conference, or a clergyperson who is a member of the annual conference, and who is a member of the bar of the state of North Carolina as conference chancellor to serve as legal advisor to the bishop and to the conference.
6. Conference Parliamentarian: A conference parliamentarian may be appointed annually by the bishop after consultation with the district superintendents.
7. Coordinator of Calendar: Upon nomination by the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting, the conference may elect a coordinator of calendar, who shall (a) arrange for agenda items to be presented to the conference in an expeditious manner, making recommendations to each session of the conference concerning agenda items and time allocations for the same; (b) prepare a calendar of petitions for each plenary session which is to involve such matters; (c) announce to the conference in advance the petitions scheduled for each session; and (d) advise the presiding officer of the priority status of agenda items and the progress of time allotments thereof.
8. Conference Director of Connectional Ministries: The conference director of connectional ministries shall function as a communication link between the conference and general church agencies, give leadership in the implementation of ¶ 608 of the Discipline, and relate to directors of connectional ministries in annual conferences throughout the connection.
9. Conference Lay Leader: The conference lay leader shall be elected for a four-year term by the conference upon nomination by the Board of Laity. No person shall serve more than two consecutive four-year terms in this office. A vacancy in this office during the quadrennium shall be filled by the Board of Laity, which shall name a new lay leader for the remainder of the quadrennium, subject to confirmation at the following annual session of the conference.

C. CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

1. Committees on Nominations:

- a. For the purpose of nominations to the conference entities, there shall be a conference Committee on Nominations, composed of the bishop, who shall be chairperson; the conference secretary, who shall be secretary; the district superintendents; the director of connectional ministries; the assistant to the bishop; the conference lay leader; the conference president of United Methodist Men; the conference president of United Methodist Women; the chairperson of the conference Council on Youth Ministries; a lay leader from each district and two laywomen and two laymen to ensure diversity, elected quadrennially by the conference upon nomination by this committee. Unless otherwise provided herein or by the Discipline, all members of conference entities prescribed herein shall be elected by the annual conference upon nomination by the conference Committee on Nominations.
- b. There shall be in each district a district Committee on Nominations, composed of the district superintendent, who shall be chairperson; the district lay leader, who shall be secretary; the district president of United Methodist Men; the district president of United Methodist Women; the district president of United Methodist Youth; two pastors who have served in the district for at least two years, named by the district superintendent; and two laywomen and two laymen who have been members of The United Methodist Church for at least four years, named by the district Program Ministries Council (or equivalent structure). This committee shall prepare nominations from the district for consideration by the conference Committee on Nominations and shall care for other necessary nominations within the district and for action by the conference.
- c. The conference Committee on Nominations shall receive and review the nominations from the district committees and shall then nominate the conference entities to be elected by the conference unless otherwise specified herein. Quadrennial nominations shall be submitted to the conference secretary and shall be printed prior to annual conference.
- d. The district and conference committees on nominations shall take care that each of the various constituencies of the conference, is represented throughout the organizational life of the conference insofar as possible. Persons shall be selected for nomination based upon their demonstrated or expressed desire, interest, concern, and/or involvement in the organization of the conference. The foregoing shall not preclude nominations from the floor of the conference at the time of the election.
- e. Unless otherwise provided by the Discipline, the Connectional Table shall act to fill any vacancies on any of the conference entities which shall arise in the interim. Persons so appointed shall hold office until the next regular election of the members of the agencies involved.
- f. Terms of Service: Except as hereinafter provided, no person shall serve simultaneously on more than one of the quadrennial or term election agencies of the conference, except in cases of ex-officio membership, nor for more than eight consecutive years on any one such agency, except in cases of ex-officio membership; provided, however, in the case of membership on a quadrennial agency, that, unless prohibited by the Discipline, a person elected to fill an unexpired term of two years or less shall be eligible to serve for a maximum of eight consecutive additional years on the same agency, and a person elected to fill an unexpired term of more than two years shall be eligible for a maximum of four consecutive additional years on the same agency. The Committee on Episcopacy, the Committee on Nominations, and the Committee on Conference Staff Relations shall not be included in the prohibition of simultaneous service. If a member of said agencies is appointed to the district superintendency, his or her agency membership shall terminate, unless the membership be ex officio, and any vacancy thus created shall be filled as heretofore set out. If a member of a conference agency is absent from two consecutive regular meetings of the agency without a reason acceptable to the agency, his or her membership thereon shall cease, and he or she shall be so notified. Such a vacancy shall be filled as heretofore set out.

- g. Convening for Organization: The terms of service of the members of quadrennial or term agencies of the conference shall begin July 1. Each agency will organize at an event convened by the bishop and scheduled as soon as possible following the adjournment of the annual conference session at which they were elected.
2. Connectional Table: This team shall be constituted quadrennially. The purpose of the Connectional Table is to connect the ministry and resources of the Annual Conference in order to increase and strengthen the number of vital congregations and conference entities and to coordinate, promote, and encourage the development of faithful disciples and fruitful leaders across the conference so that, lives and communities are transformed by the power of God. The Connectional Table shall consist of the chairpersons of the Council on Finance and Administration, the Conference Board of Trustees, the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Conference Staff Relations Committee, the Leadership Development Team, the Church Vitality Team, the Justice and Reconciliation Team, the Mission Engagement Team, and the Council on Campus Ministry; the presidents of United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministries; the director of church development, the president of the United Methodist Foundation, the conference treasurer/director of administrative services, the director of ministerial services/conference secretary, the director of communications, the director of connectional ministries, the resident bishop, and a district superintendent. The director of connectional ministries and the conference lay leader shall serve as co-chairpersons. Additional members may be nominated and elected to ensure diversity and inclusiveness. One young adult clergy person shall be a member.
3. Councils:
- a. Conference Council on Finance and Administration: There shall be constituted quadrennially a conference Council on Finance and Administration as provided in ¶ 611 and following of The Book of Discipline. The resident bishop, the assistant to the bishop, the conference treasurer-director of administrative services, and one district superintendent named by the cabinet shall be ex-officio members without vote.
- b. Council on Campus Ministry: This council shall be constituted quadrennially in fulfillment of the portions of ¶ 634 of the Discipline pertaining to campus ministry and shall be composed of sixteen members, nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the conference, with special attention being given to the election of persons knowledgeable in the areas of campus ministry, finance, marketing, and management. Two campus ministers, and the associate director of ministerial services, shall be ex-officio members, without vote.
4. Boards:
- a. Board of Trustees: An incorporated conference Board of Trustees shall be constituted annually as provided in ¶ 2512 of the Discipline. The conference treasurer-director of administrative services shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
- b. Board of Ordained Ministry: This board shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of forty-five elders in full connection, including one district superintendent named by the bishop; nine deacons in full connection; fifteen lay persons, and the conference lay leader; and, at least four associate members or local pastors who have completed the Course of Study; elected as provided in ¶ 635 of the Discipline. The director of ministerial shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
- c. Board of Laity: This board shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of the conference lay leader, who shall be president; the president of conference United Methodist Men; the president of conference United Methodist Women; the vice-chairperson of the conference Council on Youth Ministries; the district lay leaders; the conference prayer advocate; twelve lay persons elected to ensure that the total membership of the council is representative of the various constituencies of the conference; and other persons deemed by the board as necessary to its work. The board shall foster an awareness of the role of the laity in achieving the mission of the church, and enabling and supporting lay participation in the planning and decision-making process of the conference, the districts, and the local churches.
- d. Board of Pension and Health Benefits: As specified in ¶ 639 of the Discipline, an incorporated Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of twelve members, arranged in two classes. The treasurer of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc., shall be an ex-officio member, without vote. One district superintendent named by the cabinet and the conference treasurer-director of administrative services shall be ex-officio members without vote. As a sub-committee within its structure, the board shall quadrennially appoint a Health Benefits Committee, composed of such members of the board and other persons as the board may determine.
5. Ministry Teams: There shall be constituted quadrennially four Ministry Teams of the Annual Conference:
- a. A Church Vitality Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The team will provide vision for and oversee the structures, processes and resources needed, to help existing church leaders know and practice vitality; help potential planting partners in finding, assessing and equipping leaders for new church development; assess effectiveness of current resources; learn and share best practices; and, coordinate funding for vitality and development projects. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. One member will be chosen by each District Church Vitality Team, resulting in 8 members. Other team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives.

- b. A Leadership Development Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The purpose of leadership development is “To grow the capacity of leaders to Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, and Transform the World.” The task is to help shape a culture where life-long growth and development are expected to promote and support life-long fruitful ministries. The team will promote leadership excellence among congregational ministers (both clergy and lay professionals). It will also champion the development of the future leaders of the church with special emphasis on youth and young adults. Finally, it will encourage congregational ministers in the development of leadership among the laity within the congregation. The team will network with those entities in the conference who share in its purpose. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives.
- c. A Mission Engagement Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The team will engage and actively facilitate the connection of congregations and disciples to service in their local communities and the world at large. They will work to encourage general church mission efforts and emphases, provide appropriate avenues for training of mission leaders, and promote and foster abiding relationships with mission projects and mission workers throughout the world. This will include the traditional work areas of Disaster Response Ministry, the Mission Response Center, Volunteers in Mission Building Teams, and other historically related ministries. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for extending the mission witness of the conference. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives.
- d. A Justice and Reconciliation Team consisting of 12-15 persons. This team will promote excellence and fruitfulness in congregational life and ecclesial structures that reflect the full diversity of the reign of God; works of justice bringing reform to social, ecclesial, and civic structures and institutions; and, participation of all the people of God in realizing the vision of following Jesus, making disciples and transforming the world. Included in the membership will be conveners of the following groups, named by the nominating committee: Religion and Race, the Status and Role of Women, African American Ministries, Asian American Ministries, Native American Ministries, and Hispanic/Latino Ministries. Each of these groups will be convened within 30 days of the organizational meeting by gathering persons with a passion for the ministry involved. The Justice and Reconciliation Team shall have a task force that will review the Ethnic Local Church Concerns grants. The work of Church and Society and Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns will be done by this team. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives.

6. Administrative Commissions:

- a. Commission on Archives and History: This commission shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of twelve members at large, the conference secretary, and the president or designated representative of the executive committee of the Conference Historical Society, plus the conference archivist as an ex-officio member without vote. Its membership shall not be subject to the limitations on terms of service set forth above.
- b. Commission on Communications: This commission shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of twelve elected members at large, up to five additional members selected by the commission for expertise in the areas of communication and technology. It shall function as a service agency for the entire conference in the area of communication and interpretation. The conference director of communications shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
- c. Commission on Equitable Compensation: As specified in ¶ 625 of the Discipline, this commission shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of fourteen persons, plus one district superintendent, named by the cabinet. The fourteen elected members shall consist of seven lay persons and seven clergy persons, including at least one lay person and one clergy person from charges of fewer than two hundred members which are receiving equitable compensation funds at the time of the election of commission members. The assistant to the bishop shall be an ex-officio member without vote.

7. Committees:

- a. Committee on Conference Staff Relations: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of the bishop; the assistant to the bishop, the conference lay leader; the president of the conference Council on Finance and Administration; and the following members at-large: two ordained elders, one deacon in full connection, and three lay persons. The director of human resources shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee, without vote. The chairperson shall be elected by the committee from among the at-large members. The committee shall support and provide oversight to the work of the human resources department within the annual conference.
- b. The following committees shall be constituted as required by The Book of Discipline: Committee on Episcopacy (§637), Episcopal Residence Committee (§638), Committees on Investigation (§2703), Administrative Review Committee (§636), and Joint Committee on Medical Leave (§652).

D. CONFERENCE JOURNAL

1. The conference secretary shall be the editor of the conference journal, assisted by the conference statistician in the publication of statistical data.
2. The journal shall be edited in keeping with the Discipline and other regulations of the General Conference and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference under the direction of the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting.
3. The annual journal shall contain the proceedings of the most recent conference session and the statistical tables for the calendar year preceding that session.
4. In the event that the plan of organization and rules of order and procedure of the conference are published apart from the journal, this document shall be considered part of the journal.
5. In view of the obvious difficulties and inequities involved in singling out one or more persons worthy of special recognition, the journal shall not be dedicated to the memory or honor of any person.

E. DISTRICTS, DISTRICT CONFERENCES, AND DISTRICT COUNCILS

1. There shall be a total of eight districts in this annual conference, the boundaries of which shall be determined by the bishop after consultation with the cabinet.
2. At the discretion of the district superintendent, a District Conference may be held in each district. The membership of a District Conference shall consist of all clergy appointed to pastoral charges in the district or holding charge conference membership in the district, including those appointed to extension ministries or beyond the local church, retired, on incapacity leave, on sabbatical leave, on voluntary leave of absence; diaconal ministers appointed in the district; deaconesses appointed in the district; the chairperson of the District Administrative Council (or equivalent); the chairperson of the District Program Ministries Council (or equivalent structure); the chairperson of the district trustees; the chairperson of the Committee on District Superintendency; the district lay leader and associate district lay leaders; the president of the district United Methodist Men; the president of the district United Methodist Women; the at-large lay members of the immediately preceding annual conference from the district; and one lay member from and elected by each pastoral charge in the district, provided that each charge served by more than one clergy member of the annual conference shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are clergy members; and further provided that multiple-point charges shall be entitled to a lay member from each church.
3. As early in the calendar year as possible, each district superintendent shall furnish the bishop and the conference treasurer an official copy of the apportionments to the charges in his or her district for the World Service Fund, conference benevolences, pension funds and other clergy support funds, higher education, and other funds approved by the conference for apportionment to the charges, and a schedule of the salaries of all pastors and associate pastors as set by the Charge Conference of each charge in the district.
4. The district lay leaders and associate district lay leaders shall be elected upon nomination by the district Committee on Nominations for a four-year term by the district Board of Laity, if such exists, or by the district Program Ministries Council (or equivalent structure) and confirmed by the annual conference. It is preferred that the district lay leader have experience as an associate district lay leader. No person shall serve as district lay leader or associate district lay leader for more than two consecutive terms.
5. District Organization for Program Ministries: Each district may organize a Program Ministries Council (or equivalent structure) composed of the district superintendent, the district lay leader, the district presidents of United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women, and such other persons as may be selected by the district Committee on Nominations. At least two youth (twelve to seventeen years of age) and two young adults (eighteen to thirty years of age) shall be included in the membership of the council. The primary purpose of the council is to assist congregations within the district in benefiting from programming/ministries resources available beyond the local church, to be a channel of communication between the local churches and the conference staff and between ministries agencies beyond the district, and to extend the ministry of the local church through appropriate endeavors which normally are not practical to implement by a single church or a small number of churches in concert. It shall have the same year as the annual conference. Operating expenses of the council shall be funded through the district expense fund. Nothing in these provisions is intended to override, or be a substitute for, the functions and authority of a district mission society, if such exists in a district.
6. The district Board of Church Location and Building (§2519), the district Board of Trustees (§2518), the district Committee on the Ordained Ministry (§666), and the Committee on District Superintendency (§669) shall be organized in each district as provided for in The Book of Discipline. A district treasurer and other necessary officers and committees shall be elected annually by the District Conference upon nomination by the district Committee on Nominations and/or from the floor; provided, that if no District Conference is held, the district Program Ministries Council (or equivalent structure), upon nomination by the district Committee on Nominations, shall elect a district treasurer and other necessary officers and committees.

F. ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

1. Lay and clergy members as designated by The Book of Discipline shall be eligible to vote and to be elected as a delegate.
2. Those voting must vote within the voting bar of the conference and at the time specified by the presiding officer for that ballot. Ballots shall be cast only in the manner provided and designated by the conference.
3. Vote counting procedures shall be the responsibility of the conference secretary, assisted by tellers duly elected by the conference from among the lay members and the ordained ministerial members in full connection upon nomination by the district superintendents. In addition, upon nomination by the conference secretary, the conference shall elect two chief lay tellers from among the lay members of the conference and two chief ordained ministerial tellers from among the ordained ministerial members of the conference in full connection.
4. A simple majority of the valid ballots cast shall be required for election.
5. The results of the ballots shall be announced by the presiding officer as follows:
 - a. First Ballot for General Conference Delegates and First Ballot for Jurisdictional Conference Delegates: The names of all persons receiving ten or more votes shall be announced, with the total vote for each, in descending order.
 - b. Second Ballots: The names of all persons receiving twenty or more votes shall be announced.
 - c. Third and All Subsequent Ballots: The names of all persons receiving thirty or more votes shall be announced.
 NOTE: A person's name not being announced because his or her vote total was less than the number necessary for announcement does not mean that the person is necessarily ineligible for election.
6. Individual ballots shall be valid only when cast for the prescribed number of eligible persons to be elected on each ballot and cast in the manner provided for and designated by the conference. Inclusion of the name of a person already elected, the name of an ineligible person, or an illegible name shall invalidate that entire individual ballot. Adjudication of illegibility shall be the responsibility of the chief tellers.

PART II RULES OF ORDER

A. PRESIDING OFFICER:

Rule 1. Authority of the Chairperson: The resident bishop or the presiding officer designated by the bishop to preside in the bishop's temporary absence shall be the chairperson of the conference. The chairperson shall decide points of order raised by the members and shall rule on points of order not raised by the members as the chairperson deems necessary to conform to these rules of order, subject, in both cases, to an appeal to the conference by any member without debate, except that the chairperson and the appellant, in that order, shall each have five minutes for a statement in support of their respective positions. A tie vote in the case of appeal shall sustain the chairperson. When any member raises a point of order, the member shall cite, by number, the rule alleged to have been violated. The chairperson shall have the right to recess a session of the conference at any time in the chairperson's discretion and to reconvene at such a time as the chairperson shall announce, with only members, authorized personnel, and authorized guests permitted to attend such a session following recess.

B. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS:

Rule 2. Frequency and Length of Speeches: No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not spoken desires the floor, no more than twice on the same subject under the same motion, and no longer than three minutes unless the member's time shall be extended by the conference, except as provided in Rule 24. This three-minute limit may be reduced by a majority vote of the conference at any time and for any period of duration. The provisions of this rule shall likewise apply to the asking of a question or questions by an individual and to answers to that individual by the person or agency to whom the questions are directed.

Rule 3. Total Time for Debate on an Individual Proposal: When a proposal is to be presented as the main motion for debate, the conference may, by majority vote upon motion by any member, set a time limit for the total debate on that question, including any amendments or other secondary motions related thereto, provided that such limitation shall not be construed to conflict with Rule 2 or Rule 24. If such a limitation is set, the chairperson may direct the coordinator of calendar to allocate the total time among speakers for and against the question by such means as the coordinator deems appropriate, consistent with the provisions of Rule 2, and provided that the previous question may be ordered at any time as specified in Rule 20.

Rule 4. Voting Bar of the Conference: At the organizational session of the conference, the voting bar of the plenary sessions of the conference shall be set by vote of the members. When a vote is taken on any question, only those members within the voting bar of the conference shall be entitled to vote.

Rule 5. Voting Procedure: Voting shall be by show of hands or otherwise as ordered by the chairperson or by the conference. At the discretion of the chairperson, a count vote may be taken. A count vote may also be ordered at the call of any member supported by one third of the members present and voting, in which case the members shall rise from their seats and be counted. The count shall be made by tellers appointed by the conference secretary and shall include the votes of members in the portions of the voting bar separate from the main assembly. No other business shall be in order when a vote is being taken or when the previous question has been ordered, unless the process is completed, except such as relates to the vote itself, or that which can be appropriately fitted into the time while waiting for the report of the tellers on a count vote.

Rule 6. Division of Question: Before a vote is taken, any member shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as the member indicates. If no member objects, the division shall be made. If there is objection, the chairperson shall put the question of division to vote, not waiting for a second.

C. BUSINESS PROCEDURE:

Rule 7. Organizational Session: The opening or organizational session of the conference shall include at least the following:

- a. Roll call of conference members (see Part I.A.3).
- b. Setting of the voting bar (see Rule 4).
- c. Adoption of conference agenda.
- d. Report of Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting.
- e. Ordering to record of reports of boards and agencies not requiring conference action.
- f. Election of associate and assistant secretaries and associate and assistant statisticians.
- g. Election of coordinator of calendar (if warranted).
- h. Announcement of necessary revisions of printed reports and recommendations.

Rule 8. Petitions: Petitions may be made to the conference by conference entities; the cabinet; lay and clergy members of the conference; councils, boards, and committees of the districts of the conference; and councils, boards, committees, and professing members of local churches of the conference. Each petition must be submitted to the conference secretary in writing, preferably by electronic means, by a date determined and announced by the conference secretary prior to the convening of the conference; must be signed by the maker(s) thereof (understood to mean the chairperson and secretary in the case of a petitioning group); and must contain information sufficient to validate the source (church or charge name, district, address, e-mail address, etc.). Any petition containing personal references or dealing in personalities may be returned to the originator(s) with an explanation. The conference secretary shall assign a number and give a subject title to each petition prior to its publication.

Rule 9. Pre-Conference Publications:

- a. Booklet of Program and Reports: All annual reports and petitions of conference entities shall be submitted in writing, preferably by electronic means, to the conference secretary by a designated date prior to the convening of the conference. Under the direction of the secretary, this publication shall be made available electronically for print.
- b. Supplement: A Supplement to the booklet of Program and Reports shall be distributed to the members of the conference at the time of registration of members.

Rule 10. Referral of Matters with Financial Implications: All petitions and motions requesting a special offering or financial appeal or otherwise having financial implications for conference funds shall be referred to the conference Council on Finance and Administration, which shall offer its recommendations concerning the matter prior to action by the annual conference.

Rule 11. Consideration of Business Items: All petitions and other motions, including proposed amendments to the plan of organization and rules of order, printed and distributed in accordance with Rule 9, subject to correction of grammatical and editorial errors, shall be the property of the conference at the time of the opening of the conference without formal reading and shall be in order for consideration at any time thereafter.

Rule 12. Availability of Conference Actions: No later than ten days after the adjournment of the annual session, the conference secretary shall provide copies of all resolutions, proposals, and recommendations acted upon by the conference to the bishop, the conference director of connectional ministries, and the conference director of communications.

Rule 13. Special Study Reports: Special study reports ordered by a previous annual session shall be presented directly to the organizational session of the conference for such disposition as the conference may make, including referral if the conference so chooses.

Rule 14. Distribution of Unofficial Material: No leaflet, brochure, questionnaire, or other material shall be distributed on the floor of the conference or in the registration area except by prior approval of the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting or by the order of the conference.

Rule 15. Consent Calendar: All petitions from conference entities printed in the booklet of Program and Reports, with the exception of the proposals of the Council on Finance and Administration concerning conference funds and financial policies, shall constitute the consent calendar and shall be so designated in that booklet. At the request of any member, the conference may, by majority vote, lift any item from the consent calendar for consideration in plenary session. All items not lifted from the consent calendar shall be acted upon at one time in plenary session at such time as the chairperson shall direct. The proposals of the Council on Finance and Administration related to conference funds and financial policies, petitions which have been lifted from the consent calendar, and other petitions conforming to Rule 8 shall be presented for conference action in plenary session.

Rule 16. Undeatable Motions: The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

- a. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the conference finally.
- b. To suspend the rules.
- c. To lay on the table, except as provided in Rule 24.
- d. To take from the table.
- e. To call for the previous question.
- f. To reconsider a non-debatable motion.
- g. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- h. To call for the order of the day.

Rule 17. Precedence of Secondary Motions: If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be in the following order:

- a. To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn, which motion is subject to amendment or may be laid on the table.
- b. To adjourn.
- c. To take recess.
- d. To lay on the table.
- e. To order the previous question.
- f. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- g. To postpone to a given time.
- h. To commit or refer.
- i. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment).
- j. To postpone indefinitely.

Rule 18. Referring Reports: The conference may refer any report, recommendation, or resolution, or any part thereof, which is before the conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

Rule 19. Consideration of Substitutes: A substitute motion may be offered for any report, recommendation, or resolution under consideration. The conference shall then first perfect the original, and then perfect the substitute. The question shall then be put first on the motion to substitute, followed by the motion to adopt the report, recommendation, or resolution.

Rule 20. Previous Question: When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote now be taken on the motion or motions pending), the member shall indicate to what he or she intends it to apply, if any secondary motion or motions are also pending. If the member does not so indicate, it shall apply only to the immediately pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate and shall require a two-thirds vote of those present and voting for its adoption.

Rule 21. When Motion to Limit or Stop Debate Not in Order: When the conference is considering a petition or other motion, no member, immediately after discussing the pending question and before relinquishing the floor, shall make a motion which, if adopted, would limit or stop debate.

Rule 22. Reconsideration: A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated (Rule 16).

Rule 23. Calendar: The conference secretary, in consultation with the coordinator of calendar, shall keep a chronological record of orders of the day, reports, and other business items as recommended by the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting and adopted by the conference as its agenda.

Rule 24. Speakers For and Against: Except for undeatable motions, a question under consideration shall not be adopted until the presiding officer has given opportunity for at least two speeches for and two speeches against said proposal, alternately, so long as any member desires to speak on the other side thereof, provided that the right is claimed before the person presenting the proposal is recognized to close debate. After three speeches for and three speeches against the motion, or when (and after) the previous question has been ordered, the vote on the motion shall then be taken; provided, however, that the person presenting the proposal shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right to close debate shall prevail in like manner to a limit of two minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, or to lay on the table or any other motion whose adoption would vitally affect the matter under consideration.

Rule 25. Consideration of Agenda Items: Items on the agenda of the conference shall be taken up on the day scheduled. Any calendar items for a certain day that are not received on that day or are not completed before adjournment shall not take precedence over calendar items for the day to which said item or items have been postponed. After the calendar items for that day have been completed, postponed calendar items shall be considered.

Rule 26. Motion to Adjourn: The motion to adjourn, when unqualified, shall be taken without debate and shall always be in order, except:

- a. When a member has the floor.
- b. When a question is actually being put, or a vote is being taken, and before it is finally decided.
- c. When the previous question has been ordered and action thereunder is pending.
- d. When a motion to adjourn has been lost and no business or debate has intervened.
- e. When a motion to fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn is pending. The foregoing does not apply to a motion for final adjournment of the conference.

Rule 27. Between sessions of the Annual Conference, the Connectional Table shall be empowered to complete any unfinished or emergent business of the Annual Conference that does not violate The Book of Discipline (2016), Judicial Council rulings, and/or Robert's Rules of Order.

D. AUTHORITY, SUSPENDING, AMENDING, AND SUPPLEMENTING:

Rule 28. Authority: The plan of organization and rules of order of the annual session of the conference shall be the plan of organization and rules of order of the preceding annual session until and unless they have been amended or modified by the action of the annual conference.

Rule 29. Suspension: The operation of any of the provisions of these rules of order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the conference, except as may otherwise be provided by Robert's Rules of Order.

Rule 30. Amendments: The plan of organization and rules of order may be amended or changed by a two-thirds vote of the conference, provided that the proposed change or amendment has originated in the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting and has been presented to the conference in writing or, if from a source other than this committee, has been presented to the conference in writing and referred to this committee. As identified in the Plan of Organization (E1), the number of districts may not be amended later than the second morning of the annual session. Changes and amendments printed in the booklet of Program and Reports shall be in order for consideration by the conference at any time during the annual session, provided that notice of such shall have been given in writing to the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting prior to the opening of conference (see Rule 11). Otherwise, no proposed change or amendment shall be submitted to vote until and unless one day has elapsed from the initial presentation to the conference.

Rule 31. Supplemental Authority: In any parliamentary situation not clearly covered by the plan of organization and rules of order, the conference shall be governed in its actions by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

VIII. REPORTS

A. COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The purpose of the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) is “to develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the annual conference” (¶ 612.1, 2016 Discipline). CFA has adopted this theme for its work:

EMPOWERING FINANCIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE LEADERSHIP

A core identity for United Methodists is connectionalism. By working to further our mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world and our communities, we are able to accomplish far more than any one congregation might be able to, no matter what size the church. General Church apportionments are used to support the World Service Fund, the Episcopal Fund, and other key areas of the United Methodist connection. Through apportionments, the CFA connects worldwide with other United Methodists to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Other examples of the uses of apportioned dollars are noted throughout the Program and Reports book in the CFA's areas of ministry, including:

- Leadership Development – with programs and initiatives for clergy and ministry professionals (Navigating Change in the Local Church workshop Spiritual Renewal Initiative, Peer Learning Initiatives, Great Ministry in the Second Half workshop, Preaching cohorts, financial planning resources, and other directed programs) that reach a substantial number of ministry professionals each year, as well as a Facebook page, Twitter, website, and monthly newsletter which resources all clergy on a regular basis;
- Church Vitality – with grants for new church starts, mission congregations, and new faith communities, as well as coaching and resources for many local churches to assist them in reaching out to their respective communities;
- Mission Engagement – equips groups and local churches to be in the mission of God through resourcing, communicating and collaborating;
- Campus Ministries – in North Carolina, colleges and universities other than our United Methodist institutions of higher learning are supplied operational grants to further their work with young adults in college;
- Equitable Compensation – grants that ensure a minimum level of compensation for local church pastors;
- Conference Support areas – including communications, information technology, benefits administration, treasury services, and our capable conference staff, which serve as advocates and resources for our pastors, lay leaders, and churches.

As you hear from and read through those reports, take note of the many ways the CFA's apportionment dollars reach local churches, laity, and communities.

Therefore, the CFA urges every local church to support the connectional nature of its ministry by striving to pay 100 percent of funds apportioned. The CFA commends and expresses its appreciation to those churches in the conference who have fully supported the connectional ministry of the church in 2017, sometimes at great sacrifice. The CFA encourages the other churches to take a step in faith toward full support in the coming year. Paying 100 percent of apportioned funds moves the conference from a mindset of mere maintenance to fulfilling the mission to which our Lord calls us.

In support of that mission, the CFA commends to the Annual Conference the 2019 budget which is focused on accomplishing the vision of the Conference, with the ultimate focus of developing vital churches. At a total of $16,166,481, the 2019 conference apportioned budget represents a decrease of 0.26 percent.

Even with the minimal decrease in the 2019 conference budget, the CFA is confident that we will be able to provide for growth in the ministries of the Conference. This budget represents the best efforts of the conference staff and ministry teams of the Western North Carolina Conference to achieve the goal of cultivating vital churches fully engaged in accomplishing the mission of God. In this conference budget, the CFA, in association with its conference staff and ministry teams, seeks to continue to practice good stewardship by aligning resources and staff with the vision, mission, and ministries of the Conference.

The degree to which the CFA accomplishes this goal depends upon local churches' support of the conference budget. Receipts on all funds for 2017 were $14,479,741, or 88.27 percent of the total apportioned, an increase of 0.38 percent over 2016 receipts, which totaled $14,427,235, or 87.89 percent of the total apportioned. As already noted, the 2019 apportioned budget totals $16,166,481. This budget continues to focus on The United Methodist Church's mission priorities of congregational vitality, leadership development, and young adult ministries in order to strengthen each of its members as disciples of Jesus Christ who then share the Good News of Jesus Christ with communities and the world.

PROPOSAL: 2019 CONFERENCE FUNDS AND FINANCIAL POLICIES(Petition 1) Approved June 23, 2018

The Council on Finance and Administration proposes:

1. That each of the funds described in the section of this report headed "Conference Funds for 2019" be approved and that the traditional decimal formula be used in determining the apportionments for 2019 for each chartered church/charge for these funds. (New church starts will participate in the apportionments after three years.):

District Operations Fund
 Equitable Compensation Fund
 Intentional Interim Ministry Fund
 Medical Leave Benefit Supplement Conference Support Fund
 Mission and Ministry Fund
 District Mission Engagement Fund
 District Benevolence Grants Fund
 District Church Vitality Fund
 Africa University Fund
 Black College Fund
 Episcopal Fund
 General Administration Fund
 Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
 Jurisdictional Administration Fund
 Ministerial Education Fund
 World Service Fund

The decimal formula shall be based on the average of the amounts paid by each mission or chartered church/charge during 2015, 2016, and 2017 on the following items:

Items from Table Two of the Year-end Statistical Reports

Total Conference Apportioned Funds Paid (29a)
 Pastor(s) Pension Premiums (39)
 Pastor(s) Health Insurance Premiums (40)
 Salaries, Housing, Utilities, Travel, and Other Cash Allowances Paid to Pastor and Associate(s) (41-44)
 Compensation of All Other Church Employees and Diaconal Ministers (45)
 Local Church Expenses for Program (46)
 Other Local Church Operating Expenses (47)

2. That the following policy be approved and observed:

At the beginning of the calendar year, the Council on Finance and Administration shall determine which portions of the Conference Support Fund (Fund 505) and the Mission and Ministry Fund (Fund 508) are "fixed costs" (salaries, benefits, etc.) and shall thus be authorized to be paid at 100 percent of the approved budget. On the basis of prior year receipts to these funds, the CFA shall then determine a percentage of the approved budget to be authorized for expenditure in the remaining items of each budget, so that expenditures shall not exceed income.

- a. Each church is expected to support all funds at 100 percent of the apportioned amount. (¶ 247.14 of the 2016 Book of Discipline)
 - b. The churches are requested to make payments thereon aggregately, with the understanding that the conference treasurer will allocate such payments according to the appropriate percentage due the fund according to the Conference Budget.
3. That an Unrestricted Fund Balance Account be maintained by the annual conference at a level of 30 percent of the current total of the Conference Funds and that any undesignated interest income plus unused balances in budget accounts be transferred to the undesignated fund balance at the end of the fiscal year.
 4. That all apportioned funds, pension and health benefits costs, both receipts and disbursements, be managed through the office of the conference treasurer and that all districts, boards, agencies, committees, and commissions use the conference treasurer as fiscal agent.
 5. That the group medical insurance plan be continued and that all churches be required to participate, based on the eligibility requirements of the plan, through the payment of premiums to the office of the conference treasurer.
 6. That local churches should be aware that, for apportioned funds for bishops (Episcopal Fund), district superintendents (District Operations), and the Equitable Compensation Fund, the church has an obligation to observe the rule of proportional payment (¶¶ 622 and 639.4, 2016 Discipline), and that ¶ 639.4(c) be observed by the statistician in reporting these apportionments. The rule of proportional payment requires that each local church/charge makes payments for these apportioned funds in the same proportion as payment for the support for the clergy appointed to the charge, i.e., if a church pays its clergy on a monthly basis, then these apportioned funds are to be submitted monthly.

7. That for 2012 and beyond, the Conference Staff Relations Committee (CSRC) sets the salary and benefits (including clergy housing allowances) for district superintendents, and district and conference staff within the approved total salary budget. The salary of the District Superintendents for 2019, as recommended by CSRC, is to be set at $111,293.
8. That the amount of compensation designated as housing allowance for ordained staff members and district superintendents be set by an annual resolution of the conference Council on Finance and Administration after consideration of a statement of amounts to be used during the year.
9. That church-related travel expenses of all members of conference boards, agencies, committees, and commissions; conference and district staff; and local church clergy be paid by voucher on a mileage basis at the amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service. This will be considered as a church-related business item and will not be factored into any compensation package by the Cabinet.
10. That the governing boards of:
 - Aldersgate United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
 - Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
 - Givens Estates United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
 - Crossnore, Inc.
 - UMAR-WNC, Inc.

11. That clergy be reimbursed for moving expenses in the following manner, effective upon adjournment of the 2018 conference session:
 - a. IN-CONFERENCE MOVES: The conference shall pay a moving allowance, plus $2.50 per mile, one way, on those moves which are required from one appointment to a new appointment. If an appointment requires a move from one parsonage/home into another parsonage/home, the moving allowance will be set at $500. If the appointment does not require a move from a parsonage/home, the moving allowance will be set at $150.

- b. MOVES INTO THE CONFERENCE: The conference shall pay on the same basis as in item 11a above. The moving allowance will apply to the number of miles on the most direct route traveled from the conference boundary to the pastoral appointment.
 - c. MOVING AT RETIREMENT: Retiring clergy, surviving spouses of active clergy who died during the year, and clergy who go on medical leave during the year shall receive a moving allowance of $750, plus $2.50 per mile, from the pastoral appointment to the retirement residence or the conference boundary. A retiree who moves to a parsonage and serves a pastorate in retirement is eligible for an in-conference moving allowance upon approval of the district superintendent.
 - d. MOVES OUT OF THE CONFERENCE (moving to another conference, withdrawing from conference membership, leave of absence, or not receiving an appointment, etc.): No allowance will be paid.
 - e. SABBATICAL LEAVE: No allowance is granted when the leave begins; however, an allowance will be given when the leave is completed and the clergy person is again available for appointment by the bishop. The amount will be consistent with items 11a and 11b above.
 - f. In many instances, the moving allowance will not cover the total expense of the move. This reimbursement is given to help with the over-the-road cost of the move. Each church/charge receiving a new pastor is strongly urged to pay any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the new pastor as a result of the move. The district superintendent will negotiate the request with the church/charge well in advance of moving day.
 - g. The district superintendent is asked to make a very special appeal for each church/charge to be especially sensitive to both parsonage families during this stressful time. The appeal should include assistance with meals, packing, unpacking, loading, and unloading where helpful and appropriate for the parsonage family.
 - h. Due to the recent Federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, clergy should be aware of new provisions of moving reimbursements that may impact their tax situation and are urged to consult with their tax advisor.
12. That the president, vice-president, and secretary of the conference Council on Finance and Administration, the chairperson of the Audit Review Committee, the conference treasurer-director of administrative services, a Cabinet representative, and one lay member of the CFA constitute the executive committee of the conference Council on Finance and Administration. The principal duties of the Executive Committee include: annual review, compensation and benefits of the Conference Treasurer, and review and recommendation to the CFA all Statements of Relationship for ministries relating to the Conference.
13. That the Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to appoint a conference auditor.
14. That each local church make a very special effort to undergird the meal, transportation, and lodging expenses of annual conference members attending annual conference by adding a minimum of $100 to the church budget for each lay and clergy delegate. The district superintendents are asked to encourage such support at each charge conference.
15. That conference funds not be permitted to carry over unspent funds from one conference year to another unless specifically authorized by the Council on Finance and Administration. Agencies receiving funds from sources other than apportioned funds, such as fee-based events, may carry over such unspent funds into the next year.
16. That 3:00 P.M., Tuesday, January 8, 2019, be the cutoff time by which all payments from local churches must be in the office of the conference treasurer in order to be applied to the 2018 year.
17. That each conference board, agency, or institution receiving or disbursing funds not managed by the conference treasurer maintain adequate financial records and prepare and submit annual audit reports to the conference treasurer and the conference Council on Finance and Administration. All treasurers should be properly bonded.
18. That the conference fiscal year begins on January 1, 2019, and ends on December 31, 2019.
19. That the conference Council on Finance and Administration be responsible for designating depositories for conference funds.

B. CONFERENCE MINISTRIES

1. CONNECTIONAL TABLE

The WNCC Connectional Table creates space for generative conversation across all WNCC ministry initiatives and promotes collaboration among these initiatives, so that faithful disciples and fruitful leaders are equipped to participate in vital congregations where disciples of Jesus Christ are engaged in the transformation of lives, local churches, communities, and the world.

As the Connectional Table enters the second year of ministry together, evidence shows increased partnership and collaboration among ministry teams. In March 2018, the first unified mission and ministry budget was presented to, and accepted by, CF&A. This effort is evidence of work to align resource utilization with the mission of the WNCC. Ministry representatives worked collaboratively to reflect on and adjust their ministry plans so that conference resources, human and financial, might have the most significant impact possible on the Christian witness.

It is the ongoing work of the Connectional Table to evaluate and reflect on ministries of the conference. It is indeed a time to celebrate God's presence and movement. One of the highlights of the Connectional Table's work together was to affirm the Northern Haiti Mission Connection, a featured initiative of the 2018 annual conference, as a conference mission emphasis.

It is with the highest expectation that the Connectional Table move together into God's preferred future for the WNCC.

Jane Boatwright Wood and Caroline Wood, Co-Chairpersons

2. CHURCH VITALITY TEAM

On July 1, 2017, the Church Vitality Team welcomed the Rev. Dan Pezet as the Director of Church Development. The Church Vitality Team continues its work of strengthening existing congregations and creating new worshipping communities.

In the area of new church starts, the Church Vitality Team is working to create systems and structures for supporting new churches. These systems include creating a pool of planter candidates, preparing partnership churches, assessing possible locations for new churches, and creating funding structures for various types of new church starts. In 2017, the Church Vitality Team continued to provide financial support to 14 new faith communities and began two new church starts for a total investment of $454,144.82.

In 2017, the Church Vitality Team invited the Rev. Luke Edwards to serve as the WNCC Coordinator of Fresh Expressions. Fresh Expressions of Church are small faith communities that do not look like conventional church models. More than 260 people participated in informational sessions called Vision Days, and 13 Fresh Expressions meet regularly across the conference.

In addition to planting new faith communities, the Church Vitality Team is helping to strengthen existing congregations. In 2017, the Church Vitality Team began preparations to offer a conference-wide initiative to help churches go from where they are to wherever God is calling them to go next. This ministry, named the Nehemiah Project, partners with local congregations to help each church focus on up to five recommendations for the church's future, and coordinates coaches and guides to work with the church to help them accomplish their goals. The Church Vitality Team plans to have two pilot churches in this process in 2018, and at least ten churches participating in 2019.

Mike Fongemy, Chairperson
Dan Pezet, Director of Church Development

3. JUSTICE AND RECONCILIATION TEAM

The WNCC Justice and Reconciliation Team (J&R) continues to be active and is grateful for the support of conference staff, Bishop Paul L. Leeland, and the tireless efforts of our staff liaisons, the Rev. Dr. Stephanie Moore Hand and Mrs. Kim Shockley.

The J&R Team functions in various ways with 10 entities within this framework to include the ministries of social justice, environmental creation care, peace with justice, matters of religion and race (CORR), the ministries of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW), as well as supporting the North Carolina Council of Churches (NC COC) and some of the work of Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships (CUIR). This framework also includes the ministries of the Native American, African American, Hispanic/Latino American, and Asian American ethnic caucuses. The team is strengthened by working closely together, as sharing funding and resources, while endeavoring to make whole the WNCC. The team also seeks other collaborative partnerships with the United Methodist Women Social Action, United Methodist Men, United Methodist Youth, Board of Ordained Ministry, and the Board of Laity.

The team has worked over the past year on reformatting the "playbook" which was developed based on questions from Patrick Lencioni's The Advantage, into a more developed Ministry Action Plan (MAP), with the help of Congregational Vitality Strategists, Kim Shockley, the Rev. Dr. Hand, and additional guidance from the Rev. Rene Wilt.

The Vision – "Empowered by Christ," the Justice and Reconciliation Team exists to repair that which has been broken. The mission is to listen, evaluate, initiate, advocate, train, educate, offer grants, and celebrate through acts of God's love so that the whole church reflects the diversity of each community with an intentional effort to include all constituencies with respect and equity also being inclusive of the work of environmental and social concerns. Our core and aspirational values are to practice genuine listening, mindfulness, encouraging others to lean into discomfort, serving as a catalyst for equity in change by compassionate acts, practicing inclusive language with humility and discipline, speaking and receiving wholeness through Christ. Near term objective/top level goal: the Justice and Reconciliation Team will work to build the voice, influence, access, resources and spirit among caucuses and conveners so that the WNCC will reflect the diverse body of Christ.

Native American Ministries – Neffie (Connie) Locklear, serves as the current convener and is interim director of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Association of Native American Ministries (SEJANAM). The Native American Summer Conference at Lake Junaluska celebrates 30 years, beginning June 29-July 1, 2018, with the theme Keeping the Dream Alive and the Flame Burning. Keynote speaker is the Rev. Dr. Sam Wynn, Bible Study leader is the Rev. Joel G. Locklear, and Youth Leaders Kerry Revels and Tony Jacobs. All are invited to participate in this enriching experience Lake Junaluska.

African American Ministries – convener, the Rev. Ronnie Roseboro, along with a committed group of clergy and laity in consultation with cabinet members, has been working since last year to launch a Black Vital Church Master Plan. The group has diligently met constructing the Ministry Action Plan (MAP) for this work with the Vision of Strengthening the black churches in the Conference, through leadership development, revitalization, and Christian/spiritual formation. The mission is to use resources to train clergy and laity in the African American context of what it means to be a vital church in the community and world, to make disciples for the transformation of the world. A number of strategies include cohorts among all Ethnic Caucuses and Anglos that foster working relationships, by holding multi-cultural activities and events, which teach and require engagement of cultures to promote inclusiveness within the congregations. Ten clergy were supported to attend the Carolinas Black Clergy Leadership Retreat sponsored by the annual conferences of Western North Carolina, North Carolina, and South Carolina, May 21-25, 2018, with the theme: In Mission from Anywhere to Everywhere: Strengthening the Beloved Community. National leaders, directors, and General Church Agencies led the workshops. The retreat ended with Holy Communion.

Both clergy and laity travelled to Sacramento, Ca., for the 51st National Black Methodists for Church Renewal (BMCR) General Meeting, held March 13-17, 2018, with the theme, The Journey Continues: Celebrating our Faith, Hope, and Renewal. This event included a panel discussion on Unpacking the Prison Pipeline, as well as reports on the Commission on the Way Forward. Daily activities were filled with worship, bible studies, workshops, and fellowship. A group of clergy and laity travelled to Atlanta, Ga., October 19-21, 2017, for the SEJ BMCR Annual Meeting, with the theme Communion: Holy or Unholy? The Messy Truth! undergirded by 1 Corinthians 11:18. This event included a Town Hall-style setting, with a panel focusing on the uncomfortable conversation of White Privilege led by three UMC Bishops - Leonard Fairley, (North Carolina), Sue Hauptert-Johnson, (North Georgia), and David Graves (Alabama-West Florida), who shared their personal stories of challenges and inclusion followed by an insightful Q & A session. Doris Ferree, spouse of Dr. James W. Ferree, was remembered at this event as she was the immediate past SEJ BMCR coordinator and the sitting communications chairperson. She passed away suddenly in September 2017 and will be greatly missed by all. The J&R Team supported BMCR youth to SEJ Harambee held June 25-29, 2017, at Claflin University, Orangeburg, SC. With the theme, God Will Work it Out, this conference helps youth develop their spiritual, leadership, and interpersonal skills, as they build meaningful relationships with God and each other, and explore the meaning of pulling together and working together in Christian love, hence the name of the conference Harambee. They also learn how to bridge the gap from generation to generation. WNCC BMCR Youth received the award for the highest number of attendees. The young ladies also created a rap song based on "See All the People" an initiative of Discipleship Ministries UMC.

Hispanic/Latino Ministries – conveners, the Rev. Susan Suarez-Webster and the Rev. Frank Ramos, have led this caucus in a most admirable way to become the Hispanic/Latino Conference Committee. The committee has met regularly throughout the year, to include worship and fellowship with the vision – they are a united and diverse community that experiences God's transformation through embracing our neighbors. Values are mutuality, commitment, love, hope, and empowerment with the mission being to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. A retreat was held April 22-24, 2018, at the Trinity Center in Pine Knoll Shores, N.C., with the theme "Immersed in the Heart of the Good Shepherd." Sponsored by the Duke Divinity Hispanic House of Studies, the Sumérgete (submerge oneself) Retreat is in its seventh year of bringing pastors who are in ministry with the Hispanic/Latino community together for a few days of deepening their ties with Christ and each other. Both the Western North Carolina Conference and the North Carolina Conference were invited to attend. Daily activities included praise, worship, and theological reflection from ministry colleagues with a focus on God's word and the challenges of ministry in the Hispanic/Latino community, as well as a presentation on re-entry after being released from detention. The keynote speaker, Dr. Justo L. Gonzalez, led the participants through the writings of Luke, both in the gospel and the Acts of the Apostles. The committee also held a community engagement activity with Hispanic/Latino, Anglo, and African American representation, as well as a community listening session. In the Metro District, Basic Lay Servant training was offered in Spanish to coincide with the English class. The committee desires for this to become a conference-wide offering in each district. The Hispanic/Latino youth group planned and hosted a conference-wide shindig (Tertulia gathering) in Charlotte, N.C., with college representation, bands, lunch truck, snow cones and the works. Support for the travel of five Hispanic youth leaders to attend the Hispanic Youth Leadership Academy (HYLAUMC) held at Boston University, in partnership with United Methodist Universities, seminaries, and the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of The United Methodist Church, seeks to help high school youth and college young adults exploring their call to ministry. HYLA is committed to assisting Hispanic/Latino youth discover and embrace their relationship with God while encouraging them as they complete their education and refine their leadership skills. Youth involved in HYLA consider issues such as Christian Discipleship, vocational development, leadership in the church, college prep assistance, and a variety of other issues important to the continued development of Hispanic youth and young adults in The United Methodist Church.

Asian American Ministries – May Vang continues as convener. The regularly scheduled meetings include clergy and laity, Koreans, Hmong, Cambodians, and Caucasians. The first Asian American gathering and celebration to bring congregations together to greet, meet, and unite was hosted by First Hmong UMC at The Vine UMC Charlotte, N.C., on February 18, 2018. Ice breakers were led by Pastor Joseph Kim and Pastor In-Yong Lee. After much laughter, bonding, and even light exercise, the second ice breaker allowed participants time to sit with others and ask questions about each other, getting to know one another. The youth from First Hmong UMC led in praise and worship. Pastor Jae Lee shared a wonderful devotion on the parable of the latecomers Matthew 20:1-16. Very talented ladies from the Greensboro Korean UMC danced and sang for the gathering. Korean Chul Hee Lee Missionary to Ecuador shared a presentation. Everyone left with the thought that no matter what color and ethnicity, all are one and in support of each other. Everyone is beautiful in their own unique ways and put together for a purpose by God to complement each other. Based on the success, other celebrations and gatherings will be planned.

Commission on the Status and Role of Women – convener Polly Pearson led the WNCC COSROW in planning and hosting a healing retreat at the Catholic Conference Center in Hickory, N.C., October 6, 2017. The day included a presentation by the Rev. Michelle Chappell, chairperson of the WNCC Ethics Committee. The Rev. Chappell reviewed the role of the committee relative to policy updates and quadrennial mandatory training. The Rev. Chappell encouraged COSROW to continue offering healing events and advocacy resources. The committee and COSROW are natural partners with a complementary mission. COSROW celebrates that the Board of Ordained Ministry has made sexual ethics the heart of its quadrennial ethics training which is mandatory for all clergy under appointment or eligible for appointment. Karen Kling (retired educator and now personal trainer/coach), another presenter of the day, offered some practical advice on how to tend to minds, bodies, and spirits. Ms. Kling shared tips that can help heal those who have been wounded, and gave resources to be a healing agent for others. The Rev. Gary Kling, director/pastoral psychotherapist at Chrysalis Counseling and Consultation Center, offered five steps for people who have been victims of abuse in his presentation. The Rev. Kling stressed the importance of conference clergy taking seriously their own mental and emotional health. The last activity of the day was a Service of Healing led by the Rev. Jennifer Hege. WNCC COSROW is grateful for the letter to all clergy in October 2017, sent by Bishop Paul L. Leeland, about how sexual harassment is contrary to the Good News of the Gospel and undermines the work of the church.

Commission on Religion and Race – conveners, the Rev. Emmanuel Boakye-Yiadom and the Rev. George Melvin Coates, presented on behalf of the J&R Team to the Worship Planning Team the results of diversity monitoring of the 2017 annual conference. The conveners organized the planning team for the 2018 WNCC Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration. Through a collaborative effort of J&R Team members, along with the Rev. Miller Carter, coordinator, and members of WNC Black Methodists for Church Renewal, the theme selected was 50 Years Later: Reclaiming God's Time, suggesting that time itself belongs to God and is under HIS divine control. Therefore, if anyone 'reclaims' or 'claims' any victory during the past 50 years (time), it is "God's Time" and not the "people's time." This historical WNCC MLK, Jr. Celebration marked the 50 years following the death of Dr. King, with the highlighted scripture Nehemiah 6:1-9 shared in the different languages of the ethnicities represented. Held in the Global Learning Center on the campus of Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C., with over 340 in attendance, the spirit was harmonious, even being led by the Bennett College Ensemble. Greetings from Bennett College President Dr. Phyllis Worthy Dawkins, and others, thought-provoking videos; vigorous table discussions about modern immigration policies, led by the Hispanic House of Study from Duke Divinity School and the Duke Neighborhood Seminary; recognition of and awards presented to the Bennett Belles involved in the Greensboro Civil Rights and Sit-In Movement(s). WNCC CCYM is also a wonderful partner in the celebration to include a youth perspective to the day. In the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel where Dr. King himself spoke 50 years earlier, the team was led by the Bennett College Choir, and the Greensboro Korean UMC choir capped with the keynote address by the Rev. Dr. William "Bobby" McClain, Professor Emeritus, Wesley Theological Seminary and Interim Pastor of Union UMC, Boston Mass. The offering for this event benefited the Bennett College Scholarship Fund and was given in memory of the late Mrs. Doris Ferree, a faithful Bennett Alumna and a true Bennett Belle in every way. The culmination of a great worship experience could only be heightened by the sharing of Holy Communion with Bishop Paul Leeland as the Communion Celebrant. Evaluations of this celebration continue to indicate a desire for it to be held the Saturday just prior to the MLK, Jr. Holiday. The next celebration is scheduled to be held at University City UMC in Charlotte, N.C., on January 19, 2019. WNCC CORR conveners, the Rev. Emmanuel Yiadom and Lazelle Free, longtime WNCC BMCR member, attended the Bishops Convocation on Race and Reconciliation at Annandale UMC, with Bishop Sharma Lewis, her cabinet and the Virginia Annual Conference's Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy. Materials, guidelines, and format were provided in part by the General Commission on Religion and Race (GCORR). Observations were that most of those in attendance were white people who were receptive of the fact that racism and white privilege does exist. The keynote speaker, Romal Tune, shared from his book Love is an Inside Job: Getting Vulnerable with God! (Matt. 22:36-40). A video presentation was also shared by Dr. Robin DiAngelo Deconstructing White Privilege. Levels of institutional racism in the church were examined in the materials. The Rev. Annalee Allen attended the Facing the Future 2018 conference, sponsored by The General Commission on Religion and Race with the theme In the Midst of the Storm, May 7-9, 2018, in Newark, New Jersey. Participants engaged in learning and networking rooted in biblical and theological frameworks, and featured peer-to-peer learning, and deep self-reflection. Leaders from across the connection led worship, plenary sessions, and workshops gave participants opportunity for prayer and reflection, dialogue and learning, and, relationship and capacity building. Kim Shockley attended the Duke Summer Institute for Reconciliation June 4-8, 2018 at Duke Divinity School.

Environmental Concerns and Efforts – convener and WNCC Earthkeeper, the Rev. Jonathan Brake, has partnered with UMW District Social Action Coordinators in several districts to offer Climate Justice Workshops. Creation care is an essential part of the discipleship as Christians. Earthkeepers are keenly aware of the ecological challenges in the world today and feel called to be part of a movement to transform the world. Jonathan beautifully weaves scripture Hosea 4:1-3, Matthew 7:12; 22:37-39, and Wesley's Three Simple Rules into the presentation. The Rev. Brake also offers many resources and opportunities for congregations to rediscover the call to tend the garden and become more loving. WNCC now has three UMC Earthkeepers; two others besides Jonathan, also Jonathan Lemas in Morganton and Kim Richmond in Winston-Salem. These dates are also offered for those willing to answer this call: Creation Care Summit at Hamline University in St. Paul, Minn., July 26-29, 2018, <http://www.umcreationcaresummit.org> and UMC Earthkeepers in Detroit, Mich., September 27-30, 2018. The Rev. Brake may be contacted at creationcarewncc@gmail.com.

The J&R Team gave financial support to the following, in addition to what has already been mentioned above; Crossroads Church – Charlotte Team and Crossroads Youth Ministry, to assist with local outreach in partnership with Carolina Cross Connection, with a heavy emphasis on building relationships with people experiencing homelessness. This effort was also to bring light to injustices that those experiencing material poverty face daily in an urban environment; Boundless Impact to provide assistance for planning, designing, facilitating, evaluating, and training new facilitators for the TRUTH Café program which creates spaces for dialogue and deep listening, developing cultural humility and relationships and more; St. Paul UMC, Winston-Salem, to provide assistance for transportation to the Mandela Quilt Exhibit, as continued support of Community Outreach to Title I schools in the local area. This program makes an impact upon the children living in concentrated areas of poverty and the enhancement of their academic success.

The J&R Team gives yearly financial support to the North Carolina Council of Churches (NC COC), which is a statewide ecumenical organization promoting Christian unity and working towards a more just society with the motto: Strength in Unity, Peace through Justice. The Council enables denominations, congregations, and people of faith to individually and collectively impact the state on issues such as economic justice and development, human well-being, equality, compassion, and peace, following the example and mission of Jesus Christ. NC COC addresses social justice issues through a faith lens some of which include: gun violence; race, privilege, and power; care of creation; immigration and refugees; personal health as an issue of faith; fair and respectful treatment for all, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity; voting rights; farm workers and immigration; economics; LGBTQ; physical and mental health; and public education. The WNCC continues to be a major judicatory member of the NC COC, since its beginning in 1935.

Two causes were announced denominational-wide and for congregations in WNCC. Marcha Giving Sunday, November 5, 2017, for the sustainability of the mission of MARCHA (Methodists Associated for the cause of Representing Hispanic Americans), seeks to advocate on the behalf of Hispanic/Latino members of The United Methodists Church and The United Methodist Church in Puerto Rico. Since 1971, it has honored the contributions and cultural values of Hispanic/Latino persons and serves as a movement that promotes respect of human rights as well as a commitment to peace, justice, liberty, and equality. BMCR Sunday was promoted, February 4, 2018, in order to strengthen the value for diversity within The United Methodist Church by advocacy, inclusiveness, justice, and leadership development. BMCR raises up prophetic and spiritual leaders who will be advocates for the unique needs of Black members of The United Methodist Church. It embraces its rich 50+ year legacy and serves as a necessary catalyst in the effort to develop strategies that address issues of inadequacy in the Church and community. Both of these desire to become self-sustaining with the help of congregations across the denomination.

J&R Team co-vice chairperson, Pastor Ray McKinnon, attended Ecumenical Advocacy Days in Washington, D.C., April 18-21, 2018, with the theme A World Uprooted: Responding to Migrants, Refugees and Displaced People. This weekend advocacy event drew together nearly 800 people, a full quarter of which were age 35 or younger. This was immediately following the annual meeting with UMC Peace with Justice coordinators from across the denomination at the United Methodist Building on Capitol Hill.

The J&R Team co-vice chairperson, the Rev. Brandon Wrencher, led a delegation of clergy and laity to the Christian Community Development Association (CCDA) national conference in Detroit, Mich., on Oct. 4-7, 2017. All studies show that by 2040, ethnic minorities will comprise the majority of the US population. The J&R Team seeks to amplify this reality through a concerted effort toward organizing and promoting the missional ministry of under-resourced, ethnic minority, and ethnically diverse congregations and communities. Of the many models of such missional ministry, the team believes that the Christian Community Development Association (CCDA) is a valuable partner that could help begin to fill this gap within the WNCC. For the past 25 years, CCDA and 1,000 associated organizations have been pursuing a common vision to see under-resourced communities holistically restored with Christians and the local church fully engaged in the process of transformation. In pursuing this vision, Christian Community Development practitioners have distilled the philosophy into eight key components. John Perkins, African American missionary, civil rights icon and founder of CCDA, articulated the “three R’s” of Christian community development: relocation, reconciliation, and redistribution. Since Perkins’ early strategy, CCDA has added to these: local/indigenous leadership development, empowerment, holistic approach, church-based, and listening to the community.

The J&R Team in 2017 embraced a proposal from the Dismantling Racism Task Force led by the Rev. Dr. In-Yong Lee to work together on eradicating racism in the WNCC. The Board of Ordained Ministry, The Board of Laity, and the Bishop’s Office have offered support for this work, as well. The Task Force and the Team met for a joint training event at the Beloved Community Center in Greensboro, N.C., September 9, 2017. The Center’s mission statement is – organizing for justice, equality, dignity, worth, and the enormous potential of all people. Led by Nelson, Joyce Johnson, and Wesley Morris, who provided ample opportunities to hear personal stories of the Civil Rights Movement in Greensboro and the reconciliation processes, they employed to bring their vision into focus for the community. A progress report of the work of the Dismantling Racism Task Force follows this report.

The J&R Team chairperson was invited and participated in a Dismantling Racism panel discussion on November 18, 2017, at The Plaza Church in Charlotte, N.C. Other panelists included Leon Threatt and Robert W. Lee. It was sponsored by the Charlotte Post and moderated by Tiffany Capers.

The WNCC Justice and Reconciliation Team has partnered with the WNCC Commission on Archives and History, in planning ways to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the merger of The United Methodist Church at the 2018 Annual Conference. A video project, among other highlights for the Conference, will lift significant history at this pivotal moment in the life of the church. The Conference Communications Team has also been a helpful partner with numerous projects throughout the year.

Pamela Shoffner, Chairperson

Dismantling Racism Task Force

The Dismantling Racism Task Force convened in 2017 to continue the hard work of eradicating racism in the Western NC Conference, and the Justice and Reconciliation Team embraced a proposal from the task force to further this work together. It is made up of 23 clergy and laity, women and men, throughout the conference, of different ages and races that desire to serve in a more racially just and equitable conference.

The members of the team are Eileen Ayuso, Miller Carter (deceased), Kimberly Clarke, Duane Corle, Carter Ellis, Stephanie Moore Hand, Rodvegas Ingram, Brandon Lazarus, In-Yong Lee, Connie Locklear, Joel Locklear, Joey Lopez, Jonathan Marlowe, Ed McKinney, Kelly McRell, David Ortigoza, Sonny Reavis, Pam Shoffner, Joel Simpson, Benjamin Sloan, Daphine Strickland, Jonah Vang, and Emmanuel Yiadom for a total of 23.

Why was DRTF convened? Guided by Ephesians 2:14-16, the Mission of the Dismantling Racism Task Force is to eradicate the systemic forces of racism that exist in the WNCC. This is done by living out the reconciliation accomplished through Jesus on the cross, beyond the dividing walls of hostility, by living out the baptismal vows of resisting evil, injustice, and oppression, and by becoming the church of every nation, tribe, people, and language. The team believes that people in the conference continue to struggle to have open conversation around the issues of race, culture, and diversity for several reasons. Some feel that racism does not exist, or they are not aware of it; some are fearful of having the conversation because it may lead to a loss of privilege; some just do not know how to have the conversation; and, some want to preserve the status quo, the current power structure, and lack of diversity that exists in the conference.

The goal of the task force's work in the initial years will lead to longer-term planning to integrate racial justice and equity into the culture, systems, and practices of the WNCC.

The Bishop and Board of Ordained Ministry stand alongside the Task Force and strongly support the efforts to end racism in the conference.

The Task Force's main objective for the two-year period of 2018-2019 is to help the WNCC have in place the mandatory dismantling racism training for all ordained/licensed clergy, all candidates for ordination/licensing, key lay leaders in congregations, and all conference staff members. That work will include bringing the legislation to the 2019 Annual Conference. The team has prepared four trial trainings this fall, so that the training model is enhanced to fit the conference's context better through evaluation.

Trainers from MeckMin will charge $6,000 for a two-full-day training. There will be 40 participants in each. The fee for a participant will be $180, but it will not be the sole responsibility of the participant. The cost will be borne through budget, grants, and people/church paying portions. Every effort will be made to keep the personal cost to a minimum.

The task force is asking everyone to join in, get involved, participate in one of the programs that are and will be offered throughout the conference. As brothers and sisters in Christ, it is time to love and worship and serve the Lord in the only way that Jesus taught us: together.

Guiding Scripture Passage (Ephesians 2:14-16, NRSV)

For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it.

4. LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT TEAM

The Apostle Paul said that we will all be changed (1 Corinthians 15:51). Of course, he wasn't referring to the postmodern, technological age, but the Scriptural pun works for these days in which we live. The Leadership Development Team (LDT) works to increase the capacity of ministry professionals to interpret, adapt to, and lead in times such as these when everything is changing at an ever-increasing pace.

Most visibly, the LDT curates and disseminates leadership resources digitally, at www.wnccumc.org/leadershipdevelopment. Subscribe to the monthly magazine, eLEAD. Articles, essays, and lists will be delivered to one's email inbox. Each edition focuses on one aspect of leadership development for ministry. After several years of producing this magazine, the LDT's website now has quite the library of good reads and collective wisdom. Next, by liking the LDT on Facebook or following on Instagram, one will receive daily leadership wisdom, development opportunities, and testimony from a wide range of both faith-based and secular resources.

Most valuably, the LDT finds leadership development opportunities provided by coaches, organizations, and workshops, and makes them available to WNCC ministry professionals at a reduced cost. The LDT also provides confidential assessments to help individual leaders tailor a leadership development plan to suit their needs and context. Sometimes this function is provided by an organized program such as "Called and Gifted to Lead." Other times this function is simply providing a book on a topic. The LDT can organize peer learning groups around a context or challenge, or arrange meeting time with coaches. Grants of up to $1,000 are available for the pursuit of one's own leadership development from the LDT.

Most effectively, the LDT collaborates with other WNCC entities to make the greatest impact. The LDT channels its work based on interaction with and feedback from other voices. This past year, in light of this feedback, the LDT has focused on providing leadership development through organizing preaching cohorts. These cohorts bring a small group of preachers together with a trusted leader to study, practice, and grow their leadership through preaching together. The LDT has also continued a particular focus around spiritual formation. A menu of spiritual formation opportunities was presented in the fall and the spring with up to $500 provided by the LDT for individuals to increase their spiritual leadership capacity. This year, the LDT also started a new program designed for mid-career clergy entitled, "Great Ministry in the Second Half of Life." The LDT is also starting a new collaboration with the Missional Wisdom Foundation and Fresh Expressions.

Most comprehensively, the LDT seeks to create a culture of continuous learning for leaders in the WNCC. Following Jesus is the work of leadership. The LDT wants to encourage anyone who draws a paycheck as a ministry professional (educators, musicians, clergy, counselors, and administrators) to follow Jesus with all they've got, not simply to get by. The LDT wants to challenge itself, and all ministry professionals, to employ all talents to the utmost.

Dan Hester, Chairperson

5. MISSION ENGAGEMENT TEAM

The Mission Engagement Team (MET) of the WNCC had a strong year, as we lived into a solidified infrastructure to support mission. This is a process that began the prior year and will continue as we use best practices to broadly support conference mission efforts. As we have widened our scope, we have also sought opportunities to collaborate and strengthening relationships with local churches and existing partnerships along mission affinity groups and by location. Mission innovation is an emphasis as we try to be future forward to engage the church and world in a way that will not only develop discipleship but will also provide pathways and entry points into the church for people wanting to serve with others and make a difference in the world. Using MET core values as a framework, we have begun to look at adaptive challenges in an effort to practice John Wesley's simple but profound words "Do good. Do no harm." The Mission Engagement Team exists to equip the local church to be in the mission of God, focusing on communication, resourcing and collaboration.

(Petition 3) Approved June 22, 2018

Churches are at liberty to support Advance Specials according to the wishes of the individual churches. The following ministries have been vetted and are approved as Annual Conference Mission Specials:

- Carolina Cross Connection
- Congregations 4 Children
- Mission Church Fund
- Mission Response Center
- Northern Haiti Mission Connection
- Open Arms
- Project AGAPE
- VIM Mission Connection Teams
- WNCC Committee on Relief
- Youth Service Fund

Advance Specials may be found on the Web at the following link: <https://www.umcmmission.org/Give-to-Mission/The-Advance>

b. Committee on Relief

The Committee on Relief is the humanitarian relief and development arm of the Western North Carolina Conference, relating directly to the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR). The mission is to alleviate human suffering and advance hope through humanitarian relief, sustainable development, and global missions. The Committee on Relief is comprised of three units: Humanitarian Relief (also known as Disaster Response) is coordinated and chaired by Rick Hill. This unit responds to disasters within and beyond the conference boundaries through Early Response Teams that assists communities affected by natural disasters. Missions Operations is coordinated and chaired by Frank Greene. This unit offers preparedness and volunteer mission training, provides essential relief supplies through the Mission Response Center located in Terrell, and supports long-term mission and sustainable development operations throughout the conference. Global Missions is coordinated and chaired by the Rev. Sarah Howell-Miller. This unit equips the conference for global mission that alleviates human suffering.

During this past year, several communities in the conference were affected by tornadic activity, bringing about severe damage to hundreds of homes in several of the districts, including significant damage to Mount Hermon United Methodist Church. The Humanitarian Relief unit also responded in various ways to the multiple hurricanes that hit Texas, Louisiana, Florida, Georgia, and Puerto Rico. The conference donated $40,000 to the Texas Conference, $20,000 to the Texas Rio Conference, $40,000 to the Florida Conference, $50,000 to the Puerto Rico Conference all for hurricane relief, and $5,000 to the Blackfeet Native American Reservation in northwest Montana for blizzard relief. The Missions Operations Unit collected and sent more than 3,000 UMCOR Cleaning Buckets totaling $180,000 worth of supplies, and more than 11,000 UMCOR hygiene kits, totaling over $136,000, to affected areas. This unit is also developing a major strategic plan to expand and revamp the mission operations to state-of-the-art capacities. Additionally, this unit has trained more than 200 people for various mission engagements in the last year, including Early Response Teams. At every step, we are trying to place the primary emphasis of the humanitarian relief and mission operations toward empowering local communities and address the underlying causes of suffering and poverty. This shift is most widely evident in the Global Missions unit led by Sarah Howell-Miller, with the goal of shifting all of the conference mission work from harmful mission practices to sustainable and life-giving community building. The work of the Committee on Relief is vast and complex, as it seeks to equip the Western North Carolina Conference to ethically and effectively transform the world. The team is thankful to the many leaders who coordinate, organize, and volunteer their time to the important work. The team is especially grateful to the Rev. Ken Anderson, past coordinator and chairperson of Humanitarian Relief (Disaster Response), who recently had to step back for medical reasons. The team is all grateful for the dedication and diligence to bringing about the grace of and to the cabinet and bishop for their support and continuous availability. The work never ends, thus continual financial support enables the team to immediately respond when disasters strike and help strengthen communities worldwide. Thank you.

Steve Cheyney, Chairperson

c. Central Congo Partnership

Mpasa Medical & Nutrition Center

2017 overflowed with blessings for the people of Mpasa, an area that historically has been home for millions of refugees from Angola, Sudan, and East Congo. The long-awaited pediatric building was completed and dedicated in June 2017. The new building provides significantly improved conditions for safe patient care, especially in clean and well-furnished operating rooms. The operating rooms now include cabinetry for storage of the new surgical instruments, sterile supplies, and medications. Additionally, the partnership purchased specialized equipment for improved quality, such as an incubator for newborns, an ultrasound machine and a suction machine for surgery. Now that the medical center has two new solar powered refrigerators, the government has committed to stock them with blood for transfusions. The absence of blood products has contributed to deaths from hemorrhage during surgery and childbirth in the past. Also, a room designated for children allows for sequestering from adults with communicable diseases. An improved laboratory also has improved the provision for accurate and quality diagnostics. The third phase of the project included the installation of solar power. The medical center now experiences electricity twenty-four hours a day, for the first time.

Cape Lodja Farm in Diengenga

The Cape Lodja Farm in Diengenga has become a model farm for central Congo. Through animal traction, the farm continues to increase the amount of land it can cultivate and harvest providing food for the malnourished as well as jobs as it moves towards becoming more self-sustaining. Four fish ponds provide a good yield and new crops provided a market for the farm: rice, corn, soy beans, maniac, bananas, 4500 pineapple plants, four varieties of beans, and many new vegetables are now yielding fruit. The fresh water well located on the farm enables the planting of a large vegetable garden year-round. In the past, because of the dry seasons, they were only able to plant and harvest six months yearly. It also greatly helps serve the growing animal population: cows, goats, chickens, pigs, and sheep.

Miriam's Table

In February 2018, Miriam's Table, the second nutrition program and location of the newest United Methodist congregation, has a brand new fresh water well. With the help of Rotary International grants program, this well provides water not only for Miriam's Table, but for the entire community. Thousands of people are now able to drink and cook with uncontaminated water. Water-borne diseases bring sickness and death to the children and their families.

d. Project AGAPE

Project AGAPE continued its vital ministry in Armenia for the 24th straight year. This continues to be the only humanitarian relief group in the 1,300-square-mile Kashatagh region of Nagorno-Karabakh. Donations through the years have been one of the few bright spots for many that call this area home. The area served is still recovering from the 1993 war with Azerbaijan and the breakdown of the Soviet Union. Armenia is the oldest Christian nation in the world, preceding Rome by 20 years.

In 2017, the people of Kashatagh received the following help from United Methodists in North Carolina:

- 5,176 Christmas Shoe boxes for children;
- humanitarian aid for 1,200 families (5,505 people); and,
- classes taught at the Christian Education Center for 91 children.

The financial donations continued to make a difference. With your help this past year, the project continued to support:

- two orphanages/children's homes;
- distribution of the food, clothing, school supplies, Christmas Shoe Boxes, medical relief, and financial aid, all of which comes from the people of North Carolina, to families;
- the Cattle Project, which helped 25 new families (137 people) in the area earn a living; and,
- the Chicken Project helped 62 new families (371 people) in the area.

Total value of all projects and aid was over $495,302.

In 2017, a new mission endeavor was commissioned, the Garden Project. This project will help families with the tools and supplies to plant gardens in and around their homes. This will help families dealing with food shortage issues, and also help families have a more sustainable life by providing much needed income.

Two teams traveled from the WNCC to make a difference in the lives of the people of Berdzor. In June-July, the first WNCC VIM Team renovated a house in Berdzor. The mother, father, and four children were finally able to have a house with a bathroom, kitchen, and multiple bedrooms. The second WNCC Team from Myers Park UMC arrived in September and renovated a house in Berdzor and the Christian Education Center at the AGAPE compound, which had not been renovated since its construction in 2000. The labor and funds provided by the team helped to renovate the worn-out two-story building, making it a better and safer place for the children and youth of the area to gain the education and vocational skills needed to have a better future. The CEC has been the enlightener of thousands of children and young people educating several generations and empowering them to recognize and use their potential and resources.

Once again, due to the generous support of WNCC churches and individuals, the Project AGAPE Board was able to maintain the 2017 budget at $82,000 ($41,000 per conference). This continues to allow the Project to keep open the Christian Education Center that enriches the religious, cultural, and educational life of the community. Classes in art, chess, computers, embroidery, rug knitting, ESL, sewing, and other children's and teenagers' after-school programs continue to flourish at the center.

All aspects of Project AGAPE's assistance to and programs for the people of the Kashatagh region are under the stewardship of Nara Melkonyan, the very capable resident project director. The on-site leadership increases the effectiveness of the WNCC donations and volunteer service exponentially. Nara can be contacted at nmelkonyan@yahoo.com.

Project AGAPE is so thankful for the past support of individuals and churches throughout the conference. Please encourage the church and individuals to give generously so that Project AGAPE can continue to bring humanitarian aid, as well as many of the classes for children and youth, to Kashatagh. One can do so by becoming a member of the Fellowship of 1,000 or making a donation to Project AGAPE. Go to <http://mission.wnccumc.org/project-agape> for more information about the WNCC ministry in Armenia and Artsakh and details of how to support it.

Allan Van Meter, Project AGAPE Board Chairperson

e. Mission Response Center

In 2017 churches in the Western North Carolina Conference continued as a reservoir of benevolence for those who experienced disasters, dislocations, and devastating losses in the country and around the world. Much of this relief effort flows through the WNCC Mission Response Center (MRC) in Terrell, NC.

A significant part of the MRC mission is to serve the residents of the Nagorno-Karabakh area of Armenia through the WNCC ministry Project AGAPE. Two containers of humanitarian aid were sent to Armenia in 2017, which included 3,739 children's Christmas boxes. The MRC also collected and trucked 11,136 United Methodist Committee On Relief (UMCOR) kits and 3,080 cleaning buckets to Sager Brown UMCOR Depot and to other cooperating depots, which were distributed to needy families in the U.S. and in other countries.

Local communities in North and South Carolina were not neglected as they received $2,343 in donated goods from the MRC.

As a "Cooperating Depot" of the UMCOR network, the MRC serves as a regional warehouse for UMCOR relief supplies. In addition to UMCOR items from WNCC churches, the MRC received kits and cleaning buckets from other nearby UMC conferences. Due to an emergency fall collection, the MRC finished 2017 with an inventory of 21,022 UMCOR kits and 5,001 cleaning buckets.

Worth noting are the gifts received from church related and non-ecclesiastical sources such as:

- new and used clothing donations from NASCAR racing teams and from Belk company;
- reduced cost shipping to Armenia, courtesy of Armenia Artsakh Fund; and,
- shipments to Sager Brown, La., with costs shared by UMCOR.

Overall, the Mission Response Center collected and sent out goods in 2017 valued at $581,241.

The MRC committee sincerely thanks everyone who has responded with generous gifts and donations to the MRC.

The MRC hosted 98 work team visits in 2017. These work teams are folks who make the shipments happen: some coming on a regular basis and others as needed. The MRC committee is grateful for all of the people who volunteer.

All of this work is directed by Church and Community Worker, Dwaine Morgan, who plans the work of the teams, arranges for receipt of donated goods and shipments out of the MRC, and organizes chaotic piles of goods into some semblance of order.

Emergencies will arise and human needs will be ongoing. The MRC will continue its mandate to minister to "the least of these." In the words of Dwaine Morgan, "We don't always know where we are going, but if we are following God's direction, when we get there we will know it is Home."

Barbara and Ed Gross, Co-Chairpersons

f. Wesley Community Development Corporation

The past year has been one of exponential growth and outreach for Wesley Community Development in both its church advisory work as well as in the affordable housing arena. In both areas, Wesley seeks to impact communities, churches, and individuals by exercising its experience and talents in the field of real estate to grow and advance the work of the church.

Over the past two years, Wesley has been expanding its work with local churches as it investigates how to engage existing campuses to better connect with their communities and grow their individual ministries. Wesley's staff brings a depth of real estate experience that covers all components of the field, and approaches each relationship with a developer's eye, but the church's heart. It is seeing great work done by congregations, and is honored to be a part of that change in several partnerships. Wesley's Seeds of Change program continues to work with pastors and laity to explore different ways the church campus can be used as outreach; some currently associated with churches, and some not. In individual church work, Wesley brings a unique understanding of both the life and dynamics of churches, an understanding of the requirements of The Book of Discipline, and an understanding of campus utilization. All three of these must be addressed for any project to be successful.

In 2017, Wesley began developing deeper partnerships with a number of groups doing great things, in communities and within the conference. It is through these partnerships that Wesley works to expand the opportunities and impact to each local church it serves. Through the strong relationship with The United Methodist Foundation, a joint writing of a new Building and Loan Manual is now available to all within the conference. This manual addresses by category the various transactions churches would embark on, and adds the real estate, lending and church governance impacts required by each activity. In this manual churches will find the order of decisions, inclusion of charge conferences, the district office, the District Board of Location and Building and lender considerations. Churches will find this to be a useful tool in navigating details of real estate activities at the local level.

After the last annual conference, Wesley was honored to be awarded the development responsibility for the new conference center. It has listened carefully to the comments made from the floor and in the days that followed, and came away with a better understanding that this new building needed to make a statement about Methodist commitment to God's creation. Wesley revisited the original design and through the commitment and hard work of many, began the process to LEED certification. At this writing, Wesley is confident of achieving LEED, but will not know the final level until July. Wesley also entered into an agreement with Energy United, the power provider to the building, to create a commercial net metering pilot project. The new conference center will include an expansive solar array on the roof, using that energy to offset its need to draw grid power. Energy generated on off days will be sold back to the grid, reducing the demand on other forms of power generation. It is intended that this new conference center will send a message about United Methodist values as a people and a denomination. It has been exciting work to bring this from vision to reality.

6. CAMP AND RETREAT MINISTRIES OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

Since the 2017 Annual Conference session, Camp and Retreat Ministries of the Western North Carolina Conference continues to move forward to ensure they are vital places of ministry. It is the mission of the Conference Committee on Camping and Retreat Ministry to work with the conference coordinator to support each camp in its ministry initiatives, and develop opportunities for the camps to not only remain connected, but also increase their connection with the local churches of the Western NC Conference. This report will give a general update on camp properties. It will also explain how the committee and the conference coordinator have been working to accomplish the goals of continued connectivity with the conference, and support ministry initiatives of each camp.

Camp Property Updates

As of April 2018, the time of the report, the Elk Shoals property remains unsold. The brokers and property managers hired by the conference are working diligently to market this property appropriately. They continue to work closely with the conference trustees to develop effective marketing strategies to increase its visibility with potential buyers and brokers.

Camp McCall officially closed its gates January 2018. At the time of this writing, a prospective buyer is assessing the property and evaluating their interest. The broker hired by the Western NC Conference is working closely with the conference trustees and the prospective buyer to answer questions and work through the process with efficiency. Consideration for the wishes of the former board of directors of Camp McCall is being carefully considered.

Maintained and Increasing Connectivity with Western NC Annual Conference

Each year, the annual conference designates a portion of the budget to Conference Camp and Retreat Ministry. This money is then allocated by the Conference Committee on Camp and Retreat Ministry. The committee allocates portions of the money to each camp, but also holds a certain amount each year to help with other initiatives related to camping and retreat ministry.

One initiative is in the form of camper scholarships. The committee stands firm in their commitment that no child should be excluded from the sense of community, and leadership and faith formation that comes from the camp experience. Camper scholarships are given to any camper who requests them through the camp of their choice.

Thanks to the generosity of the former board of directors of Camp McCall, a new camper scholarship endowment fund has been created. The endowment is being held at The United Methodist Foundation and managed by the board of directors of Camp Tekoa. The money from this fund is made available to any potential camper who meets the following criteria:

1. A former summer camper from Camp McCall
2. A camper from Rutherford County or Burke County
3. A camper from the Blue Ridge District

If a potential camper meets any or all of these criteria they are eligible for a scholarship to any WNCC UMC summer camp of their choosing.

Another initiative the camping committee encourages is the ability for camp and retreat centers to offer a discount to any first-time church that wishes to hold a retreat at any one of the WNCC UMC retreat centers. Each camp and retreat center may offer a discount and apply to be reimbursed by the Conference Camping Committee.

Continued Support of Camp Ministry Initiatives

The Conference Camping Committee continues to support each camp and retreat ministry center by providing board development training and workshops. The committee also provides funding for yearly professional development for each camp director. Finally, as other ministry needs and initiatives are explained and funds requested, the committee is able to provide some financial support.

To date, the four WNCC UMC camp and retreat centers are Camp Tekoa, Tekoa Foothills, Camp Guilrock, and Mount Shepherd Camp and Retreat Center. Each of these centers strives to live up to the potential of their uniqueness. They each have their strengths and challenges as it pertains to being a thriving, vital place of ministry. While some are challenged more than others, each board of directors and camp staff remain committed to continuing their work towards being a sustainable model of vibrant faith formation and partnership with the Western NC Conference.

Camp Tekoa

This wonderful, Christ centered place called Tekoa continues to impact thousands of lives. Tekoa's donors, volunteers, trustees, seasonal staff, full-time staff, and many more all strive to share the light of Christ with all who come here.

2017 Summer Theme: Breathe. The summer theme was based on Matthew 11: 28-30, "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Daily Themes	Scripture	Concept
Monday/First Breath	Genesis 2:7	Everyone's breath comes from God.
Tuesday/Exhale	Luke 23:46	Let go.
Wednesday/Breathe In Peace	John 20:22	Receive the Holy Spirit.
Thursday/Breathe Out Praise	Psalms 150:6	Offer constant praise to God!
Friday/Breathe Life	Matthew 5:9	We breathe life to others.
Saturday/Be the Breath of God	Matthew 11:28-30	Through God's love we change the world.

Total number of campers for 2016: 2,323

Total number of campers for 2017: 2,436 (Record Number!)

- Plans are underway for Tekoa Foothills 2018. The plans are to offer 2 weeks of summer camp, 2 weeks of mission camps, and outreach to rental groups. Camp Kesem will be coming to Tekoa Foothills in August for one week. Kesem is a nationwide community, driven by passionate college student leaders, that supports children through and beyond their parent's cancer. Kesem is the largest national organization dedicated to this unique population – supporting children with innovative, fun-filled programs that foster a lasting community.
- Camp Tekoa was a vendor at the 2017 Youth Specialties National Conference in Memphis, TN. This was a great marketing venue for Tekoa to promote retreats, mission camps, and the summer programs.
- The Tekoa trustees voted to begin the completion of Lakeside Lodge located at Tekoa Foothills. Total cost to finish the building: $175,000.
- Two new projects are underway at Camp Tekoa; A new forty foot climbing tower and a new storage/maintenance facility. Both projects will be completed by April 2018.
- Let's Grow Outside (Tekoa's after-school program) won first place in the 2017 Apple Festival parade
- Third Annual Trails and Treats was held in October with over 600 people in attendance. Several schools, local businesses, and the Henderson County Sheriff's Department participated in the event. All donations received went to local elementary schools.
- Summer Offering: Tekoa chose Rise Against Hunger as the recipient for the summer offering. Campers and staff donated throughout the summer and raised a total $6300. Approximately 21,816 meals were packed.

James Johnson, Director

Guilrock United Methodist Camp, Inc.

Camp Guilrock has experienced a wonderful year of continued growth as the camp strives to live out the mission "Discover Creation, Experience God, and Grow in Faith" in new and meaningful ways. This growth includes a commitment to strengthening traditions and exploring new camp ministry opportunities. Operation 336 is one of the traditions that has been strengthened through a new commitment of living out the mission. They serve the surrounding community for a third summer and has expanded to include multiple weeks and areas of focus. Operation 336 is now serving urban, suburban, and rural areas through work projects, as well as relational ministry in neighborhoods, partner ministries, and adult care facilities. One new opportunity for 2017 and beyond is day camp. Through building relationships with families and local faith communities, Guilrock hosted two weeks of camp for kindergarten through fifth grade students. These weeks were filled with daily opportunities for all to grow in faith through innovative experiences in the outdoors and times of worship and devotion. It was an amazing time of growth for both camper families and camp as they began to live into the mission through camp provided programs. Day camp is expanding in 2018 to include six more weeks, countless new church and community supporters, and nearly twice as many campers. The camp looks forward to an exciting year of growth and continued strengthening of relationships with local churches and the Western North Carolina Conference.

Jason Boggs, Director

Mount Shepherd Retreat Center

2017 was a momentous year for Mount Shepherd. This year saw the transition of leadership from the Rev. Kent Shrader's remarkable 28 year ministry to the Rev. Josh Britton. Additionally, the center is thankful for the leadership of board members new and old who have made a considerable impact on the ministry. In 2017, new strategic partnerships were made and old ones were strengthened.

In June, a conservation easement was completed that will protect 275 acres of the iconic Shepherd Mountain for perpetuity. This process helped to vivify the commitment to creation care and environmental stewardship. Thanks to some generous contributions, this easement also brought a considerable financial gift to the ministry. This gift, which has been invested with the United Methodist Foundation, offers a promising opportunity to enhance the ministry.

The summer program continues to reach children with God's grace. One student was simply grateful for warm meals and a safe place to sleep for a week, while others reflected on the spiritual blessing they received during summer camp.

The powerful work of offering holy retreats also continues. After one particular youth retreat, an adult leader reflected, "I had not realized how stagnant my relationship with God had become until I came on this retreat. I haven't connected with God like that since I was a teenager!" The adult leader returned to his church reinvigorated. This represents the experience of so many other participants.

Ministry for youth and children in small-membership churches

In April, a new ministry that targets youth in small-membership churches was started. Through a conference grant, a group of 31 participants from five churches was welcomed for a weekend retreat. While none of these churches has all the resources required for a conventional youth ministry, this program offers an opportunity to build critical mass. Nearly none of the attending students had ever participated in a retreat before this weekend, and all were touched by the power of corporate worship, Bible study and their adventure experiences at Mount Shepherd.

This program for youth will continue to be offered once a year and for third-fifth grade children once per year. This ministry is thankful for the conference's generosity. The hope is that this event will help churches connect with other churches in offering intentional programming for young people.

Partnerships for summer ministry

This summer looks promising, as the missional network has partnered to provide a program called "Jovenes Para Cristo" for Latino youth in the community. 60-80 students are anticipated in a program sustained through various grants. This program will offer the hope of the Gospel to the participants, and it will also connect the churches to dozens of families in the community.

Additionally, partnerships with organizations like Angel Tree and local DSS agencies will help us to expand the reach in 2018. The life changing ministry is being brought to children who need it the most. The ministry is grateful for the continued support of the annual conference, and look forward to collaborating in the sacred work of making disciples for the transformation of the communities and world.

Josh Britton, Director

C. CONFERENCE RESOURCE CENTER

The WNCC Resource Center is proud to be a free lending library for all churches in the Western North Carolina Conference. The mission of the Resource Center is to provide a deep well of engaging, relevant books and media supporting the mission of the local church in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The Resource Center continues to purchase new, quality resources recommended by staff, pastors, and laity for use by churches and individuals for the education, leadership training, and spiritual formation of children, youth, and adults. The Resource Center's two 24-foot canvas labyrinths continue to be used often, especially during Lent and for retreats.

Circulation rose eight percent from 2,331 resources checked out in 2016, to 2,516 in 2017. As of April 2018, the Resource Center boasts 6,943 resources on its shelves, including books, DVDs, worship aids, vacation Bible school starter kits, stewardship campaign programs, Stephen Ministry support, and curriculum for all ages and stages of life.

Pastors and lay people alike can turn for help and guidance in selecting resources. Resource Center staff and volunteers are happy to recommend resources to meet specific needs. Stop by the Resource Center display during annual conference to set up a free patron account, update contact information, browse the catalog, and reserve resources today. Following annual conference, email the Resource Center at resourcecenter@wnccumc.org, call 704-714-2350, or browse www.wnccumc.org/resourcecenter.

Resource Center materials are managed and supported by Surpass, a system used in public schools and libraries. The online catalog, <http://wncc.mysurpass.net>, is open to all for browsing, but you must have a patron account to make reservations. The Surpass app for smart devices, Library Trek, makes the catalog even more accessible. Finally, be sure to "like" the Resource Center's Facebook page, www.facebook.com/wnccresourcecenter, for seasonal recommendations and to stay up-to-date on the newest resources as they are catalogued.

1.b. BENNETT COLLEGE CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

The Chaplain's Office encourages spiritual growth and development through the following opportunities:

Student Christian Fellowship – organized to promote and enhance spiritual growth and development, unity and sisterhood. The ministry coordinates community service projects and relationships with other young women, on and off campus.

UM Students – organized to serve as a “community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand the concept of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.” Young women have the opportunity to network with college students, helping to bridge cultural, socio-economic and ethnic boundaries. Black College Fund welcomes new Bennett College Ambassadors.

Spirit of David Dance Ministry – Liturgical and Mime – The mission is to share the gospel of Christ through dance on campus, in the community, and through the church. This year, the ministry celebrated its 18th anniversary during a reunion concert.

Belles of Harmony Gospel Choir was organized in 1973. The choir sings on campus, in churches in Greensboro, and other cities across the eastern region of the United States.

During the weekly ACES (Academic Cultural Enrichment Series), students were introduced to TMS (Train – Mobilize – Serve) Global that exists to mobilize and deploy the body of Christ globally to join Jesus in His mission, especially among the least-reached peoples. They train cross-cultural workers and churches in the US and around the world.

Featured speaker Romal Tune is the Senior Advisor to the President, Diversity and Inclusion Initiatives for the ministry. He shared a copy of his recently released book, “Love is an Inside Job: Getting Vulnerable with God” with students attending the event.

TMS plans to network with the students regarding leadership and mission opportunities across various disciplines and the chaplain's office is in collaboration to host a workshop in the fall.

The Rev. Tune was joined by the Rev. Max Wilkins, President and CEO of TMS and the Rev. Regina Moore, North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, who coordinated the visit.

UMC Social Justice Program: Through the resources of the UMC, Bennett College has established the Sandi Neely Smith Social Justice Scholarship and Internship Program. Smith was a 1976 graduate of the College and a member of the Communist Workers party. She was one of five people killed during a conflict with Ku Klux Klan and American Nazi Party members in Greensboro in 1979. Over the course of the funding, students have engaged in very meaningful research and community enrichment projects, including:

- support of youth in a summer reading program;
- work with youth in the juvenile justice system and development of the Peer-to-Peer Mentoring support group for the young people in the program;
- work to encourage migrant workers to unionize; a student presentation on the living conditions and treatment of migrant workers was titled Modern Day Slavery; and,
- student serving as ESL instructor for women released from human trafficking.

Current interns will serve agencies committed to:

- environmental justice concerns in Oregon;
- Pan-Africa Community Action grassroots community organization and Institute for Policy Studies multipurpose think tank in Washington, DC; and,
- the NAACP Hollywood Bureau that is charged with holding the entertainment industry accountable for advancing diversity in front of and behind the lens.

Special Celebration: The Office of the Chaplain collaborated with Bennett Special Projects Coordinator and College Archivist and Museum Curator to present “In Memory and Celebration: The 60th Anniversary of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.’s Speech and Conscience of the Human Spirit: The life of Nelson Mandela (quilt exhibition).

- the event featured audio of Dr. King’s speech along with reflections and their impact; Voices of the movement included those present for the speech: Alumna Lola McAdoo’58;
- a local Civil Rights historian; and
- a South African professor who made the connection between the struggles with Apartheid and Civil Rights Movement which was a natural bridge for the Mandela quilt exhibition overview.

The chaplain's role is to nurture students as members of the various ministries and to offer opportunities for all students to discuss their understanding of faith. Also, the chaplain encourages students to remain connected to their faith community in order to worship, serve and grow.

Brevard College, a four-year liberal arts college founded in 1853, is the oldest of its kind in Western North Carolina and is the longest ongoing private institution in Brevard. The College has a diverse student body from across the United States and internationally. It is home to students from 25 states and 16 foreign countries. Brevard takes pride in its emphasis on experiential liberal arts education that strives to inspire students to artistic, intellectual, and social action and encourages personal growth. Brevard College is a place where academics, athletics, mountains, music, art, and small-town living combine to create an ideal environment for learning, experience, and growth.

Over the last couple of years Brevard College has also done more to offer local counties competitive scholarship opportunities with its Half-Tuition Scholarship. This academic year it expanded the scholarship even further west to include all of the WNC mountain counties in the hopes of making college more affordable for students from those areas.

Brevard's reclassification of its athletic programs from NCAA Division II to NCAA Division III became effective in the 2017-2018 academic year, shifting the priority for student athletes to their educational experience. Brevard boasts 18 NCAA DIII sports teams and three non-NCAA teams with nearly 60 percent of the current student population participating in athletics.

The Brevard College story is about more than the numbers. The distinctive learning experience is truly that. Brevard College's recruitment and retention philosophy is about identifying those students who will thrive in this environment and who respond to an interactive learning approach. Brevard doesn't just put a degree in its students' hands; it develops their ability and passion to make a difference in the world.

David C. Joyce, President

2.b. BREVARD COLLEGE CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

During the academic year, the Office for Spiritual and Religious Life, led by its College Minister, aimed to provide dynamic opportunities for learning, understanding, engagement, and discovery. It strives to offer creative and religiously diverse programming, service learning projects, cultural and religious immersion experiences, community engagement, mentoring and training, inspirational speaker series, and space for worship and reflection. The Office for Spiritual and Religious life seeks to provide profound experiences where inclusion, compassion, creativity, and possibility become palpable expressions of the human experience. It intentionally does this while remembering its rich Methodist heritage. Throughout the academic year, it has:

- Counseled more than 225 students, staff, and faculty.
- Been invited to pray more than 55 times for meetings, athletic events, Brevard College events, and the Brevard City Council.
- Facilitated 50 students on a Houses of Worship Tour (visited a Catholic Church, Jewish Synagogue, a Muslim Mosque, and Buddhist Temple).
- Visited/sat in on more than 40 Brevard College classes and athletic meetings during the academic year.
- Created an eight-week course with The Center for Spiritual Wisdom called "Listening for the Heart of Democracy" that had more than 125 weekly attendees.
- Been invited to share more than 30 sermons/presentations to religiously affiliated and civic organizations on and beyond the campus.
- Worked to form a student-led prayer group that prayed daily for themselves, their classmates, faculty, staff, and administration, Brevard's community, and the world.
- Taught courses on the Hebrew Bible, New Testament, and Interfaith Literacy.

Programs Created:

- An Emerging Religious Leaders Program (for students with vocational interests in religion).
- A workshop for seniors expecting to graduate, called "Only Steps Away: Listening for Life after Brevard College."
- A Religious Literacy Project in conjunction with The Center for Spiritual Wisdom to expand the campus and community understanding of religion.
- An Interfaith Council in conjunction with the Interfaith Youth Core.

Thank you so much for your generosity. Brevard College remains excited about ministry and all the things God is doing with, among, and through us.

Sharad Creasman, College Minister and Advisor to the President

3.b. GREENSBORO COLLEGE CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

The Greensboro College Religious Life office actively supports the spiritual life and faith development of students, faculty, and staff. Central to the life of the college is a weekly chapel service on Thursdays led by students, with music provided by the chapel band and gospel choir. This weekly service includes a variety of preachers from the campus and community.

Each week there are a variety of small groups, Bible studies, and structured times for prayer. The Greensboro College Religious Life office also provides a weekly Bible study for faculty and staff. In conjunction with the Wesley-Luther campus ministry at UNC-G, a Sunday night worship service for college students is provided in the area. The Religious Life office continues to collaborate with the Wesley-Luther Campus Ministry, Catholic Campus Ministry, Episcopal Campus Ministry, Ukirk (Presbyterian) Campus Ministry, and Hillel Campus Ministry in Greensboro. UNC-G's students have the ability to attend the weekly gatherings with these ministries, and a few host small groups on campus.

As a recipient of both the Young Clergy Initiative and the Rule 2 Grant from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, Greensboro College Religious Life has implemented a few programs to help students discern their call to ministry. It has monthly lunch conversations called "Breaking Bread; Breaking Boundaries," where students are able to talk about matters of faith and a particular social issue in the world. Students also have the experience of being an intern at local United Methodist and Lutheran congregations to learn about ministry and ways in which they can serve the church as lay leaders and ordained clergy. The students have the opportunity to also attend Exploration 2017 and NEXT 2018, so that they may discern their call with other young people around the country.

In the fall, Greensboro College also hosted the 7th annual Reynolds Lecture on the Church and Higher Education with speaker Steven Cureton, associate professor of sociology at the University of North Carolina-Greensboro. This spring the 55th annual Ward Lecture on Christian education was held in Finch Chapel with speaker Andrew T. Draper, who serves as director of the Honors Guild and teaches theology in the Department of Religion and Biblical Studies at Taylor University. In April the college also hosted the 10th Annual Schleunes Lecture, "Catholics and Jews Before the Holocaust," by Richard Crane, Professor of History at Benedictine College. The public is invited to attend these events including the annual Lessons and Carols service now in its 53rd year. The website is the best place to find upcoming lectures and events: www.greensboro.edu.

Greensboro College is excited to begin a new Masters of Arts program in Theology, Culture, and Ethics and was approved by the University Senate as a United Methodist affiliated institution for another ten years.

The Religious Life office also provides service opportunities on campus and in the community. It works closely with the Boys and Girls Club of Greensboro, providing events on campus for their members each semester. It also sponsors an Alternative Spring Break trip. UNC-G's students also sustain and support a community garden on campus to feed the hungry in the community. This year West Market Street United Methodist Church collaborated with students to maintain and support this garden.

Finally, the Religious Life office and the Religion Department continue to work together to support students who are exploring their call to ordained and lay ministry. Currently, alumni are attending seminaries at Yale, Duke, and Emory. In conjunction with this effort, the college is explicitly recruiting students through significant scholarships for those interested in religious life, community service, and religion. Those scholarships can be found here: www.greensboro.edu/dept-rep-scholarships.php.

Greensboro College is proud to be connected to The United Methodist Church and seeks to continue to live into the words of Charles Wesley to join together "knowledge and vital piety." It does this through its classes, chapel services, lectures, and community service events so that its students might be faithful and informed citizens of the world.

4.b. HIGH POINT UNIVERSITY CHAPLAIN'S REPORTHigh Point University Chapel and Religious Life Introduction

- The Chapel and Religious Life Office serves the mission of High Point University and The United Methodist Church by deepening the Methodist roots of its campus, forming lives committed to doing justice, loving mercy, and walking humbly with God (Micah 6:8). It does this by offering a central moment of worship on campus each week (Chapel), supporting multiple campus ministries, hosting unique spiritual formation initiatives (including its Pilgrimage programs) and emphasizing the importance of diversity and interfaith relationships as part of its United Methodist identity.

- New Staff: The Rev. Andria Williamson: In the summer of 2017, Brittani Hunt, Manager of Chapel Programs, transitioned within the University to become its first Director of Multicultural Affairs. The Chapel Office is proud to onboard staff members that help lead HPU in becoming a more inclusive institution of higher learning. The new Manager of Chapel Programs is the Rev. Andria Williamson, a recent graduate of Wake Forest Divinity School. The Rev. Williamson coordinates student leadership for its weekly Chapel service, led the fall Piedmont Triad Pilgrimage, and fosters multiple programs in spiritual formation.

Weekly Chapel – Fall 2017

- Continued Social Media Outreach: The Chapel and Religious Life Office continues to increase its online presence. Weekly Chapel is now streamed through Facebook Live, a feature that allows HPU's weekly Chapel service to reach thousands of people weekly. See the following:
 - ♦ Facebook.com/hpuchapel
 - ♦ Instagram.com/hpuchapel
 - ♦ Twitter.com/hpuchapel1
- Eighteen worship services were hosted at Hayworth Chapel in the fall of 2017, including family weekend services and an Alumni Weekend worship service. Other highlights from the fall include:
 - ♦ Matthew 5: The Second Mile. A five-week series focusing on the teachings of Jesus from the Sermon on the Mount. Students were able to get a contextual understanding of teachings such as “turn the other cheek,” “pray for those who persecute you,” and “if one forces you to carry his pack one mile, go two.”
 - ♦ Faith and Mental Health. Perhaps the most anticipated and well-received series of the fall was a three-part series on the intersections of faith and mental health. Executive Director of Counseling M.J. Raleigh joined the Rev. Davis each week to deliver messages. Messages examined the rise in mental illness, suicide ideation, and self-perception.
 - ♦ The Three Prayers. This series followed the implications of sincere prayer that begin with three phrases: “Thank you,” “I’m sorry,” and “Please.”
 - ♦ Lessons and Carols (11/30). The Chapel Choir led this annual candlelight worship service.

Other Fall 2017 Highlights

- Social Entrepreneurship: The Board of Stewards raised over $15,000 (a record amount) through the weekly offerings and other partnerships to provide Christmas presents to the Salvation Army Angel Tree program. Students also had the opportunity to sponsor an angel by buying presents for a child.
- Triad Pilgrimage: The Chapel and Religious Life Office led a group of ten students on a fall pilgrimage in the Piedmont Triad. Students were able to get a closer look at major issues, such as food insecurity, gang violence, and other issues related to poverty and disconnection through the lens of their faith.

Spring 2018 Highlights

- Palm Burning/Covenant Renewal Service: During the first Chapel service of the semester, the congregation took last year's palm branches from Holy Week and burned them as a symbol of burning away the “chaff” that they may live more intentional, holy lives.
- 5th Annual Black Heritage Service: The Chapel and Religious Life Office partnered with historic black organizations on campus to host this service to celebrate Black History Month. It offered this service on a Wednesday evening (in the natural rhythm of Chapel) instead of a Sunday. More students were able to appreciate the diversity of Christian witness on its campus.
- Ash Wednesday Service: Nearly 300 people attended an Ash Wednesday service to begin the season of Lent.
- Chapel Series: Unafraid: A three-week series on the rise of fear, both personal and cultural, and the Gospel's guidance through such fear.
- Chapel Series: The Last Week: The bulk of Wednesday Chapel services this spring focused on following Jesus through Holy Week. Each Wednesday night followed Jesus through the one day of his last week of mortal life.
 - + These included a reverse offering, a visit from renowned musician Chuck Bell, and a Holy Week communion service.
- Guest Speakers: High Point University has been fortunate to have wonderful guest speakers in Chapel this semester, including Bishop Will Willimon and the Rev. Dr. Michael Brown of Marble Collegiate Church in NYC.
- Attendance: Over the last year, chapel continues to average 200 attendees per service.
- Chapel Citsse: Over 60 students are signed up for chapel worship for credit this spring. This unique opportunity allows students to pursue faith formation for academic credit. It is one of the ways High Point University lives out its Christian Methodist heritage, encouraging spiritual development as part of its holistic education. Students' final essays, more-over, concerning their spiritual development and experiences of chapel provide invaluable insights into what has impact and what does not.
- The Chapel Choir, under the direction of Dr. Liz Doebler, is now comprised of more than 20 auditioned voices.
- Collision Worship Band: This student-led worship band has been under development over the last two years and has now become a cornerstone of weekly Chapel.

Other 2017-2018 Chapel Emphases:

- Student Participation: A continued emphasis has been placed on having students lead worship, while also promoting more interactive elements in weekly Chapel. Students have more opportunities to speak, lead music, and promote service projects during weekly Chapel.
- Attendance: Over the last year, chapel continues to average 200 attendees per service.
- Chapel Citsse: Nearly 100 students took chapel worship for credit this past academic year. This unique opportunity allows students to pursue faith formation for academic credit. It is one of the ways High Point University lives out its Christian Methodist heritage, encouraging spiritual development as part of its holistic education. Students' final essays, concerning their spiritual development and experiences of chapel provide invaluable insights into what has impact and what does not.

Pilgrimage/Trips

- God in the City Pilgrimage: Houston: The Rev. Preston Davis and the Rev. Andria Williamson led a group of 10 students on a seven-day pilgrimage to Houston. While there, students provided flood relief in the morning. In the afternoon they visited different faith communities to see how those faith communities are serving the most marginalized in Houston, particularly in the wake of Hurricane Harvey. These included Fondren Apartment Ministries (led by the Rev. Hannah Terry), ReVision (led by St. Luke UMC), St. John Downtown (the Rev. Rudy Rasums), and The Work of the People (Travis Reed).

Campus Ministries and Multi-faith Efforts

- Christian Campus Ministries have flourished this year. With the addition of Campus Outreach more students are being reached and are participating in the religious life activities.
- Interfaith Dinner Club: Interfaith Dinner Club has grown from 10 students (Fall of 2016) from various religious and cultural backgrounds to 40 students (Spring of 2018). In this once-a-month dinner club, students engage in reflection about their own spiritual and cultural heritage, as well as learn from the spiritual and cultural heritage of others.
- Passover Seder: Hillel, the Jewish student group on campus, led its fifth annual Passover Seder to celebrate the Jewish holiday on campus.

United Methodist Relationships and Connections

- The Rev. Dr. Al Ward, HPU Trustee and Alumni, joined HPU in the fall of 2017 to serve as its Clergy in Residence.
- Dr. Dennis Carroll, Provost, serves on both the Board of Ordained Ministry and now the UMC University Senate.
- The Rev. Davis and the Rev. Dr. Chris Franks continue to teach and preach at local churches in the area.
- The Rev. Dr. Carol Stoneking continues to serve as the Dean of the David R. Hayworth College of Arts and Sciences.

Preston Davis, Minister to the University

5. PFEIFFER UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT'S REPORT AND CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

Greetings from Pfeiffer University!

It's been a year of growth and continued progress at Pfeiffer!

Demographic Information: Pfeiffer welcomed its largest entering class in more than 30 years in the Fall of 2017 with 330 new students! They joined returning students to start the year with an undergraduate student body total of 813 undergraduates. The entering class was 53.3 percent male and 46.7 percent female; 31.7 percent Baptist, 28.4 percent Unaffiliated and 11.9 percent United Methodist; 78.4 percent came from North Carolina; 57.4 percent were White, 24.3 percent were Black or African American and 7.5 percent were Hispanic or Latino; and five students were from other countries. The graduate programs include 13 degree offerings and graduate students took a total of 2,796 credit hours in the Fall 2017 semester. Going forward, Pfeiffer will be bringing new graduate programs on board in Sports Management, Occupational Therapy, and Physician's Assistant Studies.

Across the University:

- Several Pfeiffer academic programs achieved "best of or best in" honors this year: Master of Marriage and Family Therapy, Master of Health Administration, Bachelor's program in Healthcare Informatics, Master's in Organizational Leadership, and undergraduate programs in business, education, and nursing were among those recognized. The business program received national accreditation this past year from the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs.
- Pfeiffer continues its vocational exploration and Pfeiffer Journey programs with the assistance of a NetVUE Program Development Grant. Promoting the idea of vocation as one's call across the university helps Pfeiffer to live into its mission to prepare servant leaders for lifelong learning.
- Pfeiffer's Outreach into the communities in which it lives continues with programs such as STEM Winter Wonderland, held in cooperation with the Stanly County Family YMCA; the Stanly County Quizbowl; the Math 24 Competition; overwhelming opportunities for service; the Montford Park Community Organization; and community mental health outreach by the Pfeiffer Institute Reach. Pfeiffer faculty member Dr. Robert Cox received a grant from the North Carolina Problem Gaming Program and has been involved in bringing an understanding of what problem gaming is and how to help those who need help.

- Pfeiffer continues its move into NCAA Division III athletics as part of the USA South Athletic Conference and experienced great success in its new conference. Track and Field and the Women's Basketball program have already competed in the postseason in the Eastern College Athletic Conference and it is expected that some Spring sports will be invited for postseason play as well.
- Pfeiffer officially opened its new Charlotte location in October 2017 at 1515 Mockingbird Lane (directly across the street from the former location). Because the programs in Charlotte are primarily late afternoon/evening, space is available for rental during the daytime hours for those who may have a need.
- More than 650 Pfeiffer faculty, staff, and students participated in 74 separate volunteer opportunities with the Francis Center this year, and another 16 opportunities were sponsored by other departments, classes, and clubs. Examples include:
 1. This year Pfeiffer started an AmeriCorps program where a recent graduate stayed for a year and created volunteer opportunities for Pfeiffer students to teach STEM activities to children at afterschool programs at Title I underserved elementary schools.
 2. The Francis Center has continued to grow its relationships with a few main program partners: Habitat for Humanity, the YMCA, Monarch, and the Community Table Soup Kitchen.
 3. The Hunger Relief Garden expanded to provide produce to food banks in three counties and expects to expand to five counties in Summer 2018.

Update from the Chaplain's Office at Pfeiffer: This year the Frances Center for Servant Leadership and Campus Ministries merged to create The Frances Center for Servant Leadership and Faith Formation. This new design allows students to explore and practice their emerging beliefs and values as well as engage in servant leadership opportunities on campus and in the broader community.

- As an ecumenical community, Pfeiffer Chapel is designed as a sacred space for students to explore and develop their beliefs and values through worship, conversation, and experiential learning. This year, students engaged in traditional, contemporary, and fresh expressions of worship as well as deliberate discussions about their faith within in the context of their local and global communities. Chapels have included: small group discussions on interfaith dialogue, experiential learning that connects the gospel to hunger relief and homeless, panel discussions on disaster relief, ecumenical guest speakers, and intentional traditional services honoring important events within the liturgical calendar.
- Campus Ministries at Pfeiffer continues to thrive and support students in their spiritual formation. In honor of the College's relationship to The United Methodist Church, many programs are designed specifically for Christian students. This year's programming included: Christians Engaged in Faith Formation, Athletic Ministries at Pfeiffer, CRU, and Praise Band & Gospel Choir. The chaplain's office also provided new opportunities such as small groups focused on call and vocation, Theology on Tap, Praise Karaoke, and two new denominational organizations: Catholics at Pfeiffer, and Metamorphosis, A Baptist Bible Study.
- A new Beliefs and Values Initiative began in the 2017-2018 academic year. This initiative welcomes students of all religious and philosophical backgrounds with a goal to build a community based on the principles of mutual respect, understanding, and dialogue. This year, students participated in side-by-side service with different interfaith communities throughout the Charlotte area, attended Ripples, an interfaith conference at Elon University, and experienced programs like Spill Your Ink, a tattoo storytelling event.
- A Deliberative Dialogue Training program started at the end of April in which local clergy were invited to learn alongside Pfeiffer students about this form of discussion aimed at finding promising avenues for action about shared concerns around particular issues.
- Dr. Kevin Taylor continues his popular monthly theological round table, Café-chesis, and manages theologycast.org, a podcast that focuses on theological discussions in theology, academics, and pop culture. Tune in for fun, engaging and thoughtful dialogue.

Clergy Health Institute: Pfeiffer continues its work with the Clergy Health initiative, welcoming eight female clergy in the 2017 cohort. These women leaders participated in an eight-day retreat at Lake Junaluska where a holistic health approach was provided: nutrition, cardiovascular health, healthy grocery shopping, exercise sessions, cognitive effects of exercise, bone health, work/life balance, stress management, and art therapy among them. At the three-month follow-up session, all but one reported weight loss and other positive health outcomes! The 2018 Clergy Health Retreat will welcome both a male and female cohort and we're looking for 14 clergy to participate. Sign up now! Contact Dr. Dana Martin at dana.martin@pfeiffer.edu.

Youth Theological Institute ... or PFEIFFER YeTI: Summer 2017 began the inaugural YeTI at Pfeiffer with three cohorts together for two weeks for one life-changing experience! Twenty-four participants started the program, ranging in age from 14 to 17, with 26 percent minority student participation. The group was overwhelmingly female (79 percent), from 21 faith communities and three faith traditions from North Carolina, South Carolina, and Kentucky. Participants, mentors, and leaders engaged in activities and discussion that served to expand the participants' understanding of ministry and invited them to consider their future in ministry. Immersion experiences took groups to an Intentional Community in Asheville, to study social justice in Washington, DC, and to study sports ministry in Charlotte. Pfeiffer students served as mentors. Registration is now open for YeTI 2018, so spread the word!

Homecoming is set for September 28-29, 2018. If you're a Falcon, or just want to experience Pfeiffer, please plan to attend! Remember #pfeifferishome.

E. COUNCIL ON CAMPUS MINISTRY

The WNCC Council on Campus Ministry mission is to support local campus ministries to make and grow disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. To that end, the council has taken several steps to live up to that mission.

The Conference Council on Campus Ministries hosted a training for local campus ministry boards on March 23 and 24 at the Catholic Conference Center in Hickory. Twenty-five people were in attendance representing six of the seven campus ministries in Western North Carolina Conference. The Rev. John Weaver, Executive Director/Campus Minister at Middle Tennessee State University Wesley Foundation, led the board training. A variety of topics including how to recruit and develop a local board; fund-raising; and supporting a campus minister's well-being were discussed. Local board members took the opportunity to meet, get together in small groups to discuss their learning, and create plans of practice to implement what was learned during the training. All of the campus ministers had a time to meet together to share with one another the ways they had seen God move in their campus ministries over the last year, and to share their ideas for how they can partner together and learn from one another. The Council on Campus Ministry is charged with providing training that will equip local campus ministry boards to support local campus ministers. The council's intent is for an annual gathering.

The council held a planning retreat to help clarify its mission and responsibilities and to create a Ministry Action Plan (MAP) to help guide the council's work. The retreat was led by Jack Ewing. During the council's time together, they were prompted to define its mission, refine its vision, and align core values to enable the Conference Council on Campus Ministries to take the proper steps and strategies to help empower the campus ministries to grow disciples in their local settings.

This year the council, in conjunction with the communications office of the conference, has produced a promotional video for each of the campus ministries to highlight the unique ministries of each campus. These videos will be put on the conference website and Facebook page, and will be given to the campus ministries to use in the recruitment of perspective students.

In the last year the Conference Council on Campus Ministries worked diligently to ensure the growth of its seven campus ministries in both scope and size; they have now expanded to include over 1,500 active students across 12 campuses (not including the conference's five United Methodist colleges and universities, which operate independently from the council). By supporting these ministries with the council's prayers and apportionment funds, a new generation of students is being inspired to "Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, Transform the World." Thanks to the generous support of the conference, Methodism is alive and well on campuses in Western North Carolina. By strengthening the support for all of the current campus ministries and creating new ministries in new places, the council is committed to its mission and looks forward to what God has in store for the future of campus ministry in WNCC.

APPALACHIAN WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation has had a wonderful year in campus ministry serving the campuses of Appalachian State University and Caldwell Community College–Watauga campus. Its leadership continues to be focused on letting its campus communities know that they are beloved children of God. It has been diligent about extending the invitation to others to join its discipleship journey to follow Jesus together, and it works every day to help young adults faithfully live into God's call for their lives in college and beyond. This year three new students have become certified candidates for ministry, and the Wesley Foundation has five students who will begin seminary this fall, joining over a dozen AppWesley alumni who are currently enrolled in seminaries across the country. As the Wesley Foundation looks to the next season of campus ministry, it hopes to be more engaged in supporting mental health with young adults, connect its small group ministry with ongoing local missions, and continue to develop its campus ministry facility in order to maximize its ministry potential adjacent to the university. The Wesley Foundation thanks all of its alumni, parents, local churches, and friends for their support of its campus ministry, and it is always thankful to serve as a thriving extension ministry of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. It believes that making disciples of Jesus on campus will change the world. Thank you for helping the Appalachian Wesley Foundation live into that God-given conviction year after year.

ASHEVILLE WESLEY FOUNDATION

In the Fall of 2015, the campus ministry at UNC Asheville was relaunched, seeking to help students connect with God, each other, and the world. Since then, the ministry has experienced much growth and has re-established a weekly gathering on campus, created several bible studies and small groups, and started an annual Fall Retreat for students. In the Fall of 2017, through the work of the Board of Directors and Campus Minister, Asheville Wesley launched a new leadership structure, creating more opportunities for students to step forward in leadership and grow in discipleship. This leadership structure included beginning a new "Student Ministry Internship" program. The ministry is anticipating continued growth as student leadership is enhanced and presence on campus continues to increase.

NINER UNITED AT UNC CHARLOTTE

It has been a rewarding year at Niner United, the campus ministry serving UNC Charlotte. Niner United started the year with a wonderful Week of Welcome, welcoming its largest number of first-year students to our programs. It successfully connected with 1,135 members of the UNC Charlotte Class of 2021 and has made successful connections to 2,761 UNC Charlotte students. These students have attended at least one of Niner United's events, completed an interest form at a Niner United tabling event, or sought out the organization for pastoral care or nurture.

Niner United offers two weekly worship services and numerous small groups. In October, a team of students worked in Brunswick, Ga., in response to Hurricane Irma. In November, 15 students traveled to Portland, Ore., to discern a possible call into the ordained ministry.

In February, the campus ministry Board of Directors awarded Dr. Mary Lynne Calhoun, Dean Emeritus of the Cato College of Education, the campus ministry's highest honor, the Loy Witherspoon Distinguished Service Award.

In March, a team of students responded to multiple blizzards affecting northwest Montana's Blackfeet Native American Reservation. Since the first of January, the Blackfeet Reservation has seen an astonishing 240 inches of snow. The all-student Early Response Team from UNC Charlotte received and distributed five tons of wood pellets and three semi-loads of trees, cut and parceled in hundreds of pickup truckloads of firewood, that traveled as far north as the Canadian border. The team also received and distributed four shipments of food and supplies that originated in Helena, the capital of Montana.

Niner United continues to work with the Lilly Endowment, as they have sustained their support of its theological exploration of vocation initiative, the Faith and Leadership Experience. Its students continue to work closely with the Niner Food Pantry, the Charlotte Men's Shelter, the Charlotte Rescue Mission, the Urban Ministry Center, and Ascension Soup Kitchen. It is reaching more students than any time in its 54-year history. These students actively seek to participate in a consequential life of faith, serving with the compassion of Jesus and living a life of grace, peace, and hospitality.

WESLEY FOUNDATION AT WESTERN CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

The Wesley Foundation at Western Carolina University is grateful for all of the support it received from the WNC Annual Conference, The Smoky Mountain District, local churches, its Board of Directors, and its friends and alumni. This academic year the ministry helped college students connect with each other and the world around them in many ways. Students spend time with each other daily at the ministry and at Cullowhee United Methodist Church. They participated in thousands of hours of service work over the year, including splitting and delivering over 100 loads of firewood to local residents and delivering meals weekly via the Department on Aging Meals on Wheels program. Students also planned and implemented the 9th Annual Wesley Haunted House, which raised over $2,500 for mission work and reached out to over 600 college students and local residents. Each week during the school year the student worship team and Wesley staff plan and hold worship for college students. Wesley staff members help college students learn how to plan and give a sermon almost every week of the school year. Staff members also provide opportunities for small group participation, worship with Cullowhee UMC, and fellowship and study with Cullowhee UMC members. The Wesley Foundation at WCU staff have planned their first ever student trip to the Holy Land which takes place in May 2018. There are three staff, six students, three alumni, and eight Cullowhee UMC members attending. Next year the staff plan to increase their focus on in-depth student leader development, Board development and student involvement, increased intentional student outreach, and student worship training. All of this would not be possible without the generous grant from the WNCC, the Smoky Mountain District, friends and alumni of the Wesley Foundation, and its own fund-raising efforts. One dream and prayer of the Wesley Foundation at WCU is to be able to have increased funding to continue to grow its staff in order to reach more college students.

WESLEY FOUNDATION AT EAST MARKET AT NORTH CAROLINA A&T STATE UNIVERSITY

Wesley Foundation at East Market (WFEM) is the Wesley Foundation to North Carolina A&T State University. Over the past year, WFEM has started two new discipleship opportunities that have reached an average of 27 people on a regular basis to fulfill its mission of making disciples of Christ. Additionally, it has developed a worship team that regularly worships with Metropolitan (Greensboro). WFEM has started a food pantry to reach the needs of the students and has helped approximately 65 students weekly. The pantry has been sponsored by both NC A&T and the Central Greensboro Missional Network. WFEM is continuing its relationship with Metropolitan (Greensboro) and developing more relationships with the faculty and staff of NC A&T.

WESLEY-LUTHER AT THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA GREENSBORO

Wesley-Luther continues to grow and expand programming that creates opportunities for students to develop a deep, meaningful relationship with Christ, explore vocation, practice radical service of others, and to support the UNCG community through its campus food pantry which distributed more than five tons of food last year. Several years ago, a young transfer student in chemistry was invited by her lab instructor to a free meal at Wesley-Luther. Although she had been so deeply hurt by members of her home church that she had renounced her baptism, she went that evening and gradually became involved in a loving community that engaged her in service, worship, and Bible study. Three years ago, she renewed her baptismal vows and joined a UM church. She remained in touch with Wesley-Luther after graduation and last Fall traveled with eight other W-L students to the United Methodist "Explore" event in Portland. There she experienced God's call to ordained ministry and has now received a prestigious scholarship to attend a Methodist seminary. All of this has been possible because of the significant annual support for campus ministry by the WNCC.

WINSTON-SALEM WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation has had another great year of ministry. Primarily serving in this past year the campuses of Wake Forest University and Salem College, it has held weekly large group fellowship meetings where a free dinner, worship, preaching, prayer circle, and fellowship have occurred. At Wake Forest, student-led Bible studies take place weekly; the Rev. Jones leads the weekly Bible study at Salem College. Wake Forest Wesley has also had four spiritual retreats, social outings, intramural teams, and a very meaningful spring break mission trip with Bahamas Methodist Habitat. The Rev. Jones meets with over 30 students a week for mentoring sessions and "crisis" meetings as needed. The Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation also made a point to reach out to the Muslim Student Association to do some joint recreational and service opportunities in an effort to see the people and the commonalities behind the different belief systems. Fund-raising is also a very important part of the Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation's ongoing work; with the Conference supplying about 60 percent of its budgetary needs, fund-raising from parents, alumni, and local churches is very important. The Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation is also excited to report that it will have a full-time intern with a Wesley Foundation background to help with the ministry at Salem College and the UNC School of the Arts next academic year. Additionally, it has at least one graduating student who is exploring divinity school options after a gap year of traveling the world. Thanks to all for your continued prayers and support of campus ministry.

F. HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

1. ALDERSGATE UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT COMMUNITY, INC.

Aldersgate's mission is "We honor elders and are committed to creating and fostering diverse, caring communities where everyone has a voice and value," and is the solid bulwark for its vision, to "... strive to give the elders we serve their best possible day, each day, by creating fulfilling life experiences while partnering with others to form vibrant communities." Together, these drive the strategic planning process, aligning closely to the core values of living in faith, practicing stewardship, serving with compassion, striving for excellence, respecting independence, embracing diversity and inclusion, and building meaningful connections.

Priority initiatives include:

- build and sustain Independent Living occupancy to 95 percent;
- establish home care off-campus;
- continue implementation of person-directed care initiatives;
- develop master site plan;
- increase philanthropy;
- touch the lives of more people through the Aldersgate mission;
- fulfill standards of excellence to maintain Eagle and CARF accreditations;
- evaluate/establish corporate structure to ensure Aldersgate UMRC, Inc. and other entities are operating most effectively from legal, financial, and missional perspectives;
- continue diversity and inclusion journey;
- evaluate, integrate, and expand capabilities through stronger offerings in technology;
- advance legislative agendas around elders' issues.

One of the most significant achievements of 2017 was the addition of the first Chief Diversity and Inclusion Officer, as well as implementing the role of Mission Advancement. Diversity and inclusion achievements include a wide-reaching service project focused around Martin Luther King Jr., and a resident and staff tour of the powerful K(no)w Justice K(no)w Peace Exhibit at the Levine Museum of the New South. Achievements in Mission Advancement include the addition of an Urban Farm spanning 6.7 acres of Aldersgate property that will address food access concerns for neighboring immigrant and lower income communities. Also, a partnership was formed with Charlotte Mecklenburg School Systems to bring an experiential learning program called Focus Garinger to campus that will provide 100+ students in 9th and 10th grade who are at risk of failing the opportunity to graduate with their high school diploma. Lastly, the afterschool immigrant program called Our Bridge for Kids has been successfully integrated into the campus, along with strong intergenerational programming. The Gateway Expansion objectives continue to progress, including opening a new 140,000 sq. ft. skilled nursing facility, and the opening of the Gateway Commons in December 2017. To better serve both the community and current residents, contracts were signed with Fresenius to provide dialysis services and with Hospice and Palliative Care of Charlotte to provide Hospice services in the new skilled nursing facility. Aldersgate at Home has continued to serve clients who live off-campus in Mecklenburg County.

NOTE: The addition of the Board of Directors for Aldersgate at Home, Inc., is due to the expansion of Aldersgate at Home into the community at large requiring it to stand as its own entity.

2. ARBOR ACRES UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT COMMUNITY, INC.

Through excellence, innovation, caring, and beauty, Arbor Acres cultivates community, comfort, and well-being for Senior Adults.

This past year has been a year of reflection and learning. The board has embarked on the process of developing a new strategic plan that will guide the work for the years 2020-2023. In order to accomplish this important task, Arbor Acres is taking a two-pronged approach: the development of a near-term strategy covering the years 2018-2019, and a focus on board education that will culminate in the development and adoption of the Arbor Acres 2020+ strategy. The emphasis of the near-term plan is on addressing well-known challenges that could have a significant impact on leadership's ability to turn its full attention to the Arbor Acres 2020+ strategy. While the senior leadership team focuses on the development of the near-term plan, the board has committed to a rigorous series of educational sessions that will deepen their awareness of key challenges and opportunities the organization will likely face in the near future. Issues such as changing workforce demographics, health care reform and integration, and changing customer demographics/expectations, are going to be explored in order to assist the board in identifying key strategic goals and opportunities.

As stewardship of resources is a key responsibility of any faith-based ministry, Arbor Acres continues to excel in this area. Arbor Acres continues to maintain its Fitch BBB+ rating while exceeding its budget targets for the year. Demand for the services of Arbor Acres remains strong, resulting in over 96 percent occupancy. In support of those wishing to become part of the Arbor Acres family, the board of directors approved plans to offer an Off-Campus Residency Program for individuals wishing to take advantage of the community's offerings while remaining at home.

Arbor Acres' philanthropic goals were met in 2017. Philanthropy efforts resulted in raising over $448,526. The residents have also chosen to work with Crossnore School, which operates the former United Methodist Children's Home to support their mission and ministry. In 2017 Arbor Acres provided $1,785,562 of community benefit, an amount equal to 5.88 percent of resident revenue.

In 2018, Arbor Acres is excited about the future, while remaining grounded in that which has sustained us for nearly forty years: courageous faith, wise stewardship, commitment to beauty, and service in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The following individuals are elected as members of the Board of Directors of Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.

Andrew W. Applegate, President/CEO
Susan Schwartz, Chairperson, Board of Directors

3. CROSSNORE SCHOOL & CHILDREN'S HOME

The previous year has been challenging yet rewarding for Crossnore School & Children's Home. What began as two years of strategic planning by two separate child welfare agencies on how to serve more children and families in crisis culminated on January 1, 2017 with the merger of The Crossnore School in Crossnore, NC, and The Children's Home in Winston-Salem, NC. Obstacles were overcome, expectations were surpassed, and through it all, dedicated and determined staff on the two campuses worked tirelessly together integrating their services, teams, and cultures, while following God's call. What was a carefully laid blueprint by two centenarian organizations each with similar histories of healing thousands of hurting children is becoming the solid foundation for the premier provider of children's services in western North Carolina.

Crossnore School & Children's Home offers a full continuum of trauma-informed care across both campuses, including residential group foster care, community-based foster care and adoption, state-of-the-art education, aftercare (for young adults who have aged out or left the foster care system), and outpatient therapy. Growing its programs and extending its reach into more counties, Crossnore School & Children's Home is responding to the single greatest public health crisis facing children in America – the trauma of childhood abuse and neglect. In 2016, 687,000 children were served by the public foster care system (U.S. Department of Health and Human Services). Millions more go unprotected. Trauma has lasting effects that impact every aspect of a child's life. Fulfilling its mission to grow healthy futures for children and families by providing a Christian sanctuary of hope and healing, Crossnore School & Children's Home is breaking the vicious, intergenerational cycles of abuse, abandonment, poverty, mental illness, and addiction.

Providing trauma-informed interventions and expert support, Crossnore School & Children's Home is healing the minds and bodies of its children so they can grow into happy, productive adults. Overseeing the day-to-day operations of this vital work is the integrated Board of Trustees with day-to-day operations led by Brett A. Loftis, JD, chief executive officer, and the organization's executive leadership team: Kenny Cook, chief facilities officer; Caroline Hart, chief advancement officer; Teresa Huffman, chief financial officer; Meribeth Robinson, chief clinical officer; Angelina Spencer, chief program officer; and Jenny Taylor, chief people officer. Each officer leads a department of talented directors and staff who are committed to the Crossnore School & Children's Home mission and the vulnerable children they serve. The Trustees are led by Carolyn Moretz (Hickory, NC), board chairperson; Katheryn Northington (Winston-Salem, NC), vice-chairperson; Marilyn Williams (Orlando, FL), secretary; and Ted Laporte (Charlotte, NC), treasurer.

As newly renovated cottages continue to open on the Winston-Salem campus, more beds are becoming available for children in need of safety and shelter. Last year, 203 foster children, ages newborn to 21, from 24 North Carolina counties lived on both the Crossnore and Winston-Salem campuses. Thirty-five community-based foster care families licensed and supervised by Crossnore School & Children's Home opened their homes to 41 children. And more clients than ever, 562 including residential children and members of the community, received outpatient therapy services provided by therapists trained specifically in trauma- and behavioral-focused therapies. Outpatient referrals are accepted from local schools or Departments of Social Services. Crossnore School & Children's Home therapists help children and families learn new strategies to address challenges, break ineffective patterns, and evaluate difficult decisions in order to lead a more fulfilling life together.

An outpatient therapy experiencing sizeable growth is the Day Treatment program provided in collaboration with Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools. Crossnore School & Children's Home provides the only day treatment program in Forsyth County and is one of the largest non-residential day treatment programs in the state. Day treatment offers a trauma-informed therapeutic environment for the community's most at-risk children who struggle with mental, emotional, and behavioral challenges that make it difficult for them to succeed at school, as well as in their homes and communities. Day treatment youth are disproportionately affected by adverse childhood experiences (ACEs) and are more susceptible to academic failure, social difficulties, and increased health risks. Day treatment addresses the educational and mental health needs of these children in a scholastic setting. Therapists, counselors, and state-certified teachers provide specialized instruction and encouragement, helping their students build self-confidence and physical awareness, as well as develop the skills needed for life-long resiliency in the face of trauma.

Another area undergoing considerable expansion is the foster care and adoption program. Crossnore School & Children's Home has recently opened an office in Hendersonville, N.C., extending the reach of these services to Henderson, Polk, and Transylvania counties located in the Blue Ridge Mountains. Tanya Blackford serves as regional director.

Though much has been achieved since the historic merger, Crossnore School & Children's Home has much to accomplish. For instance, more community-based foster care families are needed to provide safe and loving homes for the growing number of North Carolina children in foster care. Also concerning are the poor outcome statistics of young adults who leave the foster care system. Goals of the "Youth in Transition" support initiative, launched in 2016 on the Winston-Salem campus and 2018 on the Crossnore campus, are to empower young adults who have experienced foster care after the age of 14 and to see them become thriving, independent adults.

Crossnore School & Children's Home stands today as a testimony to what God can do using good people who willingly follow where He leads and who give unselfishly to serve His children. With two campuses, a satellite office, professional and passionate staff, and the support of numerous donors and volunteers, Crossnore School & Children's Home continues, as it has for more than 100 years, to be a sanctuary where lives are transformed and hope is restored.

4. GIVENS COMMUNITIES

Since inception Givens has grown to four campuses with 540 employees serving 1,200 residents. Throughout this growth, Givens has remained committed to its core values and mission, and had the courage to be a pioneer and to collaborate with like-minded partners to address the increasing need for senior housing with services.

Givens Gerber Park is an affordable senior living community in south Asheville providing supportive housing for seniors with limited financial resources. 40 Givens Gerber Park opened in November 2016 with 120 one and two bedroom HUD subsidized and tax credit rental apartments. 50 Givens Gerber Park opened in December of 2017 and offers 60 one and two-bedroom tax credit rental apartments. 60 Givens Gerber Park, which will open in spring of 2018, will offer 82 one and two bedroom rental apartments for middle income seniors. When complete, Givens Gerber Park will have a café, community rooms, wellness programming, art and educational activities, transportation, fitness center, on-site medical clinic, beauty salon, food pantry, library and computer room, and social services.

As the population ages, Givens believes that one of the most difficult challenges is providing supportive, quality, affordable housing for those with limited resources and for those with low and middle incomes. Providing housing with support services for everyone has the potential of eliminating, delaying, or minimizing the need for more costly health care. Givens remains committed to serving seniors from all economic levels. Rental subsidies and tax credits provide affordable housing for people with incomes below $24,000 per year. Moreover, there is a group of seniors with incomes of $24,000 to $50,000 per year who are unable to afford the entrance and higher monthly fees of market-rate communities. Many of these seniors are in high maintenance homes where they become socially isolated and have limited access to necessary support services. Therefore, the 82 apartments in 60 Gerber Park are designed just for this group.

At Givens Highland Farms, future residents have reserved the 24 homes for Phase Two of Meadowmont, with completion and move-ins planned for spring 2018. Phase Three is underway, with 16 of the 22 homes reserved and move-in planned for fall 2018. Upon completion, this project will add 64 new residences to the campus.

Givens has been working on Master Planning for the Givens Estates and Givens Highland Farms campuses to be implemented over the next decade. Master Planning for the Givens Estates campus encompasses many improvements to the overall layout and existing structures. The plan includes adding 80 new independent living apartments, remodeling the health center, building 45 new assisted living apartments, and renovating and expanding Oxford Commons which houses the dining room, wellness center and other amenities. The plan also includes eliminating some outdated villas which will be necessary to build the more marketable new apartments.

Master Planning at Givens Highland Farms includes building 18 new cottages, a new kitchen, dining and activity areas, 48 new assisted living and health care accommodations, and 140 Independent new apartments. The plan also includes eliminating some antiquated homes and apartments. As with any long-term planning, Master Planning at both Givens Estates and Givens Highland Farms will remain flexible to unforeseeable changes caused by outside factors such as global finances, local environmental changes and market trends. The adaptable plans will allow Givens to improve upon communities that will best serve the needs of the current aging population.

Since 1975 Givens' mission and support of older ministries has evolved to address the ever growing needs of the region. Givens continues to embrace its long-standing relationship with the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church.

5. UMAR SERVICES, INC.Empowering Adults With Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Since 1983

In 2017, the Western North Carolina Conference, districts, and churches continued to play a key role in UMAR's services to adults with developmental and intellectual disabilities. Some churches and districts included UMAR in their annual budget and many took love offerings and held fund-raisers to benefit UMAR. Local churches took participants into their sanctuaries and into their hearts. From Sunday school classes to "Joy Proms," members provided opportunities for spiritual development, education, and social interaction. One hundred percent of UMAR residents participated in a worship service or sponsored activity in the past year.

These churches model the kind of inclusion that all would hope to see in the larger society; they are living out the Social Creed of The United Methodist Church to be committed to the rights of people with disabilities. Without the advocacy and support of the Western NC Conference – its districts, churches, and members – UMAR would be unable to provide the depth of opportunities and services it offers.

As a mission and ministry, UMAR promotes community inclusion, independence, and growth for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities through residential, employment, and cultural enrichment opportunities. Having grown from serving three people in High Point to now serving 379 people across western North Carolina, UMAR provides vital services for adults with a wide range of physical, mental, and emotional disabilities. Its mission easily translates into "live, work, and thrive" as it transforms lives through the following programs and services:

- Live (Residential Services) – UMAR operates 23 homes and nine apartments. Dedicated, trained staff provide residents with 24/7 support, meals, transportation, activities, and other quality-of-life enhancements – all while fostering independence and responsibility in a family-like setting.
- Work (Vocational Services) – UMAR helps adults with disabilities secure and maintain competitive employment with skills assessment, job coaching, placement, training, and support for as long as the individual is employed.
- Thrive (Day Programs/Arts) – UMAR day programs focus on art, recreation, social, and independent living skills. Because vocational services are not appropriate for everyone, day programming ensures participation in meaningful activities that foster learning and growth. UMAR day support includes three art centers located in Charlotte, Lincolnton, and Reidsville. At the UMAR Art Centers, community partnerships inspire a variety of art forms such as painting, pottery, photography, and gardening. Program participants create and sell art, with each earning a 40 percent commission for every piece sold.

As an outreach ministry, congregations can be engaged in the work of UMAR through hands-on mission, donations, and volunteering with participants. For more information on programs or to get involved visit UMARinfo.com.

Accomplishments/Highlights from 2017:

- 147 people were supported through Residential Services, living in their own community.
- Officially changed the organization's name to UMAR Services, Inc.
- Electronic health records have been implemented across the organization.
- Two participant-initiated micro-businesses started through the Charlotte Art Program.

- Assisted residents with 3,713 medical appointments.
- 113 adults found help through the Vocational Services program.
- 119 artists work in three art centers (Charlotte, Lincolnton, and Reidsville).
- Over 724,000 miles driven in service to the people UMAR supports.
- Over 300 volunteers shared their time and talents.
- UMAR Arts in Charlotte, Lincolnton, and Reidsville increased partnerships, gallery events, and classes which allowed artists with disabilities to increase their community involvement, income, and artistic expression.
- Clergy and lay leader teams within the Catawba Valley, Metro, Northern Piedmont, and Yadkin Valley Districts supported UMAR programs with donations, fund-raising, volunteers, and disability awareness/education.
- More than 1,100 donors provided financial support that changed lives. Of those donors, 112 were churches.

Goals for 2018:

- Launch a multi-year campaign to raise $3.5 million to increase financial stability and sustain growth.
- Enhance training for all personnel that provide quality personal care for the aging adults with disabilities within the UMAR family.
- Three-year accreditation with The Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF).
- Expand residential living options, including the re-opening of a five-bed duplex in Charlotte.

6. CHRYSALIS COUNSELING AND CONSULTATION CENTER

Chrysalis Counseling and Consultation Center, Inc. is the Methodist resource for counseling and consultation for the Northern Piedmont, Yadkin Valley, and Uwharrie districts of WNCC. It is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3), fee-based center providing mental health services for individuals, couples, families, and children who are experiencing emotional and spiritual issues.

Chrysalis provides quality confidential counseling for ministers and their families at an affordable cost. It also serves clergy as a referral source for congregants experiencing a range of emotional problems including anxiety disorders, addiction, depression, marital conflict, and relationship issues.

Ministers are invited to monthly "Lunch & Learn" seminars at Centenary UMC in Greensboro, which provide CEUs and a pathway toward Pastoral Care Specialist certification. Seven workshops were presented in 2017 to ministers, focusing on developing healthy boundaries, improved listening skills, conflict resolution, and building small group connections within congregations.

Chrysalis is growing. It added a new part-time counselor who will service a satellite location at Covenant Church United Methodist in High Point. In addition, it maintains and successfully fund-raises for the Chrysalis Samaritan Fund, which provides financial assistance for those with limited income and are without mental health insurance coverage. It held a fund-raiser in November 2017 that raised money for Chrysalis' operating costs, including a $2000 donation to the Samaritan Fund.

Chrysalis strives to be affordable for all who seek professional counseling services. In 2017, it began to track the reduction of its clients' fees in light of these efforts. At year end, Chrysalis had reduced total fees by $27,500 for its clients. Chrysalis takes pride in these results and the spirit of mission it represents.

Chrysalis expressions appreciation for its board members.

Since 1980, Chrysalis Counseling and Consultation Center, Inc. has provided services to faith community individuals and families. Chrysalis appreciates the trust evident in its efforts over the years to make a difference in the lives of people. It appreciates all financial support moving forward to meet the growing demands of the future.

7. SANCTUARY COUNSELING GROUP (SCG)

Sanctuary Counseling Group (SCG) is an agency that offers counseling and psychotherapy, consultation to individuals, clergy, congregations, and districts on a variety of issues, clergy assessments and testing, and educational programs for church groups as well as congregations and districts. SCG is a specialized ministry extending the ministry of local congregations to persons who seek hope in the midst of their despair, light in their darkness, and God's healing grace. SCG provides certified pastoral counselors who meet persons where they are on their journey through life. In a high-tech society, its pastoral counselors bring a personal touch. While psychiatrists offer pills to treat life's problems, and psychologists offer limited sessions due to managed-care restrictions, SCG pastoral counselors offer a relationship that will last as long as the process of healing takes and at considerably less cost.

SCG serves as an important referral source for pastors, who often do not have the time or the specialized training to work with persons in local congregations who are hurting. Having qualified, respected pastoral counselors makes referral for parishioners much easier.

SCG area of service now encompasses the Catawba Valley, Metro and Uwharrie districts that cover an 11-county area. Two new sites have been added, one in Davidson at Davidson UMC and the other in Salisbury at First UMC. In the past year, SCG increased the ministry and provided 11,157 hours of individual, marital, family, and group therapy. It provided 1,059 hours of consultation with congregations and individuals, conducted 159 hours of workshops and educational events for congregations, and conducted 257 hours of psychological assessments. The SCG website is updated monthly, www.sanctuarycounselinggroup.org. SCG is a service center that is accredited by both the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC) and the Samaritan Institute.

SCG continues to face and embrace the changing climate of behavioral health. The attention to mind/body/spirit and seeking to relate to the whole person is one of the things that SCG believes distinguishes them in the marketplace. SCG is extremely grateful for the partnerships with various congregations within the annual conference and is especially thankful for those who provide space in which to engage in this life-changing ministry. Referring to licensed pastoral counselors who are able to provide caring, compassionate, and quality ministry provides a sound basis for helping and healing others through this arm of the annual conference.

To learn more about the SCG clinical services and sites, workshops, and consultations, as well as to make contributions to the Samaritan Client Assistance Fund to aid persons without the financial means who seek professional pastoral counseling, visit the SCG website at www.sanctuarycounselinggroup.org.

 the Catawba Valley District, the Metro District, and the Uwharrie District.

G. BOARD OF LAITY

There are 30 members of the Board of Laity who represent the Western NC Conference. Included on the board are the conference lay leader, district lay leaders, UMW president, UMM president, lay servant ministries, prayer advocate, and at-large members. The mission of the board is to model, assess, and advocate for lay leadership and engagement so that laity assume their role as active partners in fulfilling the WNCC's mission to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. It is humbling to serve in ministry to represent the more than 280,000 lay members of the WNCC.

For the 2016-2020 quadrennium, the Board of Laity focused on increasing lay engagement and leadership opportunities.

Four focus areas:

- Accountability Groups – Christ's Church is called to make disciples. The laity of WNCC is key to fulfilling this call. The Board of Laity knows that vital disciples invite others into relationship with Christ. It chose to focus on creating opportunities to hold each other graciously accountable to deepening the relationship with God and each other. In 2017-2018, this task force completed a conference-wide survey to determine interest in accountability groups among local churches.
Almost 200 people responded asking for more information. Mentors have now been selected from across the conference and are trained to meet with and support these new accountability groups. Their work is already underway.
At the 2018 AC, lay delegates have an optional training session focusing on the traits and ministry of accountability groups. Here education, resources, and mentors are available to help local churches start accountability groups. The goal for the quadrennium is to have 80 percent of 1100 churches with one or more active accountability groups. To learn more, contact Ron Ballard at ronballard53@gmail.com.
- Education and Communication – The conference has many incredible missional and educational opportunities that lay members would enjoy, or from which they would benefit. The Board of Laity has determined that communication and education among the laity is a critical step toward making the best use of these resources to increase church vitality. A task force of board members and conference communication staff works directly with the conference, districts, and local churches to educate, engage and tell the story of WNCC's exceptional laity. To learn more, contact Fred Cantler at fredcantler@gmail.com.
- Lay Engagement and Leadership Training – The Board of Laity has agreed to be in conversation with the conference about assuming the role of overseeing and recommending the educational and leadership development opportunities for its lay members. While it will make use of existing opportunities, the need to coordinate efforts for the most significant impact of resources, both human and financial, is a key driver.
- Lay Servant Ministries – The 2016 General Conference adopted legislation impacting Lay Servant Ministry and leadership across the connection. Members of the Board of Laity are participating with the Conference Certified Lay Servant Committee and Certified Lay Ministers Task Force to launch a WNCC program in 2018. The call to Certified Lay Ministry is the focus of the 2018 Annual Conference Lay Address. Be ready to sign up for the discernment and training events. Now more than ever, lay ministry and leadership is a necessity for both conference and churches. Contact: the local coordinator or Wade Loftin at wloftin@triad.rr.com.

The Board of Laity is pleased to journey with its UMC brothers and sisters. Prayer support and active participation are needed to be equipped for His work. Contact Jane Boatwright Wood for questions at jane.boatwright.wood@gmail.com.

Jane Boatwright Wood, Conference Lay Leader and Board of Laity Chairperson

H. UNITED METHODIST MEN

As a member of the conference connectional table, they have participated in aligning the mission of conference United Methodist Men (UMM) with the conference vision and goals.

As a member of the conference Board of Laity, they have been appointed to an accountability task force. In a recent survey sent to every church in the conference, it was discovered that 25 percent of churches report having some form of accountability groups, such as The Class Meeting process, Emmaus reunion groups, Covenant Discipleship, etc. The goal is to have 80 percent of all churches with at least one accountability group by the end of the quadrennium.

Several groups within UMM are using The Class Meeting model for small accountability groups. Some groups meet via video chat.

In support of the continuing focus on domestic violence prevention, a week of prayer with a different focus each day is provided. A new curriculum is being developed to train men in recognizing and dealing with domestic violence.

They continue to have the highest number of life members of UMM, the second highest percent of churches with a charter and second highest number of charters.

United Methodist Men of the Western North Carolina Conference make a major impact on the 125,000 men in the churches through the United Methodist Men's organization.

The mission of the conference organization is to build and support the district organizations of United Methodist Men in developing resources to meet the needs and interests of men and the responsibilities of discipleship; to empower personal witness and evangelism; to enable outreach in individual and group mission and ministry; to encourage and support spiritual growth and faith development; and to promote the objectives and responsibilities of the General Commission on United Methodist Men.

The conference organization has emphasis and gives support to:

- Ministerial scholarships for second career pastors;
- Scouting;
- The Upper Room prayer line;
- Disaster recovery and building team mission support;
- The Crossnore Children's Home;
- Domestic abuse education and prevention in partnership with United Methodist Women;
- Carolina Cross Connection;
- Hunger relief through the Society of St. Andrews and Stop Hunger Now;
- Disciple Bible Outreach Ministry; and,
- Strength for Service devotional books.

The conference United Methodist Men leadership will work with district superintendents and pastors in exploring methods and resources for discipline and faith development for the men of churches. A concerted effort must be made to more actively involve the men in the life of the church and assist them in becoming true disciples of Jesus Christ. District presidents are building district leadership teams to raise the profile and importance of ministry to men in their districts.

United Methodist Men exists to declare the centrality of Christ in every man's life. Men's ministry leads to the spiritual growth of men and effective discipleship. This purpose is served as men are called to model the servant leadership of Jesus Christ.

Individual and group strategies form the foundation of United Methodist Men ministry. They enhance evangelism, mission and spiritual life as men become servant leaders. They advocate programs that train men within local churches to promote specific ministries including prayer, missions, stewardship, and civic/youth serving ministries. They forge pastoral partnerships by men committed to the effective support and service of clergy and local congregations. They enhance organizational strength through effective leadership, membership growth and financial accountability. They assist men in their ever-changing relationships, roles, and responsibilities in the family setting, workplace and society. They help men understand the organization, doctrine and beliefs of The United Methodist Church.

Men fulfill the membership vows through the commitment to prayer, presence, gifts, service and witness in congregational life.

Men fulfill the Great Commission with and through The United Methodist Church as one part of the Body of Christ. Men seeking membership in a local unit of United Methodist Men are asked to subscribe to the personal objectives of engaging daily in Bible study and prayer; to bear witness to Christ's way in daily work and in all personal contacts through words and actions; and to engage in Christian service. They encourage participation in the Upper Room Walk to Emmaus and Covenant Discipleship to promote the spiritual development and disciplining of the men.

They are enabling digital communication through our email database of over 1200 contacts and provide training and conferencing of our leadership and the men in the pews. Lifelong learning must be a hallmark of a progressive organization in order to maintain and upgrade the skills and knowledge of successful means of developing the faith development and capabilities of the men. Distance and cost limit our ability to meet face to face making digital conferencing a viable means of meeting and discussion. Leaders of men will be encouraged to begin the process of becoming a certified Men's Ministry Specialist in order to become a resource for churches, district and conference leadership.

They also encourage scouting leaders to become Scouting Ministry Specialists. Leaders need to be held accountable for the responsibilities and duties to which they have been elected or appointed. Systems of accountability will be developed to ensure accurate and responsible stewardship of our leadership resources.

United Methodist Men will continue to advocate for and explore opportunities for disaster recovery and building teams, both locally, statewide, nationally and internationally. Tornados and floods have ravaged large portions of the country and everyone needs to step up and show God's love and mercy through the actions of hands and feet. They have established an endowment fund through the conference foundation.

The conference UMM spiritual rally was May 18-19, 2018 hosted by University City United Methodist Church in Charlotte.

I. UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

For United Methodist Women, Spiritual Growth Retreat at Lake Junaluska began with a “smile.” Those smiles widened on the faces of the executive team as registration reached 684 and Rev. Ashley Thomas led three sessions on S-M-I-L-E, “Seeing Miracles in Life Every Day.”

Mission U at Pfeiffer University on the Misenheimer campus featured “Living in a Covenant Community” led by Dr. Patty Meyers, a geographic study on three missionary conferences (Redbird, Alaska & Oklahoma), and a repeat study of Climate Justice. Two hundred twenty-one people participated, including 12 youth who studied the missionary conferences, participated in disaster relief efforts in Lumberton, and volunteered in their thrift store.

Annual Celebration at Lake Junaluska welcomed National UMW President, Shannon Priddy. The theme “Change is Good” offered various opportunities to consider the benefits of “change.” “Two cents a week and a prayer” was the financial foundation in 1869 that has become more than $18,000,000 a year to provide education, health care, and economic opportunities. Active and retired mission personnel and special mission guests were honored during the mission session, and a luncheon was provided in their honor.

Almost 100 women participated in Ubuntu Day of Service at five mission institutions – Bennett College, Bethlehem Centers in Charlotte and Winston-Salem, Brooks-Howell Home, and Pfeiffer University. The women planted flowers, shrubs and seeds for hydroponic gardening, prepared stars for Christmas gift lists, and performed simple tasks for residents.

A group of younger United Methodist Women has formed a task force to attract millennial women with educational materials, spiritual growth opportunities, and hands-on mission projects designed to especially benefit women and children.

Social action included a public stand against HB2 in Charlotte, a letter to the bishop, and a petition requesting the Board of Ordained Ministry to include domestic violence awareness training in their expectations for clergy in the conference and to be incorporated into Safe Sanctuaries programs. A partnership was formed with United for a Fair Economy seeking a fair wage for employees. Legislative Day provided the opportunity for an overview of the four priorities – Maternal & Child Health, Criminalization of Communities of Color, Climate Justice, and Economic Inequality.

UMW Scholarships continue to benefit students at Bennett College, Brevard College, Greensboro College, High Point University, and Pfeiffer University. A total of $25,158 in scholarships were awarded to eight students.

Across the conference, 22,218 members in 688 units met to fellowship, grow spiritually, read books from the UMW Reading Program, create UMCOR kits, and learn about mission projects through response magazine articles and photography.

Hands-on projects throughout the year resulted in UMCOR kits with a value of $71,142 and more than $3,000 in various supplies for other missions, as well as UMW Gift to Mission and Gift in Memory cards.

An active Legacy 150 committee is diligently promoting contributions to the Legacy Fund to insure United Methodist Women will continue to be a major factor in the lives of women, children, and youth for the next 150 years.

Redistricting has affected event attendance, but it has provided opportunities for new relationships with like-minded women. Conference and district events were held at mission institutions and Methodist-related properties such as Lake Junaluska Assembly, Mount Shepherd, and Crossnore School & Children’s Home. This provides the opportunity to support and become acquainted with these United Methodist Women and Methodist facilities.

J. CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES (CCYM)

The 2017-2018 Conference Council on Youth Ministries comprises approximately 60 youth from around the conference. These youth are high school freshman, sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are leaders in their schools, churches, and communities. The goal of the council is to build leadership experience, grow in faith, and encourage the youth of the conference to follow Jesus. The council also seeks to fulfill the conference vision of “Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, Transform the World” in all of its activities.

The 2017-2018 theme of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries was diversity. The council saw fit that diversity was embraced around the conference, whether that diversity has religious, racial, ethnic, education, age, gender, or belief origins. Diversity allows a group of people to come together and serve others better because a wider group can be reached when many viewpoints are examined. Because of this need for diversity, the council found diversity to be an important focus for the year. To guide the council in celebrating diversity, the council used Romans 12: 4-5, “For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others,” to guide its activities. This passage guided the council through planning events and making decision throughout the year.

The Conference Council on Youth Ministries is divided into districts that reflect the conference districts, and each district is responsible for executing a mission project during the year. The goal of the mission projects is to make disciples and promote discipleship in the youth across the conference. This past year, the projects included collecting bibles for homeless individuals, creating homeless outreach kits, collecting necessary clothing items for the underprivileged, and promoting district-wide youth programs. These projects had a positive effect on the youth within the council, but will also serve those in need.

Throughout the year, the Conference Council on Youth Ministries helps to plan and execute two retreats per year: SpiritUs and IgniteUs. In August 2017, 1200 students attended SpiritUs, a weekend retreat at Fort Caswell in Oak Island, North Carolina. The students and staff in attendance grew closer to God through the theme “Hope Rising” and the service project of creating plastic mats for homeless individuals. With the help of speaker April Diaz, the students and staff learned about hope and the importance of keeping hope through hard times. IgniteUs occurred in April 2018 at Camp Tekoa in Hendersonville, North Carolina. The theme “Breathe” promoted relaxation and mindfulness for the middle school students who attended. The Rev. Dr. Stephanie Hand was the speaker for the weekend. She promoted “Breathe” by speaking about opening up to God, inhaling the Holy Spirit, and exhaling Jesus’ love and power to those around us. Students were encouraged to breathe and relax by Job 33:4, “The Spirit of God has made me; the breath of the Almighty gives me life.” Both retreats encouraged students around the conference to follow Jesus, make disciples, and transform the world, allowing the Conference Council on Youth Ministries to accomplish its goals.

On behalf of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, thank you for your continued support of youth ministry. The youth are the next generation of The United Methodist Church, so it is important that they receive the opportunities and training to seek leadership, grow in their faith, and transform the world through making disciples. Not only have many high school students been able to speak out for their faith, but also many high school students have been transformed by the leadership provided by being on the Conference Council on Youth Ministries. The Conference Council on Youth Ministries will continue to help the youth of the conference follow Jesus, make disciples, and transform the world through Jesus Christ.

Molly Vanhoy, President

K. BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry supports the mission of the Western North Carolina Conference by developing, implementing, overseeing, and evaluating programs that focus on recruiting, training, certifying, examining, recommending, and supporting clergy leadership for the conference and denomination. The board is a diverse group of more than 60 clergy and laypersons from across the conference. The Director of Ministerial Services and the Associate Director of Ministerial Services serve as staff to the board, along with a district superintendent who serves as the cabinet representative.

The members of the board volunteer many hours. In January, they began reading documents submitted by persons who had applied for ordination as full connection deacons or elders. Board members spent two and a half days together in February interviewing these candidates and recommending their approval or deferral. This same process was repeated for interviews in March for persons who had applied for commissioning as provisional deacons or elders. The focus of the interviews for full connection candidates was to discern effectiveness. The focus of the interviews for provisional candidates was to discern readiness.

In April, the members met to review Fruitful Leadership in Ministry projects that had been submitted to demonstrate leadership in making disciples of Jesus Christ. In June, the members met in advance of the executive session to review the report. Finally, in October, the board will meet for training, learning, and preparation for the next year’s work. While the members of the board have busy schedules, the board’s participation rate is high. These sisters and brothers take the work seriously.

Some aspects of the board’s work will be seen at the 2018 session as licenses are granted, provisional members are commissioned, and full connection members are ordained. The board is pleased to recommend 19 persons to be elected as full connection members and ordained as elders, and six persons to be elected as full connection members and ordained as deacons. The board recommends 18 persons to be elected as provisional members and commissioned as elders, and three persons to be elected as provisional members and commissioned as deacons.

A good relationship with the bishop and cabinet is important to the work of the board. The responsibilities of the board, and the bishop and cabinet, remain distinct, but cooperation and respect are evident. The executive committee of the board meets with the bishop and cabinet to maintain and enhance this relationship.

Recognizing that the work is kingdom work, the board is guided by prayer, a deep dependence on the Holy Spirit, a love for Christ’s church and a commitment to a vital United Methodist Church.

May God’s kingdom come and God’s will be done. AMEN.

L. BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

Pension Program and Policies

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc., Western North Carolina Conference, The United Methodist Church, acting as an auxiliary to Wespath Benefits | Investments, is charged with caring for the work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance, and pensioning of clergy and their families in the Western North Carolina Conference.

In 2019, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits will send invoices monthly to the churches for clergy appointed in accordance with the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) adopted by The United Methodist Church. Through December 31, 2016, CRSP covers all US United Methodist Church clergy, including elders, local pastors, and deacons, appointed within the annual conference, subject to the time designations described below with the effective date of January 1, 2014.

Since the implementation of direct billing for pension and health benefits in 2007, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits has been investing the net proceeds from these billings in various investment vehicles with the United Methodist Foundation. Over these last eight years, these investments have provided better-than-projected earnings for the Conference. As a result, the Board has approved the sharing of these resources with the local church by reducing the cost of pension benefits (without reducing any pension benefits to the pastors) by $2,407 per full-time pastor in 2019, invoicing $3,093 to the local church. The actual cost invoiced to the conference for the CRSP DB full time benefit will be $5,500. This is the seventh year of reductions in the CRSP defined benefit pension billings to each local church for each full-time pastor as shown in the table below:

2013	$ 6,200
2014	$ 5,118
2015	$ 4,092
2018	$ 3,402
2019	$ 3,093

The Board rejoices in the ability to share these resources with the local church so that more of their resources may be used for ministry within their communities.

The Board rejoices in the ability to share these resources with the local church so that more of their resources may be used for ministry within their communities.

As published in the report in 2013, new provisions of the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), enacted at General Conference 2012, became effective January 1, 2014, as follows:

- Eligibility: Full-time clergy are eligible to participate and earn benefits. Annual Conferences may elect to cover clergy who are appointed as three-quarters or one-half time. Clergy who are appointed one-quarter time are no longer eligible to earn CRSP benefits. Any benefits already earned through December 31, 2013, remain in place.
- Benefit Formulas: The formula for determining the defined benefit (DB) component was reduced for the multiplier from 1.25 percent to one percent to be applied to Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) per year of service beginning January 1, 2014. Additionally, for the defined contribution (DC) component, the local Church will contribute two percent of the clergy's compensation, reduced from three percent in 2013. If the clergy person contributes up to one percent of his/her plan compensation, the local Church will also contribute an additional one percent amount as a dollar-for-dollar match of the UMPIP contributions, up to one percent.
- Surviving Spouse Benefits: Beginning January 1, 2014, the initial dollar amount of the benefit paid to a married participant will be reduced to offset the value of spousal benefits.
- Disabled Adult Child Benefits: Beginning January 1, 2014, participants may designate a disabled adult child as a secondary contingent annuitant. After the participant and his or her spouse die, the disabled adult child would continue to receive DB benefits for life. The initial participant benefit would be reduced to pay for this extra benefit.

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, in consensus with the Cabinet of the Western North Carolina Conference, recommends that the Annual Conference approve the continuation of eligibility of those clergy who are appointed to three-quarter or half-time designations.

Based on the above, invoices will be prepared using the following criteria:

- A. Pension Plan Compensation (PPC) is the total annual compensation reported by the charge conference for 2019; included in the PPC is the housing component. The housing is either 25 percent of the aforementioned annual compensation, if a parsonage is provided, or the cash paid in lieu of a parsonage.
- B. Clergy Retirement Security Program – In 2019, the Core Defined Contribution Part (CRSP-DC) is three percent of PPC. Continuing from 2014 (the effective date of this change) CRSP-DC will continue to be invoiced at three percent of PPC, with two percent being an employer contribution and one percent as a matching contribution to the pastor's United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP).
- C. Clergy Retirement Security Program – Core Defined Benefit Part (CRSP-DB) is an actuarially determined normal cost provided by Wespath. For 2019, the cost is $3,093 for each full-time clergy. For those clergy appointed three-quarter and half-time (based on the eligibility approved by this session of the Annual Conference), the cost is that percentage times $3,093. Wespath has provided that the conference's actuarially determined normal cost contribution due December 31, 2019 will be $4,209,240. Effective January 1, 2014, as approved by General Conference 2012, clergy appointed to one-quarter time positions will not be eligible to earn benefits under the CRSP-DC plan and will not accrue benefits in the CRSP-DB plan after that date. (All previously earned benefits will remain in place.) The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits of Western North Carolina highly recommends that any local church which is served by a clergy person appointed to a one-quarter time position sponsor the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) and provide an employer contribution on behalf of the clergy person under appointment.
- D. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) is the death and disability program administered through Wespath. In 2013 and prior years, premiums of three percent of PPC have been required to be paid for full time clergy. The premium is three percent of PPC to a maximum amount of 200 percent of Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). General Conference 2016 approved a change that would permit Annual Conference Boards of Pension to enroll clergy appointed to three-quarter time and full-time positions in the CPP. GC 2016 also changed the minimum compensation to 25 percent of DAC. For the year 2019, the CPP premium will be invoiced to the churches with full-time and three-quarter time clergy at the rate of 2.50 percent of PPC, and the remaining 0.50 percent will be funded from Conference Board reserves.

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) provides that the Past Service Annuity Rate (PSR) for service years prior to 1982 will increase two percent per annum. The conference board is proposing that the 2019 PSR be set at $790.00 (2019) per service year, which represents the aforementioned two percent increase and is greater than one percent of Conference Average Compensation as provided by Wespath for the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

Paragraph 1506.6 of The Book of Discipline, 2016, requires each annual conference to develop, adopt and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan or plans for funding all of its benefit obligations. Such funding plan must be submitted to Wespath Benefits | Investments for review in order to obtain a favorable written opinion from Wespath. Under this requirement, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits has developed, adopted, and implemented such formal comprehensive funding plan upon obtaining a favorable written opinion from Wespath. By approval of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits and inclusion of a summary of the Comprehensive Funding Plan, with the favorable written opinion received, this Plan is deemed to be approved by the Annual Conference of Western North Carolina.

PROPOSALS RELATED TO PENSION PROGRAMS AND POLICIES(Petition 2a) Approved June 23, 2018

The conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits proposes:

1. That the basic cost of pastors' pensions be invoiced to churches in 2019 as pension responsibility to support the Clergy Retirement Security Program.
2. That supplemental funds for the cost of the Clergy Retirement Security Program – Core Defined Benefit Part (CRSP-DB) for clergy appointed on medical leave be included in the 2019 conference budget at Fund 507, named "Clergy Medical Leave Benefits." The 2019 budget request for the CRSP-DB pension component for clergy on medical leave is $125,000.
3. That the Past Service Annuity Rate for service years prior to 1982 be set at $790.00 per service year, effective January 1, 2019, and that the eligibility for the Clergy Retirement Security Program be determined to include clergy appointed for full-time, three-quarter time, and half-time positions. That the eligibility for the Comprehensive Protection Plan be determined to include clergy appointed for full-time and three-quarter time positions earning a minimum of 25 percent of the DAC in pension plan compensation (PPC).
4. That the following resolution be adopted for calendar year 2019:

Resolution Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled, or Former Clergypersons of the Western North Carolina Conference

The Western North Carolina Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolution relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons of the conference:

Whereas, The religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons"); and

Whereas, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation; and

Whereas, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

Whereas, The Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation; therefore, be it

Resolved:

THAT an amount equal to 100 percent of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from Wespath, the Western North Carolina Conference Superannuate Endowment Fund, and The Duke Endowment during the period January 1, 2019 through December 31, 2019 by each active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund, for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolution) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year, or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Retired Clergy are encouraged to consult their tax advisor concerning this resolution.

Clergy Debt Reduction Peer Program – The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is working in partnership with the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc. (the Foundation) on a Clergy Debt Reduction Peer Program. The program is sponsored and funded by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and administered by the Foundation. The Board is excited about the impact the program is having already for its participants, and about the possibilities the program will hold for improving general welfare and well-being of clergy. As of December 31, 2017, loans outstanding for clergy debt reduction and refinancing totaled $2,090,184.

Balances Due from Churches

Beginning in 2007, direct clergy benefit costs were invoiced to each local church. According to conference action, recorded in the 2004 journal, page 234, “Non-payment of direct clergy benefit costs (pension and health benefits) result in a default recorded against the church” (see ¶ 639.4, The Book of Discipline 2016). While individual clergy will not lose benefits, the church will incur a liability to the conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The default will be reported by the conference benefits officer to the district superintendents, and the church will be led to correct this situation.

The following is the 2017 list of churches with balances, as of May 24, 2018, resulting from non-payment of direct clergy benefit costs:

District	Church	2017 Balance	District	Church	2017 Balance
Blue Ridge	Addie’s Chapel (Marion).....	10,501.99	Metro	Hunter’s Chapel (Cornelius).....	2,636.25
Catawba Valley	Clover Hill	2,473.35		Morrows Chapel (Mooresville)	1,772.74
	Hildebran: First	1,455.00		North (Kannapolis)	2,889.50
	Mundy’s Chapel	643.50		North Davidson	156.93
	Tucker’s Grove (Iron Station).....	15,087.00	N. Piedmont	Triad Native American (Greensboro) ..	2,307.50
			Yadkin Valley	Danbury Community	204.75
					Total $ 40,128.41

Health Benefits Committee

The Health Benefits Committee serves as a sub-committee of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits (BOPHB), with responsibility in two specific areas: health benefits and group term life insurance.

The committee is composed of at least 12 members appointed by the board to quadrennial terms, as follows: three from BOPHB, one serving as chair of the committee, one being an officer of BOPHB, and one being the Cabinet representative to BOPHB; one from the conference Board of Ordained Ministry; one from the conference Council on Finance and Administration; two retired clergy persons; and five professional persons involved in the insurance industry. Typically, there are six lay members and six clergy members. The various agencies represented nominate their representatives to BOPHB for appointment.

Group Life Insurance

Wespath, through the Comprehensive Protection Plan, provides a death and disability benefit for eligible clergy, along with death benefits for members of clergy families. In addition to this coverage, the conference offers basic life insurance coverage of $10,000 for active clergy enrolled in the conference group health plan, with premiums for this coverage collected through the insurance apportionment. Clergy members may elect to increase their coverage by enrolling in additional coverage in the amounts of $25,000, $50,000, or $75,000. As an added benefit, a clergy member may elect to enroll his/her spouse and dependent children. This additional coverage is available from a group policy secured by the committee for a quarterly premium to be collected by the insuring company. The continuation of this optional benefit is dependent on normal participation of those eligible. Newly eligible clergy will receive information about this coverage from the Treasury Services Office. To obtain coverage without evidence of insurability, enrollment must be made within 30 days of eligibility.

Enrollment Deadlines for Health and Life Insurance

Responsibility rests with the individual to make application in writing for the group health insurance and the group life insurance. In addition, any changes in dependents’ status must also be submitted in writing. The effective date of coverage for new applicants is July 1 following the session of annual conference. Applications must be made within 30 days of appointment at annual conference. Anyone seeking to apply following the 30-day grace period will have a 12-month waiting period for all pre-existing conditions.

Health Benefits Continuation Policy

The conference benefits plan provides for group members and eligible beneficiaries to continue coverage if they become ineligible for the plan. The policy is available from the plan administrator.

Premium Collection Policy

Payment of the medical/health insurance premiums for pastors is the responsibility of the local church(es). This premium payment is invoiced monthly. For churches with more than one pastor on the staff, the church is responsible for the payment of the insurance premium for each eligible pastor. It is the responsibility of the pastor to pay the premium costs for dependents.

The Health Benefits Committee requires the conference treasurer to notify dependent accounts which are delinquent by sixty (60) days or more that their coverage is immediately subject to termination. If full payment is not made by thirty (30) days after the delinquency, coverage will be terminated.

Conclusion

The Board appreciates the fine spirit in which subscribers and local churches are supporting the work of the Health Benefits Committee. It seeks your continuing support as it makes every effort to provide a health benefits program that meets your particular needs. Members of the committee are: Frank A. Stith III (chairperson), Sandra McNiel, Lori Wilson, Al Jones, Marvin Melton, Rey Rodriguez, J. Zachery Christy, Phillip B. Cole, W. Greg Light, Winifred Helton, and Ken Poe. Mark Andrews, Cabinet Representative, R. Mark King, Conference Treasurer, Dale C. Bryant, Benefits Administrator, and M. Lynne Gilbert, CBOPHB Treasurer.

PROPOSAL: HEALTH BENEFITS PROGRAM AND POLICIES(Petition 2b) Approved June 23, 2018

The Health Benefits Committee proposes:

1. That the Board of Pension and Health Benefits be authorized to secure a hospital/medical insurance contract for 2019 that will be advantageous in terms of coverage, premium rates, and administrative costs.
2. That the hospital/medical insurance program be continued for all eligible persons working 30 hours or more per standard work week.
3. That each local charge and eligible pastor be expected to participate in the conference program of hospital/medical insurance by contributing an amount equal to the pastor's coverage premium for each eligible pastor appointed to that charge and that these premium payments be remitted to the conference Treasury Services Office rather than to the pastor or other insurance carrier. The participant participation schedule should be used to calculate the eligible pastor's portion.
4. That premium cost information is made available to local churches and pastors immediately after the 2019 plan has been determined and rates established.
5. That a pastor may exclude himself/herself from coverage by signing a written waiver, releasing the conference and any local church from legal or moral responsibility for medical or accident claims.
6. That, in the discussion of salaries and benefits for 2019 and all succeeding years, local church committees on staff-parish relations consider designating a portion of compensation for dependents' health care coverage.
7. That medical/hospital coverage be provided for persons terminated from the plan for not more than a 12-month period, with the premium costs to be paid by the person terminated.
8. That continued endorsement be given to the optional life insurance program provided by a top-quality life insurance company as supplemental coverage for active clergy.
9. That the following Retired Clergy Medical Plan, which became effective on January 1, 2003, and was amended at the special session of the conference on February 2, 2008, be continued:
 - a. Benefit Design: The basic benefit design for all participants has benefits similar to Medi-gap Plan E, as approved by the Medicare Administration (complete benefit description available from the conference Treasury Services Office). This plan does not include prescription drugs.
 - b. Funding Design:
 - (1) Creation of the Retiree Security Supplement Fund, which was created December 31, 2008. This Restricted Fund shall be vested with a minimum of $5,000,000. Subsequently, additional contributions to this Fund (corpus or principal) shall be made of all free reserve available at year-end. Free reserve is defined as the fund balance in excess of the Claims Reserve required by the Plan. The Claims Reserve is 25 percent of the prior year's claims paid.
 - (2) The purpose of the Retiree Security Supplement Fund is to secure retiree medical benefit by contributing four percent of the fund balance (which consists of corpus or principal and earnings from dividends, interest and appreciation) each year to the Retired Clergy Medical Plan. The Fund's contribution will reduce the Net Estimated Claims Cost of the Retired Clergy Medical Plan to the Base Estimated Claims Cost.
 - (3) Net Estimated Claims Cost is defined as Total Estimated Claims Costs (including administration, stop-loss insurance and other operating expenses), less all contributions from other charitable trusts, foundations or individuals, such as The Cole Foundation.
 - c. Premium Design:
 - (1) Participants enrolled prior to January 1, 2003 will contribute the Base Estimated Claims Cost.
 - (2) Participants enrolled in the retiree plan on or after January 1, 2003, will contribute based on "years enrolled in the Active Health Benefits Plan." The contribution will be based on a percentage of the plan year's Net Estimated Claims Cost, as follows:
 - (a.) 1-10 Years: 100 percent of the Net Estimated Claims Cost.
 - (b.) Beginning in the 11th year, the contribution will decline approximately one percent per year to an amount equal to the Base Estimated Claims Cost.

All of the years prior to 2003 that a clergyperson has been appointed to a local church or conference position will be considered "years enrolled in the Active Health Benefits Plan."
 - d. Participants must be enrolled in Medicare Parts A & B to be eligible for the Retired Clergy Medical Plan.
10. That each participant electing dependent coverage be required to remit premium payments in the method established by the Health Benefits Committee and that dependent coverage remain in effect only when premium payments are current.

11. That each participating participant be required to remit premium payments in the method established by the Health Benefits Committee and approved by the 2009 Annual Conference and coverage remain in effect only when premium payments are current. The current participating participant method is a progressive scale percent of premium based on salary.
12. That sufficient funds for hospital/medical coverage be included in the appropriate 2019 apportioned funds to pay premiums for district superintendents and administrative, program, and support staff members of the conference headquarters.
13. That supplemental funds for insurance for clergy on medical leave be included in the 2019 conference budget at Fund 507, "Clergy Medical Leave Benefits." The 2019 budget request for the health benefit component for clergy on medical leave is $325,000.

Words of Appreciation

The Board expresses its gratitude and that of the conference to Dale C. Bryant, benefits administrator since October 1998.

Questions dealing with pension, health insurance, or group life insurance should be directed to Mr. Bryant at 704-535-2260 or 800-562-7929; email dbryant@wnccumc.org.

M. CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES, INC.

The Board of Trustees, Western North Carolina Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc., is a chartered nonprofit corporation under North Carolina law, in accordance with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and is subject to the instructions of the annual conference and its officers.

- Four funds under trustee management are invested through The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc.
- The yearly distribution of earnings from these funds is based on the following scale: The General Fund, 35.8 percent; the Higgins Fund, 31.3 percent; the Centenary-Rutherford Fund, 12.9 percent; and the Jesse Spencer Bell Fund, 20.2 percent. Earnings during 2017 were distributed to the following designated beneficiaries:

Western North Carolina Conference Board of Pensions.....	$	3,788.72
Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women.....	$	2,137.77
Brevard College.....	$	4,656.53
Total Distribution.....	$	10,583.02

Conference Memorial Center

The trustees continue to monitor the operational expenses of the Conference Memorial Center in Charlotte, keeping in close touch with the conference treasurer and director of administrative services, Dr. Mark King, who manages the building on behalf of the board of trustees. Monthly inspections are made by the property management company, A. Anthony to ensure the efficient operation of the center.

Plans are underway for vacating the current center upon completion of the new conference center in the summer of 2018. Aldersgate is being kept informed of the projected move date.

New Conference Memorial Center

Construction

After a significant delay in getting the site permit due to an overlap of a much wider discussion regarding storm water management of the entire park complex, construction began in late November and the last piece of steel was placed in early March. Wesley Community Development, the project manager, is scheduling and targeting a summer delivery.

Sustainability

At the last year’s annual conference, it was apparent that making a sustainability statement with the building was important. To that end, the team decided to explore LEED certification for the building. The board is now confident of achieving a silver level, with the chance of achieving gold. In addition, solar panels on the roof of the building will generate power that will feed the WNCC offices, resulting in a direct impact to operating costs. Lastly, the possibility of installing electric car charging stations in front of the building is being explored with Energy United.

Leasing

Interest in leasing has picked up since construction began. Wesley Community Development has begun conversations with the conference about leasing space. The Wesley space would include space subleased from Wesley by the NC Council of Churches. The trustees continue to be committed to passing neither the costs of the new building nor the debt service, to the conference through apportionments. Potential rental income from spaces on the first floor would more than offset the debt service requirement.

Non-Profit Status

A question was raised at last year’s annual conference regarding whether leasing parts of the building would jeopardize the conference’s non-profit status. Upon investigation with the auditors, it was determined that there is a threshold of less than 20 percent of total income to maintain non-profit status. Full leasing would generate approximately $325,000 which is 3.2 percent of the total conference budget (not including General Church apportionments), and well below the 20 percent maximum.

The Episcopal Residence Committee cares for the conference-owned episcopal residence, constituted according to the provisions of the Discipline. The trustees send a representative to this committee. Bishop and Mrs. Paul Leeland live in the episcopal residence located at 3416 Maryhurst Lane, Charlotte NC 28226.

Among other duties, the trustees look after discontinued and abandoned churches. Keenly aware of the need for continued dialogue and healing as a local church discerns its future, the cabinet, The Duke Endowment, and The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina have partnered to facilitate these transitions. The Church Legacy Initiative, with a staff of four persons, is continuing to assist local churches with discerning possible paths forward. This project has completed its second year of a five-year grant from The Duke Endowment. The trustees continue to see the benefits of the transition teams, and gratefully thank the cabinet, The Duke Endowment, and The United Methodist Foundation for their endeavors in this area.

Discontinued Churches

Please note that ¶2548.4 of The Book of Discipline specifies that all deeds, records, and official and legal papers of a discontinued church shall be deposited for permanent safekeeping with the Commission of Archives and History of the Annual Conference. The central repository is currently housed at the Memorial Center in Charlotte. The following churches have been discontinued: Calvary UMC in Asheboro, Macedonia UMC in Harmony, Staley UMC in Staley, Tabernacle UMC in Albemarle, Vida Nueva UMC in Stoneville.

The trustees utilize the services of A. Anthony Corp., a global facilities management company, to assist with property inspection, management, and preservation, including repairs, maintenance, emergency services, and special projects. A. Anthony also provides a web-based interface to assist with property administration and management. In conjunction with A. Anthony, the religious and educational real estate group of Foundry Commercial provides real estate broker services such as appraisals, sales, marketing, on-site tours, and broker's price opinions. Foundry is also brokering the sale of Camp Elk Shoals in West Jefferson, Camp McCall in Bostic, and the parsonages associated with discontinued churches.

Vehicle Leasing

As extensive travel is expected from many of the conference staff, the trustees lease 11 vehicles (ten Honda CRVs and one Accord) from Vann York Auto Mall in High Point NC, for 39 months, which began in December 2015. These vehicles are used by the district superintendents, bishop, bishop's assistant, and director of church development. A decision will be made in 2018 as to whether leasing vehicles continues to be a cost-effective way to provide for the travel of the conference staff as the current lease expires in December 2018.

Insurance Matters

Liability coverage for sexual misconduct has been eliminated, altered, or only provided under separate policies by many insurance companies. The trustees continue to admonish all churches to confirm that required Safe Sanctuaries policies and procedures are in place, and to reevaluate all insurance programs with their insurance agents.

The Book of Discipline requires local church trustees to annually review and report on the adequacy of local church property and liability insurance coverage "to ensure that the church, its properties, and its personnel are properly protected against risks." In an effort to assist local church trustees with this requirement, GCFA guidelines for minimum insurance policies and coverage limits are available on the conference administrative website (www.wnccadmin.org) under "Publications" and are recommended for comparison with existing local church policies.

The board of trustees worked with the conference insurance provider, Church Mutual Insurance Company, a nationally recognized and specialized provider of property and casualty insurance to churches and religious organizations, to provide a new cost-effective program for Worker's Compensation for WNCC churches. WNCC congregations now have the option to participate in the Church Mutual program at a reduced rate as well as save on the Expense Constant Fee.

N. CHURCH LEGACY INITIATIVE

The Church Legacy Initiative (CLI) is a ministry of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, in collaboration with The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina and supported by a grant from The Duke Endowment. The purpose of CLI is to assist churches in making faithful decisions about their future, and to provide a legacy which will help to make disciples in this and future generations. CLI team members and the districts they serve are:

- Rev. Charlotte Brendel – Appalachian, Blue Ridge, and Smoky Mountain districts
- Rev. Renee Easter – Northern Piedmont, Yadkin Valley, and upper Uwharrie districts
- Rev. Angela Hollar – Catawba Valley, Metro, and lower Uwharrie districts

The Western North Carolina Conference has a large number of churches which have declined significantly in vitality and worship attendance during the previous ten years. These churches know they need help, but often they have very limited resources and opportunities. So what, if anything, can the WNCC do to assist these churches? Is there some specific support and ministry which can be offered to them? The Church Legacy Initiative is part of the WNCC's response to those questions and those needs. The ministry of the Church Legacy Initiative is to come alongside struggling churches and engage in a systematic process of assessment and discernment to help the members of these churches discern a faithful path forward.

CLI works in collaboration with the district superintendents and the church vitality strategists from each district to determine the churches with whom CLI will work, to review progress, and to determine next steps. CLI's ministry has two primary foci:

- One focus is the Vitality Assessment. During a vitality assessment CLI will meet with a church who has experienced significant decline and will lead them through an assessment process with the hope that the church will begin to engage in intentional and strategic revitalization efforts. Renewal and revitalization are always the primary goals for churches participating in the vitality assessment process.
- A second focus of CLI's ministry is the Legacy Conversation. During a legacy conversation CLI will meet with a church that is struggling with significant challenges and will lead them through a caring and systematic process of discernment. Through this discernment process a church may determine that they realistically have resources and possibilities for revitalization and they will make a commitment to that faithful path. Other churches may discern that they do not have sufficient resources or realistic possibilities for revitalization and for them the faithful choice is to become a legacy church. If a church chooses this path, CLI will walk alongside the pastor and congregation offering support and guidance – with the goal of making their journey as graceful and as grace-filled as possible.

During the 2017-18 Conference year, CLI worked with a total of 52 churches. CLI led vitality assessments in 25 churches and legacy conversations in 27 churches. Seven churches made the faithful choice to become legacy churches and other churches have begun intentional outreach and renewal efforts.

CLI plays an important role in the vitality efforts of the Western North Carolina Conference as churches purposefully discern the faithful path God is calling them to follow, either for intentional revitalization of their own church or to provide a legacy which will assist with the renewal of other churches and the creation of new faith communities. Through loving faithfulness in this new ministry, the Church Legacy Initiative will provide the WNCC with greater opportunities to fulfill the mission of following Jesus and making disciples who will transform communities and the world.

O. COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The Commission on Archives and History continues its work of collecting, recording and preserving the story of significant milestones in The Western North Carolina Conference. The Rev. Fred Day, General Secretary of the General Commission on Archives and History, remarks that the commission is a "Ministry of Memory so we may continue to learn from our past and anticipate our future."

This has been a very busy year for the commission. In accordance with a petition approved at the 2017 Annual Conference of the Western North Carolina Conference, the Commission on Archives and History has worked diligently with the Conference Justice and Reconciliation Team to celebrate, during the 2018 Annual Conference, the 50th anniversaries of historic milestones of 1968. These anniversaries include the merger of The Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren to form The United Methodist Church; and the merger of the segregated North Carolina-Virginia Conference into the Western North Carolina Conference. The focus has centered on commemorating these mergers as a recommitment to the goals of unity in the church as the body of Christ. These joint efforts have resulted in videotaped interviews of persons who were active in the church at the time, production of a brief compilation video to be shown during annual conference, a historical summary report to be inserted in the official program and report booklet, and a poster for display throughout the annual conference. In conjunction with the Conference Worship Committee, a "reconciliation service" has been planned. This is the authentic practice of the "Ministry of Memory" in action.

The commission also continues to oversee the work of the conference archives, located in the Conference Memorial Center. Staffed by two diligent part-time archivists, the archives house documents and information that are available to those wishing to conduct research. Research requests remained steady during 2017, as patrons continue to be aware of the archives and to contact the archivists regularly with a variety of requests regarding the resources. Currently the archives are open on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only, and by appointment. Those who wish to do research are encouraged to make contact in advance to ensure that one of the archivists will be there to help them. The commission encourages growth in the use of the archives and actively works to make the archives more visible and accessible. In this effort, the commission approved a digitization project to make electronic copies of as many archival materials as possible and to make them available online. Assistant Archivist, the Rev. Jim Pyatt met with Dr. Beth Sheppard, Director of the Duke Divinity School Library, to develop a proposal that the commission fund payment of Duke Divinity School students to do the scanning work required for the project. The commission voted to set up an open-ended arrangement with the Duke Divinity School Library to scan the materials. The Rev. Pyatt was tasked to work with the staff of Duke Divinity School Library in planning what steps to take to further this project.

A current major concern of the commission is the issue of the future location of the archives, considering the imminent relocation of conference offices from the current site on Shamrock Road in Charlotte. Plans are to relocate the archives to Pfeiffer University during the summer of 2018. A request-for-proposals (RFP) has been issued to identify professional library moving companies who might handle relocation. With input and oversight from the Commission, the conference archivists will work with the conference trustees to arrive at the best solution.

Since 1980, the commission has offered to provide a clergy grave marker upon the passing of any clergy member of the conference. Since July 1, 2017 markers have been presented to seventeen affected families. The commission anticipates continuing this service on behalf of the conference.

In 2016 the annual conference approved a recommendation that each district offer training opportunities for local church historians. In the course of this past year, members of the commission have facilitated seven such training events: three in Northern Piedmont, two in Metro, and one each in Catawba Valley and Yadkin Valley. A training workshop is planned for the Uwharrie District in the fall of 2018. Other districts are encouraged to host similar sessions before the end of this quadrennium. Assistance is also needed in identifying significant sites in the conference to be considered for nomination as historic sites of The United Methodist Church. Commission member Russell W. Ford Jr. is spearheading this initiative, and interested persons may contact him through Hawthorne Lane UMC in Charlotte.

The Commission on Archives and History continues its tradition of recognizing those churches within the conference who are celebrating significant anniversaries this year. A special display highlighting the life and ministry of these congregations can be seen at the commission's display, and in a video presentation to be shown between sessions of the annual conference. Those who have been identified as celebrating significant anniversaries this year (at the time of this writing) include Bethel (Liberty, Randolph County), who celebrates their bicentennial; and Davis Chapel (Buncombe County), Maggie Valley (Haywood County), Matton's Grove (Stanly County), May's Chapel (Catawba County), and Saint Stephen (Lexington), which celebrate their sesquicentennial this year; and Warrensville (Ashe County), which celebrates its centennial this year. A more complete list will appear in the 2018 Conference Journal.

The Southeastern Jurisdiction (SEJ) Commission on Archives and History met at Lake Junaluska, November 16-17, 2017, with the Rev. Pyatt serving as its chairperson, and Sandra Williamson, an at-large member, absent due to illness. Also at Lake Junaluska, the SEJ Commission hosted a workshop (Nov 17-18, 2017) on how to conduct an oral history program. Commission Vice-chairperson Rev. Charles Curtis attended this workshop. The SEJ Historical Society will meet in Williamsburg, Virginia, at Williamsburg United Methodist Church, July 17-20, 2018. Registration information and a full calendar are available through the Heritage Center or by contacting Nancy Watkins, Director of the Heritage Center, at nwatkins@lakejunaluska.com or by calling 828-454-6781. Another meeting scheduled for this summer is a convocation of the Historical Society of The United Methodist Church, the North Central Jurisdiction Commission on Archives and History, the Wesleyan Historical Society and the Charles Wesley Society. That program is titled "Merging Streams: Celebrating The United Methodist Church's 50th Anniversary." Rev. Pyatt will present a paper on the Central Jurisdiction at this meeting at United Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio, July 9-12, 2018.

The General Commission on Archives and History (GCAH) met at Drew University in New Jersey September 15-18, 2017, and both Pyatt and Williamson attended. The next meeting of the GCAH is scheduled for July 12-15, 2018, at United Theological Seminary, with Rev. Pyatt attending as a member of the general commission.

God is at work in and through the people called United Methodists in western North Carolina. This commission pledges to continue to collect the documents, preserve the materials, equip local historians, and tell the story.

Becoming The U. M. C.

Yes, actually, The UMC is only 50 years old!

We think of the Methodist church as being around a few centuries. This is true! Yet also untrue, since the “United” part of our church is having its 50th birthday this year.

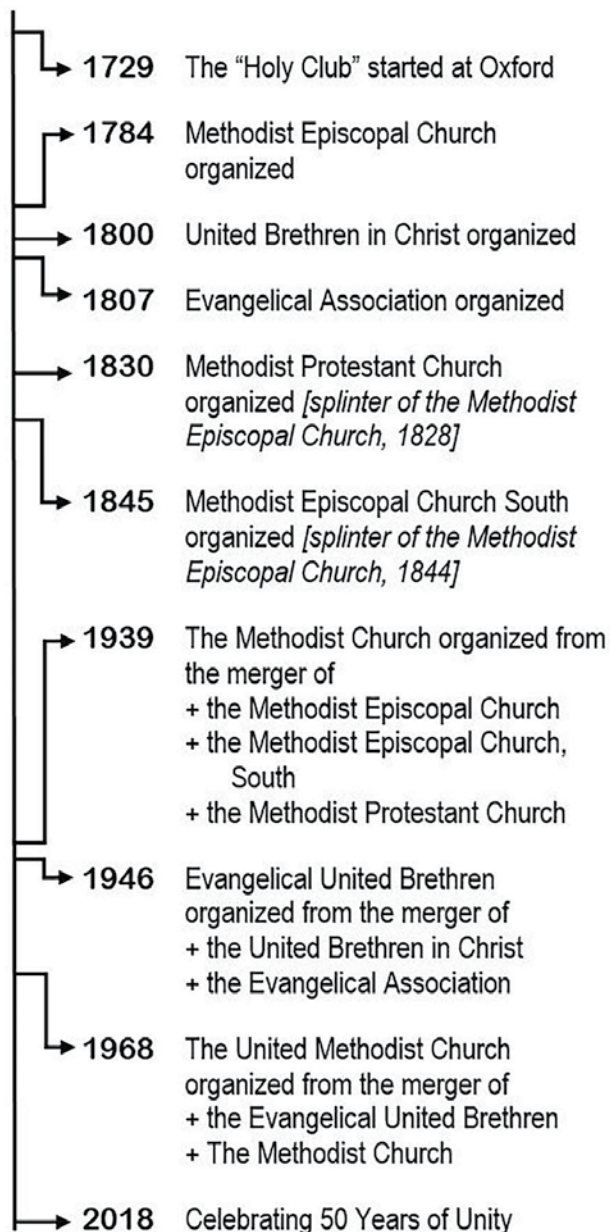

On April 23, 1968, The Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren merged to create a new Christian denomination, The United Methodist Church. The union was facilitated by theological traditions steeped in the Protestant Reformation and Wesleyanism, similar ecclesiastical structures, and relationships that dated back almost two hundred years.

- In the Evangelical United Brethren heritage, for example, Philip William Otterbein, the principal founder of the United Brethren in Christ, assisted in the ordination of Francis Asbury to the superintendency of American Methodist work.
- Jacob Albright, through whose religious experience and leadership the Evangelical Association was begun, was nurtured in a Methodist class meeting following his conversion.

“Know from whence you came. If you know whence you came, there are absolutely no limitations to where you can go.”

~ James Arthur Baldwin

Otterbein, Asbury, and Albright – what about the Wesleys?

The Methodist movement dates back to John and Charles Wesley and the “Holy Club” at Oxford in the late 1720s. The name itself stems from the cell group being teased for their methods. Many members of this club helped lead the Evangelical Revival (also known as the Great Awakening) of the mid-1700s.

So how did Methodism come to the U.S.?

The formal organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church (MEC) in America took place in 1784 at the Christmas Conference at Lovely Lane Chapel in Baltimore, MD, with Thomas Coke and Francis Asbury serving as joint superintendents of the new denomination.

Why did we have so many Methodist denominations?

That single entity, the Methodist Episcopal Church of 1784, unfortunately divided a few decades later when disagreements arose regarding lay representation at General and Annual Conferences, and the power and authority of bishops and presiding elders at General Conference in 1828. Some churches and clergy withdrew, with the Methodist Protestant Church (MPC) being formally organized in 1830.

Then, the 1844 General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was divided over slavery. Many more clergy and churches withdrew and organized the Methodist Episcopal Church, South (MECS) in 1845.

Who are the Evangelical United Brethren?

The United Brethren in Christ were organized September 25, 1800, with Philip William Otterbein and Martin Boehm elected their first Bishops. Jacob Albright and his Methodist-style preaching among German settlers led to the first conference of the Evangelical Association, held November 13-15, 1807.

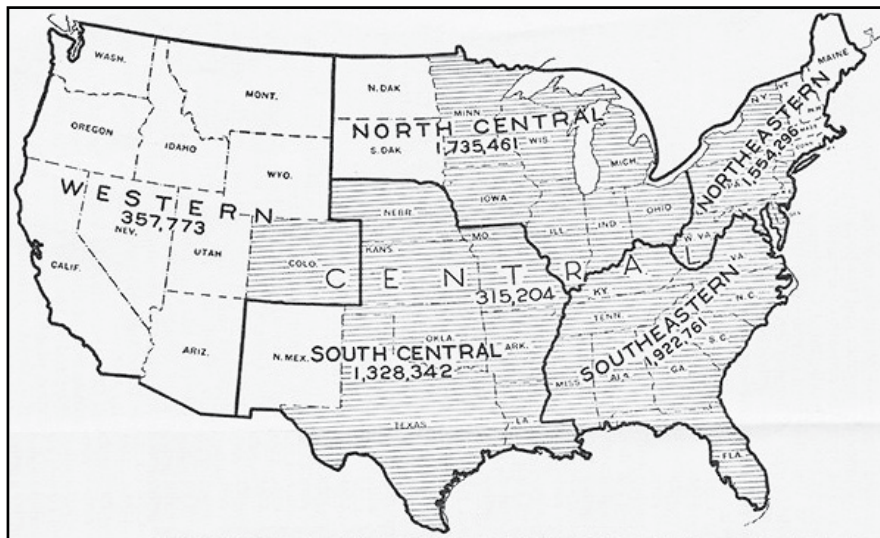

These two groups of “German Methodists” coexisted until merging to form the Evangelical United Brethren (EUB) on November 16, 1946.

That time we started figuring out “unity”... but missed.

The Evangelical United Brethren was in conversation of merging with the three [not German] Methodist denominations (the MEC, MECS, and the MPC) merged back together to form The Methodist Church on April 26, 1939.

One of the results of the 1939 merger forming The Methodist Church was the division of the denomination in the United States into six different jurisdictions, five of which were regional, and one being racial. (Notice the inset image poignantly demonstrating the division of a large geographical area.)

While the formation of the Central Jurisdiction was segregation on a large scale, it did, however, allow for African-American Bishops and for African-American representation on the general boards and agencies of the denomination, which may not have occurred otherwise.

The time we got unity right.

A uniting conference took place in Dallas, Texas on April 23, 1968, forming The United Methodist Church from the unification of the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren. When discussion began toward the formation of The United Methodist Church, a non-negotiable for the EUB (and for many Methodists) was the elimination of the Central Jurisdiction and the institutional segregation of the church.

On June 5, 1968, the Western North Carolina Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction formally joined with the Western and Central Districts of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference of the Central Jurisdiction. This worship service at the opening of the 1968 annual conference formed the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church as we know it today, led by the joint efforts of clergy and lay members of the two conferences.

Bishop Earl G. Hunt Jr., of the Charlotte Area (Southeastern Jurisdiction), and Bishop Edgar A. Love, of the Baltimore Area (Central Jurisdiction), read jointly the statement of union: “For the glory of God and for the extension of Christ’s Kingdom in our time, we announce officially the merger of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church with that portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference lying within its borders. May our Heavenly Father abundantly bless this union. Amen.”

Today, we are able to call ourselves United Methodists because of the foundation laid nearly three hundred years ago and the diligent and prayerful work of those people who, in the midst of the civil rights movement, believed the church itself should be one.

1 Corinthians 1:10 (CEB) Now I encourage you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ: Agree with each other and don’t be divided into rival groups. Instead, be restored with the same mind and the same purpose.

P. CHRISTIANS ENGAGED IN FAITH FORMATION

Christians Engaged in Faith Formation (CEF) is an association of leaders connected to one another and to God, energized for the work of faith formation, and guided by Acts 2:42, and exists to promote and strengthen faith formation and Christian education in local churches, districts, and the Western North Carolina Conference.

The WNCC CEF has gone through some transformation and is re-envisioning its purpose to serve both tenured and new leaders within the church. CEF is investigating and encouraging new ways for continuing education opportunities. Webinars, seminars, day apart, and retreats will be provided throughout the year and into next year.

The WNCC CEF will have a presence at the National CEF Conference in Des Moines, Iowa, October 9-12, 2018. "Curious Church: Don't you want to know" will focus on connections, learning, worship, and discovering new ways to engage church members and others. More information can be found at www.cefumc.org.

In addition, CEF continues to partner with the Conference Discipleship Ministries Office to update and strengthen Safe Sanctuary policies and offer educational and training opportunities for local churches within the conference.

WNCC CEF is for lay and clergy, full-time and part-time, professionals and volunteers, and anyone who participates in any form of Christian Education, Youth Ministry, Children's Ministry, Adult Education, and areas of faith formation. CEF members enjoy the additional benefits of connections within CEF and the church, receiving discounted registration to CEF events, Facebook connections, frequent e-news updates, and scholarship opportunities for seminars and conferences. CEF also provides a support system of and for those who have unique experiences in Christian Education ministries. Learn more about the CEF community and what it can offer for Christian Education and disciple formation at www.wnccumc.org/CEF.

Q. COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS

The primary work of the commission is to support and communicate the annual conference's mission of "Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, Transform the World." The commission strives to do this by "Building relationships through communication, the commission will help create space for people to interact and have conversation in safe spaces. It will share the stories of how God is at work among us as United Methodists in Western North Carolina, that in turn shares the Good News of Jesus Christ."

Traditionally, the Commission on Communications provides leadership for the Western North Carolina Conference in communications, public relations, social media, and promotional awareness of the funds and programs of the conference. The commission assists with managing the image of the conference, as well as working to provide resources for the districts and local churches. Whether in the form of training, sharing news, or crisis management, the commission exists to equip and encourage the ministry efforts of local churches, districts, and the annual conference to achieve identified goals.

In the past year, various members of the commission have assisted the director of communications and the conference staff by collaborating on a new website design that is now active at www.wnccumc.org. This website pulls together what was four separate web offerings into one site. This has increased overall traffic and ease of use for constituents. The commission contracted with Brick River web design to accomplish this. Brick River specializes in building websites for United Methodist annual conferences. The commission also has the framework for the eight districts to have a coordinated web presence and is working toward getting them all on board.

The Brick River platform also is providing the conference with more options for bulk emails, form creation and implementation, collation of funds online, and the ability to allow more creators and editors of content to work in collaboration.

The commission has started a new project to take updated photos for the conference database of all clergy. The photos will be taken in each district between April and September with make-up photos to be taken at the 2019 Annual Conference.

The commission will be assisting with the communications efforts at annual conference as it has in past years with photography, story writing, and with the web portal for that event: AC2018.org.

The commission would like to thank Michael Rich for his work on behalf of the commission in the creation of the new website.

R. CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS COMMITTEE

The Conference Staff Relations Committee is part of the support system for the conference office staff and the staff of the district offices. The committee assists the staffs by providing needed resources which enable them to fulfill the mission of developing and supporting vital congregations.

The committee met at the conference center on November 28. The holiday schedule for 2018 was approved, as well as a revision of the personal leave time policy. A new policy to recognize employees for their longevity was presented by Kathy Odell, director of human resources. The policy was approved, with revisions suggested by the committee.

The committee had a lengthy discussion regarding a formula for setting the salaries of the district superintendents. The idea discussed was the use of a percentage multiple of the Conference Average Compensation as the primary factor in the establishment of the superintendents' salaries. The committee asked Glenn Kinken, chairperson of the Conference Council on Finance & Administration, to bring a recommendation to the March 2018 meeting.

New staff members Carol Bateman and Carolyn Hindel were introduced to the group. The committee expressed appreciation to Yvonne Gritt, controller, for her loyalty and service to the conference.

Dr. Mark King, treasurer, provided information to the group relative to the status of the construction of the new Conference Center in Huntersville.

A meeting of the committee was held at the Conference Center in Charlotte on March 5. Oral reports were given to the committee by Kim Ingram, ministerial services and conference secretary, Caroline Wood, connectional ministries, and Dan Pezet, church development.

The Rev. Dr. King and the Rev. Kinken presented information regarding a salary formula for the district superintendents and the assistant to the bishop. The committee approved a formula recommendation to submit to the Conference Council on Finance & Administration for the 2019 conference budget.

S. COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

The Committee on Episcopacy continues to fulfill its purpose to serve, support, and uphold our bishop in his work for the Western North Carolina Conference. It has been a busy and productive year for Bishop Paul L. Leeland and all of those serving the Conference.

Under the guidance of the Conference Trustees and CF&A, the new Western North Carolina Conference Center, in Huntersville, N.C., is being constructed and is on schedule to open in July/August 2018.

Bishop Leeland continues to spend the majority of his time immersed in the conference and to be guided in this work by his four key principles; transparency, consistency, trust, and encouragement. A good part of his work this year has been spent with the district superintendents and conference vitality specialist to contextualize the plan for each district as we fulfill our mission. The goal has been to identify good churches that want to move toward being great churches. Work is still being done around strategic changes dealing with going from 15 to 8 districts. Superintendents continue to move this process in a healthy direction. The committee wants to applaud all of the agencies, committees, connectional table, missional network, cabinet/extended cabinet, and individual districts as they work together in the spirit of transparency, encouragement, and trust to influence and bring new insight to the ministries of the conference.

One core focus continues to be the "Bishop's Emerging Leader Initiative." The conference is working with Queens University on a leadership program which identifies 14 characteristics tied to making fruitful congregations. Approximately 10 people have been selected from each district to develop leadership plans around these 14 perspectives. The hope is to broaden the pool to develop clergy to serve larger churches, start new churches and Fresh Expression churches, missions, sustain healthy churches, and turn around churches in need. There is also conversation around forming partnerships with other conferences and Queens University on this leadership initiative.

The work which began last year on technical and communications needs is well underway to connect and link the entire conference in a more productive and cooperative way.

The Legacy program is continuing in a positive direction. The "Nehemiah Project" is bringing in people to lead in developing new areas of ministry and growth in churches. Clergy and Laity teams are setting goals and next steps to move churches to healthy and more productive ministry and to fulfill the purpose of church revitalization.

In the Spring of 2018, the Rev. Amy Coles, the Rev. Kim Ingram, and Jennifer Davis led "Healthy Conversations for a Way Forward," at which clergy and laity learned more about the work of The Commission on a Way Forward as the Conference approaches the called General Conference in February 2019, and participants experienced a model that can be utilized in local churches.

This is a very special year for the Leelands and their family. Bishop Leeland accepted his first student appointment in 1968 at Lucana UMC, Wilson, NC, in the North Carolina Conference. This year marks his 50th year of ministry serving The United Methodist Church. On July 27, 2018, the Leelands will celebrate 50 years of marriage. Other milestone anniversaries for their children and graduations for their grandchildren will occur. The committee's love and congratulations go out to our episcopal family during this year of celebrations.

The Committee on Episcopacy invites all United Methodists across the conference to be in prayer every Friday as we lift up Bishop Leeland, his family, and his work for the annual conference.

Wanda Musgrave, Chairperson
Sandy Giles, Vice-chairperson
Sarah McKinney, Secretary

T. EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE COMMITTEE

The Episcopal Residence Committee is pleased to report that Bishop and Mrs. Paul Leeland have been comfortably using and enjoying the new residence at 3416 Maryhurst Lane in Charlotte. The residence endowment reserve now stands at $47,858.53 (as of 12.31.2017). For 2019, the committee is requesting that the amount of $10,000 be included in the apportioned conference budget. The committee, in consultation with Bishop and Mrs. Leeland, will continue to monitor expenses and request funding as is appropriate and necessary.

U. COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION (CEC)

Policies and Guidelines for Administering the Equitable Compensation Fund (Calendar Year 2019)

1. Policies Pertaining to the Commission on Equitable Compensation:

¶¶ 342 and 625 of The Book of Discipline 2016 direct the Commission on Equitable Compensation (CEC) to recommend a minimum level of pastoral compensation for clergy serving as local church pastors under episcopal appointment and to administer the Equitable Compensation Fund (ECF) as a source of funding of last resort for pastors-in-charge in order to maintain a living, equitable level of compensation for these itinerant ministers.

a. Executive Committee:

During each quadrennium, at its organizational meeting, the CEC shall elect an executive committee consisting of a chairperson, a vice chairperson, a secretary, and additional members from the full commission as needed, so that the executive committee consists of an equal number of clergy and lay persons. The assistant to the bishop and a cabinet representative will serve as ex-officio members of the executive committee.

b. Definition of Compensation:

As used by the CEC, the term “compensation” includes the annual amount designated as cash salary for service rendered, additional insurance premiums over and above the conference-approved program of individual medical insurance for clergy, accountable professional expenses, household expenses paid by the local charge, and other fringe benefits. Compensation does not include housing allowance in lieu of parsonage to the extent of actual housing, fair market value of supplied parsonages, reimbursement for parish-related travel expenses paid by the local charge to the extent of actual travel expenses or use of an automobile for parish travel purposes, funds provided for continuing education to the extent they are used for that purpose, bona-fide gifts or honoraria for special services, allowances for moving expenses paid by the annual conference or local church, or individual medical insurance premiums in the amount of the conference-approved program of insurance for clergy.

2. Types of Grants

Two categories of support are available from the ECF: emergency sustentation grants and regular grants.

- a. Emergency sustentation grants are available under the provisions of ¶ 626, which states that each church or charge has an obligation to pay in full compensation, as approved by the charge conference, to its pastor(s). If it becomes apparent that a church or charge will be unable to so provide the compensation approved by the charge conference, the church or charge shall immediately notify the district superintendent and may request consideration for a short-term emergency grant from the Equitable Compensation Fund (cf. also ¶ 625).
- b. Regular grants are available for those churches or charges that, at their annual charge conferences, determine that they will be unable to provide compensation at the minimum level set by the annual conference. In cooperation with the bishop and cabinet, the CEC offers grants, on a declining schedule, totaling no more than 30 percent of the appropriate minimum pastoral compensation for a period of three or fewer years. In the first year, a church or charge may receive up to 100 percent of the maximum available grant; in the second year, up to 70 percent; in the third year, up to 40 percent. During this period, the church or charge must adopt and follow a plan, approved by the district superintendent, that eliminates the need for this assistance. After the third year, a church or charge will not automatically be eligible for a regular grant. Representatives of the CEC shall consult with the district superintendents about any clergy person or church that has received equitable-compensation grants for five consecutive years.

3. Definitions and Classifications of Pastors

- a. Full-Time Pastors: Subject to these policies and guidelines, pastors appointed to full-time service under ¶ 338.1 or ¶ 318.1 shall have a claim upon the ECF and shall not receive less than the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule (¶ 342).
- b. Pastors Serving Less Than Full-Time: Subject to these policies and guidelines, elders and provisional members serving as pastors appointed to less than full-time service under the provisions of ¶ 338.2 shall have a claim upon the ECF in one-quarter-time increments of either $\frac{3}{4}$, $\frac{1}{2}$, or $\frac{1}{4}$ time as negotiated by the district superintendent at the time of the appointment, receiving not less than this percentage of the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule.
- c. Pastors Attending School: Subject to these policies and guidelines, a pastor appointed to a church or charge who is enrolled in good standing in a college or seminary for a minimum of nine hours per semester or equivalent in fulfillment of the requirements for conference affiliation and who is not otherwise gainfully employed shall have a claim upon the ECF in an amount based upon the one-quarter-time increments as negotiated by the district superintendent at the time of the appointment, which shall not exceed $\frac{3}{4}$ time. In determining the compensation for a pastor attending school, grants received for educational expenses shall not be considered as part of compensation. Pastors who discontinue or complete their studies and intend to be considered as serving full-time shall be compensated at that level only after certification by the CEC.

- d. Part-Time Local Pastors and Retired Supply Pastors: Since the ECF is designed to support those in full-time services as pastors of our local churches, those charges utilizing part-time local pastors or retired supply pastors shall not have a claim upon the ECF.
- e. Pastors Engaged in Continuing Education: Inasmuch as continuing education is required of all ordained clergy, no pastor engaged in a program of continuing education under ¶ 351 shall by reason of such study leave be denied the minimum compensation support as specified in the current schedule, except that in cases of educational leave in excess of one month, the supplement shall be adjusted as negotiated by the district superintendent and the CEC.
- f. Deacons in Full Connection: As provided in ¶ 331.10b, deacons in full connection serving within the local church “shall receive a salary from the local church, charge, or cooperative parish not less than the minimum salary established by the equitable compensation policy of the annual conference for full-time and part-time pastors,” although these entities should be reminded that they are fully responsible for the compensation of these individuals. If the bishop and cabinet appoint a deacon in full connection to a position as pastor-in-charge of a local church or charge, that individual shall have a claim upon the ECF and shall not receive less than the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule for elders in full connection.

4. Request Procedures

Regular grants from the CEC must be requested by a formal action of the charge conference, supported by a written grant application, using the CEC form available through the conference web page, and signed by the district superintendent, the pastor, and the secretary of the charge conference. Requests must be completed in full and be accompanied by all required documentation in order to be processed by the CEC. Required documentation must include but is not limited to: written plan for decreasing reliance on equitable compensation, letters of support from pastor, church leadership, and district superintendent. The more information the CEC has about a local church situation the better equipped the CEC is to provide support. Requests must be made at least 30 days prior to the month when the assistance is to commence. In these cases, the local church or charge must pay at least 70 percent of the minimum applicable to its pastor.

For emergency sustentation grants, the district superintendent is responsible for submitting documentation to the cabinet and CEC executive committee for immediate processing, approval, and payment authorization.

5. Guidelines for Recommending Minimum Compensation

The CEC desires to recommend minimum pastoral compensation that is equitable for both churches and pastors. It is acknowledged that economic conditions vary across the annual conference. To be equitable, therefore, there must be awareness of the financial impact of these recommendations upon the local churches in order to not make pastoral support an excessive burden, while providing clergy with fair, living, and equitable compensation.

In making these recommendations, the CEC refers to changes in the North Carolina per capita Income (NCPCI), as maintained by the United States Bureau of Economic Analysis, on a two-year-lag basis (the earliest time for which data are obtainable). The NCPCI offers a true measure of the underlying economy in which congregations exist and is independent of Western NC Conference actions. Additional consideration is given to the two-year-lag Conference Average Compensation (CAC) and other measures of the health of churches and the economy as deemed necessary, segmenting the minimum compensation levels into the following categories:

- Elders and Deacons in Full Connection;
- Provisional/Associate Members;
- Local Pastors who have completed the Course of Study/M.Div.;
- Local Pastors who have not completed the Course of Study.

PROPOSAL: EQUITABLE COMPENSATION POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

W. DISCIPLE BIBLE OUTREACH MINISTRIES OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

In America, 2,200,000 people are in prison. In North Carolina alone, more than 37,000 inmates live in state prison facilities. When including those on probation and post-release parole, this number climbs to more than 133,000. This does not even include federal inmates and juvenile offenders. The criminal justice system in North Carolina affects one out of every four persons in the state, and that number continues to grow. Prisons are one of the fast-growing mission fields in the world today.

Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of North Carolina, Inc. (DBOM) was founded in 1999, to minister to those in prison and provide a Christian response to this ever-growing need. DBOM recruits, trains, and sends local church volunteers to prisons, jails, and youth development centers to teach God's word. Thousands of North Carolina inmates participate annually. DBOM also offers workshops in restorative justice and prison ministry to help build the capacity of the church for ministry. For the local church, DBOM provides Disciple Bible Study facilitator's training and resourcing to build strong disciple programs and to develop servant leaders for ministry in the congregations and beyond. DBOM's model of ministry has gone national with affiliates operational in Virginia, Tennessee, Louisiana, Illinois, Arkansas, and Texas.

None of this would be possible without support. A primary source of DBOM's funding comes from the annual special offering taken in August. In 2018, the offering will be received on August 26. Offering envelopes are being provided to each charge. DBOM is always seeking new volunteers and new ways to minister. Those interested in joining the DBOM prison leadership team should contact the office.

X. THE EUGENE M. COLE FOUNDATION

The Cole Foundation was established by the will of Eugene M. Cole in 1944 to provide benefits for retired ministers and surviving spouses for the Western North Carolina Conference. In 2015, the Foundation directed monthly payments to the conference treasurer to supplement the cost of health care benefits to retired ministers and spouses. The trustees also sponsor a breakfast for retired clergy and spouses at WNC Annual Conference.

The foundation is governed by three (3) trustees elected by the annual conference: James C. Windham, Jr., chairperson; Anthony Orsbon, vice chairperson; and Rebecca Douglas, secretary.

TRUSTEE OF COLE FOUNDATION

(Petition 17) Approved June 22, 2018

The Trustees of the Eugene M. Cole Foundation propose that James C. Windham, Jr., whose term as trustee expires in 2018, be re-elected for another three (3) year term, expiring in 2021.

James C. Windham, Jr., Chairperson

Y. UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc. has experienced an exceptional year of growing ministry. Mid-year 2017, it surpassed $200 million in managed assets and closed the year with $226,438,605 in total assets. In 2017, the foundation received over $36 million in new deposits. It has been able to do this because of the wise guidance of the investment team, board of directors, and clients who are willing to share their ministry. How can the foundation help churches to be fruitful in ministry? Contact the new director of client relations, Susan Cothorn. Having led development efforts at Brevard College for 16 years, Susan brings enthusiasm and expertise to assist in achieving goals for financial ministry management.

Ministry is the most important factor to the foundation; each and every dollar here represents someone's hopes and dreams for making disciples for Jesus Christ. The foundation not only celebrates the new monies received, it is just as excited about the monies that are disbursed. Approximately $11 million of disbursements were used for ministry. Almost $12 million that the foundation currently has in loans to churches and related institutions represents ministry being done in those places. Questions about the loan program may be addressed to staff. Either Susan Cothorn or the controller, Brad Crossley, will be happy to answer queries. The foundation considers it a privilege to be a part of so many disciple-making opportunities.

In 2017, the foundation continued its commitment to leadership development ministry. It created a new leadership program called Great Pastor/Great Administrator. This program was created in response to a lay person's desire for their pastor to have the opportunity to learn more in-depth management skills. Facilitated by the Rev. Jan Brittain and the Rev. Dr. Glenn Kinken, this program worked with 14 pastors last year. Moving forward, the program will be known as The Reynolds Academy for Ministry Management.

The Reynolds family also continues to support evangelism in Western North Carolina through the UMF Reynolds' Ministry Fund. This year, it worked with more than 100 pastors in a variety of leadership development programs, and disbursed over $472,000 in grants to local churches for ministries in Western North Carolina and beyond. The foundation is grateful to Royce and Jane Reynolds and their commitment to making disciples for Christ. Questions regarding Reynolds Ministries should be directed to Caroline Cox, the new associate director of Reynolds Ministries.

The United Methodist Foundation continued its stewardship ministries in many ways in 2017. The Rev. Dr. Melvin Amerson continued to lead another day retreat on Stewardship in the African American Church. Bishop Paul L. Leeland and his wife, Janet, joined more than 120 people for a day of considering best stewardship practices for traditionally African American congregations. The event was held at Greater Vision United Methodist Church.

In an effort to address the ongoing concern about clergy educational debt, the foundation entered into a partnership with the Western North Carolina Conference and with the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry to provide scholarships for seven candidates for ministry in the Western NC Conference. This year the combined support for United Methodist education for both laity and clergy provided over $50,000 worth of educational scholarships to United Methodist seminaries and United Methodist undergraduate colleges and universities.

More information about the ministry of the foundation can be found in the 2017 Annual Report. Stop by the tent outside of Stuart Auditorium and pick up a copy. Meet members of the staff who are eager to speak ministry partnerships with the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina to build the church for generations to come.

Z. RFD CDC

RFD is a triad of ministries serving congregations considering expansion or renovation of ministry facilities, congregations, or other entities seeking to offer senior and transitional housing, and ministries with the poor.

NETworX USA is the division of RFD CDC that focuses on individuals. NETworX is a national movement working together across lines of income, education, and race to measurably reduce poverty in all of its dimensions through education, intentional relationship-building, and faith working through love.

The 2016 General Conference passed a resolution that states: Therefore, be it resolved that General Conference encourages bishops, annual conferences and agencies to support local groups of United Methodist congregations to work or be in ministry with the poor and to consider NETworX initiatives.

Presently, nine NETworX communities operate across North Carolina, joined with five sites in the California-Nevada Annual Conference, one in Pennsylvania, and start-ups in the states of Kansas, Nebraska, West Virginia, Virginia and South Carolina.

RFD Consulting serves congregations and other groups investigating expansion of facilities or engaging in housing ministries. The process begins with thinking through what to do or project conception. The next stage is gathering and providing information needed on how to do it, what will it cost, and how will it be funded. A team can then be put together to design, build, fund, and if needed, provide on-going management. Three projects for senior and transitional housing are in process in North Carolina and Mississippi.

Members of the RFD CDC board are as follows:

Anna Baucom, President, Anson County Commissioners, Chairperson
 Rev. Lucy Robbins, Vice President, Pastor First UMC Caroleen
 Rev. Sam Moore, Secretary/Treasurer, Senior Minister Hickory Grove
 Rev. Amy Coles, Assistant to the WNCB Bishop
 Rev. Laura Early, Senior Minister All God's Children UMC

PROPOSAL: SUPPORT OF NETworX®

(Petition 18) Approved June 23, 2018

Whereas, poverty continues to abound in the USA, especially in the rural areas where the average national rate is 18.4 percent, and in the urban areas where the rate is 15.4 percent compared to the national average of 14.5 percent (USDA Economic Research Service); and

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has had as one of its four Areas of Ministry Focus: Engaging in Ministry with the Poor; and

Whereas, this focus emphasizes “with” – standing with those who are regarded as “the least of these,” listening to them, understanding their needs and aspirations, and working with them to achieve their goals; and

Whereas, United Methodist believe working side by side with those striving to improve their situation is more effective long term than top-down charity; and

Whereas, the Council of Bishops at the May 2015 meeting in Berlin affirmed the intent to build on and extend the Four Areas of Focus adopted in 2008 and for 2017-2020 would provide a missional direction for the next quadrennium, which includes partnering with schools to help end poverty; and

Whereas, for the past eleven years, beginning in 2007, Rural Faith Development CDC as an affiliate of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference has been in engaged with transformational ministry with the poor across NC, originally through Circles® and now through NETworX®; and

Whereas, at the request of other conferences and with leadership from across the USA, RFD has created a Wesleyan informed initiative with a measurable outcome of well-being of abundance that is measured in many dimensions: cognitive, physical, emotional, social, spiritual, and financial; and

Whereas, the very being of NETworX is encompassed in a mutual commitment to the core values of

Love – The foundational value for NETworX is love – love of neighbor,

Transformation – A belief in transformation and the importance of faith further define the power of this love; and

Whereas, these values are acted out with accountability, transparency, authenticity, acceptance, and inclusiveness; and

Whereas, the General Conference of The United Methodist Church adopted a resolution in 2016 encouraging bishops, annual conferences, and agencies to support local groups of United Methodist congregations to work or be in ministry with the poor and to consider NETworX initiatives. (Resolution 4094); therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Annual Conference give thanks for the work of its local congregations and agencies at work in ministry with the poor and strongly encourage the consideration of NETworX initiatives; and, be it further

Resolved, that NETworX USA be approved as conference-wide offering for 2019 with local congregations being encouraged to receive a special offering for the NETworX initiatives during the season of Lent.

AA. BROTHERHOOD/SISTERHOOD OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA

The Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood/Sisterhood (BH/SH) is an organization of clergy and lay members mutually expressing the ideals of covenant, connection, and compassion. The organization honors the dedicated life and ministry of clergy members at their death by providing their families with immediate financial assistance in addition to prayers for their future well-being. The families are free to use the benefit (presently $9,500) for any expenses they may have.

As soon as the organization learns about the death of a BH/SH clergy member, it notifies its membership. Each clergy member contributes a set amount (presently $8), while lay members are invited to contribute $3 or more. Some members respond immediately to each notice; some respond after receiving multiple notices; some respond only once a year. Annual statements are sent to clergy members at the end of each conference year, as well as to the laity, whose contributions are tax-deductible, at the end of each calendar year.

Beneficiary membership in the Brotherhood/Sisterhood is open to all clergy members of the annual conference (full, provisional, and local pastors). The registration fee is $10. Clergy who are 35 years of age or older may sign a non-interest-bearing promissory note to compensate for the deaths that have occurred since their 35th birthday. More information regarding the Brotherhood/Sisterhood can be found at its website, brotherhoodsisterhood.com.

Proposals to be voted on at the annual meeting of the Brotherhood/Sisterhood, on Thursday, June 21, at 1:30 p.m., in The Terrace (Room TBD):

1. That the assessment rate for clergy members be $8 per call, that laity members contribute $3 or more per call, that the initiation fee for new clergy members be $10, and that the standard benefit for the families of deceased clergy be $9,500.
2. That each church be encouraged to observe Brotherhood/Sisterhood Sunday on the third Sunday in February or on another Sunday more suitable for the particular congregation.

Proposed amendments to the Constitution, as recommended by the Board of Directors in their meeting on October 26, 2018, and to be voted upon at the annual meeting of the Brotherhood/Sisterhood:

1. In Article VII, changing July 31 to August 31, making the second sentence of this article to read: "Assessments are expected to be paid into the Brotherhood/Sisterhood treasury within sixty days from the date of notice of the assessment; provided, that all assessments within any given conference year shall be due and payable by August 31."
2. In Article IX, changing July 31 to August 31, making the first sentence of this article to read: "If any beneficiary member has not paid by August 31 all assessments due for deaths occurring before June 1 of that year, membership and protection shall be suspended until payment is made for assessments due..."

The rationale for both of these amendments is:

1. To be consistent in the constitution and bylaws regarding the deadline prior to suspension of membership. (In some places the date of July 31 is used; in others, it is August 31.)
2. The date of August 31 allows a month longer grace period than does July 31.

BB. CONVOCATION & PASTORS' SCHOOL AT DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

The 2017 Convocation & Pastors' School, "We Have the Power: Dismantling Bias and Hate," considered the questions: How can the Church confront and heal the bias and hate that breeds fear and division within our families, congregations, and communities? How can clergy and church leaders empower congregations to embrace the freedom God offers to seek justice and love kindness with and for our neighbors?

Convocation was held October 9-10, 2017, at Duke Divinity School. This event explored strategies for living into God's will and action for the world. Featured presenters included Lecia Brooks, Outreach Director, Southern Poverty Law Center; Amy Butler, Senior Minister, The Riverside Church of New York; Michael-Ray Mathews, Director of Clergy Organizing, PICO National Network; Valerie Cooper, Associate Professor of Religion and Society and Black Church Studies, Duke Divinity School; and William H. Lamar IV, Pastor of Metropolitan African Methodist Episcopal Church, Washington, D.C., who served as convocation preacher. Attendees also participated in worship and their choice of 13 seminars led by faculty, church leaders, and practitioners on topics including "Segregated Sundays," "Walking the Talk: The Blessing of Culture Crises," "Worship as Resistance: Embodying God's Mission at the Margins," and "Dismantling Bias and Hate: A Liberation Theology Perspective."

The next Convocation & Pastors' School, "Neighboring in a Post-Christendom World," will take place October 8-9, 2018. Speakers and workshop leaders will model for church leaders the moral imagination to engage in God's mission in the midst of a rapidly changing ecclesial and cultural landscape. Lecturers include author Barbara Brown Taylor, Bishop Ian Douglas of the Episcopal Diocese of Connecticut, Dr. David Goatley, incoming Director of the Office of Black Church Studies, Duke Divinity School, and Dr. Elaine Heath, Dean of the Divinity School. The Rev. Dr. Cynthia Hale, Senior Pastor of Ray of Hope Christian Church, Decatur, Ga., will be the convocation preacher.

Pastors serving churches eligible for grants from The Duke Endowment, current divinity school students, and 2018 graduates of Duke Divinity School may attend at a discounted rate.

The Convocation & Pastors' School Board of Managers comprises representatives from the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences, and advises and works with Duke Divinity School to offer a quality continuing education event annually.

The Western North Carolina Conference representatives on the Board of Managers are:

CC. THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

The Duke Endowment was formed in December of 1924 by the industrialist and philanthropist James B. Duke, who famously said that if it were not for his father and the Methodist Church, he would not have amounted to anything. When forming his endowment, Duke named four areas of focus: higher education, health care, child welfare, and rural United Methodist churches in North Carolina. For 93 years, the endowment has engaged with rural churches to strengthen their ministries all across the conference and state. Formed by the grace and love of God, and led by the Spirit, rural churches understand what it means "love their neighbors." Theirs are powerful and faithful stories, which may be read at the website: <http://dukeendowment.org/program-areas/rural-church>.

In 2017, the rural church program area of the endowment made 44 new grants totaling over $14.4 million. Grants were made in three work areas: Clergy Leadership, Rural Church Development, and Congregational Outreach.

The vision of the Clergy Leadership work area is to strengthen United Methodist churches by improving the quality and effectiveness of congregational leaders. Much of this is done through three major efforts:

1. The Clergy Health Initiative (CHI), based at Duke Divinity School, advises and informs the conferences, the denomination, and others on issues of clergy well-being. From 2010-2014, the CHI offered Spirited Life, a holistic wellness program, to over 1,000 United Methodist pastors in North Carolina. As a result, significant physical health gains were achieved. Recent CHI developments include the following:
 - At this annual conference, one can purchase, at a discounted price, a copy of Faithful and Fractured, a book by CHI lead researcher Rae Jean Proeschold-Bell and the WNCC's own Jason Byassee, which tells the story of the CHI and Spirited Life with the hope of promoting health for clergy and congregations across the denomination.
 - In addition, the CHI will soon roll out a new effort aimed at bolstering pastors' ability to thrive in the midst of stressful circumstances. Be on the lookout for announcements about this opportunity to come.
2. The Thriving Rural Communities Initiative (TRCI) is a collaborative effort among the endowment, the two conferences in North Carolina, and Duke Divinity School. The program forms and networks strong pastors, dubbed "Rural Fellows," for service to rural congregations. This year, Luke Christy will graduate from Duke Divinity School as a Rural Fellow and begin his ministry under appointment in the Western North Carolina Conference.

The Hispanic House of Studies at Duke Divinity School develops pastoral and congregational capacity for engagement with Latino populations, one of the fastest-growing demographic groups in the state. Interested pastors should contact the Rev. Ruiz-Millan at irmillan@div.duke.edu.

Through the Rural Church Development area of work, the endowment builds the capacity of United Methodist churches to help address community-wide issues at their roots. This happens primarily through system-level grants to the conferences and other entities that aid congregations in enhancing ministry and mission. With an intentional move away from making building grants, the endowment now seeks to create the conditions for congregations to thrive and to impact their communities in new and vital ways, through grants that support multiple churches engaging in creative ministry.

The Congregational Outreach area engages already-thriving congregations in programs that serve their communities through specific, outcomes-based food ministries, summer literacy programs, or services that improve housing for the congregation's neighbors. It is currently seeking highly functional rural (TDE-eligible) congregations to consider implementing six-week summer reading camps that follow a set of guiding principles identified as essential for the effort. Churches that are interested in joining this pilot program may reach out to Kristen Richardson-Frick, Associate Director of the Rural Church program area.

Those interested in applying for a grant for a ministry that fits within any of the above work areas should begin by exploring the website at <http://dukeendowment.org/rural-church-apply-for-a-grant>. There, one will find information about the application process. Please check this website frequently, as grant application and award cycles may shift from year-to-year.

Finally, in August, The Duke Endowment will once again host the Convocation on the Rural Church. The theme is Embracing the Power of Welcome, and the event will feature the Rev. Jennifer Bailey, Founder and Executive Director of the Faith Matters Network. The Rev. Bailey will share her work developing the People's Supper, which uses shared meals to invite people of different backgrounds to go beneath the headlines, create a sense of belonging, and understand the real stories that have shaped them. She will be joined by Mr. Benjamin Winchester, a rural sociologist whose work refutes the common negative "rural narrative" and demonstrates that rural places that can welcome the stranger are more likely to thrive into the future. Those unavailable for the August 6-8 Convocation are invited to explore Study Leave, which is available throughout the year at Duke Divinity School and is offered at a significant cost reduction for endowment pastors. Study Leave allows pastors to design their own week of learning and gives them access to faculty. Those interested in learning more may visit the website.

DD. THE NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

With 18 denominations representing over 6,200 congregations in NC, the Council provides incarnational evidence of Christian Unity. By creating unity without expecting uniformity, member bodies collaborate on matters that contribute to the flourishing of God's creation. The council is grateful to WNCC for their support and for the leadership on the Governing Board provided by Betty Jo Hardy and Robb Webb.

Currently our staffed program areas are:

- Religious Coalition for Justice for Immigrants includes education and advocacy for immigrants in the state through webinars, teach-ins, and online resources. The Council also coordinates the North Carolina Sanctuary Coalition, a collection of faith communities across North Carolina who offer public sanctuary sites or collaborating support for immigrants at risk of deportation. If your congregation is interested in becoming such a site, please contact the council.
- NC Interfaith Power and Light is the only North Carolina based statewide organization that works on addressing the ecological and justice issues of climate change as a faith-based initiative. Efforts include energy efficiency and conservation, increased renewable energy use, and collective low-carbon lifestyle changes. NCIPL programs encourage congregations, clergy, and denominations to know about and speak to the moral dimensions of climate change and environmental justice from a faith perspective.
- Partners in Health and Wholeness provides tools to help faith communities form healthy habits including exercise, healthy eating, mental health awareness, and smoking cessation. Staff members in Asheville and Charlotte are available to help your congregation. The council also has a staff member dedicated to education and advocacy around the opioid epidemic.
- Legislative advocacy and interfaith outreach helps faith communities connect the needs of their local communities with state policies and laws and, when necessary, empower communities to advocate for positive change.

Over the course of this year, the Governing Board approved the following policy statements which can be found on our website:

- Statement Affirming the Ministry of Sanctuary by Congregations (March 6, 2018)
- Statement on the Public Schools (December 5, 2017)
- Confederate-themed monuments: Time to reassess (September 12, 2017)
- Statement Opposing Fracked Gas Pipelines (September 12, 2017)

The council crafts these statements in keeping with the interpretation of the prophetic witness of the Old Testament and the gospel message of the New Testament.

Currently, other areas of emphasis include public education, gun violence prevention, living wage promotion, criminal justice reform, and Medicaid expansion. Resources are available online and the dedicated staff are available to help the congregation address any of the myriad concerns that arise in their contemporary setting.

EE. THE GENERAL BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND MINISTRY

GBHEM launched a new mission and vision in August 2017. The updated mission and vision simplify GBHEM's role as the primary leadership development agency for The United Methodist Church.

Mission: Build capacity for United Methodist lay and clergy leaders to discover, claim, and flourish in Christ's calling in their lives by creating connections and providing resources to aid in recruitment, education, professional development, and spiritual formation.

Vision: Generations of thriving, diverse, and compassionate Christian leaders for The United Methodist Church and the world.

GBHEM's Work Throughout 2017 and 2018

The Office of Discernment and Enlistment at GBHEM hosted Exploration, a biennial event for young adults ages 18-26 to hear, discern, and respond to God's call to ordained ministry as a United Methodist deacon or elder. More than 350 people attended the event in Portland, Oregon, in November 2017.

The Young Clergy Initiative (YCI) funded 34 innovative projects across the church in 2017 to attract young people to ordained ministry. Since its inception, more than 100 projects have been funded through YCI.

GBHEM works with the Commission on Central Conference Theological Education (CCTE) to distribute grants for the theological education of pastoral leaders in the Central Conferences. In 2017, the CCTE awarded 67 grants totaling more than $1 million to the seven Central Conferences of The United Methodist Church.

The Publishing Ministry, established to engage, nurture, and advocate for the intellectual life of The United Methodist Church, released 13 books in 2017, reaching more than 10,000 people.

In 2017, GBHEM's Office of Loans and Scholarships awarded 2,000+ students with $4.1 million in scholarships and 350 students with $1.4 million in low-interest loans. More than $1.6 million was awarded to 200 recipients of the Excellence in Clergy Leadership Scholarship, which helps United Methodist clergy avoid excessive educational loan debt, minimize financial stress, and build financial acumen.

To aid pastors in their ministry journey, GBHEM's Candidacy Office introduced EM360. A formation guide to help pastors and congregations meet mission and ministry goals, EM360 is a tool to help clergy leaders identify and gauge pastoral effectiveness.

In 2017, 1,438 candidates enrolled in UMCARES to seek certified candidacy for licensed or ordained ministry. A total of 589 candidates were certified.

The Black College Fund distributed more than $9.68 million in 2017 to the Historically Black Colleges and Universities related to The United Methodist Church for faculty development, infrastructure maintenance, academic programs, and scholarships.

Clergy Lifelong Learning led African American United Methodist pastors who lead predominantly white churches in cross-cultural diversity training in South Korea in 2017. Continuing education and coaching opportunities are available through the innovative, multilingual platform, UMC Cyber Campus.

In 2017, Schools, Colleges, and Universities established the Siri S. Gadbois Fund in partnership with the National Association of Schools and Colleges of The United Methodist Church (NASCUMC) for mentoring among institution leaders (kickoff in 2018). The Cutting-Edge Curriculum Award was created to recognize 10 exceptional faculty members who are building effective and innovative academic courses (winners announced at the end of 2018 spring semester).

In partnership with Discipleship Ministries, GBHEM provides e-readers to theological schools in remote areas of Africa and Asia, offering access to the latest textbooks and reference books. The E-Reader Project distributed 667 e-readers in 2017 and nearly 2,500 devices to 22 theological seminaries since the program inception in 2013.

In 2017, GBHEM and the Association of United Methodist Theological Schools (AUMTS) hosted two academic theological colloquies. Initiated in service to the intellectual life of the church, the colloquies are intended to be a resource for the church. The first colloquy (March 2017) focused on human sexuality and church unity, the second (November 2017) reflected on the practice of Missio Dei. Both events produced a study guide and book.

FF. HINTON RURAL LIFE CENTER

2017 was a year of exciting growth for Hinton Rural Life Center, which increased staff, built a new facility, and added key new services. Hinton Center is a mission agency of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church, located just outside the small town of Hayesville in Western North Carolina on the Northeast Georgia border. Hinton Center also serves as a Christian retreat and conference center, where guests come to retreat, reflect, and renew.

One of two important positions Hinton Center added in 2017 was a community engagement coordinator who works with community leaders to address practical issues raised by its recent quality-of-life study of the area, including substance use, housing, and children's issues. Hinton Center also brought on a community volunteer coordinator to establish and oversee a Volunteer Center that serves a three-county area. The Volunteer Center, which launched in January 2018, manages volunteer opportunities for non-profits, schools, churches, and other qualifying organizations.

An Easter sunrise service marked Hinton Center's first official event in the new Outdoor Worship Center, which sits on the shore of beautiful Lake Chatuge. Construction of the Outdoor Worship Center, which can hold up to 100 guests, was completed in Fall 2017 and funded by a grant from The Duke Endowment.

Additionally, Hinton Center began offering Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) training in the fall. MHFA gives skills needed to reach out and provide initial help and support to someone who may be having a mental health crisis or developing a substance use problem. While Hinton Center's newest elements created exciting new opportunities for ministry, many of its well-established outreach programs enjoyed promising expansion of their own. Hinton Center volunteers contributed a total of 23,837 hours to its ministries in 2017.

Christmas Care of Clay County received a record outpouring of support from the community in 2017, as Hinton Center helped provide needed clothing for 406 area children. Likewise, demand for the firewood ministry increased from a year earlier, and volunteers distributed 166 loads of wood to residents who still depend on it to heat their homes in winter.

Finally, home repair remains a central element of Hinton Center's missions work. While this ministry is most active in the summer, opportunities are offered year-round. The theme for 2018, "Cultivate Hope," is based on Jesus' parable of the sower from Luke 8:4-8. How can Hinton Center's staff and volunteers, as followers of Christ, live into the hope found through a relationship with Jesus, as individuals and as faith communities? How can Hinton Center extend that hope to others, not only by helping to meet the needs of its neighbors, but also by valuing their strengths and gifts?

Inspired by Jesus Christ, Hinton Rural Life Center's purpose is to engage individuals, congregations, and communities in transformation through retreat ministry and missional outreach. Whether you want a weekend sabbatical on Lake Chatuge, or to help build a wheelchair ramp in the community, Hinton Center offers something for everyone. Come see for yourself! Learn more at www.HintonCenter.org, or contact Hinton Center at 828-389-8336.

GG. LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY, INC.

The leadership of Lake Junaluska Assembly, Inc. is happy to report that they once again ended the year "in the black," wrapping up 2017 with a balance of over $60,000. The assembly continues to accomplish this without any operational apportionment support from the Southeastern Jurisdiction. Lake Junaluska has embraced the new financial model that was approved by the 2008 SEJ Conference and they remain committed to not only "living within their means" but also to ensure the long-term sustainability of their mission to be a place of Christian hospitality where lives are transformed through renewal of soul, mind, and body. 2017 was also a great year for charitable giving. The organization received $2,521,170 from 1,557 individuals. They are so grateful to continue to receive the support of new and returning donors each year affirming the mission of Lake Junaluska through their charitable giving.

As they continue to refine and implement their plans for improvements to their facilities, grounds, and programs, they are also continuing to solidify their commitment to one of their most important assets, their staff. Of the $60,000 "profit" from 2017, $38,000 was distributed, in the form of profit-sharing, back to all current staff who worked in 2017 along with an across the board 1.5 percent pay increase for all current staff in 2018. The remainder, along with the generous support of their donors, is being used for a wide array of ongoing capital improvements that they will be looking forward to reporting on next year, including a complete renovation of the Lambuth Inn. They are also working diligently to refine and improve their existing programming for youth and adults and continually seek to implement new innovative programs that align with their mission.

As a member of The United Methodist Church within the Southeastern Jurisdiction, the leadership of Lake Junaluska wants everyone to know that the asset, Lake Junaluska, is doing very well. One can be very proud of this important organization within the jurisdiction and the larger United Methodist Church. They are striving to be good stewards of the resources which has been entrusted to them.

To learn more about what is going on at Lake Junaluska, please pick up a copy of the 2018 Discover Lake Junaluska magazine. Peruse its pages to read about the impact of the programs, to learn about new projects they are working on, and to be familiar with the calendar of events. They hope everyone will come and visit this year for a conference, a retreat, or a vacation to be transformed and renewed in soul, mind, and body.

HH. UNITED METHODIST SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY AND UNIVERSITIES

1. BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Greetings in the Spirit of Jesus Christ! The Boston University School of Theology (BUSTH) travels with you in the vital journey of seeking God, building knowledge, and equipping leaders for the church and society. BUSTH celebrate its students, alums, and church partners, who join hands in serving God and building toward transformed communities.

BREAKING NEWS:

- Students: Entering students were the most diverse in the history, creating remarkable opportunities for in-depth exchange and fruitful collaboration.
- Faculty: Three amazing faculty were welcomed this year: Rebecca Copeland in Theology (focus on environmental theology); Theodore Hickman-Maynard in Black Church Studies; and Cornell William Brooks as Visiting Professor of Social Ethics, Law, and Justice Movements. Thanks to loyal alums, we also endowed the Harrell Beck Professorship in Hebrew Scripture and installed Kathe Darr as the first Beck Professor.
- Congregations: The Lilly Endowment awarded the Center for Practical Theology $1.5 million to create an innovation hub, which will foster creative vocational reflection in congregations, and a sharing of the congregations' wisdom.
- Doctor of Ministry: The D.Min. in Transformational Leadership is soaring with lively student cohorts that are broadly ecumenical, culturally diverse, and global. The model includes intensive, online courses, and faculty mentoring.

- Scholarships: The school continues to offer free tuition to UMC registered candidates for ordained ministry, and continues to build student scholarships and housing as a central campaign priority. New scholarships include the Dale Andrews Scholarship in Practical Theology and Race, Korean Student scholarship, and the Bishop John H. Adams and Dr. Dolly D. Adams Scholarship for candidates for ordained ministry in the AME, AMEZ, and CME churches.
- Arts Initiatives: Recent exhibits and events include “Symbols and Art of China, Korea, and Japan” and “Bridging Divided Communities through the Arts”

PARTNERING FOR MINISTRY AND TRANSFORMATION: Preparing students for ministry means meaningful partnerships with the local spiritual community.

- Congregational courses: Courses in congregations with church leaders and students learning together.
- Religion and Conflict Transformation Clinic: Internships and workshops that foster justice and reconciliation.
- Travel seminars: Courses engaging local communities on Arizona-Mexican border, Israel and Palestine, India, spiritual life centers, and Serbia and Croatia (with focus on interreligious dialogue).
- Ecumenical partnerships: Continuing close work with UMC, AME and other Wesleyan denominations, while launching robust Communities of Learning with the Episcopal Church and United Church of Christ.
- Partnership with Hebrew College: Joint courses and public events, plus co-sponsoring The Journal of Interreligious Studies. The focus is on enriching theological education with interreligious learning and leadership opportunities.

TAKING ACTION GLOBALLY AND LOCALLY:

- Campus action: Work to improve accessibility and sustainability. BUSTH is the first certified Green School in BU, and is active in the Green Seminary Initiative. It has also been named as one of the “Seminaries that Change the World.”
- Internships in global service and peacemaking: Student-initiated internships for service with communities across the world, and for just peacemaking projects with international organizations.

COMMITMENT TO JUSTICE: Celebrating differences while joining in action.

- Faculty and students have led and participated in service for victims of hurricanes and fires, protests on behalf of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, protests of white supremacist movements, protests and services on behalf of immigrants and DACA young people, and ecumenical and interreligious witnesses for justice in the city of Boston.
- The community (often student-led) has had deep conversations on issues that divide (including theological issues). The school seeks to foster respectful listening that builds community life and communal action.

OTHER NOTABLE NEWS:

- Celebration of the 40th anniversary of the Anna Howard Shaw Center

As BUSTH looks back on 2017, it celebrates transformational leaders who keep the word of Jesus Christ alive. Their living legacy and perceptive witness gives hope and courage for the future.

Mary Elizabeth Moore, Dean

2. CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as thoughtful, principled, and courageous Christian leaders dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

One of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler has been included on a list of “Seminaries that Change the World” for five years running, and was recently named a “Bright Spot in Theological Education” by Auburn Seminary.

Candler is also one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, a top-tier research institution offering extensive resources and a demonstrated commitment to service. The location in Atlanta provides a hands-on learning environment rich with opportunity. The General Board of Global Ministries is headquartered here, as are numerous public health, international development, and social service organizations. Simply put, there is no better place to prepare for ministry that engages the major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the church and the world, Candler offers 16 degrees: six single degrees and 10 dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, or social work. One of the newest degrees is a Doctor of Ministry that is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry as they study and immediately apply to their context what they learn in class. The Teaching Parish program allows eligible United Methodist students to serve as pastors in local churches while they are enrolled – they earn a salary as they earn course credit and pastoral experience, plus they are mentored by an experienced United Methodist elder.

Candler’s student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 455, reflecting 49 percent women, 35 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 30. Students represent 39 denominations, with half coming from the Methodist family. Eighty-two percent of students are seeking a degree to prepare them as ministry professionals.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and employs a multi-pronged approach to tackle this issue. In 2017-2018, they awarded $5.3 million in scholarships, with 97 percent of M.Div. students receiving aid and the average scholarship covering 75 percent of tuition. Plus, the comprehensive “Faith & Finance” program teaches money management skills that serve students now and will continue to serve them – and the churches they lead – well into the future.

Half of Candler's faculty are United Methodist and 58 percent come from traditions within the larger Methodist family. This year, Candler welcomed fellow United Methodist Helen Jin Kim to the faculty as Assistant Professor of American Religious History, and sent best wishes along with colleague Mary Lou Greenwood Boice as she retired after 25 years of remarkable service to Candler. Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. The ability to fulfill the mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of the denomination. Visit Candler in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

3. DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

Under the leadership of Elaine A. Heath, dean and professor of missional and pastoral theology, Duke Divinity School has continued to work on its strategic planning process. In the academic year 2017-2018, the strategic planning committee was assembled, composed of representatives from the faculty, staff, student body, and Duke Divinity's Board of Visitors. The committee has sought extensive feedback from stakeholders, including alumni, church leaders, and donors as well as their community of faculty, staff, and students; and it is paying close attention to developments within theological education and the cultural changes affecting both church and academy. The committee anticipates presenting a framework document in the spring of 2018 with a strategic plan submitted for approval in November 2018.

This year, Duke Divinity launched several new programs to equip laypeople and to support students. The Neighborhood Seminary, a partnership with the Northern Piedmont District of the Western North Carolina Conference, is a two-year, noncredit training program that began this year with a cohort of 18 people. The cohort participates in four team-taught courses per year led by faculty, staff, and graduate students from Duke Divinity School in partnership with local practitioners and ministries. The cohort also undertakes an intentional, contemplative model of spiritual practice combined with sequenced contextual learning experiences with local practitioners throughout the two-year program. Heidi Miller, Ph.D., directs the Neighborhood Seminary program.

The school also launched a new academic support program to help incoming students learn how to think and write theologically. The Refresher and Intensive for Scholarly Enrichment (RISE) program began with a two-day pre-orientation workshop for new students this August. More than half of the incoming class, 83 students, registered for this self-selecting program that includes lectures, panels, and workshops to help them navigate academic work and succeed at seminary. Academic support continues throughout the year, with Divinity School professors and preceptors, as well as academic support staff, in contact with each other and struggling students to develop plans to help them.

This year, Duke Divinity welcomed students from a range of backgrounds who are called to serve God and the church. In 2017, its total enrollment was 606 students: 369 are enrolled in the M.Div. degree program; 58 in the M.T.S.; 10 in the Th.M.; 46 in the Th.D.; 83 in the D.Min.; 23 in the M.A.C.P.; four in the M.A.C.S.; and 10 who are special students or auditors. Thirty-seven percent of students are United Methodist, with an additional three percent from other Wesleyan traditions, and 46 percent of M.Div. students are United Methodist. Eleven percent of all students are Baptist, eight percent are Anglican or Episcopalian, four percent are Roman Catholic, 10 percent are Presbyterian or Reformed, with the rest from 21 other denominations or faith traditions.

Three new certificates were approved this year. The Certificate in Missional Innovation, which can be earned as part of a Master of Divinity degree, is intended for students interested or involved in innovative forms of ministry. They will receive training in contextual evangelism and church planting with the goal of converting, gathering, and discipling people who are often neglected or unreached by existing church structures. The Certificate in Theology and the Arts, which can be earned alongside the M.Div., M.T.S., or Th.M., aims to help students appreciate and articulate the mutual enrichment of theology and the arts and to create opportunities to involve local churches and communities in the arts. The Certificate in Theology and Health Care is a new fully-accredited residential graduate program that provides robust theological and practical engagement with contemporary practices in medicine and health care. The certificate aims to equip Christian health care practitioners with foundational courses in Christian theology, Scripture, and the practical issues they encounter.

In 2017, the Duke Forward comprehensive campaign concluded, having raised critical endowment and expendable funds to support the people, programs, and activities of the university. Duke Divinity School raised $114.1 million, 143 percent more than the goal of $80 million. This support enables the Divinity School to provide scholarships and fellowships to students, build faculty excellence, and launch new programs and research efforts. The school is grateful to God for the generous partnership of many alumni, other individuals, churches, and foundations. These gifts are helping to move Duke Divinity School forward into preparing men and women who will serve their neighbors and lead the church of the future.

Duke Divinity faculty continue to provide exemplary service in the classroom, for the church, and to the wider culture. Just one example is Edgardo Colón-Emeric, assistant professor of Christian theology, who continues the Duke Divinity tradition of Methodist engagement in ecumenical initiatives. As part of the Joint International Commission for Dialogue between the World Methodist Council and the Roman Catholic Church, Colón-Emeric presented to Pope Francis the Spanish translation of the latest bilateral statement. Colón-Emeric has also been actively involved in Methodist churches and seminaries in Latin America, including an effort to train lay pastors in Guatemala that has involved Duke Divinity staff and doctoral students.

A number of efforts and programs at Duke Divinity School this year have sought to further commitment to supporting and learning from students and communities that have been too-often marginalized. The Convocation & Pastors' School featured professors, pastors, and activists who addressed ways that the church can dismantle bias and hate. The Center for Reconciliation had a full slate of programs, including a conversation series on navigating conflict that was open to the public; a pilgrimage to significant sites in Durham; and participation in reconciliation events in East Africa and Northeast Asia. Thanks to a grant from the United Methodist General Board of Higher Education & Ministry's Young Clergy Initiative, Duke Divinity School received a grant to help develop leadership for the black church within the UMC through mentorships, funded field education placements with experienced black pastors, and attendance at the Convocation for Pastors of Black Churches. Within the school, Dean Heath has met regularly with the leaders of the Black Seminarians Union and a team of faculty and staff to address concerns around implicit bias in grading, training in cross-cultural competency, additional scholarship support for students, and staffing needs to support an increasingly diverse student population.

The school remains deeply grateful for the relationships it has among The United Methodist Church and the annual conference. Dean Heath, a member of the Western North Carolina Conference; the faculty, staff, and students continue to look forward to working with the conference in the task of preparing men and women for Christian ministry. 4. GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, Ga., is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of historically African American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a coeducational, professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world's premier resource for black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socio-economic challenges confronting the African American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883, by the Methodist Episcopal Church, and with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of The United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African American higher education. It is also a member of The University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Christian Education, and the Doctor of Ministry. Admission is open to qualified men and women of The United Methodist Church.

The support of this annual conference helps Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support, and educate pastors and leaders for The United Methodist Church. Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this annual conference for its support of theological education, and for its commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead forward.

5. METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL IN OHIO

MTSO entered into a mutually beneficial partnership with Healthy Congregations, an interfaith organization that equips leaders for thinking more clearly about families, relationships, and faith communities. The MTSO campus now hosts Healthy Congregations' staff and offices, as well as many of its events. The relationship affords MTSO's students, faculty, and staff the opportunity to participate in Healthy Congregations events at reduced cost.

The Ohio State University Initiative for Food and AgriCultural Transformation (InFACT) awarded MTSO a $35,000 grant, which will help fund the development and testing of a new food hub model in Franklinton, a low-income Columbus community. This work brings together residents of Franklinton, the Franklinton Farms urban gardens, and faculty, staff, and students from Ohio State and MTSO, including the staff of MTSO's Seminary Hill Farm. To increase Franklinton residents' access to affordable, local food, the project will use an online food ordering interface – a departure from the traditional brick-and-mortar model of food hubs.

The year provided MTSO with two major opportunities to contribute to the craft of preaching. Women from diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds gathered in September for Chloe's Circle, presented by MTSO's Theological Commons and WomanPreach! Inc., an organization founded by MTSO Interim Academic Dean Valerie Bridgeman to bring preachers into full prophetic voice. Participants explored the ways preachers can share truth in the face of disparity and injustice. In February, the Schooler Institute on Preaching featured lectures and preaching by Wil Gafney, associate professor of Hebrew Bible at Brite Divinity School and author of "Womanist Midrash: A Reintroduction to Women of the Torah and of the Throne."

Cross-cultural immersion is a key part of MTSO students' preparation for ministry. Every Master of Divinity student at MTSO takes a cross-cultural immersion trip before graduating. In January, a group of students and faculty visited South Africa for 18 days. Among the stops was Soweto's Regina Mundi Catholic Church, which was central to the anti-Apartheid movement.

6. PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Perkins celebrates its vital connections with the Western North Carolina Conference:

- One (1) student affiliated with the Western North Carolina Conference is enrolled at Perkins, studying in the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) program.
- One (1) Perkins student has been placed as an intern within the Western North Carolina Conference this year.
- In 2017, Perkins launched the new Perkins Scholars program, including 10 outstanding students from across the United States. These scholars include Anna Bundy from the Western North Carolina Conference.

Enrollment at Perkins for the 2017-2018 academic year totals 312 students, including 31 enrolled in the Ph.D. program. Fall 2017 statistics reflect the following: 59 percent of its entire student population are United Methodist and more than 45 percent are ethnic minority students. Master's degree programs comprise approximately 43 percent male and 57 percent female students. The D.Min. program includes students from southern Asia, taking classes in Dallas.

In 2017, Dr. Craig C. Hill completed his first year as Dean and Professor of New Testament at Perkins School of Theology. Under his leadership, a number of new initiatives have been launched, including new forms of outreach to churches and church leaders, deeper and more fruitful relationships with feeder colleges, new curricular and co-curricular initiatives, a staff council, the revamping of the D.Min. and Houston-Galveston Programs, additional staffing in critical areas, increased giving, additional financial aid, new uses of technology, and a program for United Methodists seeking ordination.

From the outset, Dean Hill has traveled throughout the South Central Jurisdiction to meet with clergy, laity, bishops, cabinets, and other leaders to strengthen partnerships and to share his vision for Perkins as "an academy for the whole church in the whole world." During 2017, several bishops – with their cabinets – held meetings and retreats on the Perkins campus.

2017 HIGHLIGHTS

- Fall 2017 admissions increased by a record 42.8 percent over the previous year with an incoming class of 80 students (excluding new D.Min. and Ph.D. students).
- Two new degree concentrations – "Church Management" and "Social Innovation and Nonprofit Engagement" – were launched in fall 2017 in partnership with SMU's Cox School of Business and Meadows School of the Arts. Available to students pursuing the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) and Master of Arts in Ministry (M.A.M.) degrees, these unique concentrations are designed to strengthen future clergy in the area of church management and to equip those pursuing nontraditional forms of ministry that encourage social innovation.
- Current-use giving to Perkins increased 14 percent over 2016, making funds available to Dean Hill for immediate needs.
- Dr. Isabel Docampo, associate director of the Perkins Intern Program and professor of Supervised Ministry since 1997, was named director of the Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions, effective June 1. In Fall 2017, Dr. Docampo ushered in the first cohort of eight students (from Brazil, Venezuela, Argentina, Puerto Rico, Peru, Chile, Cuba, and Mexico, serving in the U.S. or in their home countries) in Perkins' new Spanish-language Master of Theology degree program – the only one of its kind offered by a United Methodist School of Theology. Funding for the students is part of a three-year, $500,000 grant made to the Center by The Henry Luce Foundation's Theology program.
- Tracy Anne Allred was named to the new position of Assistant Dean of Student Life and Director of Community Engagement effective June 1. Key areas of responsibility include implementing plans for the nurturing of community life at Perkins for students, faculty, and staff, serving as liaison to the newly-formed Perkins Staff Council, and developing connections with a wide range of creative ministries in the North Texas and Houston-Galveston areas.
- The Rev. Dr. Margot Perez-Greene, a higher-education professional with more than 20 years of administrative experience, was appointed Associate Dean for Enrollment Management effective July 1. A 2011 M.Div. graduate of Perkins School of Theology, she is an ordained elder in the Rio Texas Annual Conference. Dr. Perez-Greene earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from St. Edwards University, a Master of Arts degree from Arizona State University, and the Ph.D. degree in Educational Administration from The University of Texas at Austin. In this new role, she is responsible for crafting a vision for Perkins' recruitment and admissions strategies, identifying and reaching out to prospective students for the school's masters' and doctoral degrees. Additionally, she leads a staff responsible for all phases of recruitment, retention, and financial aid, as well as cultivating relationships with key ordained and lay church leaders to assist those called to ministry through the admissions process.
- A new scholarship program geared toward attracting outstanding Master of Divinity students was launched in 2017. The first 10 Perkins Scholars, each of whom received a three-year scholarship commitment, were named for the 2017-18 academic year. A total goal of $630,000 in funding will provide for an anticipated 10 additional scholarships for fall 2018 and another 10 for the fall 2019. When the program is fully operational there will be 30 Perkins Scholars in the student body. Combined with additional financial aid, this program provides nearly full scholarships for these highly skilled servant leaders.
- The Fall 2017 Convocation, which drew record crowds of clergy, laity, and prospective students to the SMU campus, Nov. 13-14, featured bestselling author Anne Lamott, the Rev. Dr. Amos Yong, professor of theology and mission and the director of the Center for Missiological Research at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, California, and noted biblical scholar the Rev. Dr. N.T. Wright, a professor of New Testament and early Christianity at the University of St. Andrews in Fife, Scotland.
- A new curriculum was adopted for Fall 2018, by the SMU Board of Trustees in December, for the Perkins Doctor of Ministry

(D.Min.) degree program. The new curriculum, under the direction of program director Dr. Carlos Cardoza-Orlandi, includes a 30-hour graduation requirement; degree completion in three years; intensive peer group interaction and learning; and concentrations in Vocational Director, Organizational Leadership, and Community Building.

- In an effort to deepen relationships between Perkins and undergraduate college and universities, new partnerships in the form of Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) have been launched in 2017-2018. Formal agreements have been signed with historically United Methodist institutions, including Centenary College in Shreveport, Louisiana; Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas; McMurry University in Abilene, Texas; Hendrix College in Conway, Arkansas; and Presbyterian-related Austin College in Sherman, Texas (with more pending at the time of this writing). These MOUs establish a preferred pathway for graduates of the institutions interested in pursuing ministerial vocations at the graduate level, granting preferred consideration, and early acceptance to Perkins School of Theology for students pursuing ministerial vocations. The agreement also states that the undergraduate institutions and Perkins will encourage new opportunities for future cooperation.
- Two Perkins alumni are enrolled in the DTM (Diploma in Theology for Ministry) at Wesley House, Cambridge – a member institution of the Cambridge (UK) University Theological Federation – as part of a new partnership between Perkins and Wesley House. The students participating in the nine-month program, which integrates academic study with a focus on pastoral ministry, are part of an international cohort.
- Dr. C. Michael Hawn, University Distinguished Professor of Church Music and director of the Sacred Music and Doctor of Pastoral Music (D.P.M.) programs at Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, retired from full-time teaching in 2017, after 25 years on the SMU faculty. Dr. Hawn continues to administer and teach in the (D.P.M.) program.
- In 2017, SMU launched a three-year current-use giving campaign called Pony Power, with a goal of raising $150 million over three years for the university in current-use giving. The university's goal for 2017-2018 is $45 million. Perkins' goal for this fiscal year, which ends May 31, 2018, is $2.8 million. Perkins donors are asked to consider making a three-year pledge to a current-use project at Perkins. The areas of greatest need are 1.) the SMU Fund for Perkins, which is used by Dean Hill at his discretion, and 2.) Perkins student financial aid.

Perkins School of Theology is committed to those called to serve so that they might be empowered to lead. The school acknowledges its many colleagues, friends, and alumni/ae across the connection for their generous support, including referrals of prospective students, as it continues its vital mission of preparing women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry.

7. UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

“Now to Him who by the power of God at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine...” – Ephesians 3:20

United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, celebrated a 77 percent increase in new students for the fall of 2017. While 71 new students enrolled in September 2016, 126 new students enrolled in September 2017. The addition was made possible by increasing student aid opportunities and empowering faculty members, trustees, and administrators to personally recommend candidates for a $5,000 grant toward tuition. United experienced God's provision, trusting what God said through St. Paul: “[God] is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine” (Ephesians 3:20).

Many of the seminary's new students are current pastors who want to become more effective leaders for the church through a Doctor of Ministry degree. United's Doctor of Ministry program has 170 students enrolled this year from 29 states, two non-U.S. countries, and 27 Christian denominations. The average number of doctoral students in all Association of Theological Schools (ATS) is 60 students, making United one of the largest Doctor of Ministry programs among ATS member schools.

The Doctor of Ministry program provides academic rigor, peer group support, spiritual growth, and practical application. Pastors identify a need within the community and, with the support of a peer group, mentor, and United faculty, they develop a model of ministry that will resolve the challenge in the congregations or communities.

The Rev. Rudy Rasmus, pastor of the 9,000-member St. John's United Methodist Church in downtown Houston is a current doctoral student, who says he has been both challenged and supported in the D.Min. program.

“The program is rigorous,” the Rev. Rasmus says. “It is contextual, it is intentional, and the professors and staff are at the top of the form.”

United also has 212 students enrolled in the Master of Divinity degree program who usually seek to serve as pastors in local congregations. Eighty-eight percent of entering students are ordained or seeking ordination to serve a local congregations, compared to 56 percent in other ATS member schools.

United also provides a two-year Master of Arts in Christian Ministries degree, which many persons serving as Directors of Christian Education or other local church positions pursue.

United provides flexible course options: 90 percent of students take at least one course online, and courses are also available as traditional on-campus courses, week-long on-campus intensive classes and virtual courses that meet simultaneously on campus and in the cloud via webcast.

Persons who are interested in pursuing further seminary education may contact United's Office of Admissions at 800-322-5817 or admissions@united.edu.

8. WESLEY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Wesley Theological Seminary, located in Washington, D.C., continues to equip the next generation of Christian leadership for the church and the world. As a United Methodist seminary, it forms students to lead innovative ministries while remaining grounded in biblical and theological traditions.

Whether you are clergy or laity, an alumnus or a prospective student, looking for a master's degree, doctoral work, continuing education, or simply deeper biblical knowledge, Wesley wants to support you in your current and future call to ministry. Here are a few ways Wesley can help you grow in faith, wisdom, and ability:

Expand your leadership skills

Wesley's internationally respected Lewis Center for Church Leadership is a key resource for cutting-edge church research and disciple-growing strategies for the local church. Under the directorship of the Rev. Dr. F. Douglas Powe, Jr., the Lewis Center's Leading Ideas e-newsletter, reaching almost 20,000 people in ministry each week, has launched its new podcast: Leading Ideas Talk. Sign up or listen at www.churchleadership.com/.

The Institute for Community Engagement at Wesley continues its innovative online Health Minister Certificate Program from Heal the Sick to prepare congregations for public health work in their parishes. Some scholarships are available for this program. Contact Tom Pruski at tpruski@wesleyseminary.edu for more information or to register for future certificate classes.

Wesley also offers opportunities for individual study without pursuing a degree. The Certificate in Faith and Public Life explores the foundations of public theology, religious freedom, and civil discourse through graduate courses. For more information, visit www.wesleyseminary.edu/fpli.

A Certificate in Wesleyan Studies is available online via the Wesley Theological Seminary Lay Academy. Topics include United Methodist identity, early church history, Christian ethics, interfaith relations, and the intersection of faith and science. The courses can also be taken for personal education and enrichment. More information can be found at www.beadisciple.com/wesley/.

Take your ministry to the next level

Wesley continues to be a leader in Doctor of Ministry programs, offering practical and spiritually-renewing tracks in theological education. Wesley announces an exciting new 2019 Doctor of Ministry track, in partnership with Wesley House in Cambridge, UK: "Winds of the Spirit and Ministries for a Changing World." Other 2019 tracks will include Church Excellence, Spirituality and Story, a 13th Global Asian Church track, and Public Engagement: "Healing Communal Brokenness and Despair." Find out more or apply at www.wesleyseminary.edu/doctorofministry/.

Discover exciting pathways to seminary studies

Wesley understands the struggle of responsibly accepting your call while being concerned about balancing life, family, ministry, and student debt. It is here to help make responding to that call possible. Through its partnership with Shenandoah University and its new 3+3 Fast Track B.A./M.Div. program, students enter ministry with less debt after earning their degree in six years. Learn more at www.wesleyseminary.edu/3+3degrees.

Wesley's Master of Divinity degree can now be completed via online, weekend, short-term intensive, and weeknight courses in five years. This format is designed to be more accessible to those with busy ministry, work, and/or family commitments throughout the region. Check out upcoming flexible course offerings for Summer and Fall 2018: www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/try-a-class-3/.

The new African American Church Studies Master of Divinity specialization gives contextual preparation for the unique opportunities and challenges our future leaders may encounter in African American churches, while the Public Theology specialization allows master's degree students to gain skills for community leadership and advocacy. Wesley continues to offer a 36-hour Master of Arts and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies to equip those called to ordained deacon ministries or to other ministries beyond the pulpit.

Contact Wesley at 202-885-8659 or admissions@wesleyseminary.edu about how Wesley's degree programs can equip you for your next step in ministry.

Enrich your congregational outreach and explore new dimensions of ministry

Through the Wesley Innovation Hub, Wesley is working with 20 local congregations to design innovative ministries to enrich the religious lives of young adults. Follow the work and connect with resources at www.wesleyseminary.edu/wesley-innovation-hub/. The Wesley Innovation Hub is made possible by a generous grant from the Lilly Endowment.

In a time of polarization, the Center for Public Theology, under the leadership of Distinguished Professor of Public Theology Mike McCurry, continues to equip pastors, seminarians, people of faith, and the media to create spaces for civil dialogue at the intersection of religion and politics. The Center also provides events, such as the Wesleyan Political Theology Project, to help faith leaders lead prophetic, open dialogue in their communities. For more information, visit www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/.

The Luce Center for Arts and Religion remains the only seminary-based program uniting arts and theology. The Luce Center offers regular classes and workshops with visiting artists. For information on past and upcoming opportunities visit www.luceartsandreligion.org.

Stay connected

Ready to join in Wesley's mission? Wesley provides more than $2 million dollars annually in scholarships to its students thanks to the consistent support of graduates, congregations, and friends of the seminary. Find out more about how you can be part of the future of Wesley at www.wesleyseminary.edu/support/.

Wesley invites you to stay in touch through the year and learn more of the latest developments by signing up for its monthly electronic newsletter, eCalling, at www.wesleyseminary.edu/ecalling.

Wesley looks forward to continuing to serve you and your community as we seek to live into God's dream together. Blessings to you for a fruitful and faithful Annual Conference.

9. AFRICA UNIVERSITY

Africa University is deeply thankful to the members of the Western North Carolina Conference for investing in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment at 88.14 percent in 2017. Thank you, Western NC Conference, for being supportive and faithful to this ministry. The generosity of the Western NC Conference helped the Southeastern Jurisdiction to achieve an overall investment of 98.15 percent in the AUF apportionment.

Institutional Update:

- Currently, Africa University hosts a stable, focused, and vibrant campus community of 1,417 students, faculty, and staff from 31 African nations. An additional 392 students are pursuing degree programs on a part-time basis.
- Africa University's annual operating budget of just under $10.5 million prioritizes student access and retention, with more than $2.2 million in scholarships and financial aid awards disbursed in 2017.
- Amidst a transition in the governance of Zimbabwe, lectures, research, and outreach activities at Africa University continued uninterrupted.
- A new academic structure and the realignment of programs is encouraging innovation and enhancing Africa University's relevance to The United Methodist Church and to sub-Saharan Africa. The recently-launched Institute of Theology and Religious Studies offers multi-disciplinary training and leadership formation opportunities for both clergy and laity.
- Researchers at Africa University are providing critical data on mosquitos and regional malaria control programs to aid Africa's efforts to eradicate malaria and other insect-borne diseases.
- Through teaching and research, Africa University is making trailblazing regional contributions in migrant and refugee protection, child rights, and the harnessing of intellectual property for development.
- The first 25 years of AU's ministry have produced more than 8,000 graduates who are leading efforts to make disciples, minister to the poor, improve global health, and better the quality of life in communities across sub-Saharan Africa.

United Methodist congregations in the United States established a new giving record for the AUF in 2017. They invested 96.77 percent of their budget commitment to the AUF – the highest percentage ever invested by United Methodists in one of the seven general church funds. Africa University ended 2017 with its highest level of support from The United Methodist Church to date. A record number of annual conferences – 35 out of 56 – achieved or exceeded their 100 percent investment in the AUF.

As Africa University embraces emerging opportunities for service and impact within and beyond the church in Africa, the support of the Western North Carolina Conference is crucial. Western North Carolina United Methodists are urged to continue praying for Africa University. It is the university's prayer that the members of the Western North Carolina Conference will work diligently to grow their annual support for AU's efforts to nurture principled and effective global leaders.

The university community thanks the Western NC Conference for its graciousness and appeals to the congregations of the Western NC Conference to continue investing in this ministry, because every gift matters. On June 9, 2018, five young professionals from the Democratic Republic of Congo will be awarded degrees in business and health sciences from Africa University because the Western North Carolina chose to endow scholarships in perpetuity as part of its global legacy. Truly, the Western NC Conference is making its commitment to "Follow Jesus. Make Disciples. Transform the World" real and far-reaching, through Africa University.

Thank you, Western North Carolina Conference, for your foundational role in the Africa University story. Thank you for being a part of an incredible year of blessings. Thank you for affirming the power of faithfully sowing, standing, and working together as you journey in ministry with Africa University. May God bless and keep you always in an abundance of grace and mercy.

Whereas, ¶ 161G of The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church states: “We deplore all forms of the commercialization, abuse, and exploitation of sex. We call for strict global enforcement of laws prohibiting the sexual exploitation of children and for adequate protection, guidance, and counseling for abused children. All persons, regardless of age, gender, marital status, or sexual orientation, are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured and to be protected against violence” (The 2016 Book of Discipline); and

Whereas, ¶ 161G of The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church also states: “We implore families and churches not to reject or condemn lesbian and gay members and friends.” (The 2016 Book of Discipline); and

Whereas, ¶ 162J of The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church states: Certain basic human rights and civil liberties are due all persons. We are committed to supporting those rights and liberties for all persons, regardless of sexual orientation.... Moreover, we support efforts to stop violence and other forms of coercion against all persons, regardless of sexual orientation.” (The 2016 Book of Discipline); and

Whereas, that same paragraph includes “equal protection before the law” amongst such basic rights and liberties; and

Whereas, most United Methodist churches – regardless of their stand on The Book of Discipline and LGBTQ persons – frequently state that lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender persons are welcome in their local church; and

Whereas, some United Methodist Churches practice a policy that inquires about sexual orientation during the interview process and forbids the employment of called and qualified laity to non-appointed staff positions if they are lesbian or gay; and

Whereas, laity employed by United Methodist Churches have been fired from their non-appointed staff positions based solely on their sexual orientation; and

Whereas, such dismissal is in direct conflict with the aforementioned Social Principles of The United Methodist Church and causes significant harm; and

Whereas, the Western North Carolina Conference wishes for each of our local churches a staff that possesses the gifts and graces for relative and effective ministry, and would not wish for either our churches or the neighbors we serve to be denied the most qualified person due to a practice that prevents employment based on sexual orientation or gender identity; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Conference is committed to employment practices that are aligned with The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. The Western North Carolina Conference encourages and supports local church policies in which laity called to serve are employed and dismissed based solely on their gifts and graces without regard for sexual orientation or gender identity.

X. HISTORICAL MATERIAL

A. HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of the New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River. (Discipline, 1948, ¶ 1957)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church were included in this new conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came 39 ministers and 11,901 church members. The North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church contributed 74 ministers and 22,361 church members. The Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, added 377 ministers and 167,028 church members. This gave the new conference 490 members, with 28 others on trial, and 201,290 church members. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference has held 62 sessions; the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, 112; and the Western North Carolina, 50 (see Journal, 1939, pp. 115, 169).

The Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church was formed on June 5, 1968, by the merger of the Western North Carolina Conference and that portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference situated within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference (see Journal, 1968, p. 84). The North Carolina-Virginia Conference had been organized in Greensboro on Aug. 11, 1964, and, in addition to the organizational session, held four sessions prior to the 1968 merger.

F. MEMOIRS OF DECEASED CLERGY AND DIACONAL MINISTERSCharles Leon Adams*May 12, 1937 – October 14, 2017

The Rev. Dr. Charles Leon Adams was born May 12, 1937, in Elkin, N.C., to parents Isom Adams and Elsie Gunnell Adams. He grew up in Mount Airy, N.C. He graduated from Mount Airy High School in 1955. He was a member of the varsity football team, glee club, monogram club, and the YMCA. He was voted wittiest senior.

His home church was Central United Methodist Church in Mt. Airy. He was active in Sunday school and the Methodist Youth Fellowship. In 1955, Adams was awarded a scholarship to Brevard College. There, he met Beverly Ussery, his future wife. He transferred to, and subsequently graduated from, High Point College in 1961. He was a Christian Council member at Brevard and a member of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity at High Point.

Soon after graduation, Adams was drafted and served two years in the U.S. Army. He taught Chaplain Assistant School at Fort Dix, N.J. After his discharge from the Army, Adams worked for the New Jersey State Health Department as head of the Vista Volunteers.

In 1966, Adams enrolled at Drew University in Madison, N.J. He became a probationary member of the Western North Carolina Conference in 1968. He was ordained as a deacon in 1968, earned a Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1969, and was ordained as an elder and received into full connection in 1970. Adams was the first supervising pastor in the conference. He mentored Duke Divinity School students who were student pastors while attending seminary. He received his Doctor of Ministry degree in 1991.

Adams was a masterful Bible study teacher. His in-depth interpretation of the Scripture was evident. His goal was to reveal something new about God in each of his sermons.

Appointments Adams served were: Reidsville Circuit, 1969-1971; Mayodan, 1971-1975; Rankin Memorial (High Point), 1975-1981; Skyland (Asheville), 1981-1985; St. Andrews (Charlotte), 1985-1988; Burkhead (Winston-Salem), 1988-1992; Groce (Asheville), 1992-1994; Mt. Pleasant (Kimesville), 1994-2003. He retired in 2003. The Adamses built a home at Stoney Creek in Whitsett, N.C., in 2003. Adams served six more years as assistant minister at Rehobeth United Methodist Church in Greensboro. He held brief interim positions at Pelham and Gibsonville United Methodist churches.

Adams was active in the communities he served. He was president of the Mayodan Rotary Club. In High Point, he formed a non-profit organization and received government grants that helped people pave driveways and make home repairs. He was board chairman of the Wesley Foundation Wake Forest University and the honorary chaplain of the Kimesville Fire Department.

Charles and Beverly Ussery Adams were married March 24, 1962. They have two sons, Charles David Adams (Ted) and Joshua John Adams. Ted and Kelly Richardson Adams have two children, Charles Richardson Adams and Anna Karen Adams. Joshua and Laura Miller have one son, Luke Miller Adams. Adams adored his grandchildren.

A comment from grandson Richie: "Today I had to say goodbye to my best friend who was always there to support and get me through any difficult situation. I know if there is anyone who will find his way into God's Kingdom it will be you. I love you Granddaddy."

After a year of paralysis and confinement in hospitals, nursing facilities, and his own home, Adams passed away at Moses Cone Hospital in Greensboro, N.C., on October 14, 2017. His funeral service was October 19, 2017, at Gibsonville UMC in Gibsonville. Interment was October 20, 2017, at Floral Garden Cemetery Chapel, High Point.

Adams would want his parting message to be: "God, with arms outstretched, will come out to meet you; Love never ends."

James McCoy Armstrong experienced what he often called "the third birth," passing from this life into eternal life on October 22, 2017. Born in Belmont, N.C., on August 23, 1931, he was the son of James Matthew Armstrong and Pearl Moretz Armstrong. After graduation from Belmont Senior High School, he earned degrees from Pfeiffer College (Associate of Arts, 1951), Wofford College (Bachelor of Arts, 1953), and Duke Divinity School (Bachelor of Divinity, 1956). He was licensed to preach in 1951, ordained as a deacon in 1954, and ordained as an elder and received into full connection in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1956.

Armstrong married the love of his life, Margarethe Hedwig Armstrong (Heli) on June 14, 1958. In addition to Heli, he is survived by three sons, James McCoy Armstrong Jr. and wife Elizabeth Graves; Timothy Norris Armstrong and wife Faye, and John Matthew Armstrong (Hans). Jim and Heli had four grandchildren, Amanda Armstrong Vaughn (Kenneth), Ashley Armstrong Shaffner (Chris), Matthew Armstrong, and Maggie Armstrong.

Armstrong's "call to preach" was experienced early in life, and he would spend parts of seven decades answering that calling as a United Methodist minister. Before his retirement from full-time ministry in 1991, he served the Tabernacle-Julian charge (Greensboro), 1956-1959; Tabernacle (Greensboro), 1959-1960; Thrift (Charlotte), 1960-1965; Trinity (Charlotte), 1965-1968; St. Stephen, (Charlotte), 1968-1974; Trinity (Kannapolis), 1974-1976; Hickory Grove (Charlotte), 1976-1980; St. Luke's (Hickory), 1980-1987; First (Salisbury), 1987-1989; and Mt. Pisgah (Greensboro), 1989-1991.

Armstrong moved to Lake Junaluska in 1992, where he was an active member of the Junaluska community, the Junaluska Crazies (Duke fans), and a Realtor for more than 20 years. He especially enjoyed helping United Methodist clergy find their own place in property at Lake Junaluska. In January 1993, he agreed to “fill in” at Clyde’s Louisa Chapel United Methodist Church. That relationship continued for 20 years, as Armstrong served as a retired supply pastor. He preached his final sermon at Louisa Chapel on December 15, 2013.

Heli Armstrong was diagnosed with dementia in February 2012, and institutionalized in June 2012. In January 2014, Jim and Heli moved to the Aldersgate United Methodist Retirement Community. Jim Armstrong continued to be “in ministry” there. One of the dining room staff told his sons “your dad makes many of the people who are alone here feel special – at least a dozen women think he is their ‘boyfriend’ because he pays attention to them.” An inherently social creature, Armstrong had a life’s passion to reach people who felt alone, broken, and lost. He grew the kingdom at every stop along the way.

In April 2015, Armstrong suffered a stroke that left him confined to a wheelchair for the remainder of his life. His pastoral ministry stretched over 57 years, but his “ministry” spanned a lifetime that was rich and full and a vibrant, strong witness to the love of God in this world. He often said that there are some things in this life worse than dying, and he experienced that, especially in the last months of his life. When the call about his passing came to his sons early in the morning of October 22, their response was, “It is a sad day for us, but the best day our dad has experienced in a long time.”

A Celebration of Life service was held on Saturday, October 28, 2017, at St. Stephen UMC in Charlotte, led by the Rev. Dr. Russ Martin (retired, East Ohio Annual Conference) and James McCoy Armstrong Jr. His remains were placed in the church’s columbarium -- an appropriate final resting place, as Armstrong was the church’s founding pastor.

James McCoy Armstrong Jr.

Roy Vance Bolyard Jr.

September 18, 1941 - November 13, 2017

Roy Vance Bolyard Jr. was born in Charleston, W.Va., on September 18, 1941, the first of three children to Roy Vance Bolyard and Edith Mathews Bolyard. He had two sisters, Elizabeth Ann and Rebecca (deceased). For more than 30 years of his life, he was affectionately known to family and friends as “Bucky.”

His parents were active members of the Darlington Methodist Church, and Bolyard grew up as an active youth in his church. He was an Eagle Scout and an officer in the West Virginia Methodist Youth Fellowship. He was a 1963 graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College, and he served as senior class president. Bolyard continued his studies at Duke Divinity School, where he received his Master of Divinity degree and his Master of Theology degree with an emphasis in pastoral counseling. While at Duke, he spent a year studying at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland. He later completed a residency at the Marriage and Family Center at Texas Medical Center in Houston. Bolyard was ordained as an elder in

The United Methodist Church in the West Virginia Conference in 1967. He transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1975 and held a special appointment in marriage and family counseling.

One of Bolyard’s earliest moments of care occurred in November 1968. He was serving as a hospital chaplain when he was called to assist in a mining disaster near Farmington, W.Va., where a mining explosion had trapped 79 miners. He took great care to minister to the families of the miners, as well as other staff and volunteers who were assisting. One person, who claimed to be a pastor, came a week later to sell crosses that he claimed would rescue the family members of those who bought one. Bolyard confronted him. The man said he was a minister and was staying. Bolyard responded, “I’m a minister too. I was here first and you can go.” In a devastating event, Bolyard exhibited the love of Christ by exhibiting a lifelong love of caring for those in the midst of pain and grief by living the words of Jesus, “when you have cared for the least, you have cared for me.”

Bolyard was employed at first as a therapist by the Guilford County Department of Mental Health, and then for many years, he operated The Counseling Clinic -- his own practice in Greensboro. He was a member of the Order of St. Luke, an ecumenical organization dedicated to the Christian healing ministry. Bolyard felt that his profession helped heal rifts in marriages and in families. At 56, he received the call to pastor a church. “If You can use me, Thy will be done,” Bolyard said. He pastored Bethany United Methodist Church in Rockingham County and retired from Morehead United Methodist Church in Greensboro in 2006.

Bolyard was always one to offer pastoral support to other pastors and would provide a safe place for them to share their frustrations.

Bolyard was married to Elizabeth Lee Kuykendall on August 28, 1964. Their first son, Charles Richard “Chip” and his wife, Kimberly, have two children, James Atticus and Parker Ann. A second son, Joseph Vance “Joe” and his wife, Karen, have two children, Vance Joseph and Macy Jane. Bolyard later married Marjorie Rehm Boles on January 26, 2003. Marge has four grandchildren of her own. Bolyard loved his blended family. The day before he died he was able to call the little ones who live in Georgia and hug the ones who live in Summerfield, N.C., and tell them goodbye and how much he loved them.

Bolyard appreciated all of God’s creation. He was proud of his participation in the 1963 March on Washington. He enjoyed hiking, camping, sailing, and traveling. Among many of his travels were the “Journey with Paul” through Greece in 1998 and the Holy Lands in 1999. A sign in his backyard says, “Official Wildlife Habitat.” Bolyard would stop his lawnmower, pick up a snake, and move it to safer ground. He spent his 76th birthday in intensive care at Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center. For his birthday, he asked for a heated house for his feral kittens so that they would stay warm during the winter. Bolyard had a good sense of humor and enjoyed his life to the fullest.

His death was due to complications caused by cancer. His funeral was held on November 17, 2017, at Leaksville United Methodist Church in Eden, N.C., with the Rev. A.C. Brock officiating. His final resting place is Forest Lawn Cemetery in Greensboro, N.C.

Miller Columbus Carter Jr. was born and raised in High Point, N.C. He was the youngest child born to Miller C. Carter Sr. and Oma Jane Capel Carter. He was preceded in death by his parents, sisters Vivian Caple Harris and Janet Carter Pegues, brother Donald P. Caple, and his daughter, Tina McAnelly. Carter transitioned peacefully to the “Church Triumphant” at his home in Charlotte with his beloved wife, Howalina, and daughter Rande by his side.

Carter attended Guilford County public schools and graduated from T. Wingate Andrews High School. He credited his parents with providing him a firm Christian foundation in The United Methodist Church and The United Church of Christ; but at an early age, he chose to join The United Methodist Church.

Carter served in the U.S. Air Force for four years and was honorably discharged in 1980. After this brief military stint, he pursued higher education, earning an Associate of Arts degree at Minot State University in Minot, N.D. (1982); a Bachelor of Science degree at High Point University, High Point, N.C. (1994); and a Master of Divinity degree at Duke Divinity School, Durham, N.C. (1999).

On January 15, 1998, Carter married Howalina (Dale) Carter; his “Honey-Bunny.” After a nine-year, long-distance courtship, the couple married soon after he began his preaching career. Howalina remembers fondly, “I knew him before he even realized he was being called to preach. I could write a book about him!” They have one adult daughter, Rande Stacc Mendes and husband Joseph, and two wonderful grandchildren, Joey and Joelle.

Carter answered God’s call to pastoral ministry in 1991 under the guidance and leadership of the Rev. Dr. Andrew W. Brown and the Rev. John F. Epps. He began pastoral service in The United Methodist Church in 1994, when he was licensed to preach. He served four pastoral appointments: St. Mary’s (Trinity), 1994-1999; Smith Memorial-Harper’s Chapel Charge (Lenoir), 1999-2006; Metropolitan (Greensboro), 2006-2014; and Simpson-Gillespie (Charlotte), beginning in 2014. He served Simpson-Gillespie admirably until his health forced him to step down in early 2018. While in Lenoir, Carter was ordained as a deacon in 2000 and ordained as an elder in full connection in 2002.

His 23 years of pastoral service in The United Methodist Church also allowed him to serve on various district and conference boards and commissions, including service on the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Committee on District Superintendency, the Conference Commission on Religion and Race, and the Conference Administrative Review Committee. He also served as coordinator [president] of Western N.C. Caucus of Black Methodists for Church Renewal. While in Greensboro, he also served as secretary of the Greensboro Cluster, an ecumenical clergy organization, and he served a term as president of the board of directors of Triad United Methodist Campus Ministries Inc., which is now known as Wesley Foundation at East Market, Inc. He also sang as a member of the Greensboro Cluster Choir. In addition to his sermons, he often shared his beautiful baritone voice from the pulpit as well.

In addition to being a dedicated servant and good shepherd to his flocks, Carter was a multifaceted man. He was an avid reader on many subjects, primarily theology. He enjoyed and was fascinated by technology. And he was also a “people person.” He enjoyed bowling, visiting, and conversing with all, with a special interest in youth. In May, Simpson-Gillespie UMC published a special, 10-page memorial newsletter in memory of Carter.

Carter was always a hard worker, one of the attributes he learned from his father. Carter’s philosophy of life proclaimed:

“I will work everyday as if it were my last. I believe there is urgency in our work for the Lord. ‘We must work while it is day, for the night is coming in which no man may work.’ I will give of myself to glorify the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, because of my belief in two things: 1) The Lord is soon to return; and 2) Only what we do for Christ will last. Therefore we must take seriously the work that must be done in seeking and saving those who are lost.”

After his death, a family visitation and reception was held at Simpson-Gillespie UMC in Charlotte on Friday, April 13. A Celebration of Life service was held at Memorial United Methodist Church in High Point on Saturday, April 14. The final resting place of his remains is Lakeview Cemetery in Guilford County.

Elijah Alexander Cockman
April 21, 1930 – May 10, 2018

First and foremost, with grateful hearts all glory, honor, and thanks are given to God for Elijah Cockman’s life of 88 years. God weaved a beautiful story in his life. He was born to William Curtis Cockman, a Methodist minister, and Cora Lee Beane on April 21, 1930, in Asheboro, N.C. His mother died a short time after birth. His father later married Callie Belle King from Seagrove, N.C.

Cockman earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Marion College, now Indiana Wesleyan University, in 1951. While at Marion College, he met Doris Joan Evans of Conesville, Ohio, whom he married December 24, 1951. Also in 1951, he entered the U.S. Army. In basic training, he received the highest rifle qualification award – the Expert Marksmanship Badge. After basic training, Cockman served as a radio operator and chaplain’s assistant in Korea during the Korean War.

In 1956, Cockman earned a Master of Divinity degree from Asbury Theological Seminary. After his seminary education, he entered the U.S. Army Chaplaincy. Assignments were to: Fort Benning, Ga.; Cleveland, Ohio; Fort McClellan, Ala.; Japan; Germany; and Vietnam. During the Vietnam War from November 1966 to November 1967, Cockman served as the senior chaplain, 199th Infantry Brigade, and then he was assigned to the Headquarter Chaplain’s Office, U.S. Army, in Vietnam. His military decorations include the Bronze Star and the Meritorious Service Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster. He retired from military service in 1974 as a lieutenant colonel.

From 1974 to 1980, Cockman served as pastor of Greenwood Hills Wesleyan Church in High Point, N.C. In February 1980, he was received into the membership of The United Methodist Church's Western North Carolina Conference as an elder in full connection. Appointments were: Piney Mountain and Davis Chapel, Pisgah Charge, 1980-1981; Haywood Street (Asheville), 1981-1983; Pleasant Grove (Thomasville), 1983-1988; Tryon, 1988-1991; and Commonwealth (Charlotte), 1991-1994. Upon retirement from active ministry in 1994, he and his wife made their home in Hendersonville, N.C.

Cockman continued ministry beyond retirement serving at First United Methodist Church, Hendersonville, teaching the Almay Lee Cheves Women's and the Roy Johnson Men's Sunday School classes. Prior to his death of natural causes on May 10, 2018, he taught his final Sunday school lesson to the Johnson Men's Class on April 29, 2018.

Cockman is survived by his son, Wesley Cockman, and wife Elizabeth; his daughter, Leslie Carol (Cockman) Merrill and husband Jay; four grandchildren, Michael and wife Molly, Caroline, Wesley, and Samuel; great-grandson Nolan; brother John Cockman and wife Jane; two sisters, Sarah Myers and husband Jack, and Virginia Speaks and husband Jackie; and one brother-in-law, Dwain Kitchel.

In acknowledgement of who God is, Cockman prearranged specific hymns that voiced God's Providence, God's Grace, and God's Glory for his memorial service on May 15, 2018, at Hopewell United Methodist Church, Sherrills Ford, officiated by the Rev. John Bryant. It was a beautiful service of worship to our Lord and Savior and a celebration of Cockman's resurrected life in Christ. Military personnel honored Cockman for his 20 years of military service to our nation, presenting the family a folded flag and performing Taps. Cockman was laid to rest in the church cemetery beside his wife, Joan, and other family members.

Scripture evidenced by his life and his encouraging word for how we should live is best stated in Proverbs 3:5-6: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight." A faithful and obedient servant, trusting God in everything, Elijah Cockman was a true warrior for God and his family, finishing well, tough to the end.

Minnie Delores "Dee" Davis
October 27, 1945 – January 23, 2018

Minnie Delores "Dee" Davis was born on October 27, 1945, to Johnny Davis Sr. and Minnie Watts Davis in Laurens, S.C. Her active life, work, and ministry took her all over the country, from Illinois to Washington, D.C., Wyoming to Boston, New Orleans to Western North Carolina, and finally back home to the Palmetto State, where she passed on Tuesday, January 23, 2018, at St. Francis Hospital in downtown Greenville, S.C., not 40 miles from the place of her birth. A celebration of life was held on Friday, February 2, 2018, and Davis was laid to rest at Pinedale Memorial Park in Piedmont, S.C.

Davis held a Bachelor of Arts degree from Northern Illinois University, obtained in 1967, and a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Chicago, obtained in 1973. This first career and life in the Midwest prepared her in unique ways for a call to ministry, which came later and farther north. Davis was licensed to preach in 1989 and recognized as an elder by the Wyoming Conference in 1991. She completed her Master of Divinity degree at Wesley Theological Seminary in 1992. Just a few years later, she made her way to the Western North Carolina Conference.

Davis' ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference began at the Newton Charge in 1996, and she officially transferred from the Wyoming Conference on June 5, 1997. Davis was ordained as an elder in full connection in 1998. A lifelong learner, Davis studied at Furman University, Andover Newton Theological School, and Boston University School of Theology in the late 1990s and early 2000s, deepening her knowledge of theology and ministry and her commitment to kingdom work. During that time, she served the New England Conference at Boston's Church of All Nations and at Bolton UMC in Connecticut, southwest of Boston itself.

In 2003, Davis returned to Western North Carolina to serve the Hartzell Memorial-McQueen's charge in Hickory, but not for long. Davis embodied a statement attributed to John Wesley that the world was his parish, living out her commitment to the Western North Carolina Conference not only within its bounds but also outside of them. In 2004, she relocated to New Orleans to serve with Faith in Action Ministries and the Napoleon Avenue Partnership, engaging in community development ministry for which her background in business administration as well as her theological training had uniquely prepared her. In 2006, she served on loan to the Illinois Conference and returned to her former home as an associate minister at St. Mark UMC, a vibrant church on the south side of Chicago.

Davis went on leave of absence in 2007 and officially retired on December 31, 2009. She lived out her retirement and saw her final days in Greenville, where her brother, Johnny Davis Jr., lived. Davis' life and ministry took full advantage of the breadth of God's grace and calling — as the Psalmist said, "You gave me a wide place for my steps under me" (Psalm 18:26). Davis' steps in following her call took her far and wide for the sake of the Gospel, and now she has come home at last.

Mark Steven Denton
June 13, 1954 – June 12, 2017

Mark Steven Denton was born in Rowan County on June 13, 1954, to the late Roy Roartist Denton and Mary Evelyn Everhardt Denton of Mocksville, N.C. He was the middle of five children. He, his mother, grandmother, and four siblings, Eunice, Gary, Betty Jean, and Janet, shared fond memories growing up as active members of Liberty United Methodist Church in Mocksville.

Denton graduated in 1972 from Davie County High School. A variety of work experiences helped shape the man who later became an ordained minister of the Gospel of Christ. Two other events also led to his decision to serve in ministry. Being a 20-year-old pallbearer at his paternal grandmother's funeral impressed upon him the finality of death. A short time later, Denton had a conversion experience at a church revival.

After his conversion, he believed God wanted him to go to college. He attended Mars Hill College from 1976 to 1978 as an avid student of history and religion. A desire to visit his oldest sister's family led him to drive to San Jose, Calif., where he attended De Anza College from 1978 to 1979. He returned to Mars Hill in the fall of 1979 and graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1980.

Denton's love of California drew him to Mill Valley, where he attended Golden Gate Seminary overlooking the San Francisco Bay. He thoroughly enjoyed his studies, especially making friends from other countries. However, at the end of the year, he told a professor that he was returning to North Carolina "to meet a Southern girl."

In the fall of 1981, he met Janet Christine Sligh of Hartsville, S.C., at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, N.C. They were married May 15, 1982. They accepted a summer internship of church planting sponsored by First Baptist Church of Davie, Fla., in the Ft. Lauderdale Baptist Conference. Denton preached a trial sermon and accepted the call to pastor a mission church in Rock Cave, W.Va. After receiving his Master of Divinity degree from Southeastern in 1993, he served this small mission church for five months until Jan got sick and needed to return to her hometown doctor to have surgery.

The couple returned to Mocksville and Denton's home church, Liberty, during the ministry of the Rev. Philip Cole. Denton soon began teaching Sunday school and preaching occasionally at Cole's request. In early 1985, Cole asked Denton if he would consider an appointment with the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. He was licensed to preach and appointed as a local pastor to the Elbaton Charge (Elbaville, Bailey's Chapel, and Fulton) in Advance, where he served from June 1985 to 1989. Denton was ordained as a deacon in 1987.

Denton then served Hopewell (Trinity), 1989-1990. He requested a leave of absence, 1990-1991, but he was asked to fill the pulpit at the Liberty-Concord Charge after the pastor took a medical leave. Denton then served the Bethlehem-Salem Charge (Reidsville), 1991-1996. While serving in this appointment, he was ordained as an elder and welcomed into full connection in 1993. Other appointments were: Bessemer (Greensboro), 1996-1998; Salem (Albemarle), 1998-2004; Mount Olivet (Lexington), 2004-2007; and Oak Hill (Marion), 2007-2011. He served on the district Committee on the Ordained Ministry while serving at Oak Hill. He retired in 2011.

Denton died of a massive heart attack in his home on June 12, 2017, the day before his 63rd birthday. His memorial service was a gathering of family on Saturday, June 17 at Liberty United Methodist Church in Mocksville, followed by visitation. Denton is survived by his wife, Jan; children Maria Aliher Denton and Matthew Thomas Denton; a daughter-in-law, Kayla Rhinehart Denton; and grandchildren Emily and Grayson. A third grandchild, Zachary, was born in October 2017. Also surviving are Denton's siblings: Eunice Maynard (Robert), Gary, Betty Travis (Bob) and Janet Denton (Phil); and nieces and nephews.

Denton was passionate in his preaching of Christ's Gospel. Many shared their appreciation of his historical knowledge, saying he made the Bible "come alive." They also complemented his faithfulness in visitation. He especially enjoyed serving through prison ministries and food ministries with the homeless. His favorite quote was from John Wesley: "Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can."

Rosser Lee Eakes

February 27, 1931 – October 29, 2017

The Rev. Rosser Lee Eakes, 86, of Horseshoe, N.C., passed away on Sunday, October 29, 2017. A native of Nash County, N.C., he was the son of the late Nathaniel Wesley Eakes and the late Mary Jane Perry Eakes.

He served in the U.S. Marine Corps, spending a year in Korea. He graduated from Baptist Bible Seminary in 1957, completing a three-year Bible study course. He also earned a Bachelor of Theology from Piedmont Bible College in 1966 and a Master of Arts from Bob Jones University in 1967. Eakes married Virginia Lee Fish on June 9, 1956.

He served as pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Mills River, N.C., for 10 years, and then he pastored Dotson Chapel United Methodist Church and Hills Union Circuit in the Holston Conference from 1990 to 1996 before retiring. After his retirement in 1996, he moved back to North Carolina, where he served English Chapel United Methodist Church in the Pisgah National Forest for 20 years. He preached his last sermon there at age 86.

His loving survivors include his wife of 61 years, along with his children, Shelley Fore and husband Joe of Surgoinsville, Tenn., Laurie Brock and husband Terry of East Flat Rock, N.C., Kirk Eakes and wife Cheryl of Hendersonville, N.C., and Shari Eakes and husband Andy Brittain of Mills River; grandchildren Jeremy Fore and wife Jami, Adam Fore and Gabe Brittain; and great-grandchildren Lilly Fore and Conner Fore. In addition to his parents, he was also preceded in death by two sisters and five brothers.

Eakes' memorial service was held on Sunday, November 12, 2017, at English Chapel UMC with the Rev. Evelyn Patterson officiating. Several friends who had been a part of his ministry spoke, including Joe Shatto, Kitty Wright, Frankie Edmonds, Don Bremmer, George Williams, and Lyndon Clayton. His great-grandchildren sang "He Leadeth Me".

Eakes' greatest desire in life was to preach and teach the Word of God. It was a sad day for him when he had to retire, but he continued to attend church until he was no longer able. On behalf of my husband, I want to say that we are thankful for all the congregations we have been a part of. We have been blessed! We praise and thank our Father in Heaven for allowing us to serve Him all these years. What a blessing it has been!

William Harold Faggart
September 26, 1928 – May 18, 2017

The Rev. William “Bill” Harold Faggart was a beloved husband, father, professor, pastor, and friend. Jesus witnesses to us in scripture that true leadership is marked by humility and loving service. Bill Faggart most certainly embodied this Christ-like servant leadership throughout his 88 years of life. He is remembered as a selfless man, who was deeply committed to his faith and who led with a quiet strength. He passed away on Thursday, May 18, 2017, at his home in New London, N.C., after a courageous fight against cancer.

Faggart was born September 26, 1928, in Kannapolis, N.C. He was the son of William Dixon and Vera Pence Faggart and brother to Melvin P. Faggart and Doris F. Gillon, all of whom preceded him in death. As Faggart entered into eternal glory, he was also reunited with his cherished daughter, Susan Diane Faggart. He is survived by his wife of 67 years, Dorothy Benfield Faggart of the home, and his dog, Taz, as well as his nephews, Phil Faggart and Whit Gillon.

Faggart met his wife, Dot, in their hometown of Kannapolis. They were married June 17, 1949. In his early adult life, Faggart was a private first class in the U.S. Marine Corps, serving on the USS Shangri-La in the South Pacific. He was in Operations Crossroads, the 1946 atomic bomb test at Bikini Atoll. After completing his service, he worked as a brick mason and became a Methodist minister in 1952. He served Shiloh Methodist Church in Concord, N.C. Bill and Dot’s daughter, Susan, was born during his Shiloh appointment.

Faggart graduated from Pfeiffer College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1960 and then went on to Duke University to earn his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1963. While at Duke, he served as a student minister at Belmont Methodist Church in Burlington. In 1963, he entered into full connection with the Western North Carolina Conference and began serving at Wesley Chapel Methodist Church in Misenheimer, N.C. Wesley Chapel fondly remembers Faggart as a pastor who led them with courage and compassion when their church building burned down. Through his remarkable leadership, the church was able to rebuild, debt-free, in two years. Faggart attended Wesley Chapel UMC in his retirement.

Faggart continued to serve the Misenheimer community after he became Pfeiffer University’s chaplain. In 1971, he received a master’s degree in social studies from Appalachian State University and began serving as a professor of sociology at Pfeiffer. Throughout his years of teaching, he also lent his pastoral gifts to the local church. He served in preaching and interim positions in local churches, including New London and Oakboro United Methodist churches. He continued to teach and serve within the Methodist ministry as an educator until he retired in 1992. His ministry at Pfeiffer University led many individuals to discern their own calls to pastoral ministry. Faggart was a beloved mentor to young clergy throughout his life. Even into his last year of life, he mentored young men in middle school for their confirmation experience. He touched so many lives through his discipleship, his preaching, his teaching, and his mentoring.

Faggart loved woodworking, musical instruments, and furniture. He made handcrafted instruments and played beautiful music. When looking back at his life, his beloved wife, Dot says, “He was a Marine, he was a brick mason, he was a preacher, a professor, a storyteller, and a musician. Most of all, he was a good man.” Friends and family celebrated his life and the resurrection of Jesus Christ on Sunday, May 21, 2017 in Albemarle, N.C.

Bernard Ray Fitzgerald
October 28, 1924 – February 22, 2018

The Rev. Dr. Bernard Ray Fitzgerald was born on October 28, 1924, in Lexington, N.C. As the son of the Rev. Joseph W. Fitzgerald and Ruth Klutz Fitzgerald, he grew up in parsonages across the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Fitzgerald graduated from Central High School in Charlotte in 1942, Wofford College in 1949, and Duke University in 1954. He did graduate studies at the University of Edinburgh in 1950 and was awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from High Point University in 1976. He was licensed to preach in 1947, ordained as a deacon in 1952, and ordained as an elder in 1954.

While attending Wofford College, Fitzgerald served Saluda Methodist Church, 1946-1950. While a student at Duke University, he served Pinnacle Methodist Church, 1950-1953. Fitzgerald served Groce (Asheville) as an associate, 1953-1957. Other appointments were: Mouzon (Charlotte), 1957-1963; First (Lincolnton), 1963-1967; Providence (Charlotte), 1967-1970; Wesley Memorial (High Point), 1970-1979; Asheville District superintendent, 1979-1981; Charlotte District superintendent, 1981-1983; Myers Park, 1983-1991. He retired in 1991. After retirement, he was asked to serve an interim appointment at Matthews United Methodist Church.

Fitzgerald’s service to the community included serving the board of directors for the American Red Cross and Crisis Assistance Ministry in Charlotte, board of trustees for Brevard College, and board of visitors for Aldersgate Retirement Community. Fitzgerald received a distinguished service award from the National Association for Mental Health, and he served as president of the Edward R. and Lucille P. Giles Foundation.

In 1956, Fitzgerald married Carol Jean Crockett. After 59 years of marriage, Carol died in 2016. Bernard and Carol are survived by their four children, Daniel Fitzgerald and wife Patricia, Sarah Fitzgerald, John Fitzgerald and wife Christine, and Michael Fitzgerald.

Fitzgerald died on February 22, 2018. A service glorifying God and celebrating his life was held at Myers Park United Methodist Church in Charlotte on March 3, 2018. He was a wonderful father, a faithful husband, a strong preacher, a loving grandfather, and a servant of Jesus Christ.

Cornelius Holland

February 9, 1933 – August 27, 2017

The Rev. Cornelius Holland went home to be with his Lord on Sunday, August 27, 2017, after a long, fruitful life. Born on February 9, 1933, in Randolph County to Daniel and Una Mary Evans Holland, he was the eldest son among his nine siblings: Willie Mae, Richard, Eleanor, Leo, Joseph, Susie, Tony, India Diane, and Charlie. He was predeceased by his parents and siblings Eleanor, Leo, Susie, and Charlie, as well as an infant granddaughter, Alicia Jean Holland.

On December 30, 1950, Holland and the former Juanita Bernice Ashworth were married in a ceremony witnessed by their mothers. This marriage would last 67 years. The couple gave birth to seven living children: Gerald Wayne Holland (Patra), Edwin Reginald Holland (Debbie), Teresa Holland Williams (Richard), Alan Gregg Holland, Timothy Neal Holland (Mary), Paula Lynette Holland Gayman (Rickie), and Anita Sheryl Holland Blue. Holland's quiver would eventually hold 20 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren, and seven great-great grandchildren.

After many years of faithful church membership at Bethel United Methodist Church in Archdale, N.C., Holland answered his call into the ministry. His preparation for ministry included attendance at the Course of Study at Duke Divinity School from 1968 to 1972, as well as earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1982 at High Point College, now known as High Point University. He was ordained as an elder in 1993 in the Western North Carolina Conference.

With ministry that spanned 49 years, Holland was committed to The United Methodist Church and the Western North Carolina Conference. His pastorate service included: Randleman-St. Peter's, 1971-1972; Collins Grove-Holmes Grove, 1972-1974; St. Mary's, 1974-1975; Collins Grove-St. Mary's, 1975-1976; Bass Chapel-Peace-Collins Grove, 1976-1977; Bass Chapel-Collins Grove, 1977-1982; New Goshen, 1982-1988; Port City, 1988-1991; and Hartzell Memorial-McQueen's Chapel, 1991-2003. After retirement in 2003, Holland served Lovell's Chapel, 2009-2010. His retirement gave him the opportunity to indulge his love of farming and visiting several churches each Sunday. He was a frequent attendee at his beloved Bethel United Methodist Church, even though it was a two-hour drive from his home.

Holland was completely engaged in the Hickory-Conover community as an activist. He was twice awarded the Key to the City of Hickory for his service and was recognized by several civic organizations for his dedication as an elder statesman. He had a passion for those who were battling addictions. His advocacy for funding provided the foundation and facilitation of the work of Exodus House. Believing in partnerships, he initiated a community-wide Saturday breakfast with the Rev. Paul Christy Sr. of First United Methodist Church of Hickory, N.C. Holland enjoyed organizing and serving as lead cook for this weekly event. His continued leadership in fundraising for Bennett College in Greensboro, N.C., was recognized by The United Negro College Fund.

Holland's joy was his extended family and the accomplishments of his children. Often quoting the elders in his family, he was a prolific storyteller and memory keeper. His appreciation for the common man made him a trusted confidant and friend. Known as a pastor's pastor, he mentored many other pastors and enjoyed their friendship and fellowship. His love of singing and preaching made him a favored speaker and guest at special services. May the work he has done speak for him.

Thomas Maurice Huntley

April 26, 1954 – October 28, 2017

The Rev. Thomas Maurice Huntley, known to all who knew him as "Maurice," entered into eternal rest at Guilford Health Care in Greensboro, N.C., on October 28, 2017.

Huntley was born to the late Willie Vernon Huntley and Olivia Simon Huntley on April 26, 1954. He graduated from Walter Hines Page High School in Greensboro. Not only was he a track star, he excelled in football, basketball, cross country and even sang in the choir while in high school. He earned a full scholarship in track to East Carolina University. There, he served as national chaplain to the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

Huntley began his journey into servant leadership with an internship at St. Matthews United Methodist Church in Greensboro. He graduated from Duke University Divinity School in 1979. He was ordained as a deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1977 and as an elder in full connection in 1981.

Huntley served in the following appointments: Holmes Grove (Greensboro), 1977-1978; St. Andrews (Greensboro), 1978-1981; Memorial (High Point), 1981-1984; Brooks Temple (Midway) and St. Stephen (Lexington), beginning August 1984 to 1988. His health began to decline as he was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis in 1980 and was only given three years to live.

With his strong faith, Huntley knew that the Great Physician was in charge of his prognosis. He continued offering everyone his winning smile and a desire to remain abreast of what was going on in the life of the Church and in the Western North Carolina Conference. He had a way of being a blessing and comfort to all who came to visit him at home or at Guilford Health Care. While this dynamic preacher and leader did not get to serve in the way he would have desired, his service was steadfast and unmovable. He was loved by his congregations and respected by his colleagues.

A Celebration of Life was held on Saturday, November 4, 2017, at St. Matthews United Methodist Church in Greensboro, N.C. Huntley leaves to cherish his memory his loving mother, Olivia S. Huntley; a devoted daughter, Tamica H. Smith and son-in-law Rico M. Smith; three grandsons, Rico M. Smith Jr., Rico M. Smith III, and Nasir M. Smith; three granddaughters, Shaqkera Q. Smith, NaKyla A.M. Comer, and R'Eyona M. Smith; one sister, Hellena Tidwell and brother-in-law Isaiah Tidwell; one brother, James O. Huntley; one aunt, Jessie S. Smith; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.

Many lives were enriched by the life and ministry of Thomas Maurice Huntley. He will forever be remembered as his legacy of love, compassion, service, laughter, and faith in God live on. Be at rest my friend, and we will see you in that Great Morning.

Robert Thompson McLawhorn
July 27, 1945 – December 11, 2017

The Rev. Dr. Robert Thompson McLawhorn finished his faith journey on December 11, 2017, after fighting a persistently reoccurring malignancy for six years. He refused to give illness control of his life. He continued to teach and serve under episcopal appointment until his death. He won every battle he fought with cancer, including through Christ his final victory over death at the Kiser Hospice House in Salisbury, N.C. A Service of Death and Resurrection was held at New Mount Vernon United Methodist Church on December 16, 2017, with the Rev. N. Fred Jordan Jr. officiating.

McLawhorn was born July 27, 1945, in Cabarrus County to Bob Roudy and Hellen Thompson McLawhorn. He had one sister, Linda McLawhorn Andrews. On January 1, 1967, he married Barbara Janice Fowler at Newton's First United Methodist Church, and they had three sons, Robert Bradley, David Lee, and Brian Daniel.

McLawhorn was a lifelong learner. His higher education began at Pfeiffer University, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1968. While at Pfeiffer, he received a license to preach, but he withdrew from pastoral ministry in 1969 after a student appointment at Albemarle's Wade United Methodist Church. Over the next decade, he worked in vocational rehabilitation, in his father-in-law's hosiery business, in accounting, and as a Boy Scout field executive. Finally, the call to ordained ministry could not be ignored. He returned to school and earned the Master of Divinity degree at the Duke Divinity School in 1992 and a Doctor of Philosophy from LaSalle University in 1997.

McLawhorn was ordained as a deacon in 1991 and as an elder in 1996 in the Western North Carolina Conference. During his student days at Duke, he served Concord United Methodist Church in the North Carolina Conference, 1991-1993. His appointments in the Western North Carolina Conference included: Bethel-Marvin, 1993-1996; Dulin-Smith Grove, 1996-2001; Woodleaf-South River, 2001-2002; Central (Spencer), 2002-2008; Mouzon (Charlotte), 2008-2009; Central Terrace (Winston-Salem), beginning December 2009-2011; Temple Hill-Roaring River, 2011-2012; and New Mount Vernon, 2012-2017. He retired in 2016 but continued to serve New Mount Vernon as a retired supply pastor until his death in 2017.

In addition to his love of his family and pastoral ministry, McLawhorn loved to teach. For many years, he spent his spare time on the adjunct faculty of Hood Theological Seminary. He liked to "mess with the minds" of his students. There was a cantankerous bluntness about McLawhorn that could provoke insightful responses. He challenged his students and his church members to think for themselves. He believed it is up to every person to embrace new ideas and accept new challenges so that they do not totally miss the greatness of what God is doing in our world today.

McLawhorn was a very private person. He avoided praise and public recognition. He didn't even want his obituary published in the newspaper. Yet, his legacy of learning and serving lives on in the lives of those who knew him. McLawhorn embraced God's greatness and finished his faith journey as a dedicated disciple of Jesus Christ.

Joseph Crowell McMurry
June 5, 1932 – April 30, 2018

During his eight-year tenure on the Western North Carolina Conference's Board of Ordained Ministry, Joe McMurry became well known to candidates seeking ordination as "that guy" who, during the interview, would lean across the table, look them in the eye and say, "Do you believe God makes tornados?" While the question was at first disconcerting to candidates, the reality was that McMurry was challenging them with a question much deeper than most of them had wrestled with in seminary. His query to them was, "Are you ready to communicate the greatest message in the history of the Universe in such a way that it is relevant to the people who have been entrusted into your care?" Having grown up in the tornado belt of North Carolina, McMurry understood all too well what it meant to be consistently confronted with a reality as daunting as a tornado and the need for people to find hope from their God in the face of it. In every sense of the word, McMurry was a "pastor." In the pulpit, in his home, in whatever community he happened to live, he exhibited his faith in such a way as to draw others closer to the savior he had accepted as the guiding force of his life.

Born in Belwood on June 5, 1932, McMurry was one of five children born to the late Robert Lee McMurry and Selma Miller McMurry. He was baptized in the Kadesh Methodist Church South and educated in the Cleveland County public schools. Upon his graduation from Belwood High School, he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and served four years during the Korean Conflict. After his military commitment ended, McMurry returned to North Carolina where he married Beverly Christy in 1958. It was while living in Charlotte and attending Covenant Methodist Church that McMurry felt the call to ministry and Beverly agreed to join with him in the leap of faith. With a growing young family, in 1961 McMurry took the first step toward ministry by earning a license to preach and being assigned the church start-up of Deerfield Methodist Church in Boone while attending Appalachian State University. In 1964, Banner Elk Methodist Church was added to his ministerial duties. In 1965, McMurry graduated from ASU with a Bachelor of Science in history and enrolled in the Duke University Divinity School. While at Duke, he was appointed as the student pastor of the Haw River Circuit in the Greensboro District. Graduating from Duke in 1970, McMurry continued serving in these appointments: Boulevard (Statesville), 1971-1979; Bethpage (Kannapolis), 1979-1984; and Myers Memorial (Gastonia), 1984-1994. In each appointment, McMurry had a unique way for identifying with the people in his congregation as well as those in the community. At Boulevard, he organized softball teams and Sunday School classes for the boys who lived in the church's neighborhood. At Myers Memorial, he led a growing congregation in a major building program which included construction of a new sanctuary. During his tenure in Gastonia, McMurry was recognized by Pfeiffer University for his outstanding years of ministry when that institution awarded him an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree in 1991. While McMurry was an extremely able preacher, the thing that most defined his ministry was his relationships with people. He instilled trust in others, and they easily came to him for counsel. The ability that he had for sizing up situations and bringing about resolution helped many people, including young pastors whom he readily took under his wing.

In 1994, McMurry received retired status and went to what he called "the best appointment in the Western North Carolina Conference." He moved back home to Belwood, where he and Beverly had purchased a farm. There on his porch, Joe could sit next to Beverly and watch his cows while receiving visits from one of their four children, Christy, Leanne, Steve, and Dale, along with their spouses and the grandchildren. It was back in Belwood that McMurry could once again be surrounded by his relatives and attend the church of his childhood, Kadesh UMC. It was here that he organized and led a young adult Sunday School class and did everything in his power to nurture the novice pastors who were appointed to that congregation. It was in the Kadesh Church on Thursday, May 3, 2018, that many of those whose lives had been touched by Joe McMurry packed the church to pay their respects to a life well lived. The Acoustic Syndicate, a band which includes the McMurrys' son, Steve, as a member, has a song titled, "The Pilot." Within the lyrics of that song is a line that says, "A common love for an uncommon man." On that day, everyone had been drawn to that place for their common love of an uncommon man who had given so much to so many.

On April 30, 2018, after a long struggle with fading health and surrounded by family, McMurry transferred from the best appointment in the Western North Carolina Conference to the best appointment in eternity. He was a man who dedicated his life to Christ, and his passion to care for others will continue to serve as a guiding light for those who were fortunate enough to have been a part of his journey here on earth.

Joe Thurman Melton

June 28, 1916 – November 26, 2017

The Rev. Joe Thurman Melton of Lincolnton, N.C., passed away on November 26, 2017, at age 101. He was surrounded by his son, daughter, and the caregivers who loved him dearly at Peak Resources of Cherryville.

Melton began his life in the small rural community of Bostic, N.C., on June 28, 1916. He grew up on a farm with his parents, Joseph Jackson Melton and Mamie Threatt Melton and five brothers and sisters. He attended the public schools of Rutherford County before graduating from Brevard and Wofford colleges. He received Bachelor of Divinity from Emory University's Candler School of Theology in 1942. His first pastoral appointment was a circuit of churches in Avery County, N.C.

Melton was ordained as a deacon in 1944 and as an elder in 1945. Other appointments were: Whitnel (Lenoir), 1946-1951; West Bend (Asheboro), 1951-1955; Westview (Hickory), 1955-1960; Cooleemee, 1960-1965; Unity (Thomasville), 1965-1971; Coburn Memorial (Salisbury), 1971-1975; May's Chapel-St. Paul's (Maiden), 1975-1981; Oak Grove-Salem, 1981-1983; and Oak Grove, 1983-1984.

While serving Whitnel Methodist Church, Melton met Consie Lee Stallings. They were united in marriage July 6, 1950, in a loving, lifelong relationship of 57 years. Joe cared for Consie with great love and tenderness in the years preceding her death in 2007. They had two children, Joseph Thurman Melton of Charlotte, and Mary Lee Campbell and husband Walter of Durham and their son, Elijah, of Norfolk, Va. After Melton's retirement in 1984, he enjoyed nine years as minister of visitation for First United Methodist Church of Lincolnton, where he was honored to be a pastor emeritus.

Melton was a quiet, thoughtful man. He loved his Lord and expressed his love through his interactions with everyone he met. Despite his declining vision as he aged, he kept his Bible by his bed and read it daily. Even as his health deteriorated, he continued to attend church services weekly. At the time of his death, he was the oldest minister of the Western North Carolina Conference.

Funeral services for Melton were held at First United Methodist Church in Lincolnton on November 29, 2017, with the Rev. Tony Matthews presiding. Joe was buried next to his wife, Consie, at Hollybrook Cemetery in Lincolnton.

Patt Joseph Miller

May 23, 1937 – July 29, 2017

Patt Joseph Miller was born on May 23, 1937, in Union County, Ga., to Russell and Eula Miller. He married his high school sweetheart, Austella Cabe. They were happily married 58 years. He entered into Glory on July 29, 2017, after a stroke.

Jesus said that he "did not come to be served, but to serve" (Matthew 20:28, NIV). Miller followed his Lord, Jesus Christ, as a servant of God and people. He served his country in the U.S. Navy for four years, and he served North Carolina for nine years as a trooper in the N.C. Highway Patrol. He lived most of his life as a farmer. Watching his crops grow and sharing his produce with friends and neighbors were important parts of his life.

Miller was a family man who loved his wife, Austella, his two sons, Michael William and Kevin Richard, and their nine grandchildren. Patt and Austella also cared for several foster children.

Early in life, Miller served as a lay speaker in The United Methodist Church in Clay County, N.C. He became a local pastor in 1996. His appointments were: First (Hayesville) as an associate, 1996; Murphy Circuit (Cherokee County), September 1996 to 2002; Bellview-Reid's Chapel, 2002-2003; Bellview, 2003-2005. He retired in 2005.

Miller also was involved in ministry beyond the local church. He assisted in beginning and maintaining Mountain Top Emmaus Walk. He was involved in Hearts for Heaven Ministry in Guatemala. He served on a planning committee that began Meals on Wheels for Clay County. He was a board member for Women's Enrichment Center, a crisis pregnancy center in Blairsville, Ga. Patt and Austella travelled on many trips to several countries, ministering and sharing the love of Jesus Christ.

Miller loved to help people in the community who needed special assistance. He was a caretaker for those whose health had failed or whose spouse had passed away. He served these individuals in various ways, including providing their home care or care of their property.

A celebration of life was held on Saturday, August 5, 2017, at Ivie Funeral Home in Hayesville with his sons, the Rev. Kevin Miller and Michael Miller, officiating. His body was laid to rest at Greenlawn Cemetery in Peachland, N.C.

Miller was a servant of God who touched many lives for Jesus Christ. My life was blessed by knowing and serving with Patt and Austella. "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Gerald Collins

Cecil Kenneth Myrick

February 20, 1931 – July 29, 2017

Cecil Kenneth Myrick was born in East Spencer, N.C., to Carlie A. Myrick and Lillie Poole Myrick. He was educated in the Rowan County public schools, graduated from Pfeiffer Junior College in 1951 (Associate of Arts), Randolph-Macon College in 1953 (Artium Baccalaureus), and Duke Divinity School in 1957 (Bachelor of Divinity). He married Ellen Royston on June 25, 1955.

Cecil and Ellen were married 62 years and have two sons, Kenneth Reginald Myrick and Carl Royston Myrick and partner Ronald McLean; two granddaughters, Katie and Emma Myrick; three nieces; two nephews; one grandniece; three grandnephews; and Cecil's brother, Carlie A. Myrick Jr. of Titusville, Fla.

After being licensed to preach in 1951, Myrick was ordained as a deacon in 1954 and as an elder in 1957 in the Western North Carolina Conference. During Myrick's 39 years under appointment, he served Friendship-Tabernacle (Salisbury), 1954-1957; French Broad (Asheville), 1957-1962; Aldersgate (Charlotte), 1962-1967; Charlotte Inner City, 1967-1970; Methodist Cooperative Urban Ministry (Charlotte), 1970-1973; Big Springs (Charlotte), 1973-1974; Big Springs and Urban Ministry, 1974-1976; Big Springs and Charlotte District Administrative Assistant, 1976-1979; St. Paul's (Asheville), 1979-1985; and Central (Asheville) Associate, 1985-1993, retiring in 1993.

Myrick was a thoughtful, effective, and prophetic preacher. His experiences as director of Inner City and Urban Ministries in Charlotte and his association with a Korean congregation in Asheville significantly affected his life. He also served as part-time chaplain at Brooks-Howell Home, a retirement home for deaconesses and missionaries in Asheville.

Music enriched Myrick's life. He played the organ, sang solos, and enjoyed singing in church choirs and community choruses. He lovingly prepared many diverse dishes and was famous for his desserts. He would take friends wild blackberry picking and then share one of his pies. One dessert everyone craved was his black walnut cake; he gathered the walnuts and cracked them himself.

Myrick's wit and his quick, wise intelligence were obvious. Friends delighted in his gift of storytelling. Further, he was an accomplished gardener who enjoyed sharing plants with others. He could build and fix most anything.

There was no pretense or false demeanor about Myrick. It was not by accident that persons readily connected with him. At a retirement celebration, more than 400 persons gathered at Central United Methodist Church in Asheville. His commitment to racial justice and solidarity with the entire human family was a living reminder of Jesus.

On Sunday, August 6, 2017, at 2 p.m. in the chapel at Givens Estates retirement community, the Rev. Ed Hillman, the Rev. Fred Macon, and Dr. Jonathan Golden celebrated Myrick's ongoing reality in the Communion of the Saints. He was an extraordinary witness to the Kingdom in our midst. Indeed, he belongs to Christ and to us all!

Charles Glenn Powell Sr.

June 17, 1926 – July 8, 2017

Charles Glenn Powell Sr. was born on June 17, 1926, in Buncombe County to the late L.G. Powell and Daisy Smith Powell. He grew up in western North Carolina, and as a young man, he served in the U.S. Army during World War II. After completing his military service, he married Ruby Pyatt on July 4, 1945. The Powells celebrated their 72nd Independence Day wedding anniversary just days before his death on July 8, 2017.

Powell and his wife had three children together: Terry Lee Powell, who with his wife Debbie, lives in Waterloo, S.C., Becky Bowman of Central, S.C., and Charles Glenn Powell Jr., who preceded his father in death in 2014 in Lavonia, Ga., after a battle with cancer. Besides his two surviving children, Powell left four grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and two sisters, Ruth Beyler of Chicago, Ill., and Clara Chandler of Asheville, N.C.

Powell was licensed to preach in 1981 and served as a local pastor at: Peachland (Albemarle District), 1981-1983; Friendship (Albemarle District), 1983-1985; and West Rowan (Salisbury District), 1985-1987. At each of these appointments, Powell sought to follow God's call on his life, living into his charge as a local pastor even as he moved toward ordination. In 1987, Powell was ordained as a deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. He returned to Friendship UMC on January 29, 1987, and remained in ministry there until 1991, when he retired.

Even though he was retired in 1991, Powell's ministry did not end there. Even in retirement, Powell remained active and continued to serve the church, coming to Clinchfield (Marion) in October 1992 and then to Hildebran as a co-pastor in September 1993. Powell's final appointment was Bollinger's Chapel (Valdese), 1994-1996, after which lived out his retirement surrounded by family and friends.

Powell passed away at Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center in Winston-Salem, N.C., after a brief illness and was laid to rest at McDowell Memorial Park in Marion, N.C., where his son and namesake, Charles Jr., is also buried. Powell will be remembered for his service to his country and to his church, to his family and friends, and most of all to God and the kingdom. "Well done, good and faithful servant!" (Matthew 25:23).

Ralph Lee Reed Sr.

June 18, 1919 – March 4, 2018

The Rev. Ralph Lee Reed Sr., 98, joined the church triumphant on Sunday, March 4, 2018, with grace and dignity while living at Cuthbertson Village at Aldersgate United Methodist Retirement Community.

Reed was born in Monroe, N.C., the fifth child of the late Henry S. and Bessie Broome Reed. He spent his boyhood cherishing Union County and the bountiful beauty of the outdoors. At age 16, Reed made his profession of faith while he was a member of North Monroe Methodist Episcopal Church, South (presently, Memorial United Methodist Church). Three days later, he received God's call to ministry and began his lifelong dedication to the church. He lived under the conviction of a Divine Commission to live, preach, and serve as a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the Methodist Church.

Upon graduation from Benton Heights High School, he received his A.A. degree from Brevard College in 1938 and his A.B. degree from Emory University in 1940. Reed finished his education with a Master of Divinity degree in 1943 from Duke University. While at Duke, Reed served as a student pastor for the seven churches on the Siler City Circuit in the North Carolina Conference. Reed became a deacon in 1944, and he was ordained as an elder and member of the Western North Carolina Conference in 1945.

Reed married Billie Brooks Pennington of Aberdeen, N.C., on June 10, 1944, at Page Memorial Methodist Church. Faithful to the cause, the couple spent their honeymoon at Lake Junaluska during the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. This began a beautiful union that lasted 73 years of marriage and produced their three children, Mary, Ann, and Lee, followed by their four grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. Billie was always a tremendous inspiration and support to Ralph's ministry. What followed was a journey living a life dedicated to ministry.

Reed's prolific career spreading the Gospel within the Western North Carolina Conference included the following appointments: Mt. Pleasant (Winston-Salem District), 1943-1949; Bessemer (Greensboro), 1949-1953; Midway (Kannapolis), 1953-1959; St. James (Charlotte), 1959-1964; Maylo (Gastonia), 1964-1967; Central (Canton), 1967-1971; Trinity (Asheville), 1971-1977; First (Rutherfordton), 1977-1981; and Myers Memorial (Gastonia), 1981-1984. Reed officially retired in June 1984.

During his career, Reed held numerous positions on various conference and community boards, including: Director Evangelism, Winston-Salem District, 1947-1949, and Waynesville District, 1967-1971; District Director, Temperance Advance, Salisbury District, 1954-1958; Charlotte Missionary Secretary, 1962-1964; Asheville District Director of Health and Welfare, 1971-1977; Gastonia District Director Stewardship Advance, 1965-1967; member of WNCC Board of Evangelism, Pensions, and Ordained Ministry at various times; President of the N.C. Christian Action League, 1961-1963; member of the WNCC Board of Health and Welfare, 1971-1976; President of the N.C. Christian Action League, Buncombe County, 1972-1974, and Rutherford County, 1979-1981; member of the Board of Ordained Ministry, 1980-1984; member of the WNCC Joint Committee Of Disability, 1980-1984; member of the WNCC Committee on Chaplains, 1980-1982; Scoutmaster, Old Hickory Council of Boy Scouts of America, 1945-1949; and at age 80, the oldest person in Asheville to join "The Order of the Arrow," the National Honor Society of Boy Scouts of America.

Upon retirement, Ralph and Billie returned to Asheville, where he attended and acted as minister of visitation for Trinity United Methodist Church. Similarly, Reed was the acting associate minister of Groce United Methodist Church in Asheville for nine months after retirement, working in evangelism and membership enrichment. He then became chaplain at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Asheville, visiting patients and giving care to the dying and bereaved from 1985 to 1997. Ralph and Billie cherished their time together. It was evident that they had a deep love and appreciation for each other. They loved to reminisce about their family, work, and love.

In 2004, Ralph and Billie moved to Aldersgate United Methodist Retirement Community in Charlotte. He continued to visit and care for those in his community. While at Aldersgate, Reed established "Friends In-Deed," a resident support network. He also often taught the Ivey Bible Class. He attended Providence United Methodist Church and the Wesley Men's Sunday School Class. He was a gifted writer and story teller. He was a lifelong scholar and had a particular passion for studying the early Methodist Church, the early circuit riders, and the teachings of John Wesley. Reed treasured his family, his fellow man, and his ability to counsel others in faith. He touched the lives of many as he was true to his calling to minister to human need and to share the Good News of Christ with others.

A memorial service was held on Thursday, March 8, 2018, at Providence UMC to celebrate his extraordinary life and his Life Eternal. The service was officiated by the Rev. Dr. William T. Jeffries and the Rev. Karen Moore, chaplain at Aldersgate. The Rev. Jim Pyatt, assistant archivist for WNCC, presented the family with a United Methodist clergy grave marker representing his many years of service.

"The eternal God is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms" (Deut. 33:27).

George Parks Robinson
November 12, 1932 – March 12, 2018

Dr. George Parks Robinson began this life on November 12, 1932, when he was born to George Parks Robinson Sr. and Bland Rountree Robinson in Charlotte, N.C. He died March 12, 2018, in Winston-Salem, N.C. A Celebration of Life service was held for Robinson at Centenary United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem on March 17, 2018. This service recognized and celebrated 85 years of a life that was lived with compassion, grace, and faithfulness.

Robinson was predeceased by his wife of 54 years, Sylvia Davis Robinson. He is survived by his daughter, Cathy Robinson, and granddaughter Mary Monroe; his son, Dr. Greg Robinson and granddaughters Emma Grace, Abby and Lilly; his sister, Nancy Goldstein; and several nieces and nephews.

Robinson attended Charlotte public schools and graduated from Central High School in 1951. He earned a bachelor's degree in English from Duke University in 1955 and a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1958. He received a Doctor of Divinity degree from High Point University in 1977. Being a life-long learner, he pursued further graduate studies in counseling and management at the University of North Carolina at Asheville and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and theology at Union Theological Seminary in New York City. Robinson would often remark that his most rewarding roles in ministry were teaching and counseling.

Robinson was a faithful pastor who served the church with distinction and grace. Pastoral care was always a hallmark of his ministry. He cared deeply for members within the church and in the communities that surrounded the church. He was respected and beloved in the church and the community, wherever he served. He began his 46 years of service in the church when he was ordained as a deacon in 1956 and as an elder in 1960. His appointments included: Aldersgate (Charlotte), January 1, 1958-1962; Milford Hills (Salisbury), 1962-1967; St. Andrews (Charlotte), 1967-1971; First (Hendersonville), 1971-1976; High Point District superintendent, 1976-1982; Centenary (Winston-Salem), 1982-1998. He served as Centenary's senior minister until his retirement in 1998.

Robinson's love of the church and passion for its ministry influenced many agencies and boards beyond the local church. In the Western North Carolina Conference, he served on the boards of the Methodist Home (Charlotte), Triad Methodist Home (renamed Arbor Acres), Board of Publications, Board of Pensions, Board of Higher Education, Board of Global Ministries, and for 20 years on the Board of Ordained Ministry. He was honored by his colleagues often as he was elected as a delegate to The General Conference of The United Methodist Church in 1980 and 1984 and as a delegate to The Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in 1980, 1984, 1988, 1992, and 1996. In Winston-Salem, he served on the boards of Hospice and in a number of other civic and service organizations.

Across the years of his ministry, his interest expanded beyond the conference. In 1976, he became a member of the Duke University School Board of Visitors. He also served as a member of the board of trustees of Brevard University from 1979 to 1989. One of the highlights of his ministry was being elected to serve as a member of the Duke University Board of Trustees from 1993-2003. And his election as one of the trustee emeriti in 2003 was a tribute to his leadership. Robinson's ministry traveled abroad as well. He participated in numerous mission building teams and engaged in preaching missions on four continents.

Robinson leaves a legacy of compassion and care for all who knew him. He was constantly inspired by the words of his lifelong hero, baseball great Jackie Robinson: "A life is not important except for the impact it has on others." He impacted us as a pastor, mentor, friend, leader, and faithful servant of Jesus Christ. We continue to celebrate his humor, kindness, and ability to love us into being as only he could.

Hugh William Russell Jr., fondly known as Bo, left his earthly home to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on December 22, 2017, after a courageous months-long battle with cancer. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a daughter, Rachael Russell; a son, Timothy Russell; and his brothers, Ricky Dean and Jeffery Scott.

Russell began his life on June 21, 1953, in the small east Tennessee town of Newport. He was the first of four sons born to Hugh William Russell Sr. and his wife, Barbara Ramsey Russell. His passion and love for music, learning, and the outdoors began at an early age and continued throughout his life. He would pass the same love and passion for these things to his daughters and grandchildren. By the time he graduated Coker County High School, his hard work and dedication to his music had seen him earn the prestigious John Philip Sousa Award on his trumpet.

The next years of his life included many trials and tribulations to which Russell responded with his steadfast philosophy: "Whatever you do, do with your whole heart." He married in 1973, at age 19, and welcomed five children with his then-wife, Sharon Webb -- Rachael Russell, Timothy Russell, Christa Russell Shipman, Erin Russell Gunter, and Rebecca K. Painter. They would go on to share several grandchildren, Rachel Brooks, Taylor Shipman, Hunter Brooks, Levi Meade, Tate Gunter, Bodie Gunter, Caleb Painter, Andrew Painter, and Abigail Painter. He found a job at the Oconaluftee Job Corps Center, where he dedicated the next two-plus decades of his life to guiding, teaching, and helping people ages 16-24 grow and better their lives.

It was during his tenure at the Job Corps center that Russell found what he would call his true purpose and calling in life, the ministry. He was licensed by The United Methodist Church in 2013, and he spent the next three years lovingly growing his ministry in the Haywood Parish. In 2016, he moved to Leicester, N.C., where he quickly fell in love with his new appointment, Big Sandy and Western Chapel. He and his ministry faithfully served these appointments until his death at The Homestead in Clyde, N.C., in December 2017.

Russell believed that each of us was a culmination of our experiences and how we chose to respond to them. It was a belief that he incorporated into every facet of his life, including his ministry. He truly lived what he loved and practiced what he preached. He was faithful in his service to the church and loved those he was called to serve within his appointments and their surrounding communities.

A celebration of life service was held December 30, 2017, at Garret Funerals and Cremations with the Rev. Eric Hill and Chaplain Keri Hill officiating. After his cremation, Russell received Masonic rites and was returned to the mountains he loved and which brought him so much joy with only one request:

When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.”

James Samuel White

August 5, 1931 – October 10, 2017

The Rev. Dr. James “Jim” Samuel White completed his “race for the high calling in Christ Jesus” and received his heavenly reward when he passed away on October 10, 2017, at Gordon Hospice House Palliative Care Facility in Statesville, N.C. Funeral services were conducted at Christ Boulevard United Methodist Church in Statesville on October 12, 2017, by the Revs. Larry Thompson and Bob Clanton. Graveside services, religious and military, were held afterward at Olin United Methodist Church cemetery in Olin, N.C. Five brothers and one sister preceded him in death. His passing culminated a long life of service and devotion to his family, friends, and those under his shepherding care as a pastor in the churches he faithfully served in “word, order, and sacrament.”

His life began in Statesville on August 5, 1931, as the middle child born to the late Alonzo Lee White and Jettie Queen White. The Whites were members of Boulevard Methodist Church in Statesville. Under the spiritual influence of his family and church, White felt God calling him to the Christian ministry in his early teen years. He graduated from Troutman School in Troutman, N.C., in 1950 and then entered the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he graduated in 1954 with an A.B. Degree. In that year, thinking that he may be drafted into military service, he joined the U.S. Army. Upon discharge from the Army in 1956, White was accepted into Duke Divinity School where he received a Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1959. In later years of his ministry, he enrolled in the doctoral program of Geneva Theological College and was awarded the Doctor of Religion degree in 1979.

Several significant events occurred during his last year at Duke Divinity School (1958). He was licensed to preach in the Statesville District, received his first pastoral appointment to the Farmer Charge in the Thomasville District, and met and fell in love with Hannah Gilleland of Statesville. They were married July 26, 1959, and she remained a faithful, devoted wife, helpmate, and companion throughout their 58 years of marriage. While serving the Farmer Charge, he was ordained as a deacon and received into full connection during the 1960 Western North Carolina Annual Conference. The next year (1961), he was ordained as an elder.

White’s pastoral appointments spanned 50 years in the Western North Carolina Conference. They included: Farmer Charge (Farmer, New Hope, Oak Grove, Salem), 1958- 1961; Davie Charge (Center, Hardison, Salem [Mocksville]), 1961-1963; Good Hope-Arcadia (Lexington), 1963-1969; Faith (Gastonia), 1969-1977; Konnoak Hills (Winston Salem), 1977-1981; Whitnel (Lenoir), 1981-1989; and Lee’s Chapel (Greensboro), 1989-1997. He took the retired relationship with the conference in 1997. However, in retirement he realized that he was missing the greatest joy of his life, that of serving as a pastor. That awareness prompted him to seek another appointment. He was appointed for another 11 years, first to the North Iredell Charge (Macedonia, Moss Chapel, Olin), 2000-2007, then to Macedonia-Olin, 2007-2011. Also, during 16 years of his retirement, he and Hannah led a weekly devotional visitation ministry with the residents of Maple Leaf Health Care Center, Statesville. With advancing age, diminishing energy and health, he resumed full retirement until his death.

White is survived by his wife, Hannah; one daughter, Jennifer Diane Miller of Morganton; and one son, Wesley James, of the home.

“... Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them” (Rev. 14:13, KJV).

Robert Lee Witty Jr.

March 31, 1927 – March 2, 2018

The Rev. Robert Lee Witty Jr. was born March 31, 1927, in Rockingham County to Robert Lee Witty Sr. and Katie Moore Witty. His earthly journey came to an end on March 2, 2018. The nearly 91 years in between served as an inspiring example of a life of faithfulness and service to Jesus Christ.

Raised in a farming community, Witty developed a tireless work ethic at a young age. In addition to this important quality, he also acquired an interest in reading, a pursuit that would serve him well throughout his life and ministry. Upon graduation from Bethany High School, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy, serving his country in the final year of World War II. After his discharge, Witty completed his undergraduate studies at North Carolina State University, earning a Bachelor of Science degree in 1949. On August 21, 1948, he married Dorothy Williams Witty. Robert would immediately display his industrious nature as he managed the family dairy farm while also teaching agriculture at the local high school. The Witty family would grow to include three daughters: Mary Kay Witty, Emily Lee Witty Misenheimer, and Amy Ann Witty Ingram.

As young adults, Robert and Dorothy Witty were dedicated members of Glencoe United Methodist Church. Their primary area of service was leading the youth. Along with the weekly responsibilities of guiding this group, Robert and Dorothy created special memories for these teenagers by taking them to several Billy Graham evangelistic crusades.

By the time Witty reached his mid-30s, he sensed God’s call to preach the Gospel. He was licensed to preach in 1963. After he completed the course of study at the Duke University Divinity School, Witty was received into full connection in The Western North Carolina Conference in 1966. In a testament to his pastoral gifts and faithfulness, he served only four churches in a ministry that spanned 26 years: His appointments were: Erlanger, 1963-1967; Hopewell, 1967-1978; Mount Lebanon, 1978-1983; and Mayodan, 1983-1989.

Witty's years of ministry were marked by his devoted pastoral care for all people, his faithful proclamation of the Word of God, and his exemplary witness as a humble servant. It was under his leadership that this writer answered God's call to full-time ministry. His constant support, encouragement, and patience contributed significantly to the fulfillment of this call.

In 1989, retirement brought a return to life on the family farm and well-deserved time with family and friends, especially his four grandchildren. Highlights of these years included vacations spent at Topsail Beach and the annual journey to Lake Junaluska. Witty found special joy whenever he could attend a concert given by the Lake Junaluska Singers.

Witty passed away suddenly on March 2, 2018, the same day as the funeral service for one of the major influences of his life, the Rev. Billy Graham. A celebration of Witty's life took place on March 6, 2018, at Glencoe United Methodist Church with the Rev. Selena Scott, Dr. Donald Haynes, and Dr. Stuart Noell officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery beside his beloved Dorothy, who preceded him in death on June 1, 2007.

Mary Ellen Strawbridge Yarborough
December 2, 1933 – January 13, 2018

On January 13, 2018, the Rev. Ellen Strawbridge Yarborough drew her last breath surrounded by her four children and members of her extended family as they encircled her and sang camp songs, folk tunes, and Lord of the Dance. She lived a full life to the very end and died peacefully and unexpectedly of brain hemorrhage. Abiding by her favorite Oswald Chambers quote, "Put everything in your life afloat upon God," she had her house in order, so it was with calm blessings her family felt her "float" upward.

Ellen "Rev Yar" was graced with two memorial services. One was held in Raleigh on January 19, 2018, where she had recently relocated from Arbor Acres and become active in Sunday school and choir at Edenton Street United Methodist Church. The second service was held January 28 in Winston-Salem at Green Street United Methodist Church, her main appointment during the 2000s. Ice cream sundae socials followed each service. She was a "lighter of lamps," and her family is thankful for her living testimony. Yarborough was the "real deal" and knew the secret of life. She wouldn't tell you what it is, but demonstrated it by "walking the talk."

Ellen played well the game of LIFE. Born on December 2, 1933, in Greenville, N.C., as the only child of a United Methodist minister, the Rev. Ishmael Jennings Strawbridge and his co-community-leader wife, Essie Lewis Strawbridge, she was raised in Methodist parsonages in a series of small farming communities in North Carolina. Like many in her white-privilege world, she first dreamed about "doing good" in the abstract without noticing the social justice issues close to home. Yarborough's course was set when she learned to lead groups in folk dances, songs, and stories -- along with mental challenges and spiritual explorations -- through the Methodist Youth Fellowship, especially at summer teen weeks at Louisburg College. Her loving, mutually appreciative relationship with Dewey Leonard Yarborough began at Methodist Youth Fellowship sessions and continued through college years. This led to their marriage on June 23, 1956, one year after her 1955 graduation from The Women's College of The University of North Carolina (now UNC-Greensboro) with a Bachelor of Science degree. Yarborough later furthered her school-based education, obtaining a Master of Arts in education from Wake Forest University in 1978, a Master of Education degree from the University of Newcastle, England, in 1980, and a Doctor of Philosophy degree from UNCG in 1983.

For decades in Winston-Salem, Dewey and Ellen Yarborough were an active and committed team, and they shared the love and guidance of their children -- Joel Mark, Lynn, Bryan Stuart, and Beth -- whose own values and competences brought bright joy to them. Dewey passed on October 5, 2008. Now that Ellen has joined Dewey, their impact on this earth lives on through the lives of their children, their spouses, and grandchildren: Mark, wife Valerie, and children Sarah and Timothy; Lynn Y. Saul, husband Cary, and children Caroline and Charlotte; Bryan, wife Mandy, and children Cameron, Erin "Murphy," Eliot, and Lucy Burnhams; and Beth Y. Smoot, husband David, and children Jacob and Hannah.

Other forces guided Yarborough's growth personally, professionally, and spiritually. Her first job at the YWCA, with its emphasis on interracial respect and bridge-building, brought Ellen and Dewey to civic activism and systemic anti-racism, further bolstered within Christian associations. Yarborough was consecrated as a diaconal minister in 1989, and she sprinkled that calling with spiritual vitality throughout jobs in the Winston-Salem area with ministries of service, love, and justice. She worked in counseling and mediation employment at Forsyth Mental Health and Blumenthal Jewish Home, as well as appointments to The Children's Home, 1989-1991, and March of Dimes, 1991-1997. She was ordained as a deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1997. After her ordination, she continued serving at the Triad Chapter of March of Dimes until being appointed in 1999 as the Minister of Church and Community Relations at Green Street United Methodist Church, a multicultural, reconciling United Methodist congregation. She was appointed to Trinity Center in 2001, until she retired in 2004. She continued serving Green Street Church after retirement, including formal appointments from 2005-2008 and 2013-2015.

Also in Winston-Salem, Yarborough's sense of community found expression in the West End and West Salem Neighborhood associations. Membership with Dewey in the Association for Couples in Marriage Enrichment (now Better Marriages) underscored the importance of working on intimate relationships throughout life. Service with the March of Dimes included a focus on maternal and infant health. Spiritual awareness of environmental challenge was a factor in her stewardship of the earth. Residence in Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Community, 2003-2017, and near family in Raleigh after her May 2017 move, provided a healthy, supportive, and pleasurable environment, with the freedom to continue pursuing God's will and discovering the right games to play at each phase of her life. Her ashes will be scattered at special places where family and friends may continue to feel her spunk and spirit. Yarborough would lastly remind all to "Love God and do as you please," a statement attributed to Augustine of Hippo.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Council on Finance and Administration Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary Charlotte, North Carolina

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary (the Conference), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2017 and 2016, the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements (collectively, the financial statements).

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Conference as of December 31, 2017 and 2016, and the changes in their net assets and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of organization: The Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary (the Conference) is a not-for-profit organization representing approximately 1,100 member churches and is comprised of eight districts. The Conference provides various services for its member churches including administration of health benefits and retirement plans available to member clergy and Conference lay employees and collection of funds for remittance to various regional, national and global benevolences.

A portion of the funds collected from its member churches is remitted to the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church, which provides funds to national and global benevolences. The amounts remitted have been included in the statement of activities as general church expenses.

Principles of consolidation: The Conference's consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc., Western North Carolina Conference, The United Methodist Church (Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits), as the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits' board of directors is appointed by the Conference. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The consolidated financial statements of the Conference also include the funds of the Charlotte Area Episcopal Office.

During the year ended December 31, 2017, Building Teams was merged into the Conference. During the year ended December 31, 2016, Camp Carolwood, Inc. and Elk Schools United Methodist Camp, Inc. were merged into the conference. These entities were previously unconsolidated constituent ministries prior to being merged into the Conference. As these organizations were affiliated with the Conference, the net assets of the organizations were transferred to the Conference at net book value. These transfers were immaterial to the Conference's consolidated financial statements.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) require the Conference to consolidate entities in which it has control and an economic interest, when that control is evidenced through majority ownership or voting interests. As the Conference has an economic interest in and control of a constituent through means other than majority ownership or voting interests, consolidation is permitted but not required. Therefore, the Conference has elected not to consolidate the constituent, which is described in Note 15.

The Conference has not recognized any asset in its accounts that represents an interest in the net assets of the unconsolidated entities in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 958-605-30, Transfers of Assets to a Not-for-Profit Entity or Charitable Trust that Raises or Holds Contributions for Others.

A summary of the significant accounting policies follows:

Accrual basis: The consolidated financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with GAAP.

Basis of presentation: Net assets and revenues, expenses, gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Unrestricted net assets: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Temporarily restricted net assets: Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that will be met either by actions of the Conference and/or the passage of time. When a restriction expires, that is when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Permanently restricted net assets: Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they must be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the use of all or part of the income earned on related investments for general or specific purposes.

Revenues are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Gains and losses on investments and other assets or liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulation or by law. Expirations of temporary restrictions on net assets are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets.

Revenue and support: The principal source of revenue and support is apportionments received from the local churches. Apportionments are the approved levels of allocated support from the local churches. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year. Although the church discipline requires local churches to satisfy their apportionment allocation as their first benevolent response, local churches do not have any financial commitment for the underpayment of their apportionments.

Insurance premiums: The Conference administers a self-funded insurance program under which health benefits are provided for clergy and select lay employees of the Conference. Insurance premiums and related expenses are recorded in the period to which the premium and claims relate.

Contributions: Contributions received are recognized as revenues at their fair values when they become unconditional. Contributions with donor-imposed restrictions are recorded as temporarily restricted net assets until the restrictions are met or as permanently restricted net assets. At the time temporary restrictions are met, they are reported as net assets released from restrictions. Contributions received with donor-imposed restrictions, whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period in which they are received, are reported as temporarily restricted support and as net assets released from restriction. Conditional promises are not included as support until such time as conditions are substantially met.

Grants: Grant awards are evaluated by management and determined to be either unconditional contributions or exchange transactions. If considered to be a contribution, revenue from grants is recorded upon notification of the award. If considered to be an exchange transaction, revenue from grants is recorded as expenditures are made under the terms of the respective grant agreement.

Cash: At various times throughout the year, cash balances in financial institutions exceed the amounts which are federally insured. The Conference periodically assesses the financial condition of the institutions and believes that the risk of any loss is minimal.

Restricted cash: The Conference holds funds in various operating accounts related to payments to be made on behalf of other affiliated related ministries. These funds are directed by the third parties and are not available for Conference operations.

Accounts receivable: As a significant dollar amount of member church apportionments are received close to year end, member churches are provided a cut-off date subsequent to year end in order for churches to fulfill their annual apportionments. Thus, accounts receivable are recognized at the dollar amount of apportionments received by the cut-off date. As such, no allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary.

Notes receivable: The Conference has notes receivable outstanding relating to the sale of land and funds loaned to member churches. The Conference believes the amounts to be fully collectable and does not believe an allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary. Of the amount receivable as of December 31, 2017, $9,910 is due within one year and the remaining $328,381 is due through 2035. Interest of 2% to 4.5% annually is paid on the long-term balance. Interest income was approximately $16,000 and $23,000 for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively, and is recorded within investment income on the consolidated statements of activities.

Investments: Purchased investments are initially recorded at cost. Investments received by gift are initially recorded at fair value at the date of donation. The Conference's investments are assets invested by the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc. (the Foundation) and Wespath, the investment agency of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church, under investment agreements wherein the investments are either directly invested or pooled into larger investment funds of the Foundation and Wespath. The Conference's pooled investments are valued at fair value based upon the net asset value (NAV) of each fund as provided by the Foundation and Wespath. The Conference's direct investments, which consist primarily of cash, money market funds and certificates of deposit, are valued at cost, which approximates fair value.

Board-designated investments: The Conference has designated certain investments to function as endowments to fund the Conference's pension and postretirement health benefits. These investments follow the investment policy noted above (see Note 12).

Building, improvements and equipment: Building, improvements and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Building, improvements and equipment received by gift are initially recorded at fair value at the date of donation. Minor renewals and replacements are expensed when incurred.

Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated economic lives of the respective assets held, which are as follows:

Building and improvements	10-40 years
Furniture and equipment	3-10 years

Agency liabilities: The Conference is an agent for various affiliates and constituents. Amounts received and not yet expended on behalf of beneficiaries have been reported as a liability for amounts held for others in accordance with ASC 958-605-30.

Accrued health benefits: The Conference records a liability for their healthcare claims incurred but not reported, which is estimated using actual claims expense and the expected lag in days the claims are outstanding.

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Operating and nonoperating activities: The consolidated statements of activities report the change in net assets from operating and nonoperating activities. Operating revenues consist of substantially all of the activity of the Conference except for certain items specifically considered to be of a nonoperating nature. Nonoperating activities include contributions restricted for capital expenditures and permanently restricted endowment contributions, net gain on investments, postretirement changes other than net periodic postretirement health benefit costs and significant items of an unusual or nonrecurring nature.

Functional allocation of expenses: The cost of providing program activities is included in the consolidated statement of activities and certain costs have been allocated, based on management's judgment, between the program and supporting services benefited.

Use of estimates: The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Reclassifications: Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year's presentation with no effect on total net assets or change in net assets as previously reported.

Income taxes: The Conference is exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

Management evaluated the Conference's tax positions and concluded that the Conference had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the consolidated financial statements to comply with the provisions of the Income Taxes Topic of the FASB ASC.

Subsequent events: The Conference has evaluated its subsequent events (events occurring after December 31, 2017) through June 11, 2018, which represents the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

Recent accounting pronouncements: In May 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), which amended the existing accounting standards for revenue recognition. ASU 2014-09 establishes principles for recognizing revenue upon the transfer of promised goods or services to customers, in an amount that reflects the consideration to which an entity is expected to be entitled for those goods or services. The updated standard will be effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018. The Conference is currently in the process of evaluating the effect this guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). The guidance in this ASU supersedes the leasing guidance in Topic 840, Leases. Under the new guidance, lessees are required to recognize lease assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet for all leases with terms longer than 12 months. Leases will be classified as either finance or operating, with classification affecting the pattern of expense recognition in the statement of activities. The new standard is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2019. The Conference is currently evaluating the effect the adoption of this standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

In August 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities, which simplifies and improves how a not-for-profit organization classifies its net assets, as well as the information it presents in financial statements and notes about its liquidity, financial performance and cash flows. Among other changes, the ASU replaces the three current classes of net assets with two new classes, net assets with donor restrictions and net assets without donor restrictions, and expands disclosures about the nature and amount of any donor restrictions. ASU 2016-14 is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017, with early adoption permitted. The Conference is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of this guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In November 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-18, Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230): Restricted Cash (a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force), which provides guidance on the presentation of restricted cash or restricted cash equivalents in the statement of cash flows. ASU 2016-18 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018. ASU 2016-18 must be applied using a retrospective transition method with early adoption permitted. The adoption of ASU 2016-18 is not expected to have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

In March 2017, the FASB issues ASU 2017-07, Compensation – Retirement Benefits (Topic 715): Improving the Presentation of Net Periodic Pension Cost and Net Periodic Postretirement Benefit Cost. The new guidance improves the presentation of net periodic pension cost and net periodic postretirement benefit cost. The guidance will require an employer to report the service cost component of net benefit cost in the same line item as other compensation costs arising from services rendered, present the other components of net benefit cost in the statement of activities separately from the service cost component and outside a subtotal of income from operations, and allow only the service cost component to be eligible for capitalization when applicable. The guidance in this update will be effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017, with early adoption permitted. The Conference is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of this guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements.

Note 2. Investments

The Conference has an agreement with the Foundation in which the Foundation acts as agent and investment manager of the Conference's investments. These investments are either directly invested or pooled by the Foundation into larger investment funds. The Foundation adheres to the Statement of Investment Guidelines adopted by the General Council of Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church.

The Conference also maintains investments with Wespath, which are invested by Wespath in pooled investment funds. Wespath investments are comprised of approved investment instruments in accordance with the funds' objectives.

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Conference's investments at December 31, 2017 and 2016, are as follows:

	2017	2016
Assets invested by the Foundation:
Direct investments	$ 8,471,288	$ 6,144,151
Pooled investments	83,394,810	68,165,565
	91,866,098	74,309,716
Assets invested by Wespath:
Pooled investments	440,546	330,532
	$ 92,306,644	$ 74,640,248

The Conference's investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statement of financial position.

Total investment return is comprised of the following for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016:

Investment income, net of investment fees (2017 – $390,372; 2016 – $336,934)	$ 1,439,189	$ 1,206,906
Net gain on investments	9,156,584	4,527,686
	$ 10,595,773	$ 5,734,592

Note 3. Fair Value Measurements

Fair value measurements apply to all financial assets and liabilities that are being measured and reported on a fair value basis. GAAP establishes a framework for measuring the fair value of assets and liabilities and requires fair value measurements be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

Level 1: Financial instruments with unadjusted, quoted prices listed on active market exchanges. The Conference's Level 1 financial instruments are comprised of cash and money market funds and certificates of deposit. At December 31, 2017 and 2016, these Level 1 investments totaled $6,385,496 and $4,421,724, respectively.

Level 2: Financial instruments determined using pricing inputs other than quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable at the reporting date. Level 2 investments relate to a Clergy Debt Program administered by the Foundation. Interest rates utilized for loans made by the Foundation, under this program, were determined to approximate market rates. At December 31, 2017 and 2016, these Level 2 investments totaled $2,085,792 and $1,722,427, respectively.

Level 3: Financial instruments that are not actively traded on a market exchange and require using significant unobservable inputs for determining fair value. The inputs into the determination of fair value require significant judgment or estimation.

There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2017 and 2016.

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Level 1 instruments carried at fair value, and Level 2 and Level 3 instruments carried at estimated fair value, are comprised of the following at December 31, 2017 and 2016:

	December 31, 2017	Fair Value Measurements at Reporting Date Using
		Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
Financial assets:
Direct investments:
Cash and money market funds	$ 6,385,496	$ 6,385,496	$ -	$ -
Clergy Debt Program	2,085,792	-	2,085,792	-
	8,471,288	$ 6,385,496	$ 2,085,792	$ -
Investments measured at NAV (a)	83,835,356
	$ 92,306,644

	December 31, 2016	Fair Value Measurements at Reporting Date Using
		Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
Financial assets:
Direct investments:
Cash and money market funds	$ 4,371,724	$ 4,371,724	$ -	$ -
Certificates of deposit	50,000	50,000	-	-
Clergy Debt Program	1,722,427	-	1,722,427	-
	6,144,151	$ 4,421,724	$ 1,722,427	$ -
Investments measured at NAV (a)	68,496,097
	$ 74,640,248

(a) In accordance with Subtopic 820-10, certain investments that were measured at NAV per share (or its equivalent) as a practical expedient (see Note 4) have not been classified in the fair value hierarchy. The fair value amounts presented in this table are intended to permit reconciliation of the fair value hierarchy to the line items presented in the statements of financial position.

Changes in fair value levels: To assess the appropriate classification of investments within the fair value hierarchy, the availability of market data is monitored. Changes in economic conditions or valuation techniques may require the transfer of investments from one fair value level to another. In such instances, the transfer is reported at the beginning of the reporting period.

Management evaluates the significance of transfers between levels based upon the nature of the investment and size of the transfer relative to total net assets available for benefits. For the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, there were no significant transfers in or out of Levels 1, 2 or 3.

Western North Carolina Conference
of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 4. Net Asset Value (NAV)

The Conference's assets measured at NAV are held with the Foundation and Wespath under investment agreements wherein the investments are pooled into larger investment funds of the Foundation and Wespath. The following table sets forth additional disclosures of the Plan's investments whose fair value is estimated using the NAV per share (or its equivalent) practical expedient as of December 31, 2017 and 2016:

Investment	Fair Value December 31		Unfunded Commitment	Redemption Frequency	Other Redemption Restrictions	Redemption Notice Period

Total	$ 83,835,356	$ 68,496,097

- (a) Seeks to provide investment income while growing principal over the long-term by investing in a balanced portfolio of both stocks and bonds.
- (b) Seeks to preserve both invested principal and earned interest while minimizing the risk of loss of principal.
- (c) Seeks to attain current income and capital appreciation by investing in a broad mix of different types of investments with a long-term horizon. Investors should be willing to experience some fluctuations in the value of the fund, though not as much as from holding a fund comprised exclusively of common stocks.
- (d) Seeks to provide an investment alternative for those who are seeking the security of a fixed-type vehicle at competitive rates. The offering is made to individuals serving the United Methodist Church and church institutions that reside in North Carolina or South Carolina to finance Methodist institutions for building programs and other capital investments.
- (e) Seeks to attain long-term capital appreciation from a broadly diversified portfolio that includes both domestic and foreign common stocks. It is designed for investors who seek long-term investment growth through exposure to the broad domestic stock market as well as regulated foreign stock exchanges and who are willing to accept the risk of possible wide fluctuations in the unit price of the fund.
- (f) Seeks to maximize current income consistent with preservation of capital. This type of fund usually ranks low on the risk-return spectrum and is designed for low risk-tolerant institutional investors who are reluctant to risk the loss of any capital contributions or accumulated interest.
- (g) Seeks long-term investment growth and income from exposure to a broadly diversified portfolio. Balanced funds generally rank moderate to high on the risk-return spectrum. The fund is designed for investors with a relatively long-term horizon who are willing to experience some fluctuations in the value of the fund, though not as much as from holding a fund comprised exclusively of common stocks.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 5. Land, Building, Improvements and Equipment

The composition of land, building, improvements and equipment at December 31, 2017 and 2016, is as follows:

	2017	2016
Building and improvements	$ 4,420,130	$ 5,424,937
Furniture and equipment	1,322,169	1,316,552
Construction in progress	342,232	-
Land	1,416,785	758,823
	7,501,316	7,500,312
Less accumulated depreciation	3,571,360	3,964,790
	$ 3,929,956	$ 3,535,522

Depreciation expense was $114,374 and $122,305 for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

Note 6. Retirement Plans

Ministers Reserve Pension Fund: The Conference participates in the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (MRPF), which is a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by Wespath. The fund covers service prior to 1982 for substantially all clergy and lay pastors. For service subsequent to 1981, clergy members of the Conference are eligible to participate in the multi-employer retirement plans offered by The United Methodist Church as described below.

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits acts as trustee responsible for deposits with Wespath. All assets of the plan are available to pay all benefits of the plan, regardless of the conference from which the contributions came or under which benefits were accrued. However, each conference controls certain benefit provisions of the plan and may choose to fund this plan using different funding methodologies. In the past, the Conference has chosen to fund the plan using the full actuarial allocation and is overfunded. Therefore, no contributions were made to this plan in 2017 and 2016, and the Conference's excess funding in this plan has been used to fund the benefits for the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) shown below. An actuarial report is available from Wespath that shows the funding requirements and funded status of all the conferences for the MRPF.

Because employers that contribute to multi-employer plans are responsible only to make the contributions called for and they do not have a directly identified or separate interest in investment gains or losses or administrative costs, nor do the employers have a directly identified or separate obligation for benefit payments, separate assets and liabilities for their portion of the plan are not recognized and the contributions are recognized as expense in the period in which they are paid.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP): U.S. bishops, Conference members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment are eligible for pension coverage under the MPP. The MPP is a multi-employer defined contribution plan which required the Conference to contribute 12% of each participant's compensation, subject to a limit on total compensation. This plan was frozen effective December 31, 2006; however, the Conference is required to make payments to the plan as needed. In 2010, the Conference established an investment account to fund the required payments to the MPP. As of December 31, 2017 and 2016, the investment account has a balance of $4,805,942 and $4,423,402, respectively. Payment to the MPP was not required during 2017 or 2016, although future payments toward the plan are possible. This plan was replaced by the CRSP described below.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP): In addition to the MRPF described above, certain ministerial employees are provided disability and death benefits as well as certain minimum benefits related to pension coverage through participation in the CPP. The CPP is a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by Wespath. A contribution of $1,479,308 and $1,453,915 was made for the plan years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively. These amounts are included in program disbursements in the consolidated statements of activities.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP): Effective January 1, 2006, the Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund and the Personal Investment Plan were merged to form the UMPIP. Conference clergy members, lay employees and local church personnel are eligible to participate in this multi-employer defined contribution plan administered by Wespath, which currently allows an employer contribution of up to 12%. The Conference contributes 9% of all eligible lay participants' compensation and 3% of clergy participants' plan compensation. Total contributions to the plan for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, was $285,807 and $280,360, respectively. These amounts are included in management and general expense in the consolidated statements of activities.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP): Effective January 1, 2007, the Conference established the CRSP, which is a multi-employer defined benefit plan and a multi-employer defined contribution plan administered by Wespath. Clergy members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment to a conference, church, charge, district or conference-controlled entity or unit are eligible to participate. Effective January 1, 2014, clergy members and local pastors serving less than half-time are no longer eligible to participate, but will receive benefits accrued through December 31, 2013.

For the defined benefit plan, the contribution is based on a formula using the Denominational Average Compensation and the year of credited service beginning January 1, 2007. For the defined contribution plan, contributions are 2% of each eligible participant's compensation, with an additional match of up to 1% based on each participant's personal contributions.

During 2017 and 2016, the Conference was permitted to direct a portion of the overfunding in the MRPF plan to offset the required costs of the CRSP plan. The transfer from the MRPF of $4,486,153 and $4,383,411 in 2017 and 2016, respectively, has been reflected as nonoperating income on the consolidated statements of activities. The contributions to the CRSP plan are reflected in program disbursements in the consolidated statements of activities. Redirection of funds is not expected to take place for the year ending December 31, 2018.

Defined benefit plan, amounts allocated from the MRPF	4,486,153	4,383,411
	$ 6,008,311	$ 5,922,897

The Conference expects the annual contributions for all of the plans above to be approximately $8 million a year. The total costs for the above benefit plans are generally billed to the churches of the Conference; however, any shortfalls are obligations of the Conference.

Note 7. Postretirement Health Benefit Plan

The Conference sponsors a multi-employer defined benefit postretirement health care plan for ministerial employees of its member churches and employees of the Conference. The plan is contributory, whereby the retiree contributions can be adjusted for increases in the cost of health care. The plan is unfunded.

The following table provides a reconciliation of the changes in the plan's accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation and fair value of plan assets for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, and a statement of funded status at December 31, 2017 and 2016:

Reconciliation of accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation:
Accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation, beginning	$ 14,629,723	$ 15,990,325
Service cost for benefits earned during the year	591,029	684,347
Interest cost on accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation	576,289	669,280
Actuarial gain	(5,560,748)	(2,585,007)
Contributions by plan participants	956,184	1,101,190

The components of the net periodic postretirement health benefit net value (added) cost charged to expense for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, consisted of the following:

	2017	2016
Service cost for benefits earned during the year	$ 591,029	$ 684,347
Interest cost on accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation	576,289	669,280
Amortization of net gain	(697,477)	(486,675)
Amortization of prior service benefit	-	(1,228,779)
Total net value (added) cost	$ 469,841	$ (361,827)
Amounts recognized in postretirement changes other than net periodic postretirement health benefit costs:
Actuarial gain for current year	$ 5,560,748	$ 2,585,007
Amortization of actuarial gain	(697,477)	(486,675)
Amortization of prior service benefit	-	(1,228,779)
Postretirement changes other than net periodic postretirement health benefit costs	$ 4,863,271	$ 869,553
Amounts recognized in unrestricted net assets but not yet recognized as components of net periodic postretirement health benefit costs:
Unamortized prior service benefit	$ -	$ (1,228,779)
Unamortized actuarial gain	(14,556,475)	(9,693,204)
	$ (14,556,475)	$ (10,921,983)
Amount in unrestricted net assets expected to be recognized in net periodic postretirement health benefit costs in 2018:
Net actuarial gain	$ (1,145,277)

The actuarial gain in 2017 is due primarily to favorable demographic and claims experience during 2017 along with per-capita cost updates to reflect actual historical experience. The discount rate has been updated from 4.00% to 3.75%, and the mortality table has been updated to the RP-2014, modified with Scale MP-2017, projected generationally.

The following benefit payments, which reflect expected future service, are expected to be paid by the Conference in future years:

Years ending December 31:
2018	$	201,319
2019		200,964
2020		201,379
2021		197,102
2023-2027		712,348

The accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation was computed using an assumed discount rate of 3.75% and 4.00% for 2017 and 2016, respectively. The actuarial assumptions relating to health care trend rates are evaluated for participants over 65 years of age and under 65 years of age separately. The under-65 healthcare trend rate was assumed to be 11% for 2017, and is assumed to decline by 1% during 2018, then decline by 0.50% beginning in 2019 until reaching 5% in 2028, and remaining level thereafter. The over-65 healthcare trend rate was assumed to be 5.00% for 2017 and is assumed to remain level going forward.

Assumed health care rates have a significant effect on the amounts reported for the plan. A 1% change in assumed health care cost trend rates would have the following effect:

	1% Decrease	1% Increase
Effect on total service and interest cost components	$ (207,436)	$ 281,647
Effect on the accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation	(2,100,775)	2,853,676

As of December 31, 2017 and 2016, the Conference has approximately $9,162,000 and $7,891,000, respectively, designated by the Board to be used for payment of future net periodic postretirement health benefit costs. Any changes in the plan or revisions to assumptions that affect the amount of expected future benefits may have a significant effect on the amount of the reported obligation and future annual expense.

Note 8. Unrestricted Net Assets

Unrestricted net assets include amounts that have been designated by the Board of Trustees, Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits and Council on Finance and Administration for specific purposes and other amounts that are unavailable for operational use by the Conference. As of December 31, 2017 and 2016, the Board of Trustees, Board of Pension and Health Benefits and Council on Finance and Administration have designated amounts for the following purposes:

	2017	2016
Church vitality	$ 1,692,682	$ 823,082
Pension and health benefits	32,335,999	29,508,079
Property maintenance and acquisition	2,777,727	930,154
Program ministries	2,289,650	1,360,462
	$ 39,096,058	$ 32,621,777

Note 9. Temporarily Restricted Net Assets

Temporarily restricted net assets at December 31, 2017 and 2016, are available for the following purposes:

	2017	2016
Transition into ministry	$ 26,241	$ 44,320
Church vitality	356,042	511,899
Retired ministers and their spouses	1,103,880	899,350
Disaster relief	62,236	62,236

Property maintenance and acquisition	24,502	20,622
Time restricted	109,935	112,710

Note 10. Permanently Restricted Net Assets

Permanently restricted net assets at December 31, 2017 and 2016, are available for the following purposes:

	2017	2016
Investment in perpetuity, the income from which is expendable to support:
Church vitality	$ 329,441	$ 817,914
Retired ministers and their spouses	507,327	507,327

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 11. Net Assets Released From Restrictions

During the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, net assets were released from donor restrictions by incurring expenses satisfying the restricted purposes or by occurrence of other events specified by donors.

	2017	2016
Transition into ministry	$ 18,079	$ 134,300
Church vitality	437,080	455,581
Retired ministers and their spouses	3,789	3,778
Disaster relief	-	21,128
Program ministries	1,692,040	818,432
Property maintenance	200	511,140

Note 12. Endowment

The Conference's endowment consists of seven individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Its endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Conference to function as endowments. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Conference to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Interpretation of relevant law: The Conference has interpreted the North Carolina enacted version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (NC UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the corpus of the original gift. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as permanently restricted net assets: (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulations are added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Conference in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by NC UPMIFA. In accordance with NC UPMIFA, the Conference considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund.
2. The purposes of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund.
3. General economic conditions.
4. The possible effects of inflation and deflation.
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments.
6. Other resources of the Conference.
7. The investment policies of the Conference.

Endowment net assets, end of year	$ 29,508,079	$ 1,368,502	$ 1,325,241	$ 32,201,822

During 2017, the Conference reviewed and determined, in connection with legal counsel, that a previously recorded gift from a donor was incorrectly classified as a permanently restricted net asset. The original amount of the gift and the accumulated earnings were transferred from endowed net assets to non-endowed temporarily restricted net assets per the Conference's interpretation of the donor's intent based on review of the gift instrument.

Return objectives and risk parameters: The Conference has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Conference must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period(s) as well as board designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the Conference, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that exceed the price and yield results of the S&P 500 index while assuming a moderate level of investment risk. The Conference expects its endowment funds, over time, to provide an average rate of return of approximately 5% annually. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

Strategies employed for achieving objectives: To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Conference targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Spending policy and how the investment objectives relate to spending policy: The Conference has a policy of appropriating for distribution each year 4% of its endowment fund's average fair value over the prior 12 quarters through the calendar year end preceding the fiscal year in which the distribution is planned. In establishing this policy, the Conference considered the long-term expected return on its endowment. Accordingly, over the long term, the Conference expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to grow at an average of 1% annually. This is consistent with the Conference's objective to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity or for a specified term as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment return.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 13. Lease Commitments

The Conference leases equipment and office space under noncancelable operating leases, which expire through November 2022. Minimum annual rentals range from approximately $900 to $36,400. Total rent expense was $111,725 and $114,164 for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

Future minimum rental commitments for all noncancelable leases at December 31, 2017, are as follows:

Years ending December 31:
2018	$ 108,115
2019	73,359
2021	55,097
2022	45,914

Note 14. Abandoned or Discontinued Property

When a member church is abandoned or discontinued, the deed is transferred from the church's Board of Trustees to the Conference's Board of Trustees. The properties are recorded by the Conference at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value. As there is generally no carrying value and the fair market value of the properties is not easily estimated when abandoned, the properties are recorded by the Conference at a value of $0. When sold, the Conference will normally utilize 25% of the net proceeds for church vitality and utilize the remaining amount for church vitality in the applicable district in the area where the church was sold.

Note 15. Unconsolidated Constituent Ministry

GAAP requires the Conference to consolidate entities in which it has control and an economic interest, when that control is evidenced through majority ownership or voting interests. Because the Conference has an economic interest in and control of a constituent through means other than majority ownership or voting interests, consolidation is permitted, but not required. Therefore, the Conference has elected not to consolidate the constituent as described below.

The non-consolidated constituent is the Foundation, a not-for-profit organization providing various investment management services for its clients, which consist of the Conference and United Methodist churches, institutions and agencies in Western North Carolina. The primary purpose of the Foundation is to act as an agent to provide professional investment management services to its clients. According to the statement of relationship between the Conference and the Foundation, the organizations have similar purposes and interests but are separate, self-governing associations.

The Foundation has assets of approximately $227,935,000 and $179,880,000 as of December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively. Of those assets, approximately $203,568,000 and $161,000,000 are investments. See Note 2 for the Conference's portions of those investments.

The summary financial information does not eliminate the transactions between the Conference and the constituent, such as investment activity with the Foundation and contributions from the Conference to the Foundation, if any.

The Conference is also affiliated with a significant number of related ministries through its connection with the United Methodist Church. The Conference has signed a statement of relationship with other entities that defines this connectional relationship and states that neither entity may require the other entity to assume any contractual, financial or other obligation. The Conference does not have control of or a financial interest in these affiliated entities. Grants and operating support provided to these entities totaled approximately $602,000 and $608,000 for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively. These entities provided contributions to the Conference totaling approximately $222,000 and $178,000 for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

B. 2019 COMPREHENSIVE BENEFIT FUNDING PLAN SUMMARY

INTRODUCTION

The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶ 1506.6 requires that each annual conference develop, adopt and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan for funding all of its benefit obligations. The funding plan shall be submitted annually to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) for review and be approved annually by the annual conference, following the receipt and inclusion of a favorable written opinion from Wespath. This document is only a summary of the information contained in the actual signed funding plan and does not contain all the information required for a comprehensive view of the conference's benefit obligations. You may request the full contents of the 2019 comprehensive benefit funding plan from your conference benefit office.

CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PROGRAM (CRSP)

Defined Benefit (DB) and Defined Contribution (DC)

Program overview:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The program is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement benefits. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007, which had previously replaced the Pre 82 Plan for service rendered prior to January 1, 1982.

CRSP consists of both a defined benefit (DB) plan, which provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to The United Methodist Church, and a defined contribution (DC) plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the annual conferences.

Current funding plan information:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP DB) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2017, is $1,588,243,217, while total plan assets are $1,700,835,563, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 107%. The Western North Carolina Conference portion of the liability is 3.9237% and the 2019 contribution is $4,209,240. The conference anticipates that the amount will be funded by the CRSP DB Fund. Additionally, General Conference 2012 approved a change to CRSP that provides each annual conference the discretion to determine whether to cover three quarter and/or half time clergy. The Western North Carolina Conference has elected to cover clergy serving 50%+ under CRSP effective January 1, 2019.

Effective January 1, 2014, the CRSP DC plan was reduced from a 3% to a 2% of plan compensation non matching contribution. Clergy can earn up to an additional 1% CRSP DC contribution by contributing at least 1% of their plan compensation to UMPIP; therefore, if a participant contributes at least 1% of plan compensation to UMPIP, the individual will receive a contribution of 3% to CRSP DC. The 2019 CRSP DC contribution is anticipated to be $1,549,471 and will be funded by direct billing.

MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN (MPP)

Plan overview:

Supplement Three to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. MPP requires that exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when the funds are to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, another qualified plan or an IRA, or it may be paid in a lump sum.

Current funding plan information:

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities' total liability as of January 1, 2017 is $3,532,916,942, while total plan assets are $3,701,460,997, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 105%. The required contribution for 2019 is zero. The Western North Carolina Conference's percentage of the total liability is 2.8623%. Future MPP annuitants have a total account balance of $3,689,292,322 and the Western North Carolina Conference's portion of that balance is $149,151,218 or 4.04% of the total.

PRE 82 PLAN

Plan overview:

Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre 82 Plan, provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre 82 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. If a clergyperson retires within the Conference (and does not terminate), the minimum benefit payable is based on two factors:

- 1) Years of service with pension credit approved by each conference on the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions (CBOP) in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline.
- 2) The conference pension rate (past service rate) the dollar amount chosen by the conference as the amount payable for each approved year of service with pension credit (may change from year to year).

The number of years of service with pension credit is multiplied by the pension rate, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those clergy eligible for Pre 82 Plan benefits. In certain situations, the benefit received from the Pre 82 plan may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre 82 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life based benefit and, at that point, the clergy's benefit is the greater of the PSR or DBSM benefit. If the conference increases the PSR, the clergy's benefit is recalculated; but the DBSM based benefit does not change.

Current funding plan information:

The 2019 PSR recommended to the Western North Carolina Conference will be $790, representing a 2% increase from the 2018 rate. The conference expects future annual increases to be approximately 2.00%.

The contingent annuitant percentage is recommended to remain at the 70% level.

ACTIVE HEALTH BENEFIT PROGRAM

Program Overview

The Western North Carolina Conference offers the following active health benefit to its active eligible participants: Self-Funded - Non HealthFlex.

Current funding plan information:

The total cost of the program for 2019 is anticipated to be $11,969,810 and will be funded by Direct Billing. It is anticipated that increases for future years will average 3.00%.

Claims Incurred But Not Reported (if applicable)

The Western North Carolina Conference provides the following health plan to its eligible participants: Self-Funded - Non HealthFlex. As of 12/31/2019, the estimated IBNR claims total is $837,887. It is anticipated that increases for future years will average 3.00%. It is anticipated that the IBNR claims, if applicable, will be funded by billed premiums and premium reserves, as needed.

Additional Plan Sponsor Funded Coverage (if applicable)

The Western North Carolina Conference has elected to provide health benefits coverage to the following groups during periods where without plan sponsor funded premiums the participants would not be provided coverage or benefits (all figures as of 12/31/2017):

1. Clergy or Lay On Disability (Including Pending Disability): 30 participants at an estimated cost of $297,000.

The projected annual cost as of 12/31/2019 for additional plan sponsor funded coverage is $315,087.

POST RETIREMENT MEDICAL BENEFIT PROGRAM (PRM)

Program Overview:

The Western North Carolina Conference currently offers Self-funded for Post-Retirement Medical coverage.

Current funding plan information:

The plan sponsor's intention for 2019 is to retain current plan benefit. PRM benefits provided are as follows:

Based on the most recent PRM valuation dated 01/01/2018, the following is the funded position of the PRM benefits:

- | | |
|--|----------------|
| 1. Expected Post Retirement Obligation (EPBO) net plan sponsor cost..... | $9,877,127 |
| 2. Accumulated Post Retirement Obligation (APBO) net plan sponsor cost | $10,078,446 |
| 3. Assets (in plan and outside) designated for PRM | $0 |
| 4. Service cost (SC) net plan sponsor cost | $591,029 |
| 5. Unfunded APBO, [3. 2.] | $(10,078,446) |
| 6. Number of annual payments | 20 |
| 7. Portion of unfunded APBO, [5. / 6.] | $503,922 |
| 8. Ongoing funding contribution, [4. + 7.] | $1,094,951 |

Future increases/decreases to the assets or APBO will be funded over the duration of the program as calculated in the PRM valuation report, or five years if not available.

These values are based on a 3.75% long term discount rate, a 4.00% long term expected rate of return on assets, and a valuation year medical trend (inflation rate) of 5.00% with an ultimate medical trend (inflation rate) of 5.00%, beginning in 2028.

In addition to the PRM funding contribution listed above, the projected annual plan benefit cost for 2019 (subsidies, HRAs, claims or premiums) is $1,066,341.

COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP)

Plan Overview:

The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long term disability and other welfare benefits for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church and their families. It is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) "church plan" funded by plan sponsor insurance premiums. Generally, clergy are eligible to participate in CPP if they satisfy the eligibility requirements, including full time appointment with plan compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). Plan sponsors may elect to cover participants with three quarter time appointments and/or to continue to cover clergy who, due to certain leaves or appointments, are not otherwise eligible to continue coverage.

The CPP adoption agreement executed by the Western North Carolina Conference contains its elections to cover or not to cover categories mentioned above.

Current funding plan information:

For 2019, the Western North Carolina Conference has an expected required contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan of $1,485,000, which is anticipated to be funded by direct billing to local churches. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 1.00% per year due to declining number of full time clergy and minimal salary increases overall.

UNITED METHODIST PERSONAL INVESTMENT PLAN (UMPIP) FOR LAY AND CLERGY

Plan Overview:

The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) defined contribution retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church and affiliated organizations. Participants may make before tax, Roth and/or after tax contributions through payroll deductions. Participant contributions, various optional plan sponsor contributions and investment earnings comprise the individual's retirement account balance.

Current funding plan information:

Conference office lay employees working an average of 20 hours per week or more are eligible after 12 months for a plan sponsor funded pension contribution of 9% of salary. Lay employees are encouraged to make contributions toward their retirement through payroll deductions to the UMPIP. The conference's estimated contribution for 2019 is $206,809 and will be funded by conference apportionments.

OTHER DEFINED CONTRIBUTION (DC) OBLIGATIONS

Plan Overview:

The Western North Carolina currently offers the following DC benefit(s): Supplemental Life Insurance for Clergy and Conference staff. The estimated contribution for 2019 is $45,800 with the funding sources to be: Direct Billing. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 0.00% per year due to the number of pastors declining. There could be a small decrease; however, we have received no word on any anticipated increases in premiums for these supplement life policies.

Plan Overview:

The Western North Carolina currently offers the following DC benefit(s): Ministers Moving Allowance provides moving expenses. The estimated contribution for 2019 is $140,000 with the funding sources to be conference apportionments. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 0.00% per year due to trending indicates less demand on funds due to dwindling number of clergy.

CONCLUSION

The 2019 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan and this summary document incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the Western North Carolina's obligations and funding requirements of the benefits provided to the clergy and laity of the Western North Carolina Conference.

Fifty years ago, institutional segregation prayerfully ended with the merger of two denominations, the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church; and the merger of the Central (black) and Southeastern (white) Jurisdictions of The Methodist Church. We became The United Methodist Church.

Since that time, the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church has appointed more than 125 clergypersons in cross-racial appointments, further cementing the unity to which our predecessors strove.

While the merger of 1968 came with its own set of angst and dissension, we honor and celebrate the work of those who came before us, and recommit to their legacy. We recognize we have come a long way, since seeing walls come down a half-century ago, and we know we have a longer way still, as we strive for unity: unity and diversity, unity and love.

In the face of an uncertain future for our United Methodist Church, we commit again to love. Our hearts are to honor God in all we do; to have a Christ-like compassion and conviction to love our neighbors; to share our faith not just with our world, but with our brothers and sisters in our own communities.

Let us strive to have God's heart of acceptance and forgiveness, to focus not on the differences that divide, but the internal Spirit we share. Let us come to accept each person on this earth as a beloved child of God, celebrating each person's God-given uniqueness. Let us commit to tearing down walls instead of erecting new ones. Let us all, as individuals, choose to make our Western North Carolina Conference a better place to worship and grow in faith.

For more information on the merger and history of The United Methodist Church, please see "Becoming the UMC" in the Program & Reports Book.

and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you
